THE JAPANESE TREATY

NEW DEALERS GRADUALLY PUSHING JAPAN INTO COMMUNISM

BUDAPEST BESEIGED

(Today, when the heroes of Budapest are still hunted game all over the world, we have succeeded in getting a portion of a diary written by one of the organizers of the civil defense of the Hungarian capital. In giving us permission to publish excerpts from the diary, the writer—now earning his living at hard physical labor in the free world—expressed the hope that his words would serve as a warning to complacent Americans.)

It was Christmas week, 1944. People of Budapest listened with strained nervousness to the broadcast news from the front. The news, although not favorable, did not indicate immediate danger and then . . .

Matyas Rakosi (Rosenweig) Yiddish Zionist who is boss in Hungary. On March 2, 1950 he was re-elected Secretary-General of Hungary's Communist Party. He is also Deputy Premier. Rakosi was trained in Moscow. Before Communism took over in Hungary, Rakosi was accused of 21 murders and 500 other crimes. The people of Hungary are at the mercy of this murderer just as the citizens of the U. S. will be at the mercy of international revolutionists if we do not put an end to Marxism in the U. S. while we still have time to do so.

The rulers of Hungary are the Zionists: Matyas Rakosi (Rosenweig)—Deputy Prime Minister (Zionist); Peter Gabor (Beno Auspitz)—Chief of Political Police (Zionist); Erno Gero (Singer)—Minister of Finance (Zionist); Zoltan Vas (Weinberger)—Chief of Planning (Zionist); Joseph Revai (Roth)—Minister of Education (Zionist); Milholy Farkas (real name unknown)—Minister of Defense (Zionist).

The Japanese Treaty, negotiated by that Republican New Dealer Mr. John Foster Dulles, is being held out to the American people by its proponents as a noble Christian effort to give the Japanese people justice. That is the name on the box. But, if we value vital American interests, we will undo the wrappings and see what the box actually contains.

TWO DANGERS

This proposed Japanese Peace Treaty and its companion peace, the Security Treaty with Japan, have two extremely dangerous provisions, both of which tie Japan closely into world government.

Their effect is to give the United States rights in the Pacific only as we are a segment of U. N.

The Treaty fails to provide any military security for the United States in the Pacific and it has clauses that could work out greatly to the advantage of Red China and the U. S. S. R.

We have long had left-wingers in the State and other Departments, the Alger Hisses, the Harry D. Whites and the Dean Achesons who, to say the least, have all along taken a dim view of American independence. It is clear from the terms of these Treaties that the influence of these left-wingers is today as strong as ever.

The Preamble of the Peace Treaty commits Japan to becoming a member of the United Nations and to agreeing,

"... in all circumstances to conform to the principles of the Charter of the United Nations; to realize the objectives of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights; to seek to create within Japan conditions of stability and well-being as defined by Articles 55 and 56 of the Charter of the United Nations, and already initiated by post-surrender legislation; and in public and private trade and commerce to conform to internationally accepted fair practices." (Italics supplied.)

NOT AMERICAN, BUT U. N. TREATY

This provision in the Preamble has two important effects. First, it establishes Japan as a segment of world government, committed to a world welfare state. It also constitutes formal approval by the U. S. Senate of the Declaration of Human Rights, the social welfare clauses, Articles 55 and 56 of the Charter, and of international trade agreements still to be negotiated.

Articles 55 and 56 of the U. N. Charter commit the signatory powers to promote,

"a. higher standards of living, full employment, and conditions of social progress and development.

"b. solutions of international economic, social, health and related problems; and international cultural and educational cooperation; and

"c. universal respect for, and observance of human rights and fundamental freedoms for all, without distinction as to race, sex, language, or religion."

This provision limits Japan's future development, political, economic or cultural, to the framework instituted under U. N.

It is in effect a treaty, not between Japan and the United States, which in essence it should be, but between Japan and international Socialism.

THE MILITARY PROVISIONS

The second major point is the military provisions which tie present and future U. S. forces (and bases?) in Japan into the military system of U. N. This can be

"On December 24, 1944, at 9 o'clock the Soviets had encircled Budapest now already from the West also, at a distance of about 11-12 miles from the capital. While many refugees still were flooding out of the city, others were already coming back in large numbers, for the Soviet ring around the town was closed. Most terrible news arrived about the atrocities committed by the Soviet troops. At 8 o'clock in the morning I had called up a friend of mine and told him I would call again after one hour. So I did, but at 9 o'clock somebody else answered me in Russian from the other end of the line.

"I left my apartment to look around the city. First I went to the Southern Railway Station. There 300 women and children were waiting for the start of their train consisting of cattle-wagons. But there was no engine! Nobody at all cared for them. There was nobody to take any measures. So I took over the direction and had breakfast distributed among them. While they were still eating I ran to the RTO to get an engine. . . . I was received by Colonel K. After I explained that after more than 300 women and children must be saved he only shrugged his shoulders saying he couldn't do anything. . . . I entreated in vain; he remained inflexible.

"In the hospital meanwhile the Russians had begun their cultural activities. It happened before our very eyes that they threw out the inmates through windows into the street. If one of the sick tried to flee the Russians amused themselves by hunting him with machine guns while he crawled away on hands and feet. Nerve-wrecking screams announced that the Russians had begun to violate the female patients and nuns. Death-rattles, the strange barking of the Russian machine guns, yells, explosions of mines and gun-shells were to be heard at the same time. The hell was broken out. We fired at the hospital. For moments, but only for moments, the screams ceased, but then again went on this maddening symphony of hell.

"From the neighborhood also came men and women and declared to take part in the defense. One of them, an active Communist, staggered into the position where I was and muttered, pale-faced, like a madman: 'Give me a weapon! I didn't think it like that! Give me a weapon! I didn't think it like that!'

"He got it and fought, resolutely, cruelly, and ruthlessly. And there it was also that he was killed—worthy of a Hungarian. But would this cry be heard, would this shocking disillusion be felt also by the other agents . . . by all those who dreamingly were waiting for the power they expected to be given to them by the Soviets.

" . . . The task now was to get weapons and ammunition. . . . We went to the cavalry barracks. Here we didn't find even a doorkeeper. Here also were neither ammunition, nor food, nor fodder. No sparrow could have made a nest from the straw we found here. Back! In the deserted streets we met stragglers separated from their units. . . . We gathered them and went our way. . . . However, we still had no food! We must get some! After a lengthy search finally somebody reported that the store of a big firm was filled with food. We found the keys and opened the store. Relieved I sighed: 'At last the women, children and defenders will have something to eat—for a few days it'll do.' (At this time I have to remark that still none of us supposed that the encirclement of Budapest would prove to be a final one, and we awaited in every moment the ring to be torn open.)

"In the meantime the Soviet attack went on without interruption. . . . I visited the front sections from time to time to see what the situation was. The fight was embittered. The Russians pushed their men in tight rows against our positions. The Hungarian gendarmes fired with awful coolness. And very considerably. Ammunition was extremely rare. So every shot must hit. . . . And indeed no bullet was wasted. The corpses of killed Russians formed heaps several feet high. Despite the alarming situation morale was astonishingly good. During the breaks when the fight lessened gay remarks of the defenders flitted about. They asked for arm-badges and flags with 'Arpad-stripes' because before them the Russians trembled." (Editor's note: "Arpad stripes"—the red and white stripes on the war flag of Arpad, the leader of Hungarian tribes when they settled down in the Danube basin. Colors of this flag were used by the Arrow Cross Party. The arrow crosses as such were the emblem of King St. Laszlo, leader of one of the crusades.)

"To give the civilian defenders some soldier-like appearance we made available every police, gendarme, and fireman uniform. Those for whom there weren't even such auxiliary uniforms obtained arrow cross, or Arpad-stripe badges.

" . . . The readiness of the civilian population to defend the city was unbroken. We could provide medicines by seizing the chemists' shops and stocks of medical drugs. I would also take care of dressings. Right away I ordered all blocked textile stores not yet captured by Soviet troops to be seized immediately . . . to gather all stuffs that could be used as dressing and employ women to cut up linens.

" . . . And food? From the slaughter-house. There are several hundreds of thousands of pounds of meat, according to our reports. . . . And so it happened. Under the protection of German and Hungarian detachments (in the first place, however, arrow cross formations), rushed at the Soviet forces at the abattoir and pushed out the Russians in a close-up fight. The Russians fought with stubbornness. However, the assault of the defenders of Budapest was irresistible. Wading through blood and among the killed, they drove the Russians inch by inch until the entire defense of the Russians collapsed at the slaughter-house. Civilian formations, mainly youngsters, women and girls, hurried along on trucks amidst the exploding shells to transport the food which had proved to be really of a considerable quantity.

" . . . In the Nepliget ('People's Gove') Hungarian armored artillerymen were busy. The urchins of the environment helped to carry ammunition. Among the bushes I met Captain V. and Cadet F. They directed the fight. Had they had sufficient ammunition no Russian would have come through there. Their faces were blackened from the smoke of gunpowder. For days they had slept almost not at all. Only their eyes glittered.

"At the Janos Hospital the defense was firm. Three Hungarian infantrymen who had deserted to the Bolsheviks were chased forward by the Russians. From behind the ruins which served them as cover some of them were shouting at us:

"'Brother, we are also Hungarians!'

"'Then your place is here! Come here!'

"'No, you should come here! Nothing will happen to you! The Russians are good men! They don't hurt anybody!'

"A volley was the answer! These were the most terrible scenes of the siege.

"'May God give no peace, not even in the grave, to the scoundrel who has done this to us!' somebody cursed beside me.

"The helmet on the head of one of the defenders had slid aside. I set it right as he hissed with pain. 'Don't squeeze it! It aches!'

"Then I saw that he had got a grazing shot on his head. The bullet had run along his scalp. He had dressed the wound with his own handkerchief.

"'Go to the bandaging place!' I told him.

"'Is that all which ails you? If so, don't bother me. Get ammunition! With such a bagatelle I don't go backwards!' And there he stayed."

"In Obuda the Russians had advanced to the Jo Pasztor ('Good Herd') boarding school for girls. Already from afar could be heard the screaming of the violated Nuns and girls. One of the school-girls somehow had succeeded in dragging herself to our lines. She had no human shape. Her clothes hung down from her in rags. On her face, breast and body were bloody traces of bites. She was shrieking, half maddened. We had to keep her down and carried her to the bandaging station. There she got an injection. Slowly she calmed down and related that three Russians had seized her and held her while the men of one platoon violated her. Then others held her and it was the turn for the first three Russians. In her frenzy she asked us to shoot to pieces the building, thus giving the other inmates of the school the redeeming death at least. In vain, the Russians were too strong. Owing to our drum-fire the screams ceased for some time in the building. A little later, however, the unbearable screams of the tortured continued out from the cellars and the air raid shelters.

"We had to give up Megyer. The Russians penetrated into Ujpest. Atrocities reached undescrivable dimensions. These were not men but beasts. They rushed in masses . . . without cover, forward through snow and blood, across the dead. They were blind-drunk, shouted Soviet songs, brandished with their weapons, stumbled and fell over the corpses, then staggered on hands and feet to the nearest house wall, struggled to their feet and continued rushing forward. For our part, it wasn't a fight any more but a mass butchering.

"The ring of encirclement was getting tighter and narrower. We had to give up one house-block after the other because the Russians were attacking through the air raid cellars. The Russians, if opposed by resistance, exterminated all persons they found in the cellar, not sparing women or children. We were still in one cellar when, out of the next one the screaming of the women and children was already to be heard. Soviet culture advanced. Its way was indicated by violated women and female children! The first group of the Russians used to shower a frantic fire at, and throw grenades against, the emergency exit while, at the very same time, the second wave of them was already spreading venereal disease!"

" . . . Our anti-aircraft was already silent for days. There was no ammunition for the guns. The few shells still available were used in the street fights for direct firing.

"The number of our dead grew larger and larger; the number of our wounded was very high. . . . In the first days of the siege many women and children were injured who, driven by hunger, used to rush out of the houses whenever an army horse had been hit on the street. On the spot, they began straightaway to cut out with big knives pieces of flesh from the frequently still alive, rattling animal. Had the Russians watched them their machine gun immediately began to bark, mine-shells screeched, and the blood of rattling, dying, shattered women and children mingled in the snow with the blood of the horse.

"Horse-meat had become the only food available in the capital. And the horses also looked out of sorts. As the encirclement grew tighter we were compelled to slaughter systematically those of the horses we didn't need anymore. Those of the horses which had not fallen victim to the fight and had not been slaughtered got straw of litters and wood-shavings as food. Even the horses still used were starving; in their pain, the unhappy animals gnawed at the poles of the carts.

" . . . Meanwhile in Pest the last Hungarian resistance was ceasing. Even the last hand-grenade was spent. Only bleeding, injured and starving heroes awaited the drunken horde, some of them armed with knives, others with iron-bars, or stones. The struggle was short, but cruel!

"In Buda, the space where we squeezed together was becoming smaller and smaller . . . no aid from the outside. The last battery, too, became silent. There was quiet. The streets were deserted. . . . Out from the houses and fixed on the ruins there were more and more white flags fluttering in the wind. Flags? Rags! Here and there Red Cross flags and Swiss flags were to be seen. However, all Swiss and Red Cross flags were in vain!

"All day long the Royal Palace Hill was noisy with the wailing of violated women and girls, of the death-rattles of the seized Arrow Cross men and especially of the gendarmes who were usually executed without delay.

"As to the violences, the Soviets were unsurpassable. The liberating army violated not only women and girls, but also matrons of 60-70, even little girls of 10-12. Countless women committed suicide in order to avoid being ravished. Often this, too, was in vain. I was eye-witness when Russians violated dead women amid beastly laughter.

"In the hospitals began the torture of the helpless sick . . . stabbed to death on the hospital beds before the eyes of the other injured. How many nurses' blood was shed in these hours! When they had finished with all the injured they ordered the horror-stricken civilians to bury the dead.

"This was, very concisely, what I saw from the fights which took place during the 52 days' long encirclement of Budapest. It's a historic fact that, finally, Budapest was not taken in consequence of the defeat of the defenders, but was occupied after the defenders had moved out. The defenders of Budapest had not been defeated by the Soviet army but by the lack of ammunition and food.

"We Hungarians who have survived await, with clenched fist, with tearless eyes, the hours when the day of Justice will dawn brightening estimation at the unmarked graves of the defenders of Budapest. God is with us and will justify us! The country of Virgin Mary cannot remain a booty for Satan! For the faith lives in us and we believe in God who so far has never abandoned His people!"

seen only by looking at the Peace Treaty and the Security Treaty together.

Chapter III of the Peace Treaty provides that Japan accepts the obligations in Article 2 of the U. N. Charter, especially,

"iii. to give the United Nations every assistance in any action it takes . . . and to refrain from giving assistance to any State against which the United Nations may take preventive or enforcement action."

Under Article 2 of the U. N. Chapter, Japan could continue to aid the American forces in Korea in a war sponsored by the U. N.; but—if the U. N. should accept Communist peace terms in Korea and we did not, Japan would be barred from assisting us in any way, under Section 4 which says,

"All Members shall refrain . . . from the threat or use of force against the territorial integrity or political independence of any State, or in any other manner inconsistent with the purposes of the United Nations."

If we Americans are in agreement with the U.N. we can have Japanese support. But if a left-wing neutralist government came into power in France and a few other countries, we could not move a single man or weapon or bit of supplies through any Japanese territory.

To see the full potential of this clause, we must read it in connection with the Security Treaty. In that treaty (Article I) Japan grants to the U. S. the right to "dispose U. S. land, air and sea forces in and about Japan." But in Article IV it says that "This Treaty shall expire whenever in the opinion of the Governments of the United States of America and Japan there shall have come into force such United Nations arrangements as will satisfactorily provide for the maintenance by the United Nations or otherwise, of international peace and security in the Japan area." (Italics supplied.)

This means in unmistakable language that whenever the present American government wishes to transform our land, sea and air forces in the Pacific into "U.N. forces," our right to keep any special United States force there would come to an immediate end. The Administration could decide that this transformation was "satisfactory" without any consultation with the Senate or House.

Our right to keep troops in or about Japan can be ended by the President or the Secretary of State, at a moment's notice.

Can anyone honestly say that the present State Department, in view of its record, would surely not take such action? Can anybody in his senses say that the Communist influence in the State Department is dead?

Perhaps it is part of a detailed plan to end our rights in this area soon after the Treaty is ratified. It would be easy enough to tie it in with mock peace in Korea, which would mean Red China had ceased to be an "aggressor." Perhaps not. But so long as the language is open to such variable interpretation, the security of the United States in the Pacific would be in grave danger.

U. S. GAINS NOTHING BY TREATY

This treaty really would give the United States nothing solid. Every concession by Japan is made to U.N., not to us. We would be unable in a short time to take any steps for our defense in the Pacific except through the U. N. chain of command, which includes the Soviet Union and its satellites on its governing board, the Security Council. Will anybody say that our vital interests would then be safe?

REPARATIONS

Another clause which needs special attention is the provision for reparations. The Peace Treaty provides, in Article 14 (a), that Japan is to pay reparations for war damage in the form of labor in "production, salvaging and other work for the Allied Powers in question." Raw materials are to be supplied by the Allied Powers.

This provision is hailed as a great forward step over monetary reparations. But it is certainly not clear just how. If the Japanese perform labor for their former enemies, someone must pay their wages. If these come out of the Japanese economy they are identical with any other monetary reparations in lowering the standard of living of the Japanese.

Is there some hidden agreement by which these wages are to be paid by us in some not yet revealed form? Or by U. N., with ours the principal contribution? It hardly seems possible that this is the whole story.

This brings us to China. The country with the greatest claim for reparations is China. China is also the country with the largest supply of raw materials without means to process them, and with the greatest need for both the consumer goods and capital goods (which could be transferred into war equipment).

SOVEREIGN POWER IN CHINA?

The Treaty is conveniently silent about who is the sovereign power in China. The Administration has already expressed willingness to let Red China into the U. N., provided it is not engaged in "aggression." In other words, the moment a "peace treaty" is signed in Korea, Red China can apply for admission to the U. N. and be eligible for billions of dollars worth of Japanese labor set to producing uniforms, machinery, docks and airfields, in the name of "reparations."

Japan's economy is geared to Chinese raw materials and Chinese markets. Such a provision could, during a "peace" lull in Asia, permit the arming of Red China at a rate far faster than either the Red Chinese or the Russians could accomplish.

JAPAN NEED NOT RECOGNIZE

There is, so far, no commitment by Japan to recognize the sovereignty of Chiang Kai-shek's Nationalist Government over continental China. There is a public statement by the Japanese Premier that he will recognize the sovereignty of Formosa; but it is not definite whether that means over Formosa only or over the mainland too. It would be very easy for the masters of vague and general statements to leave that point unsettled.

Japan is to hold elections soon. It has been said frequently that General MacArthur was ousted and the Peace Treaty hurried in order to remove the American Occupation's influence in maintaining tranquillity during the elections.

We have here a perfect opportunity for Fifth Column violence, or for Communist political skill, to win a majority. What would be the position of the United States militarily if a Socialist-Communist majority came into office legally in Japan after the Treaty was signed?

We know the objective of Communist penetration into Korea was to get a base for attack on Japan. Japan, with its modern industrial power and its strategic position over the whole Pacific area, is Russia's real power in the Pacific. It even adds to it virtual possession of Sakhalin and the Kuriles, each only a few miles from Japan's most northern island.

No experienced observer can be taken in by the stage-managed Soviet objections to the Japanese Peace Treaty. Those were in accord with common Soviet strategy.

At best the two Treaties make Japan a segment of world government, and gives us rights only as a member of the U. N. At worst the Treaties greatly strengthen the position of the Soviet Union in the Pacific and could lead to the destruction of American power in the Pacific. That would leave us defending America on the shores of Washington, Oregon and California.

WHAT THESE TREATIES MEAN

Thus, though America defeated Japan almost single-handed, yet in this Peace Treaty the vital interests of the U. S. are subordinated to those of the U. N. The sovereignty of the U. S. is surrendered to the U. N. Clearly the design of these treaties is to submerge the U. S. in the U. N.

Yalta was one of the greatest betrayals of history. These Japanese Treaties, because they ignore vital American interests, may prove to be another Yalta.

Our Washington leaders the past 18 years have subordinated America to alien interests, the climax being the U. N. Their complete reversal of U. S. foreign policy of a century and more has brought precisely the results that might have been expected. America has been sold out.

WHAT CAN BE DONE

Public opinion can—and should—stop Senate ratification of both these Treaties. Public opinion is still the most powerful force in America. That is obviously why the State Department has kept very quiet about these Treaties. We saw no newspaper notice that Hearings on the Treaties before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee were to start January 21, and we saw none that they would close on January 23, until January 22. Obviously the State Department hopes to push them through the Senate before the American people wake up.

In Council Letter 279 we told of the far-reaching efforts of the propaganda apparatus of the State Department to be in the interests of internationalists or even Communists.

The Senate Committee on Foreign Relations, a majority of whom are notoriously internationalist in mind, will probably report both Treaties to the Senate promptly.

But they can be debated at length on the Senate floor—if enough people demand it.

And if they are ratified, there must be restrictions that will place American interests ahead of those of the U. N., or of any other single nation.

The Communists who completely surrounded F.D.R. during the last war influenced him into turning Manchuria over to the Soviet Union. F.D.R., the traitor, continued to carry out Communist directives by having Alger Hiss at his side at all important World Conferences. Next F.D.R. was ordered to ruin Chiang Kai Shek and turn China over to Communism. With the help of such as General Marshall, Owen Lattimore and Phillip Jessup, this was done.

Now under Truman Japan was to be pushed into Communism. But how could this be accomplished with General MacArthur in Japan? This had worried the reds and for several years Jewish papers had been smearing General MacArthur preparing to have him removed. The time came and he was fired in a shameful manner. Now the road is open to turn the whole Pacific over to Communism.

THERE IS ONLY ONE MAN

There is only one man who can save the U. S. now. General MacArthur. To put a Democratic President out and a Republican President in means nothing these days. The Zionists have bought or otherwise made captives of most of the leading politicians in both parties.

General MacArthur is the only one who can be elected and who dares take the control of our government from Zionist rule.

WHO KNOWS THE ANSWER?

The Jews make up about 8 per cent of the population in the United States.

Now how about an answer to these questions:

1. What is the percentage of Jews fighting with the American forces in Korea?
2. What is the percentage of Jews holding key positions in the United States' Government?
3. How do these percentages compare?

ANNIE ROSENBERG'S USE OF PROFANITY PROTESTED BY CLUB

The Meridian Pilot Club of Mississippi recently wired President Truman to protest a statement made by Mrs. Anna Rosenberg, assistant Secretary of Defense.

Mrs. Rosenberg was quoted by Honolulu reporters as saying, "If civilian production has to be set aside, by God, it should be set aside."

Club President, Aileen Harris, wired the President that the Mississippi group "condemns the use of profanity in Mrs. Rosenberg's statement."

THE NEW PRESS

This issue of Common Sense has been printed on our own press. We are very grateful to those by whom contributions have already been sent. We did not receive an amount sufficient to enable us to pay for the Press and needed equipment. Hence we have made arrangements to make large monthly payments on the Press, and we must delay purchase of other badly-needed mailing equipment until we are strong enough financially. We need the unselfish cooperation of many, many more patriots to guarantee that this Press will really be ours.

If you have not already made a contribution as "Your Share in Freedom," will you not send it TODAY? Every bit of financial aid—whether it is $1.00, or $50.00—will help us in our $20,000 goal for outright ownership of the Press for Freedom. Make payments to Common Sense.

COMMON SENSE WINS NAME SUIT

Atheistic Paper Cannot Call Itself "Common Sense"

Legal action to stop the illegal use of the registered trademark Common Sense, by which this anti-Communist Christian publication is known, has forced the atheistic Freethinkers of America to change the name of their irreligious bulletin.

Freethinkers of America, operating under a fictitious name, originally published their periodical under the name of Freethinker. With what was obviously a deliberate attempt to confuse people and damage the reputation of the original anti-Communist, Christian paper, Common Sense, Freethinkers of America changed the name of their publication to Common Sense. This was done despite the fact that the fighting newspaper of Conde McGinley definitely shows that the name is a registered trademark.

While Conde McGinley's Common Sense has always fought for Christianity, the Freethinkers publication printed material of the following nature:

"Mary Is In Heaven"

"Things were getting a little dull in heaven and the Virgin Mary longed for excitement. She spoke to God about it and He suggested that she pay a visit to Jupiter. She replied that while she might find that satellite intensely interesting, she felt that it would take her 'too long to get around.' God then suggested that she visit Venus. But the ever-glowing satellite Venus, she thought, was a little too feminine. She wanted something more 'exciting.'"

"God then suggested Earth. His latest reports were that they were having a rather 'hot time' there and that if the Virgin Mary was looking for excitement, then the Earth was the place for her to go. She readily accepted. However, God gave His consent only on the condition that she would, after her arrival, call him every evening, shortly after 6 P.M. so as to get the benefit of the reduced telephone rate, and tell him how she was getting along. This she agreed to do."

Freethinkers then gave some incidents on the phone calls. One, on the second supposed evening, closed with the Virgin Mary supposedly saying:

"I could tell you a lot of things in which you are involved and would certainly amuse you. I must hurry as I have a date for tonight." And, God supposedly answered: "Have a good time, but be careful."

"The Third Evening"

"Hello—hello. Is this God?"

"Yes."

"This is Mary."

"Oui! Oui! I knew it would happen!"

It was because of such blasphemy that every effort was made to stop the Freethinkers from using the good, Christian name of Conde McGinley's Common Sense. Now, the atheists will call their literary (?) work "The Age of Reason."

Christians may well ask: "What Reason?"

YOUR CONSTITUTION

Do you know that it says, in the U. S. Constitution, Amendments, Article II:

CRITICIZE GERMAN HATRED POLICY

The Christian Anti-Defamation League, with offices in Detroit, today criticized The Sentinel, a Chicago Jewish Weekly, because of an article appearing in its issue of November 10 advocating a policy of hatred toward future generations of Germans.

The article states that "Germans must be regarded as criminals. Whether they were passive or active during the reign of Hitler . . . does not ameliorate their guilt or the guilt of future German generations."

The article continues by stating that "They (the Germans) must be made to feel their guilt."

Dr. Lawrence Reilly, Executive-Secretary of The Christian ADL, pointed out that The Sentinel is one of a number of periodicals advocating love, tolerance and brotherhood. He said, "The most recent declaration of The Sentinel cause it to appear that such a policy is to apply only to certain areas of humanity and that it is not to be extended to all."

Regarding indemnification, The Sentinel article states that maximum reparations must be gotten from Germany as partial restitution for property "stolen from the Jews," and continues to state, "but there is no restitution for six million dead Jews."

FIGURES IN CONFLICT

"Furthermore," Dr. Reilly stated, "the allegation that six million Jews were destroyed by the Nazis after November 8, 1938 (the date when the first Nazi pogrom was undertaken), is not supported by facts and is in sharp conflict with information available from other sources, which have placed the number of Jews in Germany on November 8, 1938, as being somewhat less than 500,000."

He called attention to the Associated Press dispatch from Berlin under a November 10 dateline which states, "There were hundreds of synagogues and 600,000 Jews in Germany until November 8, 1938."

It is Dr. Reilly's contention that no organization has ever published a reliable break-down of population figures to show that anything approaching six million Jews were located in areas where they could be reached by the Nazis. "Furthermore," he points out, "thousands of Jews remained in Germany, outside of concentration camps, until the war ended."

MAKES BROTHERHOOD A MOCKERY

"A policy of hatred for the German race," says Dr. Reilly, "makes a mockery of love and brotherhood. If a policy of love and brotherhood is to have any meaning, it must not be limited to intra-group relations, but must be made applicable to inter-racial relations as well."

When the state is most corrupt, then laws are most multiplied.—Tacitus.

Letters to Editor—

I have with all heart and soul been doing all I could out here, but people just don't seem to think they can do anything. I tell them they will see the blood run down the streets. I say before they make a slave of me they will have to kill me. Then people "Well" me. To "Well" I say—"Wake up and DO SOMETHING, don't just sit down and say nothing." I am old, with a broken arm, but enclose $1.00 for your press.

—W. R. J., Montana

Dear Mr. McGinley:

Enclosed find $5.00 for my contribution to your new printing press. My wife and I pray for your good success and God Bless you for your good work in exposing these rats, and these Jews. In our honest opinion there is only one single man that God has sent here to save our wonderful, Blessed Country and that man is General Douglas MacArthur. Any one less than MacArthur as our next President and Savior will never do the job. Most certainly the Country cannot be saved by Taft.

America's Dictator in Germany

The Assistant Editor of the Sunday New York Times, whose five pointed Red-Star of Zion was adopted as the insignia of the Jewish Soviets, AND HAS SINCE BEEN MADE THE NATIONAL EMBLEM, has been loaned to Germany to direct the re-education and corruption of West Germany. A number of Jewish books boast how they maneuvered us into this last war and take full credit for crushing Germany. Of course, the Jews, in place of staying over and fighting against Hitler, jumped on boats and thousands of them poured into the United States and then our Christian boys were put on boats and sent over there to fight. The Jews were placed in every point possible to keep them out of danger just as Anna Rosenberg is placing hundreds of thousands now.

JEWS CANNOT STAND CRITICISM

No doubt many of our readers wonder about the reaction of Jews to the facts Common Sense prints proving that Communism and all revolutionary movements are created and set in motion by Jews. Hence we give you an outline of their reactions.

Many Jews who do not take an active part in the campaign to destroy the Government and wipe out Christianity are only partly informed and their part is to raise millions to support the many Jewish and Communist organizations. This type of Jew runs to his organizations, principally the Anti-Defamation League or American Jewish Congress which is as red as can be.

You would think that these organizations would take the personal charges we make and come see us and try to show us that we were wrong or run page ads in leading papers listing our charges and showing how ridiculous they are and in that way discredit us before all the public or would it not be practical to select a few of their smarter Rabbis to meet us in debate on a public platform and discredit us before the whole country so that no one would ever read our paper again or would be able to believe a thing that we print. That could be done quickly at very little expense and they would be through with Common Sense and every other Nationalist Group. At one stroke they would end Anti-Semitism. They would show the people how clean the Jews are and how they have been misrepresented, but in the writer's experience he knows that during the last twenty years, with the hundreds of thousands of accusations against the Jews, in not one instance have they ever denied the charges.

Of course the reason they do not is that every charge is true. They don't do what you would expect of honest people, because they don't dare to. They spend at least ten million dollars a year snooping around corners influencing Christian people to fight for the Jew. Why doesn't the Jew go out and fight for himself? The Anti-Defamation League and the American Jewish Congress will go to the American Legion, where they have maneuvered Jews into positions of the Americanism Committee and have the American Legion pass resolutions against those who criticize Jews. They will go to Christian Societies and Non-Jewish publications just passing resolutions against us without analyzing what we have written. We know of a case where the Board had passed such a resolution and we

DR. JEKYLL AND MR. HYDE OF THE INVISIBLE GOVERNMENT

Bernard M. Baruch has been so munificent in bestowing his advice upon the American people, it is pertinent to ask why he has remained silent on the evils undermining this nation.

Exposures of theft of top government secrets by Soviet agents operating within the government, as revealed in the Elizabeth Bentley case, followed by Major Racey Jordan's testimony that plane loads of confidential material was stolen by Soviet spies during World War II, drew only silence from Baruch.

This is the era of influence peddling, deep freezers, minks, pinks and stenchies—loan fixers, Internal Revenue scandals. The government is harboring thousands of known homosexuals; General MacArthur has been fired; Marshall has been exposed as a tool for Reds in the State Department, which is still shaking hands with Red China while American boys are dying from her Red bullets; a new Russian spy ring has recently been uncovered; the State Department admits that dozens of passports have been issued to known Communists to go behind the Iron Curtain. Pro-Communist happenings have staggered our nation, and almost paralyzed it. The country waits. One would assume that the foregoing would be the very evils concerning which a "venerable" and "learned elder Statesman" would advise the nation. Instead, Baruch—so willing to "advise" concerning the national economy—remains discreetly silent.

Samuel Klaus

When the four fliers, Sgt. James Eiam of Kingsland, Arkansas; Capt. John Swift of Glenn Falls, New York; Capt. Dave Henderson of Shawnee, Oklahoma and T/Sgt. Jess Duff of Spokane, Washington, left Germany and were forced down in Hungary, our State Department of course did the very wrong thing by paying a ransom of $120,000 to these Hungarian Jew murderers.

When these young fellows finally landed back in Germany on December 31st, 1951 the natural thing to expect would be that they report at once to their own superior officers and give them any information that they may have secured and would be of value to us in our defense against Communism, but our Government does not work things that way.

Our State Department, whom few people realize is the United States Government, and who gives orders to the Army, Navy and Justice Department and all other Departments, sent a cable to our top military officers in Germany ordering that these four young fellows not be allowed to speak to anyone until Samuel Klaus, a Jew, described as a legal and intelligence expert of the State Department arrived by plane for an interview. When Klaus got there, he didn't do anything but pose with the fliers for Photographers. He then returned to the State Department after warning these boys that they must not tell what happened.

The State Department in describing Klaus now as its legal and intelligence expert is guilty of a short memory. It wasn't very long ago that the State Department was looking for a way to grease him back to private law practice. That was after he had gotten the Department's official propagandists in an awful jam when they were trying to duck the charges leveled by Senator Joseph R. McCarthy.

Klaus has led a charmed life on the Government payroll. He got in a jam when he tried to force an examination of all FBI information on Communism. He apparently wanted to dip in the secret FBI files, although nobody knew just why. He then tried to capture all State Department intelligence work, including jurisdiction over the Central Intelligence Agency and even some FBI operations.

Klaus is a pal of Max Lowenthal, the mental marvel who advises President Truman on such things as why the FBI should be investigated. He once worked for a law firm that employed ex-Communist Lee Pressman and Carol Weiss King former top Communist lawyer. He also visited Russia in the early 30's. Several times Klaus has been accused of being a communist, but the State Department has always cleared him.

The Jews who are in the State Department through Frankfurter, who is really President, would not dare to allow these christian boys to come back from Hungary, which is completely ruled by Jews, and tell what they learned. They would have probably told that all of the important people with whom they came in contact with were Jews and the Jews are doing everything possible to make people in the United States believe that the Jews are being persecuted in every communist country in Europe. However, all Communist countries are ruled entirely by Jews. "Common Sense" has published all of their names.

Baruch

Baruch, press-agented as a great American, was quick to wire the Senate that he felt Hungarian-born, Red, Zionist Anna M. Rosenberg was "thoroughly capable" and "best possible choice" to fill the position of Assistant Secretary of Defense. But, has Baruch ever said a good word for Senator Joe McCarthy? Has Baruch condemned the atomic spies? Has he denounced Alger Hiss, or demanded that Judith Coplon pay the penalty for betraying America? No!

And why not? Baruch as one of the leaders (if not the head) of the Invisible Government, and a top man in the Jewish Kehillah has spent the past 36 years preparing the way for the decline and fall of the American Republic. Baruch is a member of world Jewry which is seeking to reach its goal of world domination. As such, Baruch must follow the rules so aptly expressed in "Jewish Fraternities" (Vilna, 1868) and the "Book of the Kehillah" (Vilna, 1769).

"Jews must obey the orders of the Kehillah and of the Beth-Din in contradistinction to the law of the land."

There is the key to Baruch's double-talk, his babblings as to what is best for America! The Beth-Din is Jewry's own court; for Jews, its rules and regulations are above those of the nation in which Jews may reside.

Baruch — "A Speculator"

By his own admission, the "elder Statesman" is "a speculator." Time magazine of July 2, 1934, is further authority for the information that one of Baruch's first "killings" was when he manipulated a deal to give control of Liggett & Myers to Ryan, tobacco trust magnate. He made another "killing" with Jim Keene infamous as a "bear trader" and cleaned up neatly in Amalgamated Copper, the deal which Thomas W. Lawson labeled a seventy million dollar swindle.

According to Time again, Baruch netted a cool million in the arrangement whereby he bought Tacoma and Selby Smelters for the Guggenheims, and acquired one-half million profit on U. S. Steel.

Baruch and Eugene Meyer (Jew) control the Alaska Juneau Gold Mines, having obtained them before Roosevelt raised the price of gold to $35.00 an ounce. He maintains a one-third interest in the Pardner's Corporation which controls gold, silver and copper mines in Nevada and California.

Henry Klein of New York City, who writes authoritatively on Baruch, has stated in his 1935 article, "Baruch Over Congress":

"Those early lush days in Wall Street were revived after the first World War and Baruch as a 'speculator' was again in the market, which wound up with a crash in 1929, that was heard and felt around the world. All persons that had any wealth, large or small, suffered except the handful whose agents rigged the market to draw the 'suckers' in. Baruch cashed in before the crash. Any expert in Wall Street trading knows that when the hot polloi is in the market with both feet, that's the time for the insiders to get out. Baruch followed that maxim. The purpose of that debacle was to begin the impoverishment of the people of the United States and the world as the first step toward making them amenable to regimentation and enslavement. A people with money cannot be enslaved and enslavement was necessary so that those who ruled through wealth-power could continue to stay on top . . . These groups are interested in world cartels that will control all minerals after the war, while the people will be regimented and squeezed in their own domestic affairs by government-owned corporations controlled or managed by Frankfurter underlings . . . Incidentally, Baruch received $150,000 from the government as Woodrow Wilson's economic advisor during the peace negotiations in France in 1919."

Baruch's Power in World War I

When America finally became involved in World War I, Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo, boosted Baruch for Chairman of the War Purchasing Commission. McAdoo tells us in his autobiography, "Crowded Years," (page 401) that President Wilson demurred to Baruch's appointment on the ground that the Secretary of War objected, and that Robert S. Lovett, slated for the commission, did not want to serve under Baruch. Both Baker and Lovett, McAdoo states the President told him, considered Baruch a "Wall Street speculator."

However, Baruch got the chairmanship. Later, President Wilson appointed him Chairman of the War Industries Board, undoubtedly the biggest job of World War I. Speaking of the dictatorial powers he had in that position, Baruch testified before a Joint Congressional Committee: "The final determination, as the President said, rested with me; the determination of whether the Army or Navy should have supplies rested with me; the determination of whether the railroad administration could have it, or whether General Allenby should have locomotives, or whether they should be used in Russia, or in France." Baruch continued: "I probably had more power than perhaps any other man in the war; doubtless that is true."

Elaborating, Baruch went on: "No building costing more than $2,500. could be erected in the United States without the approval of the War Industries Board. Nobody could get a barrel of cement without its approval. You could not get a piece of zinc for your kitchen tables without the approval of the War Industries Board."

Since the Board held such sweeping powers, it is interesting to note Baruch's assistants on it. They included:

1. Clarence Dillon (real name Lapowski) listed in "Who's Who in American Jewry" for 1938 as a Jew, and head of Dillon, Reed & Co. It has been stated that Baruch holds a large interest in Dillon, Reed & Co.

2. Eugene Meyer, publisher of the Washington Post, and member of the executive committee of the powerful, secretive New York Jewish Kehillah. (Other members of the Kehillah, along with Eugene Meyer, were Red Herbert Lehman of UNRRA infamy; Jacob Schiff of Kuhn Loeb & Co., who helped finance the Russian Revolution; Felix Warburg, known as the "Prince of Israel"; and Louis Marshall, who is shown in the Sisson Documents as meddling in the Russian Revolution.)

Four Jews running the War Industries Board, while Christians fought!

The armistice was declared; the Versailles Peace Conference held. Of all the Jews present at that conference—Felix Frankfurter, Louis Brandeis, and others—none was more firmly placed than Bernard Marnes Baruch. Baruch has admitted that he sat in council with the men who were negotiating the Peace Treaty and that he participated in the meeting of the "Big Five" Premiers.

"Whenever he (Wilson) asked my advice, I gave it," Baruch stated. "I had something to do with the reparations clauses. I was the American Commissioner in charge of what they called the 'Economic Section.' I was a member of the Supreme Economic Council in charge of raw materials."

Jews were so conspicuous in the American Mission that they excited comment everywhere. Frenchmen called Versailles the "Kosher Conference." Dr. E. J. Dillon, in his book, "The Inside Story of the Peace Conference," states, on page 496:

"It may seem amazing to some readers, but it is none the less a fact, that a considerable number of delegates believed that the real influences behind the Anglo-Saxon peoples were Semitic."

And again:

"... the sequence of expedients framed and enforced in this direction were inspired by the Jews, assembled in Paris for the purpose of realizing their carefully thought-out programme, which they succeeded in having substantially executed . . . The formula into which this policy was thrown by the members of the Conference, whose countries it affected, and who regarded it as fatal to the peace of Eastern Europe, was this:

Gen. Lyman L. Lemnitzer

Lemnitzer, director of the Office of Foreign Military Assistance, is the Jew who blocked arms shipments to South Korea.

Congress appropriated ten million dollars to send the South Koreans arms with which they could be prepared to stand against the expected attack by Communists in North Korea. Ten months later, Lemnitzer had allowed only $200 worth of barbed wire to get through to the anti-Communist Koreans.

It is a late hour for some people to learn that Judaism is a world-wide conspiracy to end Christianity. Communism is just one of the "tools" being used for the eradication of Christianity. Does any living person challenge Common Sense to prove this in public?

The following quote is from the "Jewish Voice" of New York and is taken from an article headed: "Lenin's Heritage."

"The Jewish people will never forget that the Soviet Union was the first country — and as yet the only country in the world — in which anti-Semitism is a crime. . . ."

LOUDENDYKE REPORT SAYS JEWS LED REVOLUTION

During the bloody Russian Revolution, when embassies were being besieged and entered by Bolsheviks, the Netherlands Minister, M. Oudendyke, took full charge of British affairs in Russia. Among his other duties, Mr. Oudendyke sent a complete report to England.

The fact most often commented upon in regard to the Oudendyke report is that the British government deleted the section concerning Jewry. Here it is:

"The danger is now so great that I feel it my duty to call attention of the British and all other governments to the fact that if an end is not put to Bolshevism in Russia at once the civilization of the whole world will be threatened. . . . I consider that the immediate suppression of Bolshevism is the greatest issue now before the world, not even excluding the war which is still raging, and unless as above stated Bolshevism is nipped in the bud immediately it is bound to spread in one form or another over Europe and the whole world as it is organized and worked by Jews who have no nationality, and whose one object is to destroy for their own ends the existing order of things. . . . I am also of the opinion that no support whatever should be given to any other socialistic party in Russia, least of all to Social Revolutionaries."

Is Communism Jewish? What Do The Jews Themselves Say About It? Many Jewish Organs and Organizations Today Are Trying To Disavow Communism. What Have These Same Organizations and Papers Said About Communism In The Past?

Here are their own words:

Speaking before the Jewish Institute of Religion in New York, October 3, 1934, Professor Reinhold Niebur, a Jew said: "Marxism is the modern form of Jewish prophecy."

M. Cohan, a Jew, wrote in "The Communist", Kharkov, April 12, 1919: "Without exaggeration, it may be said that the great Russian social revolution was indeed accomplished by the hands of Jews. . . ."

According to Angelo S. Rappaport in "The Pioneers of the Russian Revolution" (London, 1918, Stanley Paul & Co. — page 250) "The Jews in Russia in their total mass, were responsible for the Revolution."

The columns of the London Jewish Chronicle for April 4, 1919, carried the following statement: "There is much in the fact of Bolshevism itself, in the fact that so many Jews are Bolsheviks. The ideals of Bolshevism are consonant with many of the highest ideals of Judaism."

The American Hebrew stated (Sept. 10, 1920): "What Jewish idealism and Jewish discontent have so powerfully contributed to accomplish in Russia, the same historic qualities of the Jewish mind and heart are tending to promote in other countries. . . ."

The following is from the pen of Alfred Nossig, a Jew, in his book "Integraless Judentum", Berlin, 1922:

"Socialism and the Mosaic code are not at all in opposition . . . all Jewish groups . . . have a vital interest in the victory of Socialism; they must exact it not only in principle, not only because of its identity with the Mosaic doctrine, but also on tactical grounds. . . . The Jewish socialist is reproached with playing a leading part in the Communist terrorist party."

According to the New York American of April 4th, 1936, quoting a Jewish Telegraph Agency cable from Paris:

"International Jewry is definitely siding with the Spanish Government."

Otto Weininger, a Jew states in his book: "Sex and Character", Vienna, 1921, Page 413: "The Jew is a Communist."

Bernard Lazare, a Jew, in his book "Anti-Semitism and its causes", Paris 1894, wrote:

"The spirit of the Jew is essentially a revolutionary spirit and, consciously or otherwise, THE JEW IS A REVOLUTIONARY."

According to the London Jewish Chronicle, January 6th, 1933:

"More than one third of all Jews in Russia have become Soviet Officials."

The Jew, Louis Fisher, wrote the following in the "New York Jewish Tribune", January 18th, 1924:

"If Bolsheviks are to be judged from what the Jews have gained with them in the realm of instruction, the verdict is certainly in their favor."

The London "Jewish World" of August 18th 1922, carried this statement:

"Business is gaining in Russia, and with new regime Jews are promptly becoming the captains of industry. There are now 100,000 Jews in Moscow and Koshar butcher signs are seen in all street . . . however, anti-semitism is growing in the city parallel with the increase of the Jewish population."

The "L'Univers Israelite" (Sept. 5th, 1927, Paris) carried the following: "Revolution with its Equality and Fraternity, is the star of Israel."

"Major George A. Davis, Jr., 31, America's greatest jet ace, was shot down over Korea MIG alley and presumably killed Sunday, February 10th after shooting down two more Communist MIG 15S in his last air battle, Far East Air Forces announced."

Another one of our Boys goes down as a result of the carefully laid plans of the Invisible Government which is out to bankrupt us through debt and expenditures and to engage our boys all over the face of the earth so that the Communists and Jews who are carefully placed in Departments in Washington by Anna Rosenberg will be in position to take this country over "hands down."

Compare the statement by the New Deal outfit with the information sent home in letters by his young fellow to his wife. Keep in mind that the man who has complete charge of all bombing missions is Lt. General Curtis E. LeMay, a Jew.

We have heard many reports from boys in Korea who state that it is very plain that over-all planners are making no effort to win the war, but just prolong it.

Mrs. Doris A. Davis charged that the air force lied when it said her husband, the world's leading jet ace, didn't want to come home after he shot down his fifth enemy fighter plane in Korea. She stated that The Public Information Office of the Air Force released information that said her husband did not want to come home. She charged "That is an outright lie insofar as my husband was concerned. I had a letter from G. A. after that and he said the decision rested with the air force." She further stated: "If I could feel he lost his life for some good reason, I could feel better about it, but this is a war without reason. I would like to ask for a fullscale investigation of why he was left in Korea." Mrs. Davis said her husband recently wrote her that "something must be done . . . things can't go on like they are . . . we are losing so many planes and so many men. The war is censored and no one knows what's going on over here. They are not trying to win the war. All they want to do is hold and let people get killed."

DID JEWS FINANCE THE COMMUNIST REVOLUTION?

The following are excerpts from The United States Secret Service Report given the embassies of all the Allied Powers, by the Second Army Bureau. The source is the "Mystical Body of Christ in the Modern World" by Dennis Fahey. (This document was also published by the "Document

Anna Rosenberg was the most important appointment for the Jews since they forced David Lillienthal in as Chairman of the Atomic Energy Commission with three other Jews on the same board. Many of us could not understand why every Jewish and Communist publication in the United States were using every breath for Lillienthal. In fact immediately after the election Henry Wallace's paper in New York stated "We can now take a breath." After the Atomic bomb secrets had been given out and uranium sent over to the Soviet Union by the 1/2 ton free, the Jews resigned twelve days after Klaus Fuch, top Atomic Energy spy, confessed he had access to all secrets on the atomic bomb and had given them out. We now see why it was so important for the Jews to put Lillienthal in. Anna Rosenberg is a far more important appointment for she is going to have complete charge of all manpower, including men and women.

William S. Felix Frankfurter, close pal of Harry Lasky, top Communist of Europe and Head of the Fabian Society, promoted communism at Harvard and educated many young students he was to call on later and place in key positions under FDR. In fact nearly every key position was filled by a Frankfurter man. He has been the real ruler of the State Department and the real President for many years.

Frankfurter has been active with the radical element since 1918 when he introduced Sidney Hillman to the then President Woodrow Wilson. He was Hillman's attorney in 1920 when he appeared before the supreme court in Rochester, N. Y. in defense of Hillman and his Amalgamated Clothing Workers Union in an injunction suit against them, which they lost, and he warmly defended communists arrested by the F.B.I. in Massachusetts about the same time and condemned J. Edgar Hoover. He was active on behalf of communist strikers in Passaic, N. J. in 1927 and on behalf of Sacco and Vanzetti, two anarchists, who were twice convicted of murder in Massachusetts. He tried to show in an analysis of the testimony at the trials, that they were unfairly convicted. Before that time, Frankfurter took up the cudgels for Mooney and Billings who were convicted of the killing of several persons by bombing during a preparedness day parade in San Francisco in 1916 and he was roundly scored by the late Theodore Roosevelt for this and for his defense of the I.W.W. strikers who were evicted en masse from Bisbee, Arizona, during a strike. During most of this time and since about 1920, Frankfurter was part of the organization known as the American Civil Liberties Union.

Alaska

The uninformed may wonder about the power which prevented Alaska from being given Statehood. If they would just consider that Alaska has an island the name of which is Little Diomed. It is only three miles and in sight of an island belonging to the Soviet Union. This island is Big Diomed. The Soviet Union is understood to have more than 200,000 men garrisoned opposite Nome, Alaska. Then consider that the Governor of Alaska is a Jew, Ernest Gruening. As it is, this Jew no doubt is arranging for open arms to the Soviet Union. If Alaska became a State, he would cease to run it as a one man ruler.

Palestine and The Jews"

"The United Nations Ideal Is A Jewish Ideal" - Ben Gurion (Time: 8-16-48)

MANLY FLEISCHMANN

Why is it with 155,000,000 population in the United States, with not over six to seven percent Jews, that with war coming up, all the key positions are held by members of this minority group? In England and France the Jews have complete control of the War Department, the Minister of War in England being John Strachey, Jew and the Minister of Defense being Emanuel Shinwell, Jew. The Defense Minister of France is Jules Moch, Jew, and the Secretary of the French Armed Forces is Admiral Louis Kahn, Jew.

Upon the resignation of his administrative assistant, George M. Elsey, Truman signed over to Manly Fleischmann, a young Jew, the power to approve borrowing up to $150,000,000 by Government Agencies carrying on defense programs. Fleischmann now has two way control, for his position as Defense Production Administrator already has placed in his hands the rationing of metals as well as building supplies for which all companies are compelled to file for allotments through his office.

He has been placed in charge of every pound of steel in the United States. No one can get even a quarter pound without an o.k. from his office. He was placed there of course, not by Truman, but by the invisible Government and Bernard Baruch's o.k. This Truman would not dare to contest.

Who Said This?

(Matt. 23)

"Behold, I will bring of the synagogue of Satan, who say they are Jews, and are not, but do lie. Behold, I will make them to come and adore before thy feet. And they shall know that I have loved thee.

"You serpents, generation of vipers, how will you flee from the judgment of hell?"

"Therefore behold I send to you prophets, and wise men, and scribes: and some of them you will put to death and crucify, and some you will scourge in your synagogues, and persecute from city to city."

"Jerusalem, Jerusalem, thou that killest the prophets, and stonest them that are sent unto thee, how often would I have gathered together the children, as the hen doth gather her chickens under her wings, and thou wouldest not?"

"Woe to you scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites; that build the sepulchres of the prophets, and adorn the monuments of the just.

"But woe to you scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites: because you shut the Kingdom of heaven against men; for ye yourselves do not enter in;

General Mark Clark, Jew, has charge of all ground forces of the Army. He is the only man in the entire army qualified for such responsibility.

LEON KEYSERLING

The Universities are turning out graduates every year, but in the whole United States there is no man who could qualify as Economic Advisor to President Truman but this Leon Keyserling, a Jew. Of course it is a very important spot to secure information. Think of the important secret matters that come before him and think how necessary it is for the Jews to have him there so they can continually push bankruptcy on Truman. It would not do to have a real American in that position any more than it would to have General MacArthur in the Pacific. The Jew plan would just stop at that point.

and those that are going in, you suffer not to enter."

"Woe to you scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites: because you devour the houses of widows, praying long prayers. For this ye shall receive the greater judgment."

"Woe to you scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites; because you go round about the sea and the land to make one proselyte; and when he is made you make him the child of hell twofold more than yourselves."

(St. John: 8:44)

"You are of your father the devil, and the desire of your father you will do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and he stood not in the truth; because truth is not in him. When he speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own; for he is a liar and the father thereof."

Major General Herman Feldman, a Jew, Quartermaster General Technical Services Division, U.S. Army. In the entire United States there is not another man qualified to oversee the purchasing of the billions of dollars worth of goods and the one thousand and one commodities, but it works out very nicely to have a Jew in this position with all of the young Jews coming out of New York wanting to get a start in business. To these he can be very helpful and of course the Jew is not likely to have any money so they call on that red blooded American Manly Fleischmann, who has charge of loans up to $150,000,000 for war contracts.

This worked out very nicely during the last war for thousands of Jews like Henry Garson who admitted in court that he did not have a dollar but that he borrowed $5,000 from Eliza Walker of Kuhn Loeb & Company. By securing both loans and contracts from the Government, he ended up $50,000,000 to the good. There were thousands of similar cases, but the New Deal Communist set-up was strong enough to prevent any other case coming up and these two Garson boys, brothers, stated in court that they were being persecuted because they were Jews.

U. S. MAJOR REPORTS FROM SIBERIA

U. S. Major M. Schuyler made a report on Jewry's connection with organized revolutionists, subsequent to his return from the American Expedition to Siberia in 1920. A. S. Leese's "Bolshevism is Jewish" on page 7, quotes the Major as follows:

"The government of Russia is almost entirely Jewish, and our United States Army in Siberia was full of Bolshevik Jews straight from Moscow. They had entered the United States and enlisted in the U. S. Army going to Siberia. General Graves the commander had a staff that was almost entirely Jewish. . . . Owing to the Bolshevik Jews in our army, all the information that should have reached Kolchak went straight to Moscow."

eth a lie, he speaketh of his own; for he is a liar and the father thereof."

JESUS CHRIST

Israel Amter wrote as follows in the Jewish Voice, New York, May, 1941:

"For the Jews this May Day must be a day of determined struggle . . . They (The Jewish workers) realize as never before that only on the basis of the peace policy of the Soviet Union . . .

Black Paper On Korea

WHY DO THE "MAGICIANS"

NEED OUR BOYS IN KOREA?

Beverly Smith, Washington editor of the Saturday Evening Post, publishes in its issue of November 10, 1951, what we may take as the official propaganda version of "Why We Went To War in Korea." Oddly enough, Beverly Smith has the same educational background as Alger Hiss, an A.B. degree from John Hopkins University and a law degree from Harvard Law School. Smith has the further advantage of being a Rhodes Scholar (Cecil Rhodes' South African Empire was financed by the English Rothschilds, and in gratitude he set up his fortune to educate Americans in the Zionist plan of world empire). As a Rhodes Scholar, Beverly Smith became an adept at the art of betraying America, and became a Wall Street lawyer with the firm of Chadbourne, Hunt, Jaekel, and Brown, representing some of the more notorious international bankers. With his education, however, he decided to employ his talents as a professional propagandist, and became a foreign correspondent for the New York Herald Tribune, noted for the number of Communist sympathizers in its employ.

Smith's account of our commitment to Korea does give the names of the U. S. Government officials involved, but he fails to give their background, an omission which we wish to correct here. Our Ambassador to Korea preceding and during the outbreak of war was John Muccio, an alien born in Italy who became a naturalized American citizen when he was well past his maturity. According to Smith, on June 24th, 1950, Muccio wired the U. S. State Department of the crisis, and the officials directly concerned assembled to discuss the moves of the United States. They were Dean Rusk, Assistant Secretary for Far Eastern Affairs, John Dewey Hickerson, the Assistant Secretary for United Nations Affairs, and Philip C. Jessup, our Ambassador-at-large.

Rhodes Scholar Dean Rusk had been in charge of United Nations Affairs in the State Department until the matter of setting up the Korean War demanded a good man, when he was put in charge of Far Eastern Affairs. John Dewey Hickerson had been a member of the infamous United States Delegation to the United Nations at San Francisco in 1945. The Secretary-General of that Delegation, the Communist spy and traitor Alger Hiss, is now in prison. Hickerson was also on the advisory committee on international law for Harvard Law School.

Philip C. Jessup has such a well-known record of activity for pro-Communist front groups that not a single Senator dared vote for his confirmation as U. S. Representative to the United Nations in October, 1951, but President Truman sent him on as an alternate. Jessup had been a professor of International Law at Harvard; he was a 1929 assistant to Kuhn, Loeb, lawyer Elihu Root at the Hague Court of International Justice; he was Herbert Lehman's Assistant Secretary-General in the United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation Administration, whose deputy, Laurence Duggan, died mysteriously; Jessup represented the United States at the Bretton Woods International conference, and he was with Alger Hiss at San Francisco as Hiss, Assistant in Charge of Judicial Organization, that is, how to make the betrayal of America legal.

Jessup was Chairman of the Pacific Council of the Institute of Pacific Relations, now exposed as a Senate Committee as a Communist organization. The International Secretariat of the Institute published a book in 1950 entitled "Korea Day," by George McCune which says on page 2:

"The Soviet civil administration kept well in background and gave the Koreans maximum experience in self-government. Most observers agreed that the Soviet system quite readily adapted itself to the Korean scene, or at least it was much more easily adopted by the Koreans than was the Western system sponsored by the American command."

ganda put out by the Institute.

Philip C. Jessup is a member of the Statesbury family (Edward Statesbury was a J. P. Morgan partner), he is a trustee of the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace of which Alger Hiss was President, and his brother, John Jessup, is a wealthy banker, President of the Equitable Trust Co. of Wilmington, director of Coca Cola of Atlanta and the Diamond State Telephone Co. (American Telephone & Telegraph).

This was the group which gathered at the crisis. America was in good hands. They needed only to call Hiss from prison to make the fraternity meeting complete.

Smith says that this group then conferred with Secretary of State Acheson by telephone at his farm in Maryland. Acheson, who had been law clerk for Supreme Court Justice Louis D. Brandeis when Brandeis was head of the Zionist Organization of America, qualified for the State Department by becoming an international lawyer for J. P. Morgan Co.

The next day, says Smith, a telegram came from John Foster Dulles, who had returned to Tokyo a few days earlier. The telegram said: "If it appears that South Koreans cannot repulse the attack, then we believe that United States force should be used." This telegram makes certain Dulles' prosecution as a war criminal. He had no official standing with the United States Government, and no one has ever explained the mysterious missions he made to Korea in May and June of 1950, nor why he should order American troops to die in Korea. It is noteworthy that whenever Dulles went to Japan or Korea, the Wall Street Journal noted that lagging Japanese bond issues being promoted on Wall Street by international Jewish bankers were disposed of at a good profit. Dulles is the senior partner of the international law firm of Sullivan and Cromwell, which represents these Jewish bankers. Dulles ordered our soldiers into Korea to protect the interests of the clients of Sullivan and Cromwell.

There is a 736 page volume entitled The Story of Panama, The U. S. House Hearings on Panama in 1913, with hundreds of pages of documentation proving Congressman Henry T. Rainey's charge that William Nelson Cromwell, then Dulles' senior partner in Sullivan & Cromwell, instigated and promoted the Panama Revolution for J. P. Morgan and J. & W. Seligman, international bankers, who received forty million dollars in gold from the U. S. Treasury for the Panama Canal, of which thirty-five million dollars was profit. President Theodore Roosevelt sued the New York World for libel for printing a few of the facts about himself and Cromwell, and the case was unanimously thrown out of court by the U. S. Supreme Court.

Congressman Rainey called Cromwell the most dangerous man in the United States, a title which John Foster Dulles has inherited. The House obtained a copy of Cromwell's brief which he submitted to the New Panama Canal Co., detailing his activities. In it, on page 206, is this definition:

"The law firm of Sullivan & Cromwell occupies a recognized position among the great legal corporations of the Nation. In the course of a very active thirty years the firm of Sullivan & Cromwell had found itself placed in intimate relations, susceptible of being used to advantage, with men possessing influence and power everywhere in the United States; they have also come to know, and be in a position to influence, a considerable number of public men in political life, in financial circles, and in the press."

This is the firm of which John Foster Dulles is the senior partner. He married Janet Pomeroy Avery, of the Rockefeller family, whose interests are now tied up in the General Reinsurance Corporation and the North Star Reinsurance Corporation. Federal law requires insurance companies to be reinsured, so these firms have access to all insurance business statistics and consequently the entire business activity in America. They are headed by David Milton, who also married a Rockefeller, and Ellery C. Huntington, Chief of the Military Mission to Yugoslavia which betrayed Mihailovitch to the Communist Tito. Huntington is a director of the Yugoslav-American Electric Co. which may explain why Hamilton Fish Armstrong of the Council on Foreign Relations wrote a book favorable to Tito entitled "Tito and Goliath." Yugoslavia may be the site of the next war.

Dulles was secretary to Robert Lansing, our Secretary of State at the Versailles Peace Conference of 1919. Lansing was characterized by Rabbi Stephen Wise, in his book "Challenging Years" as an ardent sympathizer of the Zionist cause at the Conference. Thomas Lamont, senior partner of J. P. Morgan Co., who with Albert Strauss of J & W Seligman protected the interests of international bankers at that conference, writes in his "Across World Frontiers," "All of us placed great reliance upon John Foster Dulles."

later learned that not one Member of the Board had even seen Common Sense. They were influenced by a Jew on the Board who got up and told what an awful paper Common Sense was. They never come out in the open or oppose us themselves.

The Jews have made at least twenty-five visits to the Post Office demanding that they stop handling the receiving of our paper. A Committee called on the Bank and tried to get them to throw out our account. They have been to the Post Office in Washington time and time again. They made several calls on the Catholic Church to get them to turn against us. They kept up a two year fight with the Veterans of Foreign Wars in Union trying to prevent us from using their Hall. We beat them twice but they waited a long time and caught a meeting with few in attendance and voted to deny us the hall.

During the six years that Common Sense was growing, they searched out eleven printers and threatened them with boycott if they did not quit printing our paper. When we were forced to buy our own press, their snoopers, who are always on the job, methodically checked all the newsprint jobbers in the East who are all Jews, and gave them orders not to let any paper go to us. We were forced to order newsprint under different peoples names in other cities. One man, who had been ordering paper for forty years, had put through an order for us and as this was in excess of his accustomed order, they became suspicious and checked on him and would not let him have the paper. For weeks we could not publish, but we finally overcame that situation.

On March 4th, 1952 they crashed in the front end of our office during the night. This is the way Jews have answered criticism down through the years.

When Count Bernadotte was appointed by the United Nations to arbitrate between the Jews and the Arabs, who had been "pushed" 900,000 out on the desert, the Jews were not satisfied, hence Jews in Israeli uniform stopped Count Bernadotte's car and killed him and his aides in the car. When the English were not turning over Palestine quickly enough to the Jews, they set off a large bomb in the Hotel David and killed many people. They then took two English officers and opened their stomachs, put bombs inside and hung them to trees so that when they would be removed, many others would be killed.

These are the people who cannot stand criticism and never answer criticism but spend millions of dollars pushing brotherly love and tolerance so that people will not mention the word "Jew". The Jew does not care how much you talk against Communism just so the public does not learn that the Jew is Communism. The Jews have been run out of every country but the United States and still the Jewish Encyclopedia tells you that they were never persecuted one time in their history because of their religion.

Why were they driven out from all these countries? Are all the people wrong and the Jews right? Any informed person in the United States knows why they were driven out.

Baruch

"Henceforth the world will be governed by the Anglo-Saxon peoples, who, in turn, are swayed by their Jewish elements." (page 497)

Baruch and the New Deal

Baruch contributed liberally of money, personal services, and advice to the Roosevelt campaign. In fact, Raymond Moley, original Roosevelt "Brain Trust," in his "After Seven Years," tells that even before Roosevelt arrived in Chicago to deliver his 1932 acceptance speech to the Democratic Convention, Baruch (with General Johnson) arrived at the apartment of Louis Howe, Roosevelt's handyman. Jesse Strause was already there and asked: "Can we let Baruch see the acceptance speech? We want to be nice to him because he can contribute so much to the campaign."

After reading and approving the speech, Baruch asked that his friend Herbert Bayard Swope also be allowed to see it before delivery. Thus, the "elder Statesman" and Swope saw the acceptance speech before the Democratic Convention ever heard it.

Following Roosevelt's election, Baruch assumed extraordinary powers and word went out over the nation that, during the President's absence from Washington, Baruch would serve as "acting President."

An office in the State Department was provided for him, and dispatches from Washington declared: "Bernard M. Baruch, war-time head of the Industries Board, was announced as super advisor to the administration on business, finance and foreign relations. He will seek to coordinate the recovery program."

When the N.R.A. was set up, it was Baruch's man, General Hugh Johnson, who headed it. Another Baruch man, George Nelson Peek, was placed in the powerful position of Administrator of the Agricultural Act of 1933.

Although the United States Supreme Court eventually declared Baruch's N.R.A. to be unconstitutional, that was not the end of Baruch. He continued on at Washington, working for regimentation of American citizens, and was highly publicized as a trusted advisor, devoted to the Roosevelt Administration.

It is interesting to note here that Baruch's interests in the 30's were not confined to America alone. Two things give a side glance on the deadliness of Baruch. First, there is the visit of Trotsky to Paris in 1933. Stalin had supposedly exiled Trotsky because the latter insisted upon 100 percent Jewish control of Russia, and Trotsky took up residence in France, at the spa Royat near Paris) in the fall of 1933. He was visited there by Litvinoff (Finkelstein) then on his way to the United States to have Soviet Russia recognized by Roosevelt. Mysteriously enough, Bernard M. Baruch was then reported in the American press as taking a "water treatment" at the French spa Vichy, nearby. Coincidence? Perhaps . . .

Baruch's second "international" concern was the war in Spain. Time Magazine of January 2, 1939, reported the disbanding of the Communist-sponsored Abraham Lincoln Brigade and the return of several hundred of the 4,000 recruited by the Communist Party in the U. S. A., and stated: "ONE WHO PUT UP $10,000 TO HELP REPATRIATE LINCOLN BRIGADIERS WAS FINANCIER BERNARD MANNES BARUCH . . . Typical of the brigades personnel was the roll of last week's homecomers. Among them: 25-year-old Brigade Commissar political instructor) John Gates from Youngstown, Ohio . . ."

Time did not state that Gates' real name is Israel Ragenstrich, alias Solregen Streif. Gates (Ragenstrich), editor for the Communist Daily Worker, is one of the eleven top Communists convicted of conspiracy to seek forcible overthrow of the U. S. Government. He recently went to jail under a five-year sentence.

World War II — Baruch's Advice Again Needed

America's involvement in the second, Jew-inspired European mess, World War II, again gave Baruch the opportunity to flaunt his role as "adviser." Rubber was a vital necessity. Congress took action to promote an adequate rubber supply for military and civilian needs. Roosevelt, however, set the Congress plan aside; vetoed the bill and then named Baruch chairman of a committee to study the rubber situation.

As evidence of his simplicity and democracy, Baruch arranged to have his committee—Dr. James B. Conant, president of Harvard, and Dr. Karl T. Compton, President of Massachusetts Institute of Technology—meet on a park bench. It was, of course, a big surprise when an army of reporters, newspaper photographers and radio commentators "discovered" the committee—Baruch in the middle of it, looking profound and learned.

Soon, however, it leaked out into the news that the patriotic (?) Chairman, Baruch, had spent $50,000 of his own money to make the committee's work a success. A "success" whereby Baruch and his Zionist henchmen could reap huge profits!

All during World War II, Baruch had his fingers in the Washington "pie," and the ever-willing ear of F. D. R. When Baruch had urged "Centralization of Defense Power—Would Give All to President," he knew what he wanted; it was unquestioned power for Baruch.

Under a headline "Holds Big Stick," an AP dispatch from London on April 5, 1945, quoted Baruch as saying: "And one reason I am over here is to hold the big stick over the big boys to make damn sure they're not going to foul up the peace." Baruch returned to Washington and attempted to club Congress. Headlines in June, 1945, stated: "Destroy Nazi Industry," Baruch Urges Senate."

German industry was, of course, destroyed. The United States was forced to spend billions of dollars for "Relief," to war torn nations which could have gotten more rapidly back on their feet if they had had the means of giving their own people employment.

After the death of Roosevelt, Mr. Baruch, with checkbook, park bench philosophy, and elder statesmanship, moved into the Truman inner circle.

President Truman named him to head the United States delegation for international consideration of atomic energy. What is more, the President authorized Baruch to name the American delegates to be associated with him. Thus Baruch is seen as the power behind the Atomic Energy Commission which consisted of four Jews and one "New Deal" Republican; Straus, Lillenthal, Bacher, Waymack, and Pike. At least two—Lillenthal and Bacher—were Communist-front members.

Communism is Jewish, and for three years these Marxist Jews had dictatorial control over the atom bomb. Baruch fought to have the control of the atom bomb taken from the military and placed in the hands of "civilians." Baruch also wanted the A-bomb plans given to all the nations of the earth, just as soon as those nations promised to be "good." But, why? Red Jews such as Oppenheimer, Fuchs, Greenglass, and Einstein had had complete access to our atomic laboratories for years. Everyone now knows that, of the ten members of the Fuchs spy ring, eight of the spies were Jewish!

Baruch Supports U. N.

Recently, upon the celebration of his 80th birthday, Baruch—a self-confessed dictator of America—stated that he was getting up in years, but is "still not too old to tell those fellows in Washington what to do, and this I propose to keep on doing."

One of the things Baruch intends to keep on doing is his work for an international government, of which the U. N. is the base structure. Names are often deceiving. Few people realize that the majority of delegates to the U. N. (whether from France, England, Poland or the U. S.) are Jews. International Jewry is the actual governing body of the U. N. And, naturally, therefore, Baruch is 100 percent for the U. N.

The League of Nations, on which the Jews had pinned their hopes, collapsed. They do not want a similar fate to befall the U. N.

Baruch, speaking before the Senate Banking and Currency Committee, July 26, 1950, as reported in Vital Speeches, August 15, 1950, commented:

"The League of Nations, already dealt a near fatal blow by the defection of the U. S., was actually wrecked in 1931 when Japan invaded China and the world stood by. Had the effort to over-run Korea been ignored, the United Nations would have been wrecked. All of us, in this country and abroad, would have had to live at the point of a gun. America has taken its stand against aggression and international blackmail. Whatever the cost, I feel sure the American people will see it through." (Bold face our—Ed.)

Baruch is not reluctant to have Christian blood spilled all over the globe if the spilling of that blood will depopulate the Christian nations while International Jewry (through its offices in the U. N.) gains more power.

It is time for the American people to take a long look at Baruch. People may well ask why, since he began giving his "advice" this Republic has been involved in two major wars and is presently entered upon "police activities" which may involve us in a third.

People may well inquire of Baruch where he stands on Jewish Communism and the filth of the Talmud.

The radical Professor Reinhold Niebuhr, speaking before the Jewish Institute of Religion, New York, on October 3, 1934, stated that "Marxism is the modern form of Jewish prophecy." The Talmud teaches that the Lord, Jesus Christ, was illegitimate . . . a conjurer, a seducer; that he was crucified, buried in hell and set up as an idol ever since by his followers. (Tract Kallah, 1b (18B) and Toldath Jesu are cited on this.)

Baruch cannot be a Talmudist, working with International Jewry and Communist-fronters without being tainted by their evil brush.

Ask, Americans! If Baruch will answer, Common Sense will give him all the space he requires.

LETTERS TO EDITOR

Milwaukee, Wisc.
February 10, 1952

Dear Mr. McGinley:

Last week I was visited by two agents of this un-American "Anti-Defamation League" outfit. The reason was that I had been distributing Common Sense. In a manner that was so aptly described in Issue No. 144 of Common Sense. I was told in so many words that if I did not change my belief in 100% Christian Americanism and stop distributing Common Sense, I might find myself in trouble. No such tactics, repulsive to every decent American, will intimidate me and I'm going to go right on circulating Common Sense!

Yours sincerely,
A Reader

HELP US TO HELP YOU

To do a big job, and surely it is a big job that has to be done, it is necessary to be fully equipped to do that job. Having faith that our friends would stand back of us, we obligated ourselves for heavy payments on a press. To bring the entire printing of the paper under our control, where we can do the work in one building such as setting type, composition and printing, it became necessary for us to purchase a linotype machine and other equipment. Believing that our friends have enough interest in their country and in preserving our freedom, we have obligated ourselves for a large amount to be paid in heavy monthly installments. If you want to be a part in this all important fight to save yourself and your family by stopping these traitors now, we would be more than grateful if you would send us a check for what you can afford, $1.00 to $1,000. If you will help us to add to our cash payment, or monthly payments will be reduced. Please rush contribution.

John M. Schiff, Jew, grandson of Mortimer Schiff, President of National Boy Scouts Council, interested in the Gentile from cradle to grave.

W. Averell Harriman, Foreign Affairs Expert on the White House Staff, is an all around handy-man for the New Deal. For years he has been roving over the world working out crooked deals and as the papers state "Trusted Representative" at this Conference; Trusted Representative in Moscow; Trusted Representative on the oil situation in Iran. But the interesting thing is that the New Deal trusted him so much that he was never allowed to go without Mr. Walter Levy, Jew, at his side, hence Walter Levy was the man and Harriman, a gentile, could operate without bringing the Jewish question in. Harriman, who inherited a fortune, was given the privilege of going in with Jews on investments in mines in Russia and had the inside information to make his position very lucrative, hence he does not object to Mr. Levy doing all the business.

SOUNDING OFF

By J. M. Hazlitt
The Pauls Valley (Oklahoma) Daily Democrat
February 1st, 1952

The most startling, challenging, alarming writing of the past fifty years is a book entitled "The Iron Curtain Over America."

It is written by an erudite gentleman named John Beaty who qualifies as one of the nation's better historians. The book is heavily documented. Source material is quoted, named, and set right into the text.

If the line of reasoning and the interpretation of facts by Mr. Beaty is one tenth correct, we all owe a vote of apology to Senator Joe McCarthy whose tirades have been too mild, and whose so-called "smears" haven't been nearly deep enough.

The existence of an un-assimilated foreign element in America, with the balance of political power in its hands, with ideas and traditions inimical to Western Christian Civilization, and with a peculiar and endless predilection for high government office, is pretty well proved by Mr. Beaty.

Roots imbedded in history always bring forth a flower according to kind. Beaty proves that Communism and Zionism are born of the same parents. He points out the vast difference between Zionists and the orthodox Jews whose religion has always been Judaism.

The terrifying control of areas of government, mostly foreign affairs, by these people is documented. We need to wonder, at least, why the names run in such patterns.

The split in Western civilization and the destruction of the ramparts of Christian nations, is no accident of history. It is part of a horrible world force which wields un-dreamed of power in the government of the United States.

Because the story is long and revelation depends upon the reader's comprehension of a long chain of events and documents, it is necessary to read the book, to think about its implications, to find the patterns in things of our own knowledge, and to take sides quickly in the struggle which we have almost lost by default.

There are thousands of white crosses all over the world, marking the places where men died for a principle they thought was high and holy. There are thousands of hearts which were torn by the gamble of war, which had only the solace of laying tears upon the altars of freedom. There are millions of Americans who have been, and are still, the victims of a gross misrepresentation of world affairs, and whose news has been suppressed, censored, and edited into a tremendous lie.

I assure you that this book will scare you. You will put it down in disgust, saying it just couldn't be true. You will think about the implications and the authority behind it; then you will read on and learn more. Things within your own memory which seemed paradoxical and puzzling at the time, will shine forth as pieces which fit the pattern. After you read and digest, you will want every native born Western Christian stock American to read understand comprehend be warned and take action.

Nothing I ever read in my life before stirred me so deeply caused such wonder and anger, finally called for such quick action.

THE IRON CURTAIN OVER AMERICA by John Beaty. 268 pages—indexed. $3.00. Order your copy from Common Sense today! Cost price on quantities to give away.

The Jew, Louis Fisher, relates in the "New York Jewish Tribune for January 18th, 1924:

"Jewish children in Russia, by the tens of thousands attend official public schools where Yiddish is now the language of teaching. . . ."

Shepard Stone

With all the discussion in Germany about Jews, not once did the Jews offer to answer one accusation, but after our bombers and our boys had crushed Germany, thousands of Jews who were trained in this country to take over the important positions, were rushed in and became dictators.

"Unity in Dispersion" written by the American Jewish Congress tells you that Rabbi Wise and Morgenthau, two Jews, picked out most of the points to be bombed and not to be bombed in Germany.

Through FDR they were able to cut both Germany and Korea in two. The planners who are in our State Department in New York mainly, plan on the same condition in Germany as existed in Korea or they may call for a vote to unite eastern and western Germany, hence this Jew, Shepard Stone, with 400 employees, has complete charge of all education, publicity, newspapers, schools, colleges and universities. If a newspaper writes an editorial favoring someone like General MacArthur, its license will be withdrawn immediately. Many libraries in Western Germany, which are all controlled by Shepard Stone, have been packed with Communist books. The idea is to work on the youth so that they will be favorable to Communism and glad to go in with East Germany.

John J. McCloy is for all public purposes, the top American in Germany but there is hardly a doubt that this man Stone has the power and McCloy is only a gentile front who must take his orders from Jews inasmuch as he is with a law firm who have been lawyers for Kuhn Loeb & Company for thirty years. Stone will quickly report any dissatisfaction to Bernard Baruch.

Congress is now asking to appropriate $10,000,000. to finance Stone's Communistic program for another year.

IS THE SOVIET REGIME PERSECUTING JEWS IN RUSSIA? NOT THE WAY WE HEARD IT FROM PAST JEWISH TESTIMONY

We find the following in the London "Jewish Chronicle" for January 6th, 1933:

"Anti-Semitism in Russia is now classed as counter-revolutionary and is punishable by death."

The Jew Michael Scheinmann in his brochure "The Crusade Against the U. S. S. R." quoted the following from a manifesto, signed by Chief Rabbi Mechaem Gluskin of Minsk and five other Rabbis, on Feb. 25th, 1930:

"Under the Soviet Regime we have never been subjected to any persecution for our religious convictions. We consider it our duty categorically to declare that in the USSR no Rabbi has ever been threatened with the sentence of death or any other severe punishment, nor is any at the moment so threatened. During the whole period of the soldiers and the workmen's councils in the USSR, NOT ONE SINGLE RABBI WAS SHOT!"

CHRISTIANS ARISE! DRAFT MACARTHUR

By ROBERT H. WILLIAMS

News Analyst, Lecturer and Former Counter Intelligence Officer, P. O. Box 868, Santa Ana, Calif.

The telescope of history is focused on the year 1952.

A quick glance backward shows that the forces of Jewish nationalism — concentrated behind various banners — Marxism, Communism, Socialism, Zionism, liberalism, democracy, New Dealism — have marched steadily to victory after victory, with only temporary backsets, since the French Revolution.

For a hundred and sixty years this world power machine has been winning its major battles over Western peoples. It has captured the minds of millions among the "minorities" in Asia and Africa and in American cities, and indoctrinated them with hatred for American leadership, principles and traditions.

The agents of this invisible power, which holds the Iron Curtain countries enslaved, have infiltrated almost every branch of our government, high and low.

It has been able to use the State Department for a number of years, aiding the Marxist Revolution or preventing any serious attack on that Revolution. It is preventing victory and prolonging the slaughter of our youths in Korea. It threatens another world war.

But never have we seen such a rising tide of American spirit as we are now witnessing. Already we have won some sizeable battles against the Communist-Zionist power. Do not overlook the fact that a scattering of patriotic individuals and organizations across the country, with hardly any unity and no combined program of operations, have stopped the "civil rights" drive; have forced Congressional investigations of Communist activities; have forced the Department of Justice to act against a few Communist agents, and have succeeded in reversing the world-government resolutions in 17 out of 22 states.

These American pressure groups have actually licked the mighty Zionist machine in 17 state legislatures. The Zionists, Communists and "liberals" did everything in their power to keep these legislatures from rescinding the world government resolutions. We whipped them.

The one big project in the coming eight months is to whip the Marxist machine in the presidential campaign. The preferred candidate of this machine, General Eisenhower (see my Special Eisenhower Edition) must not get the Republican nomination. We must see that MacArthur or Taft gets that nomination.

We have to fight immediate battles to persuade Congress to shut the gates to undesirable immigrants; and we have to stop, if possible, the Universal Military Training power drive. There are a number of other bills which urgently need our support.

But the big job is to get the right man into the White House.

Let us take a quick look at the relative position of the several candidates as of today; then let us see how we can best go about furthering the support of that great Anglo-Saxon leader, Douglas MacArthur.

Reports and polls show that Eisenhower has lost heavily both in popular acclaim and in expected support of delegates. These figures are nebulous and subject to change; anything could happen between now and the conventions. But as of now, it seems unlikely that Eisenhower can regain his losses. He probably cannot get the nomination unless he develops the courage to state where he stands on all important issues, and such a statement might finish him off permanently, because he stands with the Truman-Frankfurter-Acheson internationalists.

Taft's stock has risen steadily since last summer; he ranks even with and possibly a little ahead of Eisenhower in popular support, and far ahead of him in delegates pledged or expected to support him.

MacArthur is steadily rising in the presidential picture. Doubtless the most popular man in our time, he nevertheless was not considered seriously for the presidency by the bigwigs and by most of the columnists and radio commentators, until very recently. But unorganized demand for him is becoming so strong in all parts of the country that columnists now almost universally mention him among the most likely nominees at the Republican convention, July 7.

Stassen and Warren are far down the list. Congressman Werdel in California and a powerful group of anti-Warren, anti-New Deal conservative Republicans have openly challenged Warren's attempt to win the California delegation in the June 3 primary in this state. Werdel already has gone on the radio with his campaign and his backers already are taking newspaper ads. He is pulling no punches.

His backers appear to have ample funds. Many voters are sick of Warren's New-Dealing, his efforts to impose the Communist FEPC measure on this state, his stubborn opposition year after year to loyalty oaths and to enactment of Communist control laws, his constant catering to the Anti-Defamation League and the Communist element.

Stassen's entry in the California primary will split Warren's New Deal vote.

"ANTI-SEMITISM" IN RUSSIA IS MYTH

Despite general news releases that Jews in Russia are persecuted, and Zionist-prompted protests to the U. N. that investigations be made in Hungary and Poland where (the Zionists allege) discrimination against the Jews is shown, it is an irrefutable fact that there is no persecution of Jews in the U. S. S. R. and Communist-controlled countries.

While "persecution" propaganda is being written for the general public, the Jewish Telegraph Agency tells another story. Through a dispatch from its London office, it stated: "A number of Jews have received Stalin Prizes for their contribution to Soviet art and literature, according to a report received here from Moscow. Among the Jews honored are: Samuel Marshak, first prize in poetry; Lev Kassil, novelist; Wolf Rappaport, for films on China; Michael Gerdin and Wolf Cytron, for the film 'Moussorgsky'; Michael Romo, Alexander Stolper, M. Rappaport, for film."

Also through the London office of the Jewish Telegraph Agency comes the report that the Jewish Social and Cultural Union of Poland has announced its intention of creating schools and special study centers where Jews can learn "Marxist and Leninist" theory. The article further stated: "At a recent meeting in Lodz, Dr. M. Sfar, a representative of the Union, said that a new Jewish theater would be built in that city next year. He also spoke of the growing number of Yiddish books published in Poland."

A very recent report of the "Bias-free Life of Jews in U.S.S.R.," which "Cheers Visitors," was published in the radical Daily People's World of Los Angeles on October 29, 1951. According to the write-up, two Canadian Jewish trade unionists, Pearl Wedro and Dave Biderman, visited the U.S.S.R. with eight other Canadian unionists. Commenting on their visit, Wedro and Biderman declared:

"We went wherever we wanted to go and were shown all we asked to see . . . We spoke freely and frankly to young people and old people, ordinary citizens, top officials, asked questions and made inquiries."

"After just one day there, the absurdity and falsity of the charge of anti-Semitism was so apparent that we realized it would be insulting to even ask if anti-Semitism exists in the Soviet Union."

Miss Wedro and Biderman interviewed David Zaslavsky, the internationally-famous Jewish editorial writer of Pravda. During the conversation they took up many issues, including Jewish life in the Soviet Union. On that subject, Zaslavsky said:

"You have visited many different parts of our vast country. You saw for yourselves. I am certain that wherever you went you experienced no anti-Semitism, or sign of it. Undoubtedly, you must have met many Jews of differing occupations who have been honored for their contributions to the country and to the building of Socialism. You have seen for yourselves that in our country it is impossible to even think of any sort of discrimination. This is a socialist country!"

"Jews in the U.S.S.R. can develop economically and culturally according to their own choice and desire. There are Yiddish newspapers in the Jewish autonomous region, Yiddish schools, theaters, and so on."

"No change of any kind has taken place in the national Stalinist policy with regard to the Jews."

Thus spoke a Jew in a Jew-ruled country.

The real purpose of the "anti-Semitism" propaganda remains a mystery unless the Jews are using it as a smokescreen to conceal the fact the Communism is Jewish. The vast majority of American people are at last awakening to the fact that not only is Communism Jewish; that the Jews financed and promoted the Revolution in Russia but are the financiers and guiding spirit behind world-wide Revolution expressed in the great Jewish ideal of a United Nations. The Jewish writer Eli Eberlin in his book, Jews of Today (1928), wrote:

"... Jews could not maintain their state among the states of antiquity and fatally had to become the revolutionary ferment of the world. (p. 143) "That which is also Jewish in Bolshevism is the renunciation to rewards in a world beyond, and the hunt for happiness in this world. But this idea which marks the triumph of Jewish values over 'mystico-christian' values is now common to all peoples." (p. 155)

Communism and Zionism are one and the same thing—both are identical in concept—the twin evils of the age old political Messianic dream of world conquest by a united Jewry. As Nahum Sokolow, world Zionist leader, expressed it in his book, The History of Zionism (p. 38):

"The downfall of the stardom of Russia was undoubtedly one of the greatest events in the world's history. Russia entered into a period of Revolution which seemed to bring with it all the blessings of right and liberty. . . . The restrictions affecting nationalities and creeds were removed. But far from destroying Zionism, the new liberty gave it an immense stimulus."

Thus the above statement explains the fact that: "In all Bolshevik institutions the heads are Jews. They are contemptuous of everyone, which excites the people against them. They look upon Bolshevism as a Jewish affair . . . There is a great national religious fervor among the Jews. They believe that the promised time of the rule of 'God's elect' on earth is come."

Therefore the propaganda stories concerning the persecution of the Jews in Soviet Russia should be examined assiduously. For instance, the Zionistic New York Times (2/16/51) headlined a story: "PURGING OF JEWS IN SOVIET LAND DECRIED IN PLEA FOR ACTION BY U. N." Its substance was that there is official anti-Semitism in the Soviet Union and its satellite countries of Eastern Europe, particularly Poland, and that Jews are being systematically purged in all phases of political, economic and cultural life. The Times article began:

"The national executive board of the Jewish Labor Committee called here tonight for a thorough inquiry by the United Nations of the cultural and spiritual liquidation of Jewish life in Russia and other Soviet-dominated countries behind the Iron Curtain."

The March 21st issue of the N. Y. Times carried a similar story, datelined "UNITED NATIONS, N.Y.," which stated in part: "A delegation of labor leaders charged here that persons of the Jewish faith in the Soviet Union and its satellites were being subjected to 'cultural and spiritual genocide.'" The N.Y. Herald-Tribune, Newsweek, Time, U. S. News and World Report and dozens of other such publications have carried similar stories. In fact, the Jewish Labor Committee appealed:

"... to the conscience of humanity to intervene in time to terminate this genocide" of Eastern Jewry and called on the U. N. "to use all possible means to rescue for the remaining Jews within the Soviet Union and its satellites the right to live in dignity, security and peace."

Is this reference to the "remaining Jews" an implication that the others were liquidated? How can we reconcile these allegations of "anti-Semitic genocide" with the fact that theoretically and practically, the whole of Eastern Europe is ruled by such Jews as "the butcher woman of Rumania," Ana Pauker; Rakosi, Gero, Farkas, Revai, Horvath and Zold of Hungary; Minc, Berman and Zambrowsky rule Poland and Levi, the real Dictator of Bulgaria? Peter Furst, writing in the June issue of Jewish Life, says he asked one of the anti-Soviet propagandists of the State Department controlled "COMMITTEE FOR A FREE EUROPE" for an explanation of this anti-Soviet propaganda relative to the persecution of Jewry fostered by the American State Department and the American official explained that the Jews of Russia and its satellites "are traitors to the Jewish people. They have become assimilated."

The London Jewish Chronicle, in an article "POLAND'S POLITBURO—THREE JEWISH MEMBERS," tells an interesting story which is typical of the "assimilationist" Jews, "traitors to the Jewish people" and apologetically begins: "of the 13 members of the executive (or Politbureau) only three are Jews," but the fact is that the Jews comprise but 0.3 percent of the Polish population, whereas 3 out of 13 constitutes 25 percent of the total population! The Jewish Chronicle, writing about two of these "assimilated" Jews, Jacob Berman and Hilary Minc, who rule Poland, says:

"... although he has ceased to be a practicing Jew, Berman enjoys and welcomes Jewish company, and his office and home are open to his former Jewish friends. He had a Jewish upbringing and is said to be often found reading a Yiddish book. At one time before the war he earned his living as a member of the staff of a Jewish news agency."

... Hilary Minc is an assimilationist and Marxist, who nevertheless still likes to see his close Jewish friends and relatives and to crack a Jewish joke. As Minister of Industry and Chief Economic Planner of the new Poland, Minc has been responsible for giving more jobs to Jews than has any other minister in Poland. This is not because of any racial preference but because he insists on giving important posts to competent men . . ."

(Quoted from Jewish Life, 6/1951)

In other words, the Jewish-Marxist version of the Fair Employment Practices Act in practice! Minc's excuse is typically Jewish, the most lucrative jobs are given to the Jews because they are "competent men." In the same Jewish Life article, Peter Furst reminds us that:

"... in 'officially anti-Semitic' Poland, the law not only provides stiff prison sentences for any manifestation of anti-Semitism but even makes the death penalty mandatory in cases where anti-Semitic agitation has led to violence (as in the Lielce pogrom in 1946)."

In the same issue of Jewish Life an article "FROM THE FOUR CORNERS" reports:

"THE EIGHTH ANNIVERSARY of the Warsaw Ghetto Uprising was celebrated all over the world in April. In Warsaw delegations of Jewish workers, trade unionists and political groups marched to the Ghetto memorial and held a ceremony there. The Polish Army assigned an honor guard for the occasion. . . ."

People of reasonable intelligence will certainly question the veracity of the allegations in the Jewish dominated American press of anti-Semitism in Soviet Russia, for it is a matter of public knowledge that anti-Semitism is a crime against the Government, i.e., the Jews, in Russia. Stalin describes anti-Semitism as "cannibalism" in his statement which we quote:

"Anti-Semitism as the most extreme form of racial chauvinism is the most dangerous vestige of cannibalism. Anti-Semitism is useful to the exploiters as a lightning rod, pulling capitalism out from under the blows of the working class."

(Quoted from Jewish Life, 6/51)

Since we lack the necessary facilities to personally investigate Stalin's charge that the Russian anti-Semites eat the flesh of their Jewish victims, we will not dispute his statement. On the other hand, ample proof is presented by various Jewish publications that anti-Semitism is a capital offense in Soviet Russia, notwithstanding the fact that the Jewish financed and directed Revolution in Russia was responsible for the murder of some thirty million Christians. Opinion magazine, edited by the late Rabbi Wise (Stephen S. Wise), described the power of Jewry in Russia as follows:

"With the rise of the Soviet regime . . . never has the world witnessed such a spectacular change of front on the part of a great State toward Jews. . . . The State which previously did not employ any Jews at all, now employs in White Russia 61% Jewish officials . . . (Jewish population in Russia is less than 2% of the total). "A Jew is commander-in-chief of the Ukrainian Army; a Jew is President of the State Bank; Jews occupy most all important ambassadorial positions of the Soviet Union; the universities, professors, judiciary and administration, have now a greater percentage of Jews than any other nationality. Anti-Semitism has been declared a State Offense, and is punished as counter-revolution." (Dec. 1933).

The B'nai B'rith magazine of Nov., 1939, p. 82, states:

"The Jew . . . in Russia, has . . . achieved a prominent position in governmental affairs. Some have done it through sheer ability; others through marriage. Mrs. Molotov, wife of the Commissar of Foreign Affairs, is one of the Jews who has achieved a prominent position through marriage."

Call of Youth (3/36), organ of Workmen's Circle, Jewish Socialist Fraternal organization, wrote:

"A great percentage of young Jews in the Soviet are officials and are thus arousing the envy of other groups . . ."

The London Jewish Chronicle (1/6/33), largest conservative Jewish daily of England, wrote as follows about the Jews of Russia:

"Over one third of the Jews have become officials."

In the November 18, 1932 edition of the American Hebrew, the Editor wrote therein:

"According to such information as the writer could secure while in Russia a few weeks ago, not one Jewish Synagogue has been torn down, as have hundred, perhaps thousands of the Greek Catho-

MAC ARTHUR

If Werdel wins in the Republican primary he will have the authority to appoint the entire California Republican delegation of 70 members. Being a MacArthur-Taft man, naturally he will pick delegates who are for MacArthur and Taft, and, though he will release them to vote as they choose, it is a foregone conclusion that a Werdel delegation would back MacArthur or Taft. Warren would back himself, or perhaps trade out to Eisenhower for a cabinet or Supreme Court job.

Truman has refused to say whether or not he will run again but the very fact that he waits so long and hasn't built up a successor, tends to confirm my forecasts of long standing (and a report in Hearst papers of November 12, 1951) that he wants Eisenhower on both Republican and Democratic tickets.

As I have shown in past issues (incorporated in the Eisenhower Special Edition) this has been the Anti-Defamation League plan from the beginning. To nominate any man on both tickets of course would destroy the Republic, but what would please the Anti-Defamation League more than that?

Mr. Truman often acts in close harmony with the Anti-Defamation League in important political maneuvers. He has said more than once that he likes Ike and would be glad to see him given the Republican nod, and Eisenhower himself said Truman had offered to get him the Democratic nomination.

Suppose they succeed in getting the Republican nomination for Eisenhower. It would then be a simple matter for the New Deal element in control of the Democratic party to throw the Democratic nomination also to Eisenhower, "for the sake of unity" (unity with the Communists, Zionists and New Dealers). The Southern Democrats then would have nowhere to go except to line up behind Eisenhower also—unless their rugged independence and militant Americanism rebelled—since this kind of unity would mean the end of the Republic.

Since Senator Russell of Georgia has announced that he will run for the Democratic nomination, it seems unlikely that Eisenhower could get the South's backing, especially if he had previously accepted the Republican nomination.

It seems not unlikely also that if Eisenhower won the Republican nod, then accepted the Democratic New Deal label also—MacArthur, Taft and fellow Republicans might repudiate the nomination of Eisenhower and call another Republican convention.

We have seen so much evidence of the political naivete and lack of understanding on the part of Eisenhower, and evidence also of his amazing moral cowardice, we may doubt that he would dare to run unless assured he would win without having to debate the issues. He is a surprisingly humdrum and uninspiring radio speaker (I have heard him), and can be fired up this week on a big idea and fired up next week on the opposite—perhaps without even realizing his inconsistency. MacArthur, Taft, Russell or Dirksen would strip him naked as a picked chicken in a debate.

MacArthur succinctly sized him up, "I don't think he's got the guts to tackle the job" (of President).

Don't give up MacArthur; he still will accept if nominated, and he is the man we need.

The question is how to get MacArthur nominated. There is a slate for him in the Wisconsin primary April 1; while in Nebraska the Joan of Arc warrior, little Mary Kenney is asking the voters to let her pick the Republican delegation—for MacArthur.

Mrs. Kenney splurged into page one of the newspapers and into the hearts of many voters by her dramatic fight for MacArthur. She first entered her name for the primary (April 1). He withdrew his name. She then entered the name of General Wedemeyer (for MacArthur). He too withdrew, and just before the deadline for filing petitions. Unwilling to take no for an answer, Mrs. Kenney (aided by her husband) got in her car and raced day and night through four districts, ringing doorbells, storming crowds wherever people congregated—and filed the required number of signatures to put her on the ballot, just an hour before closing time.

Write editors in these states and contact friends there, urging support of the MacArthur slates. But above all, contact John Chapple, newspaper editor and founder of Fighters for MacArthur, Ashland, Wisc., and ask how you can help in the various states that have presidential preference primaries. If you can send him money, do so, to help pay for newspaper and radio ads.

Here is a suggestion:

In states where no MacArthur slate is entered, launch a WRITE-IN MACARTHUR campaign in newspapers and radio. Get neighbors and associates and patriotic organizations to help you pay for ads, and get them to write editors and make talks before service and other clubs, urging voters to write in the name of MacArthur. A good showing by this handicapped route might mean victory at Chicago July 7.

Meanwhile, let us double and treble the amount of literature we place in the hands of key persons in community, state and nation, showing them the basic facts about the racial revolution—the Marxist immigrant machine behind the New Deal, bent on destruction of Christianity and the white race.

Your dollar will be worth even less than the Truman dollar if we lose this election. Put every available cent into the 1952 fight.

We are on the way to a great victory. It is thrilling to be on the firing line this historic year. If we are the threatened, intimidated, terrorized race, still we are the element of mankind endowed with the qualities of resourceful leadership, and this endowment charges us with heavy responsibility.

Let us be worthy of the responsibility in this decisive year.

STATEMENT OF GENERAL MacARTHUR

I have been informed that petitions have been filed in Madison . . . Wisc. presenting my name to the electorate for consideration at the primary . . . I am deeply grateful for this display of friendly confidence. No man could fail to be profoundly stirred by such a public movement in this hour of momentous import, national and international, temporal and spiritual.

While it seems unnecessary for me to repeat that I do not actively seek or covet any office, and have no plans for leaving my post in Japan, I can say with due humility, that I would be recreant to all my concepts of good citizenship were I to shrink because of the hazards and responsibilities from accepting any public duty to which I might be called by the American people.—Tokio, 1943.

Black Paper On Korea

By GEORGE THOMAS ADAMS

In "Ambassador William Dodd's Diary," Dodd, U. S. Ambassador to Germany from 1933-1938, writes,

"Dec. 4, 1933: John Foster Dulles, legal counsel for associated American banks, called this afternoon to give an account of claims being urged on behalf of bondholders against German cities and corporations, more than a billion dollars. He seemed very clever and resolute."

"Jan 24, 1936: John Foster Dulles, a New York lawyer from Sullivan and Cromwell reported his difficulties in financial matters here."

John Foster Dulles is a director of International Nickel, American Banknote Co., and other corporations. He has been widely publicized as the protagonist of the Bipartisan foreign policy of betraying the United States, which was originated by the Rothschild policy group, the Council on Foreign Relations, of which he is on the executive committee. His brother, Allen W. Dulles, also of Sullivan & Cromwell, is President of the Council on Foreign Relations. Allen W. Dulles was also present at the Versailles Peace Conference as legal adviser to the United States, he was then Secretary in Charge of Near Eastern Affairs (Palestine) at the State Department until 1926, when he entered Sullivan & Cromwell. A director of the international banking house of J. Henry Schroeder & Co., he was head of the European division of the Office of Strategic Services during World War II.

Another partner of Sullivan & Cromwell is Eustace Seligman, also a member of the Council on Foreign Relations, and a member of the international banking family Seligman. His father, a famous gold standard economist, was head of the Dept. of Economics at Columbia University. Eustace Seligman is a director of the billion dollar Marine Midland Trust with the Lehman brothers, which controls the vast Niagara Power Co. properties.

To return to Beverley Smith, "The President landed at Washington Sunday at 7:15. He was met by Louis Johnson, then Secretary of Defense, and Under Secretary of State James Webb."

Louis Johnson, a corporation lawyer, was then President of the General Dyestuff Corporation, a subsidiary of the I. G. Farben branch in America, General Aniline and Film, of which he also was a director. I. G. Farben was the property of the international bankers Warburg. Paul Warburg of Kuhn, Loeb Co. and father of the Federal Reserve Act, set up the American branch as American I. G. Chemical, which later was changed to General Aniline and Film.

James Webb qualified for the State Department as the former Assistant to Thomas A. Morgan of the international banking house of Lehman Brothers. Morgan was also President of Sperry Gyroscope and Chairman of the munitions firm of Vickers, in which the English Rothschilds own a large interest, so that Webb knew all about starting a war.

When Truman met his advisers at the White House for dinner that evening, among them was the Secretary of the Air Force Thomas K. Finletter, who for years had been a partner in the law firm of Cravath and Henderson, lawyers for Kuhn, Loeb Co. Finletter was a member of the treacherous U. S. Delegation to San Francisco in 1945, and he was a trustee of the Communist-front New School of Social Research in New York.

Smith writes that at dinner at eight o'clock at Blair House that fateful Sunday evening, "conversation was general, and no notes were taken." It is surprising to the historian that at so many of these eventful occasions the participants talk about nothing in particular and take no notes. For instance, the Supreme Council at the Versailles Peace Conference in 1919 took no notes, nor did the historic luncheon of the directors of the European Central Banks and the Governors of the Federal Reserve Board at Washington in 1927 yield a single note, although a Congressional Investigation proved that the Depression of 1929-1933 was planned at this meeting.

Of President Truman's decision to commit American troops to Korea, Smith writes, "Practically every major newspaper in the country approved, with the exception of the Chicago Tribune and its affiliate, the Washington Times-Herald. Taft later indicated he would have voted in favor of it." Perhaps this was after Taft conferred with his adviser, Rabbi Silver.

Congressional leaders with Truman at this time were Senator Scott Lucas of Illinois, defeated for re-election because of underworld affiliations, and Senator Millard Tydings of Maryland whose clearing of State Department Communists turned the voters against him.

On the following Thursday Truman and his advisers again met at the White House at five o'clock including "John Foster Dulles, just back from Korea, Averell Harriman, hastily summoned back from Paris: Stuart Symington, then Chairman of the National Security Resources Board, and James Lay, executive secretary of the National Security Council."

Averell Harriman succeeded Philip Jessup as U. S. Ambassador-at-large, a position held during the Roosevelt regime by the J. & W. Seligman employee Norman H. Davis, who was also President of the Council on Foreign Relations. Harriman was accompanied everywhere by the German Jew Walter J. Levy, a specialist in international oil. Harriman's father, E. H. Harriman, was the front man on Wall Street for Jacob Schiff of Kuhn, Loeb Co. when Schiff acquired the great Union Pacific properties from the United States Government for the Rothschilds. Averell Harriman is a partner in Brown Brothers Harriman, investment bankers and agents for Kuhn Loeb. The present Secretary of Defense Robert Lovett, also a partner in Brown Brothers Harriman, held several directorships in British insurance firms which were controlled by the Rothschilds.

James Lay, also present at the White House during the Korean crisis, is executive secretary of the National Security Council, an organization which is understandably reticent about its activities, for it is a OGPU type group which exists to gauge and undermine American resistance to Communism. Security, whenever used officially today, does not mean the security of the American people, but the security of the international bankers who have promoted and financed Communism, and who are now devoted to its goal of world domination.

Smith's article continues "Senator Wherry said that he thought that the President ought to consult Congress before sending ground troops. Mr. Truman told of the urgent events of the last eighteen hours."

Smith quotes William S. White's New York Times report of the event, "The delegation returned to the Capitol in a somber but elevated mood."

And Smith concludes, "At 1:22 P. M., almost precisely six days after the fighting started, the orders were on the way to MacArthur. We were in."

"ANTI-SEMITISM" IN RUSSIA IS MYTH

lic Churches . . . In Moscow and other large cities one can see Christian Churches in the process of destruction . . . the Government needs the location for large buildings."

The Soviet Government, according to the above and various other Jewish reports, never required the space occupied by Jewish synagogues for buildings, only those sites occupied by Christian churches. There is not a Christian church in all of Soviet Russia today where public worship is permitted. What of the present status of the Jews in that miserable country? A dispatch datelined Moscow, 4/20/51, appearing in the N. Y. Times, reads in part as follows:

"The festival of Passover was celebrated tonight with traditional ceremonies in Moscow's crowded Central Synagogue. At sundown the voice of Moscow's famed Cantor Barkan resounded sonorously in solemn chants commemorating the Exodus of the Jews from Egypt. Later in the evening in thousands of Moscow's Orthodox Jewish homes the customary feast of unleavened bread was eaten.

"Moscow's Central Synagogue is only a few blocks from the center of the city. Tonight's congregation appeared to be a representative cross-section of the Jewish populace, young, middle-aged and some elderly bearded Jews. There were a number of women, many of them smartly dressed, in the gallery, which runs around three sides of the temple. . . . The synagogue was illuminated brilliantly by electric candelabras, as well as many seven-branched candlesticks. The nave was beautifully decorated."

Following are excerpts from a report published in the London Jewish Chronicle (3/23/1951), by Gerald Abrahams, a Liverpool lawyer and chess master who attended the chess matches in Moscow:

"Younger Jews are . . . almost completely assimilated in the Soviet outlook and suggest the young merchant of New York, completely Americanized. . . . All the Jews of Moscow have the word 'Yevrai' (Jew) printed on their passports. This alarms them much less than it alarmed me. (Mr. Abrahams seems unaware that all Soviet passports have the nationality, no matter which, of the person's mother noted on them.—Eds.) . . . None of the Jews I chatted with was afraid to discuss matters and all seem genuinely confident as to their future well-being. Jews below the age of 50 generally have the interests of the Soviet citizens. The synagogue which I found . . . was just off what appeared to be an important street. . . . I found a handsome Shool of the most important Orthodox type, complete with Bima, Aron Kodesh, pulpit and Siddurim. The Shammash, capable and hard-working, might have existed in a London Synagogue. . . . in the circles in which I moved, the aristocracy of Russia . . . I found many Jews well known to me, I came away convinced that they, at least, are living happy and prosperous lives."

The above articles should disprove immediately the lying propaganda of the Jewish controlled American Press which would have the American people believe the Jews are being persecuted in Russia. How do the Jews fare in the Soviet controlled countries of Eastern Europe? Hungary, for instance? The Vienna correspondent of the London Jewish Chronicle reported in the April 13, 1951 edition as follows:

"Some detail of Jewish life in Budapest were given to me recently by Hungarian Jews who passed through Vienna on their way to Israel.

"The Budapest Community (Kehilla) supervises the activities of all Jewish communities in Hungary, whether Reform or Orthodox. The President, Dr. L. Stoeckler, is in private life the director of the State-controlled lace factory, which formerly belonged to him.

"Budapest as 11 synagogues and several smaller places of worship. All are well attended on Sabbath and Holy days but on week days it is usually difficult to form a minyan. Dr. Benjamin Schwarz is president of the Rabbinical College, which has 40 students."

On the one hand, we find the Pontiff of the Catholic Church, Pius XII, calling upon Eastern European Catholics to be brave martyrs for their faith, while the above articles serve to remind us that the Jews practice their religion openly and freely. Who is being persecuted in Eastern Europe, the satellite countries of the U.S.S.R.? Certainly not the Jews! All evidence on the contrary points to the violent persecution of the Christians. Turning for a moment to Yugoslavia:

"An interview of a London Jewish Chronicle reporter with Moshe Pijade, the Jewish Vice President of Tito's Yugoslavia, held in London in March, concluded with the following: 'There was one subject, however, on which Mr. Pijade was less forthcoming—the problem of German rearmament. The Yugoslavs, he said, were against rearming the Germans; but they recognized that the whole problem was complicated.'"

(Quoted from Jewish Life, 6/51)

Concerning Czechoslovakia, the following letter by A. Wolffe, Labor Councillor of West Ham, London, was published in Labour Israel, Mapam organ in England, in the April 1951 issue:

"I have just returned from a visit to Czechoslovakia, the second in the past six months. I had conversations with a number of Jews in Prague and elsewhere and the vast majority are more than happy with conditions prevailing there. . . . Racial discrimination or anti-Semitic utterances are punishable by law. The only shadow hanging over their heads is the proposed rearming of Germany. To them an armed Germany with reinstated Nazi leaders is only too painfully real to be merely criticized or commented upon."

The above article on Yugoslavia should convince the reader that there are no behind-the-scenes differences between Jewish dominated Yugoslavia and Jewish controlled Russia. The same International Jews responsible for the Revolution in Russia also put Tito in power in Yugoslavia and it is obvious that the Jew, Pijade, is the real ruler of that unhappy country. All Jews everywhere, regardless of the country they rule, owe allegiance to Zionism and any seeming public differences are merely a smokescreen, i.e., a benefit act for the stupid Gentiles. In the words of the Jewish writer, Moses Hess in Rom und Jerusalem, "Every Jew is, whether he wishes it or not, solidly united with the entire Jewish nation." Rene Groos, Jewish author, writing in Le Nouveau Mercure, (5/27), Paris, declared: "There is a Jewish conspiracy against all nations." What is the nature of this conspiracy? The prominent Jewish novelist, Samuel Roth, in his book, Now and Forever, (1925), sums it up as follows:

"Europe is in the process of decay. There will rise once more the spirit . . . in the countries East of the Red Sea. Is it not this that we Jews should pray for?"

"We Jews must wait a long time. When the period of waiting is over, the whole face of the world will have changed. America will be as old as England is today." (Decayed with Socialism?). "The bones of Europe will move with a faint shudder of decay. America will expel the Jews. The yellow peoples will be on her back and at her throat."

"A terrible man will arise. This man will become leader of an enterprise of vengeance. The yellow cloud will slowly descend in their midst. The lives of the peoples of Europe will flow out of them. In Russia only sucklings and illiterates will be spared. Of Poland and the Ukraine he will make a howling wilderness. All the women in those countries will be put to shame before being killed."

This is what "we Jews should pray for," says Roth, and with the aid of the American people, money and arms, much of it has already been accomplished. After we Americans assist the Jews in completing the destruction of Europe, the Jews will then turn the Asiatic hordes upon us—at our backs and at our throats. Is it any wonder, then, that the Kalmuck Jew, Lenin, decreed:

"The Council of People's Commissars has instructed all Soviet Deputies to take uncompromising measures to tear out the Anti-Semitic movement by the roots; pogroms are to be placed outside the law."

The Jewish-Marxist novelist, Sholem Asch, commented on anti-Semitism in Soviet Russia as follows in the Jewish World, London, 6/29/22:

"In Russia peasants, soldiers, women, city-dwellers, everybody hates Jews. . . . Jews of Russia are unanimous in believing that the fall of the Soviets and the grasping of power by other hands would be the greatest calamity for Jews that can be imagined."

Again, in Golos Rossii, the same Leftist writer Asch, warns:

"The slightest shaking of the Soviet regime would mean death for the Jews."

Until the headlines of the Times and other American newspapers scream: "REVOLUTION SWEEPS SOV-IET," it is not possible to believe that the Jews are being persecuted in the U.S.S.R. and its satellites!

BLACK PAPER

In some 5,000 words of "Why We Went to War In Korea", Beverly Smith repeatedly states that we went in to stop Communist aggression. From his own account, however, we learn that the State Department officials and military advisers with Truman at this time were the same individuals who for several years followed a consistent policy of turning China over to the Communists, sabotaging the Kuomintang Party of Chiang Kai-Shek, diverting millions of dollars worth of war goods to the Communist forces under Mao, and preventing military aid which had been authorized by Congress from reaching the South Koreans BEFORE the North Korean attack. No card-carrying member of the Communist Party could have been more devoted to the success of Stalin until June of 1950. What was the case of this sudden about-face on the problem of Communist aggression? Was it the decision that Russia had now been sufficiently strengthened by ECA goods to fight a Third World War? For these same people and their interests promoted Hitler throughout the Nineteen Thirties until he was strong enough to start the Second World War, and suddenly, in 1939, he found his international credits cut off and the bankers allied against him.

With Smith's account in the Saturday Evening Post is a picture of John Foster Dulles with the caption "John Foster Dulles was one of the first officials to propose that we commit our troops in Korea." Dulles' capacity as the agent of international bankers is obvious enough, but study fails to reveal any "official" capacity in this crisis. He is also a power in the National Council of Churches of Christ which has done so much to get Christianity to lie down in the same bed with Communism, and whose sympathies and activities are much more Hebraic than Christian. Dulles is a devout man, and, while planning the murder of a million American boys, he is able to toss off Christian platitudes, which are faithfully reported in Time and Life, the publications of fellow-Council on Foreign Relations member Henry Luce.

It is this historian's conclusions that the Korean War had two purposes,

First, the protection of investments by Jewish bankers in Japan and Korea.

Second, the slaughter of hundreds of thousands of American youths in a softening-up process of the United States for a Russian invasion.

WORLD JEWRY WANTS WAR

We are so close to the blood and tears of the Second World War that no normal human being desires to be massacred in a repetition of this calamity. It behooves us, then, to examine the forces which are leading us into it. The agencies which are creating a war fever in America and Russia are the daily press, the radio, television, and the movies. All of these agencies are completely in Jewish hands. They are devoted to promoting the Third World War because the World Zionist Organization confidently expects to assume its role as the master of the world once America and Russia are destroyed.

Russia has been preparing for this calamity since 1917, when Communist Jews murdered the ruling class of Russia and subjected the Russian people to a reign of terror which still holds them in abject submission. America was won much more easily, by little more than her daily press. No criticism or unfavorable reference to the Jewish plan has been seen in a Metropolitan American newspaper since 1900. Consequently, Lord Reading, Chief of the British Mission to the United States during the First World War, was never referred to by his given name of Rufus Isaacs (the Isaacs family owned Marconi Wireless), nor was it pointed out to the American people that Sir William Wiseman, head of the British Secret Service in America at that time, was a partner of Kuhn, Loeb Co., the New York firm which financed Trotsky in the Communist Revolution of 1917. Anti-British feeling in the United States today is misplaced, since it should be anti-Jewish feeling. America should be particularly considerate of the British people, who have been despoiled by international Jewish bankers, for we are undergoing the same process.

Since America is already under the heel of the Jew, it may well be asked why it is necessary to lead this nation into a bloody war, and the answers to this are several. First, there is the national debt, a matter of total longterm obligations of 650 billion dollars. While the Jews are content for the moment to collect a yearly interest on this sum of seven billion dollars, without touching the principal, eventually they will desire to increase their annual profits by requiring the Treasury to retire a percentage of the debt, and this will be a crucial moment in the internal political structure of the United States. Further servicing of the debt cannot be accomplished without substantially lowering the standard of living here, as well as placing a much more oppressive burden upon the taxpayer. Consequently, the debt cannot be serviced without a much more rigorous control over the individual than can be

Letter of Herman Goering to Winston Churchill

REPUBLISHED By REQUEST FROM COMMON SENSE ISSUE NUMBER 120 (JULY 1st, 1950)

(Editor's note:

When Rudolph Hess flew to England, he tried to convince England that they should fight with Germany and clean up Communism in the Soviet Union. Even a moron can see the wisdom of this now, but Rudolph Hess is imprisoned in Berlin where he receives cruel treatment. He should be released and honored as a farseeing man who had courage. Communism would have been entirely uprooted in the world had the world listened to him.

The Jews who controlled England and the United States and who were and are the power behind Communism, killed Hess' plan. The Jews wanted Germany crushed so Communism could be allowed to spread out from the Soviet Union and engulf Europe.

Germany has been crushed; Great Britain is bankrupt and the European Nations are controlled by Jews or trembling in fear of being taken over. The United States finds itself living in a Communist world and about to be conquered by the Jewish Communist fifth column. Every Senator and Congressman and every American should read this letter carefully.)

Mr. Churchill:

You will have the satisfaction to survive me and my comrades in misfortune. I do not hesitate to congratulate you on this personal triumph and the finesse with which you have accomplished it. You have gone to great expense in order to secure this success, for yourself and Great Britain. Should I believe you sufficiently naive as to consider this success anything more than a show, detrimental to the Great German Empire—a performance for the peoples and their Jewish and bolshevist confederates, which were maneuvered by you into the war—then my statement to you during this last hour of my life would also in the eyes of posterity be squandered upon an undeserving one.

My pride as a German and as one of the foremost responsible German leaders forbids me to lose even a single word in a dispute of world-historical importance on the disgraceful lowliness of the methods employed by the victors as far as these proceedings concern my own person. However, as it is the obvious and announced intention of their administration of the law to throw the very German people into the abyss of illegality and to rob them once for all of a future possibility to defend themselves by the removal of the responsible men of the national socialistic state, I have to add

THE JAPANESE PEACE TREATY

By: John T. Wood, Congressman of Idaho
The Japanese Peace Treaty, in effect, really a Japanese-United Nations Peace Treaty, was formally ratified by the U.S. Senate, Thursday, March 20, 1952. The vote was 66 Yeas, and 10 Nays.

I am happy to inform you that our two Idaho Senators voted against its ratification. All honor to them! Senators Dworshak and Welker of Idaho, Malone and McCarran of Nevada, Dirksen of Illinois, Ecton of Montana, Jenner of Indiana, Kem of Missouri, Young of North Dakota, and McCarthy of Wisconsin, voted against it.

Shortly after its ratification, a Mutual Defense Pact between the United States, Australia, New Zealand, the Philippines, and Japan was presented for treaty ratification. Owing to its similarity with the North Atlantic Treaty Organization, or NATO, this Pacific Pact was christened "PATO" by Senator Jenner during the discussion.

Senators opposing the Treaty claimed little opportunity or time had been afforded to thoroughly study the documents; and that there had been a complete dearth given to the general public.

It will be noted this differed from the millions of taxpayers' dollars spent in propaganda to put across the United Nations to the American public. There can be little doubt that if the public had been made aware of the Constitutional rights of American citizens and of Congress present in them, and now LOST through their ratification, a wave of popular resentment would have spread over thinking America which would have at the very least served to prevent such premature acceptance.

The Human Rights Convention has never been given Treaty rights by the Senate. Yet the Japanese Peace Treaty blandly assumes it to achieved under the present, so-called democratic government. The answer to this problem is the totalitarianism of the Hebrew philosophy of government, Communism.

The achievement of Communism in America can only be brought about by a Third World War, which it is now intended that America shall lose. Since the present "American" government is at the top level entirely composed of various lawyers, investment counselors, etc., of the Jewish international bankers, typically, Dean Acheson, John Foster Dulles, Robert Lovett, and Anna Rosenberg, the problem of betraying America to the Communist armies is a simple one. The present stripping of the American continent of its defensive forces is a logical expression of this ideal. Our troops and weapons are sent thousands of miles from the proposed Russian attack. The plan is that the Soviet armies shall move from Siberian bases down through Alaska and Canada to seize the automobile factories of Detroit. Soviet tank and truck production has never been sufficient to support a fullscale war, and since there can be no Lord Beaverbrook-W. Averell Harriman Mission to Moscow to supply Russia with tanks and trucks, the only alternative is to turn the factories over to them. How, then, one should inquire, can our big industrialists support the present "American" government, if that government is dedicated to betraying our people? The answer to that is in the history of Germany. Although Germany lost the First World War, her big industrialists lost nothing, nor did the Jewish bankers who backed them lose anything. It should be remembered that the firm of I. G. Farben, which has been a Warburg family enterprise from its inception, has survived the Second World War and is now the most flourishing corporation in postwar Germany. When we lose the Third World War to the Zionist Communist government of Soviet Union, does anyone seriously believe that such plants as Studebaker, always controlled by the Lehman family of bankers, would suffer? It is the political ambitions of the great corporations which determine military strategy in our time, and if we notice in Poor's Directory of Directors that the partners of Lehman Brothers, Senator Herbert Lehman's family house, hold one hundred and seventeen directorships in the largest corporations in America, partner Thomas A. Morgan being the Chairman of Sperry Gyroscope and Vickers as well as a dozen others, we can understand why General Lucius Clay was welcomed as a partner when he returned from Germany, and given the Presidency of Continental Can Co., a firm in which Lehman's have never held less than three directorships at a time.

The corporations controlled by Jewish bankers have no nationalist loyalties. That is why we have the United Nations, and that is why we have a government which is devoted to betraying the American people into the hands of the Communist. I have stated many times that there is now and has never been but the one issue before the American people, whether we shall be free men or slaves, and it is the response of the people to this challenge which will determine the history of the twentieth century.

a few words to the historic subject of the verdict, premeditated by you and your allies.

I direct these remarks to you, since you are one of the best informed ones regarding the the true underlying reasons for this war and on the possibility of avoiding the same; or to end it at least in a manner bearable for the European future; and yet refuse your testimony and your oath to your own high court of justice. Therefore I shall not fail, while there is still time, to call you before the tribunal of history and direct my statements to you because I know that this tribunal shall expose you some day as that man, who, with ambition, intelligence and energy has thrown the fate of the European nations under the wheels of foreign world powers.

In you I identify before history the man who had the ability to bring to fall Adolf Hitler and his political accomplishments; the man; who will, however, be unable to raise the shield protectively against the invasion of Europe by the Asiatics.

It was your ambition to justify the Versailles Treaty regarding Germany. It will prove fatal to you that you succeeded. You personified the hardened obstinacy of your old gentry; and you also personified the stubbornness of its old age, opposing the last gigantic effort of the rejuvenated German power to decide the fate of Europe in the steppes of Asia in order to safeguard the same in the future. Long after my responsibility in the future development of events has found its objective judge, it will be put to your account that the past bloody war has not been the final one which had to be fought on the continent for the very possibility of existence of its nations.

You will have to answer for the fact that the bloody war of yesterday will be followed by a still greater one and that the European nations will not rule at the Volga, but at the Pyreness mountains. It is my fervent wish that you may at least live to see the day on which the world and the western nations in particular, will become aware of the bitter truth that it was you and your friend Roosevelt who sold their future to Bolshevism for a cheap personal triumph over nationalistic Germany. This day may come sooner than you like, and you, in spite of your advanced age, will still be vigorous enough to see it dawn bloody red over the British Isle.

I am convinced that it will bring you all those unimaginable terrors which you escaped this time through the good luck of war, or through the abhorrence of the German conduct of war to a complete degeneration of the methods of fighting between peoples of the same race. My knowledge regarding the kind and amount of arms and of the projects from us, which—thanks to your military assistance to the red army—have fallen into their hands, enable me to form this supposition.

There is no doubt that you—according to your habit—soon will write good memoirs and you will write the better, as there is nobody to hinder you to tell and suppress whatever you like. However, you will be powerless in view of the corrections which the, by you instigated, development unerringly will make. Then you will be obliged to answer to the peoples those questions which you still owe to your tribunal; not in the same degree to us, as we do not want your fairness, but solely what you denied to historical truth.

You believe it very clever to have submitted this historic truth to the craftiness of a handful of ambitious junior lawyers in order to have it changed into an expedient dialectic treatise, in spite of your awareness as a Briton as well as a statesman that with such means the problems of existence of people could not be solved and judged; neither in the past nor in the future.

I have an only too well grounded opinion of your power and the cunning of your intelligence as to credit you with believing the vulgar propaganda with which you motivated the war against us and with which you had your victory over us glorified in a phantastic show.

I state here with great emphasis as one of the highest military, political and economic leaders of the Great German Empire the following: This war could not be avoided because the politics of Great Britain—under the influence of your person and of your friends of like opinions in all fields—persisted constantly to hinder the life-interests and the most natural development of the German people; and—filled with the senile ambition to uphold the British hegemony—preferred the second world war to an understanding, as we on our side had tried time and again to bring about, beneficial to both of the most prominent nations of Europe.

I declare herewith once more most emphatically that the guilt of the German people in this war—into which they were forced by you—consists solely in trying to end the eternal difficulties to their national existence, which you artfully instigated and continued.

It would be useless to go with you into a dispute over the causes, the conditions of constraint and the motives which led during the course of the war to political and military complications and which your lawyers knew so well to use in a one-sided manner at the cost of the national socialistic regime. The devastated European regions of culture and rubbed treasures give still today testimony of the embittered despair with which a great and proud people yesterday, with unparalleled readiness to make sacrifices, fought for its existence. Tomorrow they will testify that alone the overpowering might, led you in the field, was able to cause the subjection and deprivation of their rights. The day after tomorrow the Russians will bear witness of the betrayal which surrendered Europe to the red Asiatics.

The Germany which you conquered will take revenge on you through its downfall. You have neither produced a better politic nor shown a greater courage than we. You have not won the victory due to better qualities or superiority of your strength and strategy, but merely after 6 years with the predominance of your allies. Do not believe your victory to be all that which you tell the world. You and your land soon will harvest the fruits of your political art. What you as an experienced Cynic would not admit toward us—namely that our fight in the East was an act of urgent defense, and not alone for Germany but for all Europe; and that the German fighting this war, which you constantly condemned, therefore was justified. This, your ally and friends of today, Stalin, soon will prove to you and to the British Empire.

Then you will experience what it means to fight this enemy and you also will learn that necessity knows no law: Also that you can neither fight him successfully with treaties of law nor with the weight of Great Britain and her European dwarfs.

You have stated to the German people that you were primarily concerned with the restoration of their democratic mode of life. But you have not said a single word that you want to restore to them the sensible foundations for living, which have been denied them these past 25 years. Your name stands under all essential documents of this epoch of British want of comprehension and jealousy towards Germany. Your name also will stand under the result with which this epoch of Germany's liquidation has challenged history in re of Europe's existence.

My belief in the vitality of my people cannot be shaken. They will be stronger and live longer than you. However, it distresses me to know them defenseless in your power and that they now also belong to the luckless victims, who, thanks to your success, do not approach a future of progressive work for the realization of their common aim, set forth by intelligence for the western peoples, but are driven toward the greatest catastrophe in their common history.

I do not wish to argue outrages, which you—rightly or wrongly—ascribe to us and which neither agree with my nor with the German peoples comprehension, neither do I wish to talk about those atrocities which have been committed on your part and on the part of your allies toward millions of Germans: for I know that you have made under this pretend the entire German people the object of a collec-

WE NEED MacARTHUR

The world is sick. America is sick. When an individual is gravely ill what do you do? You engage a specialist. In this, today's, tragic picture, yes perhaps in all history, no single nation has ever been so torn and disrupted as was conquered Japan. Yet in a relatively short period it has been restored to a new level of economic, social and moral dignity among nations. America would be electrified and repatriated beyond description if given but a portion of the same inspired leadership. Therefore, despite whatever may be his published or private intentions, let's engage such a specialist to be our next President; the man who has the qualities and genius to perform such wonders; the one who is perhaps feared more by the Kremlin more than any other living persons; one who hates war, yet if it be employed against us, the one who has the ability to seize the sword extended by the invader and bring him to his knees; one who like our great Washington, Lincoln, and other patriots, has proven ability, moral character, leadership, and statesmanship; and one who first and always has never forgotten that our coins still carry the words, "In God We Trust," also, that our Constitution was built on that foundation.

Let's vindicate the Divinely inspired wisdom and visions of our forefathers! Let's revive the true, great destiny of the U.S.A.! How? Let's draft Douglas MacArthur and make him our next President!! Find out the name of the delegate to the 1952 National Convention who lives nearest to you, then together with your friends urge him (or her) to draft MacArthur at the Convention. After the Convention, help to elect MacArthur and to give him a majority of members in Congress to guarantee that he can complete "The Big Job" of cleaning out these modern Aegean stables! Patriots awake! Act now!!

tive outrage of a proportion never known in history. I also know that you would not have acted differently regarding your treatment of Germany without this pretention, because since 1914 you have striven for nothing less than the destruction of the German empire. Thus, your historic goal denies you the office of a judge over the avoidable and unavoidable consequences caused by your unremitting intentions and which were welcome to you as subsequent proof for the justification of your actions. Today I regret my and the national-socialistic government's greatest mistake, the fateful error to believe in your discernment as a statesman. I regret to have trusted you with justiciouly recognizing the world-political necessity of a peaceful and progressive (prosperous) Germany for the existence of a flourishing England. I regret that our means did not suffice to convince you at the last moment that the liquidation of Germany would also be the beginning of the liquidation of Britain's world power. We began to act—each one according to his own law. I in line with the new one, for which this Europe was already too old—you holding on to the old one, for which this Europe is not any more important enough in the world.

I shall know how to approach my end in the absolute conviction as a German National Socialist and considering everything else, to have been a better European than you. I leave the judgement of this with an easy mind to posterity. I hope sincerely that you will belong to this world for a long time to come as fate might grant you—as it has to me—when you decline to leave to posterity also a truth.

Read and pass on!

What Is The Issue

The issue in the presidential campaign is our constitutional system of government, or socialism. Prior to the election of Franklin D. Roosevelt, the principal issue between the democratic and republican parties was the interpretation of the Constitution; the democrats advocating a strict construction and the republicans a liberal one under the "general welfare" clause.

Roosevelt changed it for political purposes. He sought to abolish the Constitution and to create a socialistic State in order to obtain the labor and Negro vote. That was his purpose in stocking the courts with socialists; in promoting the second world war and the treaties resulting therefrom, including the United Nations; in appointing George C. Marshall as our emissary to China; and in selecting Harry S. Truman as vice-president and his probable successor.

The issue that will be determined in the present election is whether or not we will abandon our Constitution and become a socialistic State. Candidates Truman, Kefauver and Kerr (democrats), and Eisenhower (republican), are for the socialistic State; Taft (republican), and Russell (democrat) are for our system of government.

I was a democrat prior to Roosevelt but am now an independent. I prefer Taft to Russell because I believe he will be more aggressive than Russell in "turning the rascals out", and that he will appoint General MacArthur as our Defense Minister. I believe that both Taft and Russell are better qualified than any of the socialist candidates, and that Douglas MacArthur will speedily win the war with the Soviet Union. He is, in fact, the logical man for President and Commander-in-Chief, and should be drafted.

Not ten Non-Marxist citizens understand the placing of the Steel Industry under the Marxist Administration. Gullible, pleasure crazy christians have been cursing Truman and making statements such as: "this is unconstitutional," "He cannot do this," "This is Socialism," "This is what they have in England," "Meat will be soon rationed to us." The Protocols tell you exactly their plan. The Jew conscious people know that the placing of 650,000 steel workers under this Communist ruled administration is part of the Communist plan and is comparable to our State Department who maneuvered five hundred million Chinese under Communism. They lately appointed a Socialist, Chester Bowles, as Ambassador to India in a step to push India over.

The Steel Owners are fighting in the dark, — Jews hiding in the background are directing every move. Why was Nathan Feinsinger placed as chairman of The Wage Stabilization Board? (Just happened of course.) Check the Attorneys for all big Labor Unions—they just happened to be Jews. Those of us who have paid the price to be informed understand that the Jews always work to secure control of labor in order to control votes and indoctrinate labor with Communism. Jews in such positions are placed there as part of the International Conspiracy to break down Governments and Communize the world. If the steel men do not have the courage to become Jew conscious and learn what they are really fighting, they should then kiss their industry good-bye. They will later be placed as slave laborers in their own plants if not shot as nuisances.

Get Out Of United Nations

be a part of American policy; and in it we enforce it upon Japan, though not recognizing it ourselves. And we enforce their membership in the United Nations, even though Communist Russia and her satellites, as members of the U.N. are waiting to devour her as a free state.

We are therefore now committed under PATO as under NATO, to the defense of any signatory nation in Asia, at the cost of the lives of our American boys, and of American tax dollars.

That High Priest of destruction Dean Acheson, and that disgrace to the American legal profession, John Foster Dulles, have so worded these treaties that we have become a mere tool of the Communistic United Nations so that we cannot make any move, no matter how slight, without going to them, hat in hand, for permission. Whatever little freedom of action was left to us by these two worthies, was left to the President to exercise, without any requirement to obtain the consent of Congress.

If you are interested in the welfare of America, please go to your Public Library, obtain a copy of the Congressional Record for Black Thursday, March 20, 1952, and read the record for yourself, to obtain at first hand a vivid picture of how treason unfolds itself in the "seats of the mighty." Particularly read the remarks of Senators Jenner and Dirksen, who carried the banner for America on that eventful, but portentous day.

I merely quote one passage here from Senator Jenner's speech: 'I have talked with Senators on this Floor—and I will not mention any names—no later than yesterday, but who had not even read the Japanese Peace Treaty. Yet they are willing to turn our sovereignty over to the United Nations, which we now know has become nothing but a death trap for American G.I.'s. There have been 109,000 casualties in Korea; and billions of dollars have been spent. Yet we sit here and sign a blank check to do the same thing over again.'

Fellow Americans, don't you see that if America is to be saved, and Black Thursday made that issue much more doubtful, you must learn the truth about this black-hearted treasonable organization of the Communist United Nations?

You must educate others. You must demand of your elected representatives next Fall that they must stand firm as a rock against any further collaboration with the United Nations. You must do this for the sake of your precious sons, now committed to total war for causes in which you haven't the slightest interest, very frequently to further the colonization schemes of tottering European interests in the Orient. You must do it for the sake of American economy and your tax dollars. Finally, please ask yourself:

CAN AN ORGANIZATION ATTAIN PEACE WHICH DENIES THE PRINCE OF PEACE?

Petition No. 9. To Bring H.R. 5080 From the Committee To the House

Bills in a hostile committee—and the House Committee on Foreign Affairs is certainly that—may be brought to the House for debate by a petition signed by 218 members. Petition No. 9 to bring H.R. 5080 from the Committee to the House was placed on the Speaker's desk, March 12th.

Letters to your Congressmen to sign the Petition are now in order. You will recall H.R. 5080 is to rescind and revoke our membership in the United Nations, which was introduced by me, August 8, 1951.

The State Department reported to the Committee on Foreign Affairs they hoped it would never pass; and the above Committee, a majority of whom are internationalist, was very happy to accept the hostile report of the State Department. Consequently, the Bill has been buried in Committee.

It may be advisable to attempt an explanation of the situation in the House regarding H.R. 5080.

First: There is a large group of East coast internationalists in the House membership. They are for any kind of union with Europe—United Nations, NATO (North Atlantic Treaty Organization), Atlantic Community; and are even grooming you for a coming attempt at a Pacific Union. They may be classed as proponents of a One World Government, which would inevitably completely destroy our present Constitutional American form of government. The Atlantic Seaboard States, being very populous, gives them a very strong vote in the House, though even here there are some exceptions.

Second: There is a large group who were originally completely sold on United Nations. They are not necessarily believers in One World government, and would resent any attempted destruction of our Constitutional American government. They are more or less disillusioned about the United Nations and its failures and treason to America; but are still grasping at a straw.

Third: There is another group, who do not believe in the United Nations, and would gladly vote to get out of it; but are afraid if they did, their constituents would not return them to their seats in the House at election. This is a large group of "Weak sisters" who prize their seats in the House more than being true to their convictions.

Fourth: There is a smaller group who will sign Petition No. 9 because they put their principles above a House seat. Groups 2 and 3 may represent your Congressional delegation. If you can persuade them their constituents favor H.R. 5080, they will vote for it.

Nothing but a complete transfusion of patriotic blood would change group 1.

LET CHRISTIANS UNITE!

I Don't Like Ike—

I don't like Ike for the following reasons:

Geo. W. Armstrong under Army regulations, unless he thought so. He is now being boosted for the presidency by the socialist Drew Pearson and other socialist press writers and the pro-Zionist kept press. The offer of the socialists Stassen and Warren to give him some of their delegates in Wisconsin and Nebraska, where he did not win any, is significant. It means that they all want to accomplish the same thing. It is socialism and "brotherly love."

(2) I do not believe that he is competent to be president. He has been a conspicuous failure in other important jobs. He ordered our troops back 103 miles from Berlin in order to permit the troops of the Soviet Union to take it, rape the women and haul back to Russia Art, Machinery and valuables in thousands of trucks the United States had given the Soviet Union under the lend-lease. This also cost us the expensive air-lift to feed the Berlin people.

He reports that he has failed in his present job in a 12,000 word report, about 11,500 of which were good excuses.

(3) Eisenhower has no political principles, or if he has, he is afraid to express them. Congress sought to get some expression from him, and a report. He was suspicious and sent his deputy, who made the report for him. An inquisitive reporter sought to learn his church affiliation. All of the information he obtained was a statement that he is a "protestant", which means all or any of the protestant churches.

What a contrast with the honest, plain-spoken Taft. While I do not agree with all of Senator Taft's platform, I know where he stands. He is for Constitutional government, the Taft-Hartley Act, and economy in government, and against socialism. Where does General Eisenhower stand on these important issues?

Eisenhower is a pussyfooting politician who seeks to be president without the voters knowing his views; Taft is a courageous statesman who dares to express them.

What a contrast to MacArthur, who, in his Jackson, Mississippi, speech, denounced the extravagance and corruption of the Truman administration and the steal of our Tidelands. MacArthur is a great statesman, as well as a great soldier. He is outspoken for Constitutional government and for winning the war with the Communists. He would have done so long ago except for the interference of Truman and Acheson. He wisely said that "there is no substitute for victory".

What a contrast between MacArthur's administration of Japan and Eisenhower's administration of Germany. The one was Christian and constructive and the Japanese revere him; the other was pro-Zionist and destructive, and the Germans despise him.

Eisenhower initiated the Morgenthau program of destroying the German race and Germany's factories. He allowed French African negroes to round up 4,000 German women and girls at Stuttgart, Germany and herd them into a subway where they were ravished for three days.

Eisenhower is now begging the Germans to furnish men and munitions for his army, which he badly needs, and which they hesitate to do. IS THIS MAN TO BE OUR NEXT PRESIDENT?

Geo. W. Armstrong

Admonition For Protestants and Catholics

By Kenneth Goff

I AM A PROTESTANT. But I am also wise on Communist strategy. I know the red movement from the inside.

Moscow gave orders years ago that American Protestants and Catholics were to be kept busy fighting each other, so there could be no unified religious opposition to Communism in the Western Hemisphere. Neither group should allow itself to fall into this trap.

I can stand with a Catholic against Communism without accepting his doctrinal belief. It happens that his enemy is my enemy, and we are both fighting for survival. We, very definitely, have something in common.

I was sponsored for membership in the Communist Party by Gene Dennis, General Secretary, and one of the Eleven convicted in Judge Medina's court.

Dennis was then a district organizer, stationed at Milwaukee, Wisconsin. My initiation took place in his office at 113 East Wells Street on May 2, 1936. They gave me the name of John Keats, and 18 B-2 for a number. Dennis became one of my closest friends.

I resigned from the Party three years and five months later, after returning to the childhood Christian faith of my parents and accepting Jesus Christ as my personal Saviour.

Prior to joining, I took a course in an FERA (Federal Relief Administration) worker's school at the University of Wisconsin. This new deal outfit had been placed under Communist management, for the purpose of indoctrinating all who enrolled with the beliefs of

The Jew Emil Ludwig (Cohn) wrote in Les Annales in June, 1934, "Hitler will have no war, but he will be forced to it, not this year, but later on. . . ."

The Jew Vladimir Jabotinsky, leading Zionist, wrote in his book "Die Fudische Kriegsfront, 1940: "When the National Socialists and their friends cry or whisper that this is brought about by the Jews, they are perfectly right."

The Jewish magazine The Sentinel of Chicago wrote in its issue of October 8th, 1942, as follows: "The second World War is being fought for the defense of the fundamentals of Judaism."

Jews Admit It Was A Jews War!

The Jews themselves make no secret of the fact that the recent war was a Jewish one in its entirety. Consider these statements by Jews on it. The Jew Scholem Asch in a pep talk to French troops in the line, (written in French newspaper Les Nouvelles Litteraires of February 10th, 1940), says "This is our war, and you are fighting it out for all of us. Even if we Jews are not bodily with you in the trenches, we are nevertheless morally with

The Rabbi Reichhorn wrote on July 1st, 1880, in the periodical Le Contemporain, "We shall drive the Christians into war by exploiting their national vanity and stupidity. They will then massacre each other, thus giving room for our own people."

The Jew Marcus Eli Ravage wrote in the periodical The Century Magazine of January, 1928, "We have stood at the back of, not only

Hits U. S. Jewish Groups Extending Work Into Israel

NEW YORK CITY (AJP)—A veteran of 50 years of Zionism this week sharply condemned such extensions into Israel of American Jewish organizational programs as establishment of a Hillel House for the Hebrew University, calling them examples of "slumming in Paradise."

Bernard G. Richards, founder and executive director of the only Jewish Information Bureau in the United States, made that charge in a discussion of American Israeli Jewish relationships.

EXAGGERATED REPORTS

Richards, who will be honored on his 75th birthday with a testimonial dinner at a midtown New York Hotel March 25, said he thought widespread reports of deteriorating relationships between American and Israeli Jewry were exaggerated.

Vets Cut Off Hate Sheet's Paper Supply

NEW YORK CITY (AJP)—The war being waged by New Jersey ex-GIs against a notorious hate sheet published in that state hit pay dirt this week with a disclosure that paper concerns throughout the Garden State had refused to sell the anti-Jewish periodical newspaper.

"Common Sense," most notorious and widely circulated hate sheet in the nation, was forced to shift its printing schedule to a Florida community as a result of the drive. The partial victory came as a result of a quiet campaign undertaken some months ago by the New Jersey Department of the Jewish War Veterans. Members of JWV units visited dealers in many parts of the state pointing out the nature of the paper published by hater Conde McGinley. Matthew Feldman, state commander of the veterans' group, charted the educational program aimed at the paper houses.

MOVES TO FLORIDA

The result is that McGinley is now reportedly printing his sheet in Ocala, Fla., the American Jewish Press learned, then trucking issues back to New Jersey in bulk for national distribution from his Union, N.J., headquarters.

Impressed with the success of the JWV tactic in combatting the hate sheet, anti-bias agencies were considering a similar drive in Florida and elsewhere.

McGinley's sheet launched the smear campaign against Asst. U. S. Defense Secretary Anna Rosenberg and screams of an "international, secret worldwide Zionist conspiracy" to "turn America over to Communism." Justice Felix Frankfurter, Henry Morgenthau, Jr., and Bernard Baruch are also prime targets of McGinley's hysteria.

This article in the B'nai Brith Messenger, which is the official publication of the B'nai Brith (The Invisible Government) should prove interesting and informative to those who have wondered why COMMON SENSE has been irregular in our publications for some time. They will understand just one of many obstacles which we have had to endure by this alien minority during the years of our publication. The B'nai Brith has masterminded the National Conference of Christians and Jews from its origin, but has worked in the background in order to prevent the public from realizing that the real motivating power behind this organization, which talks tolerance and brotherly love, is the B'nai Brith.

This is only one of thousands of incidents which will prove conclusively to those who wish to know the facts that Talmudic Jews are the only group who are intolerant. Often during the existence of COMMON SENSE, we have stated in the paper that we would give free space to Communist Jews to refute the charges we make. We would be happy to publish before our readers their side of the question. We have offered to debate their platform or on the radio, but during the entire six years, no one has challenged one paragraph we have printed. However, the Jews have spent considerable money and time trying to prevent us from publishing the facts. Communism is Jewish and they know if they challenge us, we will prove it.

In this article they boast of the conspiracy to prevent us from publishing there another group in America. Would be so bold, so un-American? The group, who talks tolerance and brotherly persecution, is the only group we know who are doing the persecuting and they are continually persecuting Christians in one country or another, but always coming up so that only the persons engaged in the search may learn that it is the Jews.

After threatening eleven of our printers with boycott and forcing them to refuse to print COMMON SENSE, we were forced to buy our own press. We naturally needed paper. All of the news-stock jobbers in New York and New Jersey are Jews. Space will not permit us to tell of the many incidents where friendly people ordered paper for us and the order was later rescinded. If they could only prevent us from getting paper, they would have us stopped. These projects are masterminded by the Anti-Defamation League, which is part of the B'nai B'rith. Each year this Jewish Gestapo appeals to the public for seven million dollars for what they call a campaign against bigotry and they boast of having two thousand snoopers who work with the Jewish War Veterans and the American Jewish Congress in using underhanded methods to destroy those who expose communism. We wish space would permit us to describe the "tolerance" these people have shown us in the past six years. Our experiences would fill a book. How does COMMON SENSE stand today? We have tons of paper and our circulation is growing faster than ever, and more than one hundred thousand people are reading COMMON SENSE, - thanks to our friends. However our future issues may compel us to change to asbestos paper.

All Christians need do to prevent our country from going like Europe is to co-operate and stick together half as well as the Yiddish do, and then we could deliver America back into the hands of Americans once again. First, however, we must understand the Jewish question otherwise all efforts are wasted. For nineteen years the writer has listened to speakers against Communism and has read hundreds of articles against Communism, but Marxism, Communism, or Jew rule, call it what you wish, has not been slowed down in the least. Anyone who has taken the time to study the question knows it is the Jew, but few have the courage to speak up. It

We form in ourselves a closed juridical and business corporation. A strong wall built by us separates us from the peoples of the land in which we live—and behind that wall is a Jewish State."

Here you see the Jewish War Veterans (who are so busy trying to prevent COMMON SENSE from printing the truth) presenting Dean Acheson with a gold medal as their top annual award at the Waldorf in New York on December 30, 1951. This award was given to Dean Acheson as the most valuable American of 1951. This at the same time the American Legion had passed a resolution demanding that Acheson be fired.

COMMON SENSE would like to give Acheson the blue ribbon for being Marxism's most valuable traitor to America. The blood of many of our boys who died in Korea is on the shoulders of this servant to Communism. No wonder Acheson would not turn his back on Alger Hiss—he has done a greater job in promoting Communism in China, Japan and the United States than Alger Hiss.

Those of our readers who desire a history of Acheson's traitorous services, write to COMMON SENSE for a free copy of "Freedom's Case Against Dean Acheson."

Admonition For Protestants and Catholics

Marxism. They succeeded in steering me straight into the Party.

Those days found our Country in the grip of an economic crisis. I thought perhaps Communism might have something to contribute toward solution. I was unbelievably gullible.

The assignments that I received from the Party placed me in contact with top-level leaders. I became a trusted conspirator and traveled much of the time.

Some of my work was highly secretive. Later, while testifying before various government agencies, including the Committee on Un-American Activities, I was able to give information which, to say the least, proved startling.

It was constantly hammered into our heads by higher-ups in the Party, that hatreds were to be generated between Protestants and Catholics. The two groups were to be constantly goaded into fighting each other.

I personally entertain the suspicion that reds in the State Department promoted the idea of sending a United States ambassador to the Vatican for this purpose.

We were instructed to level our hardest blows at the Catholic Church because it was compact and organized under one head. The Protestants were pictured as being divided into factions and therefore more vulnerable to attack. Our leaders told us that Protestant bodies were being successfully infiltrated, whereas Catholic institutions remained more steely against Marxism. We, of course, had many stooges planted inside the Roman Church, but Modernism (a denaturing, devitalizing influence) made our work easier among the Protestants.

I can still hear Gene Dennis haranguing us at our Milwaukee meetings: "We will finish off the Catholics first; then the Protestants will come easy."

The Communists have used the strategy of divide and conquer to great advantage. Through it they have gained control of almost one-third of the earth's surface and subjected 850 million human beings to slavery. Every nation conquered by the reds has seen Catholic priests and Protestant preachers liquidated. The butchers have no preference. They hate both alike.

The first State convention of the Party that I attended was addressed by Dennis on this very subject. Plans for honeycombing both Protestant and Catholic organizations in the Wisconsin area were discussed.

Dennis reported that Dorothy Day, a member of our group, had renounced the Party and joined the Catholic Church for the purpose of infiltration. He also named others, and gave the order that from each cell, one former Catholic should be assigned to return to the Church, as part of their Communist duties. The name of the person so instructed from our cell was Marge Chesnik.

A short time after the State convention, one of my assignments was to help organize anti-Catholic propaganda, along with a Jew by the name of Sam Corr. We formed the habit of going each week to the office of a prominent Milwaukee children's specialist. There we de-

READ "BEHIND COMMUNISM"

By Frank L. Britton

... the menace of world wide Communism cannot be fully appreciated until you have gained an insight into the forces BEHIND COMMUNISM! To give you that insight, the author has traced the course of Communism from its very beginning right down to the year 1952. Quietly, factually, and with deadly accuracy he tells the full story for the first time. It is impossible to comprehend the true nature of Communism until the facts contained in this amazing book have been digested. Here is a chance to learn what every newspaper editor knows—but doesn't dare publish!

By the author of ATOM TREASON
A SMASHING EXPOSE!

"Behind Communism" contains the most complete description of Communism ever put under one cover. You can't possibly understand the total problem confronting Christian civilization until you have read this ruthless appraisal of Red Fascism.

This unique history of Communism is carefully written, faithfully documented—yet reads like a novel! There is a thrilling, day-by-day account of the terrible days of the Russian revolution. You'll get an eye-witness description of the brutalized revolutionary mob as it stormed the last redoubts of the Imperial Russian government, and you'll see horribly realistic pictures of the mutilated victims of the Communist victors...

On the human side, there is a wealth of material on the personal lives of the leaders of the Russian Revolution. You'll meet such personages as Lenin, Bela Kun, Rosa Luxemburg, and Lev Trotsky. You'll learn, too, how 30,000 professional revolutionaries were able to undermine and overthrow the mighty Russian Empire...

developed a select group and worked out effective methods.

Our main project was to get the Converted Catholic Magazine circulated among Protestants. We would raise contributions from wealthy fellow-travelers and use the money to cover subscriptions for ministers residing in Wisconsin. Other cells were working along similar lines in different States.

The editor of the Converted Catholic Magazine, an ex-priest by the name of L. H. Lehmann, was well known to us. He attended our meetings, gave lectures and made "helpful" suggestions.

This man lectured before the Free Thinkers of America. His writings were also recommended by the Free-Thought Press Association, both of which have carried on violent attacks against the Christian religion.

While Lehmann's magazine displayed itself as a publication for Bible-believing Christians, it always followed the Communist Party line.

There were frequent smear attacks in its columns against the real opponents of Communism. True patriots were dubbed Fascists. Every issue contained material to inflame passions of hate between Protestants and Catholics. We Communists watched preachers, priests and laymen of both groups swallow the bait.

This often gave us a good laugh.

The Spanish Civil War afforded a good opportunity for fanning the flames of anti-Catholicism by labeling Franco's forces, "soldiers of the Pope."

In reality, Moscow had gained control of Madrid. Marcel Rosenberg, the Soviet ambassador, ruled Spain. Franco was leading a rebellion to release his country from the tentacles of the red octopus.

By clever maneuvering we were able to gain support among clergymen for the red Armies. These ministers did not realize that they were helping underwrite the liquidation of all professed Christian worship in Spain.

Protestants suffered with Catholics in proportion to their numbers. The atrocities committed against believers baffle description.

It will be recalled that American men were recruited, in violation of the law, and sent to Spain for service on the side of Russia. We "Behind Communism" also charts the course of the Communist movement in the United States. Featured for the first time are photographs and case histories of virtually every important Communist cited for treason since 1945, including Alger Hiss, the Rosenbergs, the Hollywood Ten, Judith Coplin, Hans Eisler, and more than seventy others. Altogether, seventy-six big name reds—comprising the backbone of the American Communist Party—are pictured in this amazing book! The Communist conspiracy will no longer remain a mystery to those who read this smashing expose...

"Behind Communism" in spite of its generous use of photographs, maps, and other illustrations, is not a picture story of the conventional sort. On the contrary, it is a scholarly history of the Communist movement, accurately documented with self-sustaining evidence, and presented in such a way that even the casual student of political affairs can master its contents. Fearlessly and forthrightly the author has dealt with the most controversial subjects of this generation—subjects so controversial that no newspaper publisher dares to even mention them...

You'll never find this book in a public library, nor in a bookstore. No newspaper will review it, and few will accept an advertisement for it. "Behind Communism" deals with a subject which has been ruthlessly censored not only in Soviet Russia, but in the United States as well. When you have read this book, you will understand the reason for all this, and you will understand the true nature of Communism.

called our armies the George Washington and Abraham Lincoln Battalions.

I was appointed to question returning soldiers on what they had heard and seen in Spain, and to instruct them how much the American public was to be told.

Some of their stories made my blood run cold. The soldiers laughingly reported of going into convents, rounding up nuns, stripping them of their clothing, then raping and bayoneting the helpless victims to death. They piled human bodies up like cordwood in city squares and set them on fire.

One group of our men told me about capturing several Catholics, binding their hands and feet with wire, dousing them with oil and applying the torch while they were still alive. Several returning soldiers explained that they adopted the habit of raiding Churches, using the pulpits and Bibles for toilet purposes, and engaging in sex orgies around the altars.

WASHINGTON WELCOMES SOVIET SPIES!

How Communists Got The Atomic Bomb

By: Maj. George Racey Jordan U.S.A. Retired

FULTON LEWIS JR. and MAJ. GEORGE RACEY JORDAN

Here is a patriot who tried to stand up for his country and was fired and attacked by the New Deal Marxist plotters who were determined to set up Communism in the World.

An article in LIFE last year concerns itself chiefly with a recital of the facts in regard to the Fuchs - Gold - Greenglass - Rosenberg espionage ring which stole our atomic secrets and transmitted them to Russia, and as a consequence of which Fuchs is now in jail in England, Gold is under sentence of thirty years, Greenglass received a lighter sentence because he testified against his conspirators, and for which Julius and Ethel Rosenberg have been sentenced to the electric chair and are now waiting in Sing Sing.

LIFE begins by telling how, at the Potsdam Conference, President Truman walked around the table and confided to "Good Old Joe" Stalin that we had perfected a terrible new bomb. Stalin, the article said, did not seem greatly surprised, and other Americans in attendance concluded that Stalin did not appreciate the magnitude of President Truman's disclosure. The truth is, that, at the time, Marshal Stalin probably knew more about the atom bomb than President Truman did.

LIFE was telling the truth — but not the whole truth. I can tell you that in March, 1943, a full year before the Red spy ring got into operation, I sent a shipment of 420 pounds of Uranium to Soviet Russia. And in THAT next year, before the Red spies got to work, I sent along three more shipments of Uranium, plus large quantities of cobalt, thorium, cadmium and heavy water, all critical materials in the manufacture of the atom bomb.

More than that, I sent along the technical information and know-how on how to make the bomb, blue prints for the construction of plants to produce it, and the very scarce materials with which to build the plants.

I did all this as an Air Force officer, under orders.

My part in giving away our atom bomb was purely functional. I knew nothing about atomic energy at the time, in 1943 and '44, when I was inspecting and expediting these shipments to Russia. I had no idea what "Uranium 92" was used for when I found a memorandum about it in one of the hundreds of patent leather suitcases full of documents which were being flown to Russia in a steady

EISENHOWER FRAUD

"I Would not accept a nomination unless it were by both parties, and it would have to be unanimous, and you know that's impossible."

—An Eisenhower statement as quoted by Harry C. Butcher, author of "My Three Years With Eisenhower," Look magazine, June 5, 1951.

BUT IS IT IMPOSSIBLE?

The following is reprinted from "U.S.A. Confidential," a best seller by the nationally known team of newspapermen, Jack Lait and Lee Mortimer, also authors of "Washington Confidential," "Chicago Confidential," and "New York Confidential," all best sellers. ("U.S.A. Confidential" is not currently to be found on the shelves of many bookstores—excerpts are from pages 353-354).

"Another group of Democrat dissidents were sitting on the most complicated political scheme ever hatched in our history.

"Briefly the plan, which grew more sinister with every refinement, was this:

"To plug Ike Eisenhower for the GOP nomination. If he got in, then, when the Democrats met, two weeks later, to move that Ike's nomination be made unanimous. The fine scheming presumes that if Eisenhower were the "national unity" candidate of both parties he would appoint a coalition cabinet, retaining many Democrat spoilsmen. In the event of such a "nonpolitical" administration, the new President probably would not fire the hold-over bureaucrats. Even more frightening was the carefully thought-up plan that, with no contest for the Presidency, few voters would go to the polls, leaving the incumbent Senators and Congressmen in, thus assuring Democratic control of the next Congress. And Harry would be the elder statesman, the strong man to whom all winners would be beholden.

"Democrats believed Ike would look favorably on such a double nomination. . . . His bi-party nomination would be an endorsement of Harry's foreign policies. Ike would be expected to retain the Acheson axis in State and the Marshall mummies in Defense.

"Many Eastern Republican backers of Eisenhower were conversant with the deal.

"The plan was hatching in Washington and throughout the country all winter . . . As the year progressed other feelers went out to see whether the road was clear for the greatest political steal since Napoleon became First Consul.

"As the presidential year dawned, there was broad indecision and defeatism in the GOP, sparked by Democrats who have been infiltrated into the enemy camp."

PRESIDENTIAL PROMISE

"Crusade in Europe," "by Gen. Eisenhower (ghosted by Joseph F. Barnes, in 1948, publisher of the New York Star, successor to "P.M."), discloses Truman promise of 1945.

"General, there is nothing that you may want that I won't try to help you get. That definitely and specifically includes the Presidency."—Harry Truman.

Admonition For Protestants and Catholics

Our leaders declared that what happened in Spain was only a preliminary skirmish compared to blows scheduled to fall upon America. No member of the Party is ever left in doubt as to the Communist program for the United States.

The Story of Captain Antonius Raab comes to my mind.

Captain Raab was a Spanish patriot, aviator and an aircraft manufacturer of international reputation. He passed through the terrors of civil war in Spain, escaped from prison and finally came to the United States. Here is his statement:

"This is a story of 17 months of horror in Spanish prisons—a story of incredible injustice, a story of women ravished, a story of men tortured to death. This is the story of Russia's seizure of the Spanish government and the reign of terror that followed.

"I am not a politician, but merely a reasonably successful business man. I am the head of an aircraft corporation which manufactures planes of my own design.

"The Communists threw 300,000 Spanish people into jail and 10,000 foreigners, whom they accused of being spies. I was arrested and thrown into prison. Three times I risked my life to escape and finally by sheer luck, I succeeded . . .

"Red soldiers went into burial places and emptied coffins in search of gold and precious stones. Why they believed jewels should be there, I do not know. While in prison I met a former acquaintance named Kuhn.

"Kuhn was called before the board to confess himself a spy. He could not confess any more than I could. They beat me with a rubber club until my right leg and side were paralyzed for days. But poor Kuhn—this is what they did to him.

"They opened a coffin and dragged out the body of a dead nun, a body that had reposed there for many years and was quite mummified. They disrobed and carried it to the corner of the prison where Kuhn was held. They tied the corpse of the nun to him, his face to the skeleton bones of her face. They tied his hands around the corpse with wire and left the living and the dead together.

"But not for long were they living and dead. It was the dead and the dead. For no man could survive such a fiendish act. Kuhn must have been glad to die."

What many people do not understand is that Communism has come to fruition as the ripened fruit of the Jewish Talmud.

No amount of juggling facts can separate red internationalism from Jewish internationalism. We are indebted to Talmudism in the last analysis for the breakdown of civilization.

We read in the Universal Jewish Encyclopedia, Volume VII, page 289: "On both paternal and maternal sides, Karl Marx was descended from rabbinical families."

This may also be said of most of the leaders who furnish the intellectual and financial driving power of the Communist conspiracy. I, like millions of others, was simply one of their dupes.

The current issue of a leading Jewish magazine, THE JEWISH FORUM, contains an article attacking Christianity exactly like the material that I was fed while a member of the Party. I shall quote a few paragraphs from this violent, blasphemous tirade. Let Defender Readers note that the charge of GOD-COMMITTING ADULTERY WITH MARY is as old as the Talmud. Communism and Zionism get their "inspiration" from this Satanic source.

THE JEWISH FORUM is a gaudy publication, now in its thirty-fourth year, printed in colors on high grade enamel paper, edited by Isaac Rosengarten. It is advertised as "A Leading Literary Monthly" of American Jewry. Its avowed purpose is to "Clarify the great ideals of Judaism for the modern mind."

The following quotations are lifted at random from the January 1952 edition:

Common Sense

"The Talmudic sage, Simon ben Gamaliel, said there must be truth and justice before there can be peace.

"Judaism, the religion of the earliest Christians, taught, 'thou shalt have no other gods before me.' Christianity, particularly Roman Catholicism, while calling itself a monotheistic religion, added a man-made god and, for all practical purposes, turned it into a family of gods . . .

"The law says, 'the seventh day shall be the Sabbath.' Christianity, by its duplicity, substituted the first day, inventing the fiction of the resurrection of Jesus to hallow that day.

"Bishop Edward W. Barnes of England has long advocated the conviction that the fictional dogmas concerning the birth of Jesus, the Virgin Birth and the Resurrection are unfounded in fact; saying, among other things, that Christianity looks upon the birth of Jesus not like the birth of a human being but like that of an insect.

"The story in the Christian Gospels relates that, when God called the Holy Ghost, had intercourse with Mary, called a Virgin, there was a conception resulting in the birth of Jesus. There is the factual statement in the Gospels that, at the time of such intercourse, the Virgin Mary had already been married and her husband was Joseph, son of Jacob.

"God who, in His Seventh Commandment of the Ten Commandments, had set forth 'Thou shalt not commit adultery,' had done what He had forbidden mankind to do, in contravention of this Commandment. What an inglorious imputation! What an example even unto the thousandth generation yet unborn!

"When the totalitarian Catholic Church, in order to control every child from the cradle to grave in consecrated ground, adopted the dogmatic fiction that every child is born in sin, in order to overcome the naturally disturbing logical conclusion that sin also tainted the birth of Jesus, the second dogmatic fiction was superimposed on the first fiction; namely, that Jesus was born by being conceived by God, Who, in the form of the Holy Ghost (another fiction), had intercourse with Mary (another fiction) who, though married, was a virgin—another fiction.

"In the entire shadowy story there is not a single absolutely convincing historical fact."

The foregoing is only a fraction of THE JEWISH FORUM editorial now being considered. It represents but a trickle from the vast Talmudic reservoir, out of which the filthy streams of Zionism and Communism pour forth.

Here in America, we can scarcely realize the suffering endured by followers of Christ living behind the Iron and Bamboo Curtains.

We cannot accurately visualize the bloody sea in which 21-million professed Christians have been baptized. In the year 1951 alone, there were more martyrs to the faith than in all the previous centuries of Church history combined.

This suffering of the saints in other parts of the world should serve as a warning to US, regarding the strategy of the anti-Christ. Unless the growth of this same strategy is arrested by mobilized Christian action, the noose will some day tighten around the neck of every Protestant clergyman in the United States.

Being a minister, I am naturally and unalterably opposed to certain dogmas in the Catholic system of teaching. And being an evangelical, I am opposed to left-wing Modernism in our Protestant denominations.

The leftist theologian opposes the Catholic Church for its opposition to Communism. But for the life or me, I cannot understand loyal Gospel preachers joining in the attack. THEY NEED TO GET THEIR FACTS STRAIGHT.

Communism is the avowed enemy of all Christianity. Communism has declared war on all Christian faiths. Communism is anti-Christ. It can be successfully opposed only by the power of Christ. This calls for united action on the part of all who bear His Name.

General MacArthur Says Moral Decay Has Led To Disaster

General of the Army, Douglas Mac Arthur, in a recent address before the Salvation Army Association of New York, called for a revival of religious motivations in our national household to stem a rising moral deterioration in its political management. He warned against indifference to baseness and weakness in public stewardships.

The third annual citation of the Salvation Army Association of New York was bestowed on General MacArthur. Read before the 1,200 assembled guests the citation declared that: "General of the Army MacArthur, by his personal integrity, adherence to the principles of Christianity and devotion to duty, has served as an inspiration to his fellow-countrymen and has set a stirring example to a conquered people making their first strides along the path toward true democracy."

THE GENERAL'S ADDRESS

General MacArthur spoke as follows: "In this day of gathering storms, as the moral deterioration of political power spreads its growing infection, it is essential that every spiritual force be mobilized to defend and preserve the religious base upon which this nation was founded. That base has been the motivating impulse to our moral and national growth. History fails to record a single precedent in which nations subject to moral decay have not passed into political and economic decline. There has been either a spiritual reawakening to overcome the moral lapse or a progressive deterioration leading to ultimate national disaster.

"In the modern world the evil forces of Communism which seek to remove religion as the most formidable barrier to their advance have adopted the technique of infiltration. They strive to undermine public and private morals as a means of weakening and rendering indefensible areas of intended absorption.

No Compromise Urged

"There can be no compromise in the fight to preserve the sanctity of our religious base. We must condemn those who would corrupt the principles of individual liberty, freedom's mighty instrument of spiritual power. We must not view with indifference men of base or weak character who do not fulfill their public stewardship.

"We must refuse to indulge those who are so blind they will not see the moral dangers now threatening the engulfment of our people.

"Moral decay and political irresponsibility have penetrated the roots of our cherished institutions.

"Powerful forces bent upon further entrenching political power at the expense of spiritual values resist public disclosures which question the moral integrity underlying public affairs."

JEW S AND STEEL

THOSE WHO FINANCE COMMUNISM ARE WELL REWARDED

Marxist Jew plotters maneuver the steel industry under Socialist New Deal control. The Closed Shop means that no person can work and earn a livelihood unless he joins a union.

Federal Judge Alexander Holtzoff

The first Judge, before whom the Steel Seizure Case was taken was Zionist Judge Alexander Holtzoff born in Russia. He ruled in favor of the Marxist New Deal.

Judaism, which is nothing more than a cult dedicated to wiping Christianity from the face of the earth, learned long ago, that in order to do this, it must gain control of all governments—and this had to be done through inflation, war and bankruptcy. Sixteen million Jews cannot openly gain world control, with a world population of two-and-one-quarter billion people. Jews must be clever enough to cause Christians to break themselves down. Therefore, Rabbis train them from childhood on the best way to get into certain professions and to place themselves where they can direct without being detected. (Such as the Jewish Nationalist Revolutionary Leon Keyserling, President Truman's economic advisor.)

The Jewish plan is very clearly foretold in the Protocols, from which we quote. The Protocols is the undeniable Jewish Plan for World Control, first introduced by the Immortal Henry Ford. Remember that the Jew is a Socialist as much as he is a Communist. This is as much a part of his Talmudic heritage, as his hatred for Christianity. Socialism can only be achieved through obtaining control of Unions. The Pioneer Jew in this regard was Sam Gompers. His modern prototypes are the late Sidney Hillman and David Dubinsky. All foreign born Jews who have been conditioning us for Socialism under Jewish rule.

Phillip Perlman

Solicitor General and acting Attorney General. He in fact has been the real head of the Department of Justice right along. McGrath, was only the front to divert attention from the fact, that the Department is run by the Invisible Government.

Jews must be able to direct masses, in order to be able to use them as pressure groups on Governments. Hence you see Jews directing Unions. All big Unions have Jewish lawyers who direct them. Jews are not interested in the gentiles working shorter hours and receiving more money. This, however, is a great appeal to the worker, and enables the crafty Jews to keep the latter regimented as a weapon to force through bigger plans for Jewish world Rule. The closed Shop gives the Jew full control over all who labor. Once the employer agrees to the Closed Shop, he is helpless in the hands of the Jews behind the scenes—very likely he will be forced to sell out to a Jew who will be able to deal with the Masterminds of the Union. Communism is camouflaged Judaism. When Communism is established in a country—commerce, mining, everything in fact is taken over by Jews who financed the Revolution. NEW YORK JEWS, WHO HELPED FINANCE COMMUNISM IN COUNTRIES THAT HAVE BEEN TAKEN OVER, NOW OWN THE MAIN INDUSTRIES IN THOSE COUNTRIES.

For example, there are Manganese mines in Yugoslavia, worth millions, whose owners have fled that country (and are now in the U. S.), to avoid being killed like their relatives had been. TODAY, A JEW IN BROOKLYN OWNS THOSE MINES. To get control of the steel industry, Marxist Jews direct Harry Solomon Truman to appoint a War Stabilization Board which is supposed to be an impartial group—representing Labor, Steel, and the Public—BUT SEVEN OF THE BOARD ARE LINKED WITH COMMUNIST FRONTS. Nathan Feinsinger is a member of the National Lawyers Guild, a Communist Front. It is he of course who directed the other Reds into developing a stalemate, and thus throwing the matter into the hands of the Government, which of course the Jews control. This Jew dominated Board is careful to recommend a Closed Shop. Truman must listen to Felix Frankfurter, Max Lowenthal, Leon Keyserling, David Niles and Morris Ernst. THESE JEWS HAVE MORE INFLUENCE IN WASHINGTON THAN ALL THE VETERAN GROUPS AND CHRISTIAN GROUPS COMBINED.

We hope Harry won't write us a dirty letter, or call us an S. O. B. for this.

NATHAN FEINSINGER; CHAIRMAN WAR STABILIZATION BOARD.

WE SUBMIT THE FOLLOWING SUPPORTING TESTIMONY FROM JEWISH SOURCES.

Alfred Nossig, a Jew, in his book: "Integrall-less Judentum", Berlin, 1922, states:

"Socialism and the Mosaic Code, are not at all in opposition, . . . all Jewish groups . . . have a vital interest in the victory of Socialism . . ."

According to Dr. Oscar Levy, London Jewish Savant:

"Jewish elements form the driving power for both Capitalism and Communism."

Disreali, Jewish Premier of England, in his book "Lord George Bentinck," states: "The most skillful accumulators of property ally themselves with the Communists."

Theodore Herzl, World Zionist Leader, wrote in the "Jewish State": "When we Jews sink, we become a revolutionary proletariat (communistic); when we rise, there also arises our terrible power of the purse" (capitalistic).

The Jewish writer, Walter Brody, wrote in the New Masses, May 12th, 1936, page 14: "The undeniable problem of the Jew can only be solved in a socialist society."

THE PROTOCOLS OF THE LEARNED ELDERS OF ZION

stream. The words "Manhattan Engineering District — Oak Ridge" were meaningless when I found them on a blueprint.

The Radio Disclosures

My appearance on the Fulton Lewis, Jr. radio broadcasts, and my testimony before the House Committee on un-American Activities were almost accidental. Even as late as the Fall of 1949, I had no real comprehension as to the important part I had unknowingly played in this base betrayal of American interests. It was only after President Truman had announced that Soviet Russia had had an atomic explosion that I began to think about the possible connection between my experience as a Lend-Lease expediter at Great Falls, Montana, and this world-shaking development.

I was having lunch at the Army and Navy Club in Washington with a friend, and the President's announcement came up for discussion. I said casually, "here we are getting all excited about Russia having the atom bomb. A lot of people in Washington have known for years that Russia must have the bomb. Why, I shipped the Russians hundreds of pounds of uranium."

My friend phoned Senator Bridges and I was invited to see the Senator that very afternoon. The Senator heard what I had to say, but was not altogether convinced. In fact he asked my friend if I had ever been in a hospital for the mentally ill. The following week-end he told my story to Fulton Lewis, who asked to see the documents I had to substantiate my story.

After questioning me for six hours, Fulton Lewis said he was going to check what I had told him, and, if the facts stood up, that he would tell the story to his radio public. Then he informed the FBI and for the next several weeks I told my story over and over again to several FBI agents.

Six weeks later, after the FBI had verified the facts, I appeared on the Fulton Lewis broadcasts.

I found to my amazement, that even after my story was proved beyond any shadow of doubt, some leading writers and commentators distorted the facts, and convinced the public that my disclosures were a gigantic hoax. All sorts of charges were made against me. I was villified, abused and smeared, even accused of anti-semitism, a subject I have never discussed.

Enter Harry Hopkins

The only part of my story which has not had definite verification is my telephone conversation with Harry Hopkins, in which he ordered me to send through a shipment of Uranium ahead of a half million pounds of high-priority Lend-lease freight which had piled up at the Great Falls depot. It had been my policy to send shipments through in the order in which they arrived at Great Falls. In this case the Russian colonel in charge asked me to put this Uranium shipment at the head of the list. I declined, saying we were already choked with special priorities and that it would have to wait its turn. Then Col. Kotikov phoned to Washington and pretty soon he turned to me and said: "Mr. Hopkins — big boss — wants to talk to you." Hopkins began his conversation by asking if I was "his" expediter "out there". I said I was. He also brought up a subject of which only Mr. Hopkins and myself could have known. He asked, "Did you get those extra pilots I sent you?" I said that I had. Then he requested that I put this special shipment of atomic chemicals on the next plane to Moscow. I followed his instructions, for Mr. Hopkins, as Chairman of the President's Russian Protocol Committee on Lend-Lease was my superior. When the chemicals came, they proved to be 500 pounds of black Uranium oxide, and 500 pounds of Uranium nitrate, from the Eldorado Mining and Refining Company's Uranium mines at Great Bear Lake.

Prior to this shipment, General Leslie R. Groves, who was in charge of our atom bomb project, had issued a blockade order banning all exports of Uranium, and did not learn of

PROTESTANTISM AND CATHOLICISM?

By Gerald B. Winrod, D. D., A Defender of the Faith publication. That the world is divided into two camps, the forces of Christ and those of Anti-Christ is well known. For the first time (in a compact thirty-page booklet) Dr. Winrod shows that the forces of ANTI-CHRIST, EXTREMISTS OF A SINGLE RACE are driving a wedge between the two great Christian bodies, as represented by Catholics and Protestants, and making them fight this shipment until he appeared before the Committee on Un-American Activities.

In order to make sure that our Communist friends would not be delayed in producing her own Uranium, we shipped by boat — the complete paper work passing through my office in Great Falls — $25,000,000 worth of ore dredging, screening and pulverizing machinery, heavy rock crushers, and earth boring and quarrying equipment. I had no idea at that time what this machinery was for, but it is now only too clear that it was to be used to dig raw Uranium ore from the captured Czechoslovakian mines.

We also shipped hundreds of Geiger counters — registers which are universally used to locate Uranium. They were loaded aboard the Russian S. S. SURIKOV at Long View, Washington,, bound for Vladivostok.

The Norden Bomb-Sight Too

And just to make sure the Russians would know how to drop the Atom Bomb, we sent our most precious secret, the Norden bomb-sight by a Major Warren C. Williams, who headed a group of four experts, who reached Moscow October 15th, 1944. They proceeded to give courses of instruction to Soviet flyers, 25 to each class, for a 72-hour course, flying them over Moscow in a large plane for actual dry-run practice.

Of course, it takes more than rare chemical ores to make an atom bomb; the necessary industrial plant and chemical equipment is enormous.

One big item is pipe. We sent pipe to Russia when General Groves was without sufficient pipe for our own atom bomb needs.

Another essential is power. We shipped Russia 17 stationary steam and hydro-electric plants, costing $263 million dollars.

A lot of copper goes into an atom bomb plant. Donald Nelson refused to release any copper to the Russians because in those days the United States was faced with a very critical shortage. But Harry Hopkins over-ruled him and Russia got 254,923 tons, costing the tax payers more than 90 million dollars, and, in addition, enough copper wire to girdle the globe 50 times.

A good part of an atom bomb plant is made up of scientific chemical equipment. We sent the Russians $65 million dollars worth of this very critical material.

"Lend-Lease" Utilized Illegally

The atom bomb was only one of many things that Moscow's friends in Washington sent along to Russia via Lend-Lease in open violation of the spirit and letter of the law . . . in complete disregard of the cost to the American taxpayers . . . and in utter defiance of our country's security and safety.

ment with Russia declared: "The Government of the United States of America will continue to supply the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics with such DEFENSE articles, DEFENSE services, and DEFENSE information as the President of the United States of America shall authorize to be transferred or provided."

Under the Lend-Lease Law the President had full power to decide what DEFENSE assistance the Russians were to get. He delegated that power to Harry Hopkins, whose fame as a relief administrator was well known in the Soviet Union, so one day the Russians applied to Hopkins for a relief project for the city of Leningrad, and they got it—even though it was in violation of the Lend-Lease Act.

Although I was unaware of the treachery regarding the atom bomb, that was going on right under my nose in 1943 and '44, other developments caused me to be concerned. Once every three weeks a plane came through from Washington loaded with 50 patent leather suitcases, guarded by two Russian couriers. Each time I was told that these were "diplomatic" shipments and that I could not inspect the contents. Each time I insisted that before the plane could be cleared I would have to see what the suitcases contained. I found some of them bulging with copies of patents from the U. S. Patent Office.

Maj. Jordan Gets the "Brush-Off"

I flew to Washington. Because of the claim of "diplomatic" immunity I went directly to the State Department. After telling my story a half dozen times I finally reached the functionary in charge of Lend-Lease relations with Russia. He heard my story and assured me that "everything is alright," that I should not interfere, that I was being too "officious," and that if I continued, I might find myself in the Fiji Islands.

But as I was not satisfied that "everything was alright," on my return from Washington I reported the whole matter to the Army's Counter-Intelligence Corps. An agent was sent to interview me. He agreed that something was wrong, and that immediate action should be taken. Five years later, I learned from testimony before the Committee on Un-American Activities that the CIC agent did try to do something about it, and that a meeting was called to consider my charges. In attendance were representatives of the FBI, Customs, Immigration, Air Force, the Army and the State Department. But, after a lot of talk, action on my report was blocked by our Ambassador to Russia, Averill Harriman, who said he wanted nothing to interfere with the warm friendship between the Russians and ourselves.

JEWISH WORLD HOAX

THE HOAX ABOUT SIX MILLION JEWS

W. D. HERRSTRON, Editor of BIBLE NEWS FLASHES — Faribault, Minnesota, answers an inquiry by one of his readers. Republished from "Bible News Flashs."

Dear Editor:

"Can you give me some information on the Jewish question? A man from Denver, Colorado who has been in Palestine several times and taking pictures, was here last week showing his pictures and making speeches about the Jews; telling the people that Hitler killed 6,000,000 Jews and rendered soap from their bodies.

"The speaker said that the reason God has prospered our nation so much is because we have always been good to Jews; and the reason England is losing out and going down, is because she sold guns and ammunition to the Arabs in their fight with the Jews; and Germany has been crushed because she persecuted the Jews."

The story about the Germans making soap out of 6,000,000 Jews is one of the biggest lies in history.

Personally, I don't see how anyone with common sense would give credence to such a claim in the beginning. That a so-called minister of the Gospel of Christ should stand behind the sacred desk and pass such a hoax on to the people—as the truth—seems inconceivable. Yet, I guess there are all kinds of "things" running around the country posing as ministers, evangelists, and missionaries.

I have had German neighbors all my life and I haven't seen any of them putting Jews in their soap kettles and making soap out of them. The Germans aren't that kind of people, but the propagandists have tried hard to make the public believe that Germans do not belong to the human race. Jewish leaders have the same contempt for all Gentiles as they do for the Germans, but they do not publicly express themselves concerning the rest of the Gentiles. However, a reading of Jewish literature reveals the fact that they class all Gentiles with "dogs" and "swine."

If the aforementioned preacher had any brains he could see right through the hoax about the 6,000,000 Jews. For instance, if the Germans hated the Jews enough to murder 6,000,000 of them, common sense tells us that the Germans wouldn't want to smear themselves with soap made from the bodies of those Jews.

Again, soap is made from "fats", and if the Germans "starved" the Jews to death, it doesn't appear that there would be enough fats left in their bodies to make soap.

Another story is that the Germans incinerated these Jews in ovens. The "barbecued Jew" hoax is as ridiculous as the others.

UN DELEGATE TRYGVE LIE and ERNEST GROSS

THE RUSSIAN RAT TRAP

by Congressman John T. Wood, Idaho

I ran across some interesting facts concerning the past history of Trygve Lie, Secretary General of the United Nations, the other day.

John T. Wood He demanded the election of Lie by acclamation, despite the fact that such elections could only be conducted by secret ballot. Trygve was so elected.

Trygve was a member of the Norwegian Labor Party, which was one of the first to affiliate with Lenin's 3rd Internationale, though they afterwards withdrew from membership.

He also essayed the role of Benedict Arnold to his own country, by proposing on April 9th, 1945, the joint defense of Spitzbergen by Russia and Norway. This would have given Russia an ice-free bastion, within easy striking distance of Britain and this country; it would have dominated our pathway to Europe and Russia, and would have subjected Sweden to a cross-fire between Spitzbergen and Russia.

Lie spent a long time at Moscow with his

AMERICAN JEWISH CONGRESS DEFENDS MARY MCLEOD BETHUNE

ENGLEWOOD, N. J. BOARD ACTS TO STOP RED ADDRESS

We are not surprised to find the American Jewish Congress condemning the action of the Englewood Board of Education for the part it played in the postponement of the address that was to be delivered in Englewood School by Dr. Mary McLeod Bethune. RED MARY MCLEOD BETHUNE HAS A RED RECORD A MILE LONG! Why is the American Jewish Congress, an official Jewish body, so anxious to defend this Red? Why did Rabbi Ahron Opher of Paterson, New Jersey, step so vigorously into the picture and rally to the side of this Red? Are you beginning to catch on?

It may come as a surprise to some, who want to believe in their Jewish neighbors, and who want to believe that Communism is not a Jewish movement, to witness official Jewish bodies and leaders defending Mary McLeod Bethune. However, those who keep up with things and are informed know that the American Jewish Congress is one of the big powers behind Com-

The Jews themselves, laugh, when they find gullible Gentiles swallowing that balderdash, but no Jew believes it. The Jews might use the story to raise money among gullible Gentiles, but the Jews would never use this story in their own ranks because no Jew believes it.

Where are the 6,000,000 Jews who disappeared from Germany? Senator Pat McCarran says there are more than 5,000,000 aliens in this country who got in "illegally." He doesn't say who they are but most "informed" people believe that most of them are Jews.

Since the Jews have exercised almost complete "control" over the New Deal since the day FDR took office it is easy to see how 5,000,000 Jews could come into this country illegally and escape publicity and prosecution, not to mention expulsion.

It would be impossible to name any country in Europe (other than Germany) that has had that many people who left without a forwarding address.

No use looking in Shickelgruber's ovens for them. Walk down the streets of any American city. There they are.

A "BLESSING" OR A "CURSE"

The second part of the aforementioned letter is the question of whether the Lord will "prosper" a nation that takes the Jews into its embrace.

There are Bible Institutes that have been cramming down the throats of their students the falsehood that God will bless any nation or individual that takes into its embrace, the Jews.

Anyone who has studied the Scriptures will readily discern two glaring errors in the Bible Institute philosophy:

(1) The Scriptures forbid the Jews to fraternize with Gentiles or to intermarry. They were told that if they disobeyed God's clear command in this matter they would come under "a curse" and be scattered among all the nations. This has been fulfilled. If they are under a curse for disobeying God and for their rejection of the Lord Jesus Christ, how can they be a blessing?

The Jews are the only people in the world who rejected Christ as an entire racial group. Are they, then a blessing? Let's see what the Scriptures say:

Speaking of their return to Palestine from among all the nations of the world, the Scriptures plainly say—

"YE WERE A CURSE AMONG THE NATIONS, O HOUSE OF JUDAH AND HOUSE OF ISRAEL" (Zech. 8:13, R. V.)

The Bible plainly says that the Jews are to be "a curse among the nations." How, then, can anyone go so far as to change the truth into a lie and say that the Jews are a blessing?

Apparently some preachers know very little about the Bible or else there are hundreds like the evangelist who recently said to us, "You have the truth on the Jewish question and the Scriptures back you up. I agree with you 100 per cent, but if I go out and preach the TRUTH most of the Fundamentalist churches will close their doors to me and I'll be out of business."

Well, it's too bad, brother, that you've got to preach lies in order to get into so many Fundamentalist pulpits. Why don't you do like a few of us do—preach the TRUTH and take the consequence. Sure, the other fellow will lie about us in order to save his compromising, guilty conscience, but let him lie. His sermons are lies too. We are out to please God—not man.

And why don't you profit by the example of one who, 1900 years ago heard the jingle of 30 pieces of silver, and loved that more than the Friend of all Friends?

Well, that evangelist is "prospering" financially, but spiritually his meetings are a "fake" as are all meetings where shekels come first and the Saviour last. Unfortunately, there are hundreds—doubtless thousands, like him. That is what is wrong with the Church today. That is what is wrong with America.

The Lord prospered America, not because it catered to the Jews or adopted the principles of Talmudism. This nation was blessed because it founders were believers in the Lord Jesus Christ and because they incorporated Christian principles into our Constitution.

This blessing upon America continued until 1933 when the part-Jewish FDR got into power. Since that time Communistic Jews have exercised almost complete control over the New Deal government. The blessing of God left this country in 1933 and it has been on the skids ever since. We have been plunged into two wars; our "American" form of government has been virtually destroyed and a Socialist system of government ownership or "control" of business has been substituted. The wealth produced since the Pilgrims landed at Plymouth Rock has been squandered through political insanity; unborn babes are "mortgaged" for more than this country is worth and they can look forward to nothing but enslavement to the government in order to pay a crushing indebtedness—enslavement during all their life time.

The entering wedge for the destruction of our country was injected during the Woodrow Wilson administration when the Jewish Bernard Baruch exercised large "control" over the nation's economy. During that administration the Jewish Karl Marx's Communist platform plank—the graduated income tax, was adopted. It was calculated to liquidate all of the large fortunes and to eventually siphon off all the earnings of all citizens—except their bare living expenses. It is doing that now. The purpose of the measure, in the mind of Karl Marx was to enable the government to take over all property and then own the people as slaves—slaves working for the government all the time. (Americans are already working for the government from one-half to nine-tenths of the time through confiscatory taxes.) It will not be long until the Karl Marx idea will come to fulfillment. The seeds of destruction have been sown in our government. They are now coming to fruition.

The Federal Reserve Banking system was also a product of the Wilson administration. The Jewish Federal Reserve bankers largely control America's money. They manipulated affairs to cause the depression for which they blamed Herbert Hoover. Their objective was to destroy the influence of a Christian patriot who was loyal to America's Constitution and replace him with a Marxist who would ridicule our Constitution and incorporate Marxist principles as a substitute for the "American" form of government. They succeeded.

With our country at an all time low morally; with the government seething with corruption; with our boys dying in Korea because New Deal officials and appointees played footsie with the Chinese Communists—who will dare to say that this country—under its present, largely Jewish control—is being blessed more greatly than it was under Gentile control, prior to 1932?

Nearly all of our atomic spies, who gave our secrets to Bolshevik Russia, were Jews.

Has our country improved since our government took Jews into its embrace and followed their advice? Or have we discovered that God knew what He was talking about when He said,

"YE WERE A CURSE AMONG THE NATIONS, O HOUSE OF JUDAH AND HOUSE OF ISRAEL" (Zech. 8:13).

With so many preachers following the Marxist philosophy—that taking the Jews into your embrace will bring great blessing—no wonder thousands of church members are thoroughly disgusted and are asking—What shall we do? Where can we go to church? Where are the preachers who preach the truth instead of lies?

All this brings us face to face with the fact that there is a crying need for an organization of ministers who will preach the truth—even when it is unpopular to do so. There are many such ministers but they need to be organized and cataloged so church members who are tired of listening to the Marxist attitude toward the Jewish problem can find a church where the worship is centered around Christ instead of around a Marxist-minded group of Asiatics.

IS RUSSIA BLESSED BY GOD?

If friendship for the Jews brings God's blessing, then Soviet Russia should be the nearest thing to Heaven on earth, because 76 per cent of the Bolshevik leaders who set up the Communist government were Jews. On the contrary, Russia is the nearest thing to hell that the world has ever seen, (proving again, the truth of Zech. 8:13).

The most outstanding Jewish weekly in America, the American Hebrew, said on Sept. 10, 1920—

"The Bolshevik Revolution in Russia was the work of Jewish brains, of Jewish dissatisfaction, of Jewish planning, whose goal is to create a new order in the world. What was performed in so excellent a way in Russia, thanks to Jewish brains, and because of Jewish dissatisfaction and by Jewish planning, shall also, through the same Jewish mental and physical forces, become a reality ALL OVER THE WORLD."

Those mosquito-brained preachers who think that the way to blessing is through catering to the Marxist Talmudists, should go to Russia where that crowd exercises almost complete control. But be prepared for a one-way trip. And the blessing you will receive will be a small piece of lead. An excavating machine will dig your grave and a bulldozer will cover you up.

THE COLLAPSE OF BRITAIN

The preacher was wrong again when he said Britain is collapsing because she is against the Jews. The opposite is the truth. The Socialist regime has caused the disintegration of the British Empire and behind the Socialist regime has been Jewish influence. Britain, therefore, collapses—not because of opposition to the Jews, but because she gave them power.

WHY GERMANY COLLAPSED

Germany came under dictatorship because she failed to deal with Jewish Communists until they had gained enough power to overthrow Germany. Thirty-six hours before the scheduled Communist revolution, Hitler rose up to oppose the Reds. The German people had no choice. It was either dictatorship under Hitler or dictatorship under Communist Talmudists—as in Soviet Russia.

Believing that nothing could possibly be worse than the bloody record of Bolshevism, they chose to be under Hitler's dictatorship.

The Jewish boycott of Germany set the stage for World War II. Since the war, Germany has been under the Morgenthau Plan (falsely called the Marshall Plan) and now the Germans are tiring of the Jewish Morgenthau Plan of permanent enslavement or annihilation—and anti-Semitism is rising with a greater vengeance than under Hitler's regime.

An observer of the present German enslavement says—

"Anti-Semitism is NOT persecution of or a hatred for the Jews.

"Anti-Semitism is SELF-DEFENSE of the individual and of the people."

Thus, there is still no blessing under the Jewish regime in Germany.

America has no business to be aligned in the UN with godless Russia and the other pagan countries. The UN is setting the stage for world dictatorship under the prophesied coming Jewish antichrist.

AN OPEN LETTER TO GENERAL MacARTHUR:

Dear General:

Before writing this humble letter, I asked Almighty God to strengthen my mind and guide my hand so that I may put into writing what millions of Americans are hoping and praying for today.

It is needless to relate to you the conditions of the world and the great danger that our country is in, as I for one, am aware of the fact that you know everything that has taken place in the great "sell-out" of America. You have stood back silently and watched the hundreds of good American leaders disappear while the Internationalists moved on Washington. You watched the great secret agreement at Yalta and the turning over of 400,000,000 Chinese to the Communists. You have seen thousands of immigrants pour into this country and take over key positions like they did in Poland, Hungary and other countries. Yes, you saw all of this and now you see America about to take her last breath of freedom. What can you do about it?

The important thing to remember is that God gave you all of the wonderful qualities you have. He made you a strong and just leader of men. Besides this, He gave you the ability of being a strategist and diplomat at the same time. Very few men possess such qualities and for some reason Almighty God has given them to you and placed you in the position you are in today.

This position, of course, is a difficult one, but since the beginning of the world Almighty God has created good Christian leaders to match the difficulties of such situations for His sake. Perhaps many times you have thought that of all the great trials and battles you have been through, that this was the greatest and maybe the final one. Yes, you have most likely thought of what would happen if you tried to oppose this powerful force of atheism. You might have to give up your life.

This, of course, would not affect you in making up your mind to stand up and fight, as you have proven over and over again that you have no fear of death. I would like to mention, as one who has served under you, that there are millions who would stand up and die with you if it meant that America would be saved. America needs a leader who loves her above all other countries and organizations. America needs a man who has watched thousands of Mothers' sons die needlessly in the battle fronts. America needs a leader who has conquered a hostile oriental nation and became its friend in a few years. America needs a leader who will run a country according to the Constitution of the United States and the Bill of Rights. Yes, America needs a leader. AMERICA NEEDS YOU.

General, it is going to be very difficult for you to stand by and watch a totalitarian Government take over 160,000,000 people whom you love very much, particularly when the above qualities fit you perfectly. All of the battles you have won in the past and all the lives of the boys you have saved through your strategy will have been in vain if you do not come NOW to the call of America. We, the American people, are depending upon you to lead us through this tremendous crises. We know you will not fail us. We know you will be there at the strategic time. Sincerely,

A former Marine who served three and one-half years in the Pacific.

SIX MILLION JEWS

"I WILL CURSE HIM THAT CURSETH THEE"

In the time of Christ the apostate Rabbis interpreted this verse to mean that anyone who opposed the Jews would be under a curse. They attempted to "frighten" people into subjection.

Christ publicly exposed their hypocrisy when He said:

"I know that ye are Abraham's seed; but ye seek to kill me, because my word hath no place in you . . . If ye were Abraham's children ye would do the works of Abraham. But now ye seek to kill me, a man that told you the truth, which I have heard of God; this did not Abraham . . .

"Ye are of your father the devil, and the lusts of your father ye will do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and abode not in the truth, because there is no truth in him . . . And because I tell you the truth, ye believe me not" (John 8:37-45).

Christ defied their threatened "curse" by openly exposing their hypocrisy. The verses, in Gen. 12:1-3, refer to Christ and His seed, not to the Jews and their posterity. The Rabbis, rejecting Christ, perverted the Scriptures (as some do today) and applied it to themselves. They said Christ was under a curse and was under the influence of a demon, because He publicly exposed the hypocrisy of the Rabbis.

Blessing is to come to those who bless Christ and the curse is upon those who curse Christ.

This makes sense, and is confirmed throughout the Scriptures. Strange then, that any professing Christian should adopt the interpretation given by the Rabbis who crucified Christ and who claimed that the curse was upon Him because He opposed and exposed the Jewish leaders.

We can't blame church members for losing patience when they hear ministers interpreting the Scriptures according to the Talmud—in the same way it was interpreted by the Jewish leaders who conspired to crucify Christ.

Ministers should study the Scriptures and preach the truth instead of giving Talmud interpretations—"the traditions of the elders," which Christ so vigorously condemned.

MYSTERY BABYLON

Another interpretation that delights the Communists is the idea that "mystery Babylon"—the figurative Babylon of prophecy, is the Roman Catholic Church. As a Baptist, I have no brief for the Roman Church, but I think a corrupt Protestant Church, denying the deity of Christ, His virgin birth, His bodily resurrection, the efficacy of His atoning blood, and all the other precious truths of the Scriptures, has stooped pretty low.

Christ Himself also identified the slayers of the prophets—

"Then spake Jesus to the multitude, and to His disciples,

"Saying, The Scribes and the Pharisees sit in Moses' seat . . . and the chief seats in the synagogues . . . But be not ye called Rabbi: for one is your Master, even Christ . . .

"Woe unto you, Scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! because ye build the tombs of the prophets, and garnish the sepulchres of the righteous . . . Wherefore ye be witnesses unto yourselves, that ye are the children of them which killed the prophets . . . Ye serpents, ye generation of vipers, how can ye escape the damnation of hell?"

"Wherefore, behold, I send unto you prophets, and wise men, and scribes; and some of them ye shall kill and crucify; and some of them shall ye scourge in your synagogues, and persecute them from city to city.

"That upon you may come all the righteous blood shed upon the earth, from the blood of righteous Abel, unto the blood of Zacharias son of Barachias, whom ye slew between the temple and the altar . . .

"O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, thou that killest the prophets, and stonest them which are sent unto thee . . . Behold, your house is left unto you desolate" (Matt. 23:1-38.).

Speaking of the slayers of the prophets, Christ does not say, "O, Rome, Rome." He says, "O Jerusalem, Jerusalem."

The Scriptures are so clear on this that it is difficult to see how anyone could confuse this clear reference to Jewish leaders and Judaism, with the Roman Catholic Church.

The Babylon of the end of time is doubtless the coming world dictatorship under the prophesied Jewish anti-Christ. There is today, an increasing hatred toward Christians who are sufficiently sincere to proclaim the truth without compromise. When the Jewish antichrist rules the world, Christianity will be outlawed and all will be under death sentence. Straws in the wind indicate that we are heading that way today.

The United Nations, which had its birth in the San Francisco conference—set up by a group of which Alger Hiss was secretary, is no doubt a forerunner of the coming "one world" dictatorship by "one man"—the anti-Christ. The UN has ruled out Christ entirely and its headquarters are a convenient spy nest for the Reds.

It would require several thousand pages to adequately present the above subjects, and we have plenty of material to prove our case beyond a shadow of doubt. But enough has been said to set in motion some serious thinking on the subject.

I have attended dozens of religious conventions, and conferences. All I ever hear is a rehashing of the kindergarten teachings that everybody has heard over and over again, a thousand times. I have often wondered why full-grown men do not tackle some of these subjects and get "straightened out" on them, instead of taking the attitude that they have "arrived" after merely covering the subjects of the primary department in the spiritual realm.

Well, Mr. sincere preacher and layman, suppose you bring up these subjects at the next conference or convention. Anyway, it'll be interesting to watch the pussy-footers scramble for cover. Lots of preachers know these truths but they are afraid of losing their jobs.

munist in the United States. Since they are the "bosses" of gentile fronts like Mary McLeod Bethune, their Red record is much more extensive and important.

The Board of Education and cooperating groups that effected the postponement of the Bethune talk are to be highly congratulated. THERE IS NOT THE SLIGHTEST DOUBT ABOUT HER RED RECORD. IT IS FURNISHED IN DETAIL BELOW. WE CHALLENGE HER TO DEFEND THAT RED RECORD ON THE PUBLIC PLATFORM WITH A REPRESENTATIVE OF COMMON SENSE.

Before reviewing Dr. Bethune's coat of crimson, however, let us turn our attention to the Red record of the American Jewish Congress, which is far more important. The record of the American Jewish Congress was reviewed in our issue No. 104 dated November 1st, 1949, a copy of which may be had for the asking. Briefly, we would like to point out here, that the American Jewish Congress, a branch of the World Jewish Congress, was headed for years by the late Rabbi Stephen S. Wise, with whose long Red record even a school child should be familiar. Dr. Wise's son, James Waterman Wise, Russian born Rabbi Solomon Goldman, Representative Emanuel Celler, Julian W. Mack, Judge Ben Rosenthal, Louis Lipsky (writer for Communist papers) Rabbi Max Nussbaum and Henry L. Silberman; all with Red records, hold very prominent positions in the American Jewish Congress. Red Rabbi Dr. Joachim Prinz of Newark, New Jersey, who, not unlike Albert Einstein was expelled from Germany for Revolutionary Communist activities, is the honorary Vice-President of the American Jewish Congress.

It is likewise noteworthy that in the California Committee on the Un-American Activities' Report for 1948, pp 145-149, the American Jewish Congress is cited as Communist infiltrated in its California Division whose convention in 1948 went on record against loyalty checks, and called for the abolition of the Congressional Committee and the Tenney State Legislative Committee. (Bold), Yes, along with the American Jewish Labor Council, the American Committee of Jewish writers, artists and scientists (Chelsea) Jewish Children's School, Massachusetts, Jewish Black Book Committee of Los Angeles, Jewish Peoples' Committee, Jewish Peoples' Fraternal Order and the School of Jewish Studies, New York City, the American Jewish Congress is listed as a Communist Front. Who should be surprised then at finding a Communist Front backing up a Communist?

Here are a few of the American, tolerant activities in which the American Jewish Congress figured. It was several years ago that this un-American Gestapo, upheld the ban placed on Brooklyn, New York, schools by Isaac Bildersleeve against "any" reference in dramatization, songs or otherwise to the religious significance of Christmas. It was the American Jewish Congress who promoted and backed the notorious Red fraud John Roy Carlson. It was the American Jewish Congress (Rabbi Prinz presiding) who demanded that "RED CHANNELS," perhaps the most thorough expose of the Communist element dominating radio and television ever published, be banned from the Newark, New Jersey, public schools. It was the American Jewish Congress who vigorously opposed the ban by the New York Regents of the un-moral anti-Christian and anti-Catholic Play, "The Miracle." The shoe was on the other foot then. These tolerant Jews! And so on Ad Infinitum.

Is Communism Jewish? Well, the American Jewish Congress is certainly Jewish and it is certainly Communist. The American Jewish Congress is an official Jewish body. Have you heard of one recognized Jewish organization in New Jersey that has condemned the American Jewish Congress? If not, why not? The Jews can't have it both ways. If some one will furnish us the name of one, we will be happy to print it on the front page of COMMON SENSE.

To Return to Dr. Mary McLeod Bethune:

Dr. Bethune is a negress who writes for the Daily Worker. She serves on the National Committee of the "Friends of Democracy." She is a member and an officer in the two following Communist Fronts: American Soviet Friendship and National Federation Constitutional Liberties. Dr. Bethune has been honored in 39 other instances with Communist Front citations. The most infamous part of Dr. Bethune's record is her membership in the initiating Committee of the Civil Rights Congress. The American Civil Rights Congress was fathered by the Communist Party; International Labor Defense and the notorious Communist Front "National Federation for Constitutional Liberties." The American Civil Rights Congress is a most notorious Communist Front. House Report No. 1,115, September 2nd, 1947, Committee on Un-American Activities, speaks as follows of the Civil Rights Congress:

"Having adopted a line of militant skulduggery against the United States, with the close of World War II, the Communist Party has set up the Civil Rights Congress for the purpose of protecting those of its members who run afoul of the law."

"... A maze of organizations have been spawned for the alleged purpose of defeating civil liberties in general but actually intended to protect Communist subversion from any penalties under the law." MARY McLEOD BETHUNE IS PERHAPS THE MOST NOTORIOUS NEGRO FEMALE ALIGNED WITH THE COMMUNISTS WITH WHICH THE UNITED STATES IS AFFLICTED.

Let's bring the case of Dr. Mary McLeod Bethune and that of any other Red to a showdown.

WE REPEAT:

More power to the Board of Education in Englewood for their determination to protect our schools from Marxist influence. We hope they will not back down and let these Marxists influence or intimidate them in any way.

QUO VADIS

We urge those who have not seen this wonderful picture, saga of the persecution of the Early Christians, to let nothing prevent them from doing so, as our christian brothers in Communist controlled countries today are living through a similar period. If you want to know what you and your children face in this country as Christians, you will find the answer in this picture, so make arrangements to see QUO VADIS and urge your friends to do likewise.

WILL JAPAN GO COMMUNIST?

When General MacArthur took control of Japan, it was a nation of beaten, hopeless people who had anything but admiration for the United States and its military leaders.

General MacArthur brought the Japanese people hope, the use of a free ballot and free press. He secured their cooperation and their friendship and guarded them from Communism. Now that the Communists, who direct the Washington gang, have MacArthur out of the way, it becomes more apparent each month that the plan is working to push Japan into Communism as was done to China.

General Mark Clark, Jew, has been placed in charge of the phoney war in Korea and Robert Murphy named Ambassador to Japan. This is the same Robert Murphy who had been advisor to General Clay and John J. McCloy, the two Commissioners in Germany. Murphy certainly could not have held so important a position in Germany unless his services were entirely satisfactory to the Jewish directed State Department,—the same State Department that maneuvered China into Communism. Hence we must assume Murphy will help turn Japan over to Marxism.

THE RUSSIAN RAT-TRAP

pals, Stalin, Molotov and Vishinsky. He appoints all his Secretaries-General, of whom there are eight. Three of the eight are either Communists or Russian sympathizers.

Arkady A. Sobolev, next in line to Lie, is the Minister for War, Communications, and Information. All military and diplomatic affairs go to him first. Every movement of troops to Korea, or of guns and materiel, are reported to him. Sobolev is a Russian Communist, was brought up in Moscow under Stalin, and you should know what that means. I can't think of any better possible set-up for Stalin, who after all, is our real enemy in Korea. Can you?

Don't you see under what impossible odds your boys in Korea are placed? How can they win under such circumstances? This gives a ready explanation of the comic opera farces which our forces in Korea have staged at Kojé, and Panmunjom.

Perhaps it will give you an inkling of what the Top Army Brass must think of waging a Police Action under such circumstances, when they must report all their movements to Sobolev, and accept the dictation of non-military men in the United Nations, as to how the war shall be conducted, how the armistice shall be planned, and how the prison camps are conducted. And this in spite of the fact that OUR captured boys have been murdered and tortured, and that no report has ever been made of thousands who have disappeared. Beefsteaks and pie for Kojé, but bullets, knives and fire for our own boys. Maybe you can take this sort of treason. I can't, at least not quietly.

I have many friends in Congress who have sons on the firing line in Korea, and yet they support the United Nations. I appreciate their heart-break as they watch the casualty lists, and wonder if their boy shall be next. I am not sarcastic in this, but I do sometimes wonder what is the matter with their heads, for they also know what a farce the whole thing is.

You have all seen a cat playing with a mouse before it administers the final coup de grace. Well, in this instance, a once great and proud nation, the strongest militarily upon earth, representing the finest minds in the whole world, and at the very peak of governmental excellence, permits itself to be sold down the river to a bunch of nomad rats, living in their loathsome den of thieves and traitors, laughing at us, as Vishinsky said they did at Paris, as they see to what loathsome depths we have sunk into the pit of mongrelized and alien infamy. How much lower can we get before we are ready to cry with a mighty roar: "You have done enough; Now get out, OUT, OUT!"

There is so little we can do about it, except to put in a President this fall who WILL get us out of the mess, and a bunch of Congressmen who will help him to do it. There is no other way. The United Nations is a rat-trap with only a way in, but no way out, except to kick out the rats with their trap. It is YOUR JOB this Fall. Get busy on it. NOW.

At a "Union Now" luncheon Feb. 11, 1942 in New York, Frederick L. Schuman, Department of Government, Williams College, said: "The first World War was for the League of Nations. We lost it. This war is for World Government."

KOREA PHONY WAR

"COLD WAR"

The following article appeared in "Free Britain," published in London, England.

New measures are wanted in the struggle against Communism. The "Cold War," as this rather feeble struggle is called, looks to us very much like a "Phony War." Vast sums are being diverted to rearmament, valuable lives are being lost in Korea and Malaya and there seems to be an understanding not to attack the real cause of the trouble.

In the 'American Hebrew,' the leading Jewish weekly paper in the USA, on September 10th, 1920, appeared the following:

"The Bolshevik Revolution in Russia was the work of Jewish brains, of Jewish dissatisfaction, of Jewish planning, whose goal is to create a new order in the world."

This was nothing less than a candid admission of the truth, confirmed a hundred times over by other Jewish statements throughout the world—proved up to the hilt by facts and figures which show the Soviet Government to have been almost entirely Jewish from 1917 at least up to 1936, with 20 Jews to every Gentile in every branch of the Administration, from the central Government to the district Commissars and the Diplomatic Service. And right up to the present day the position has been very little changed in spite of recent repeated stories of "Anti-Semitism in Russia." It is the same in the whole of the Soviet block of countries in Eastern Europe and in the Communist movements throughout the world.

Not content with making the above admission, the 'American Hebrew' repeats and underlines the statement in its very next sentence thus:

"What was performed in so excellent a way in Russia, thanks to Jewish brains, and because of Jewish dissatisfaction and by Jewish planning, shall also, through the same Jewish mental and physical forces, become a reality all over the world."

The obvious question here is: "If this is true, why have not the spokesmen of the Western Democracies made use of this fact to discredit Communism in the eyes of the whole Gentile world?"

The fact is, it is true, but the truth in this case is a bombshell which politicians are afraid to use. They are more afraid of dropping this bombshell than they are even of using the Atom Bomb or poison gas.

That is what we mean by there being an understanding not to attack the real cause of the trouble. Rather than that our politicians should be labelled "Anti-semitic" and run the risk of losing their jobs and ruining their political career, men have to die.

Felix Frankfurter friend of Red Revolutionist Harold Laski, and Sydney Hillman, leading Fabian for America, is a top man in the Invisible Government. Frankfurter rules the White House through his Dean Acheson, David Niles and Anna Rosenbergs. This red Jew who dishonored the Court by defending the convicted traitor Alger Hiss admitted recently at a banquet: "The real rulers of a nation are undiscoverable."

BISHOP ASSAILS LEADERS OF U.S. SAYS FRANKFURTER PULLS POLICY STRINGS

Supreme Court Justice Felix Frankfurter was pictured by a Catholic bishop here yesterday as the "big black wolf" of Washington and the man who pulls the policy strings.

Bishop Raymond A. Lane, D.D. superior general of the Maryknoll Fathers, lashed out at the leaders and foreign policy makers in Washington.

He was the featured speaker at the third annual Communion breakfast of the Blessed Virgin Mary Sodality of St. Francis de Sales Catholic Church in the parochial school.

The world traveler and former prisoner of the Japanese for four years during World War II described Frankfurter as a bright disciple of the late Chief Justice Wendell Holmes of the nation's highest court. Holmes, in Bishop Lane's opinion, was "a great big fake" and not the exalted orator, philosopher and jurist history has pictured him.

Bishop Lane recalled a recent meeting on foreign policy of Gov. Thomas E. Dewey (a strong Eisenhower supporter), Secretary of State Dean Acheson and Frankfurter and asked "does that mean Ike is a member of that guild?" If that be the case, the bishop said he would rather vote for the devil himself, morally speaking.

He urged his audience to become alert and

By Congressman John Wood of Idaho

The Forces of destiny, with the help of the United Nations, have succeeded in dividing the world into two armed camps. The United Nations has not failed. It still remains the funnel through which its treasons to America may be poured into America, through Unesco and the newer education for the All-Powerful World State, as well as the job of collecting military and political information for the Soviet Union at first hand through its machinations.

John T. Wood of Idaho

Fearing the wrath of the American people as they become aware of how thoroughly they have been duped by the U.N., the little hired-hand of the State Department has shifted his activities to NATO and PATO, which are designed to be the military arms of the new One-World government he is busily engaged in forming, through which he is resorting to the old "balance of power" idea.

The Atlantic Community, or the North Atlantic Federation, as it is sometimes called, is to be the political arm of the new superstate. All meetings are strictly secret, and little information is available about the scheme. Secret agreements, secretly arrived at. Where have we heard that before? Surely such have no place in a Republic where the people rule. Meanwhile, important conversations have been held at Ottawa, to which Senator Gillette, of Iowa, was flown in a Navy plane at the taxpayers' expense. Whatever was done won't be good for you and our beloved country.

Some old-timer wrote, "O, What a tangled web we weave, When first we practice to deceive," and I guess it applies to fake statesmen, as well as to us ordinary people. We surely are tangled, confused, and bumfoozled, as a result of the devious mental processes of this suave, mustached half god who thinks he is a master-statesman. The pity is he is still firmly ensconced in the driver's seat in our temporarily unhappy country. May we not be permitted to hope that the American people this Fall will once again take over their government, and get rid of these fakealoo statesmen, fifteen-cent executives, mink-coat panders to their delusions of grandeur, fake generals in a fake army, circus performers in a tragic spectacle in the three-ring performance in Korea, false surgeons engaged in bleeding America white through fake taxes voted by a subservient Congress, all self-duped through adherence to a socialistic, near Communist, ideology brought into this country by long-haired men and short-haired women, aliens, not only in nationality, but also steeped in this farce. Help to make known the fact that Communism is a Jewish swindle. It is the greatest confidence trick in history. Its exposure has nothing whatsoever to do with whether you like or dislike the Jews, individually or as a body. It is a question of whether you are prepared to stand by and watch the world torn apart and eventually handed over to a World Government on the Marxist plan when, according to their ancient prophets, "the Jews shall become possessed of all the goods of all the peoples of the earth." Marx's idea and the idea of World Jewry today is that this should come about "under cover of the victory of the proletariat."

There is no need for violence if you will help to expose the Jewish plan. But there will be untold violence everywhere if the plan is not exposed, for it is a plan involving violence on a scale that will make the Bolshevik revolution of 1917 look like a picnic.

As we have said before, the soft under-belly of the Communist menace is the Jewish question. The weak spot in the anti-Communist camp is the soft heads of those who take the advice of the arch-Jew Bernard Baruch.

STALIN PRIZES FOR RUSSIAN JEWS

The 'Jewish Chronicle' 4th April reports: "Jewish names are again prominent in the list of Stalin-Prize-winners, just published in Moscow. If an analysis is made by nationalities, the Jews are second to none but the Russians, both numerically and in the number of first prizes obtained At least 200 Jews distinguished themselves in the sphere of science. They obtained First Prizes in the field of aeronautics, oil and coal extraction, heavy machine building, transport, etc. Many Jews . . . received awards for achievements in chemical research. Many also distinguished themselves in agricultural research and management."

With strange candour, the 'Jewish Chronicle' report concludes by saying that "No Jews are to be found among the many foremen, workers, and farmers rewarded for their efforts to increase production. Most of the Jews named were professors, heads of scientific institutes, or factory directors."

SILVERMAN ON "ANTI-SEMITISM" IN RUSSIA

In an interview with the 'Jewish Chronicle' (reported in its issue of 25th April), Mr. S. S. Silverman M.P., Vice-President of the World Jewish Congress (British Section) reports on his recent visit to the U.S.S.R. and on the subject of the decline in Yiddish cultural organizations he says: "But I would like to make it quite clear," he went on, "that in my opinion any suggestion that there is any element or trace of anti-semitism connected with this problem is morally wicked and politically imbecile."

NEWSVIEW ITEM N.24 BRITISH TAXPAYERS FINANCE JEW PROPAGANDA

Did you know that you and the chap next door are paying a political levy to finance Jew propaganda against your nation, race and religion? UNO cost in 1950 alone 11,078,598 Pounds. British taxpayers paid 11.37 per cent of it. UNESCO is only one of its many costly branches, but you're going to give it 368,000 Pounds this year. What are Messrs H. Kaplan (Public Information Director) and C. H. Weiss (Administrative Bureau Director) and other Jew chiefs of UNESCO giving you in return for your money? For one thing they're going to put our schools under censorship and ban any books which are too patriotic and Christian for their liking. 'The Jewish Chronicle' (11.1.52) happily announces that UNESCO has set up a special sub-committee whose job will be to examine school text books everywhere "with a view to the elimination of racial and religious bias." While with your money UNESCO is seeking to exclude "anti-semitic" thoughts from the minds of British youth, it is also endeavouring to indoctrinate Britons of all ages with the belief that they are mongrels, that all races are equal, that intermarriage with Negroes is not at all bad so that they may become so racially dissipated and degenerate as to offer no resistance to Jew supremacy. In July 1950 a UNESCO panel with Morris Gins-keep alert and pray for the two-thirds of the nation's leaders whom he described as pagans.

Bishop Lane said people should take the lead rather than wait for these leaders to "pull the punches."

America has continued to lose prestige in the eyes of the world since Yalta when whole populations were handed away, he added.

Leadership like this would strengthen and spread Christianity. But spineless, silent piety when people are confused and need leadership, weakens and discourages Christians. EISENHOWER IS ARTHUR GOLDSMITH'S CANDIDATE

By Henry Klein

The secret of Eisenhower is out. He is the candidate of Arthur J. Goldsmith, head of the Jewish Gestapo. Goldsmith announced Eisenhower's candidacy on May 1, 1951, in the N. Y. Times, on page 16 column 6 as follows:

DRIVE STARTED HERE TO PICK EISENHOWER

"A drive to obtain support for General of the Army Dwight D. Eisenhower for the Republican nomination for President next year, has been started here by Arthur J. Goldsmith, a wealthy business man who in 1948 headed the Harold E. Stassen supporters in this city.

"Mr. Goldsmith, while not claiming any authority from General Eisenhower himself, has sent out a circular to Republicans in the city, declaring that General Eisenhower probably would accept the Republican nomination, although he would not campaign for delegates.

"Up to the present, the Goldsmith move has not received any formal blessing from the Republican state organization controlled by Governor Dewey, although the Governor is publicly committed to the support of General Eisenhower for President."

Goldsmith financed the smear campaign against Senator Burton K. Wheeler of Montana, several years ago and recently against Senator Pat McCarran of Nevada and Joe McCarthy of Wisconsin. He helped finance the campaign of hysterical Senator Tobey of New Hampshire and he is no doubt helping finance Senator Kefauver who seeks the Democratic nomination and who will probably be nominated for Vice President with Eisenhower for President by the Democrats, after Eisenhower is repudiated by the Republican convention. The lineup will probably be MacArthur and Taft for President and Vice President on the Republican ticket against Eisenhower and Kefauver on the Democratic ticket.

Arthur J. Goldsmith who lives at the Waldorf Astoria Hotel in New York is one of the top political strategists of the Anti-Defamation League (the Jewish Gestapo.)

berg "representing" Britain reported that there is only one race, mankind, and that all peoples are of equal mental capacity. Later a UNESCO committee of "experts" reported there was "no evidence that race mixture produces disadvantageous results from a biological point of view." We could save a lot of wasted money, and much more besides, by resigning for UNO, and casting out UNESCO's foul propaganda.

ROUSE YE, AMERICANSBy Marilyn R. Allen, P. O. Box 2243
Salt Lake City, Utah.

How DARE you placid Americans enjoy the comfort and security of your homes—while your sons march up one Heartbreak hill and down another, in the face of enemy fire; and their Commander frankly admits that he has been ORDERED NOT TO WIN? What a blot on your soul when you must confess that you have done nothing to stop this useless slaughter of our youth! They must kill and be killed: For WHAT? For politicians who will not let them win! This is not the first shameful "political" war in American history: fought to keep politicians in power and to purposely destroy our White Christian manhood. What about these war-mongers who have thrown us into three terrible wars in one lifetime? Shall you return THEM to power in 1952?

WHY must our beardless boys be torn from their homes, their loved ones, and flung into foreign hell-holes: why must parents be left grieving, alone, unprotected, and undefended—while our young men are sent abroad as Fighting Mercenaries, under a foreign flag?

WHY must our young women be thrown daily into the companionship of coloreds, while their true mates are enticed by alien races beyond the sea?

Must the WORLD Blow up in your face—while America bleeds from the waste of her manpower and moneypower, and those in power grow fat from her sacrifice? While traitors suck her very lifeblood? How CAN you fritter your time away with daily trivia—while America slowly bleeds to death? What do you have in your breasts—heart of stone: jelly in your backbone and icewater in your veins?

Let every man and woman, every American, STAND UP—NOW, before it is forever too late—to save our Freedom right here at home: to defy ever-encroaching regimentation and 'Internationalism'. What is required to dynamite you into ACTION?

Do you sit complacent while America is subverted from a Republic into a Military Dictatorship? While old men, such as Bernard M. Baruch, foist military dictatorship on us here at home, and our young defenders die abroad?

What of all the valiant young lives snuffed out by our Revolutionary War, our Civil War, to make America free and united: what about the Marxist wars, called World War I and II, and what about the undeclared unconstitutional KOREAN holocaust?

Shall all these gallant young have died in vain—while selfishness, treason and base corruption flourish at home, right in the seat of Government? WHERE IS YOUR MANHOOD AND WHERE YOUR WOMANHOOD, OH AMERICA? Where is your burning love of our cherished Land, and of our Stars and Stripes, and where your allegiance to Christianity?

Oh Americans. Throw off this black pall of hypnosis, Christians: gird up your loins and enter the lists: fight the good fight for your Christian Christ, who gave all for you.

Pioneers, Oh Pioneers, there is yet a new frontier for you to conquer in America: the wilderness of Cowardice and Treason: the wilderness of refusing to face up to TRUTH: to look the ENEMY in the eye and face him down. The wilderness of crass materialism which has all but snuffed out the Light of Honor, of Truth, and of Courage. Our greatest ENEMY is not without: it is WITHIN our gates, and you who do not TAKE YOUR STAND FOR CHRIST AND AMERICA, are part of that very enemy! Nothing and nobody CAN defeat an aroused, militant, fearless America, whose heart beats strong with Patriotism and faith in God.

As for ME: Give me Liberty or give me death. I am not moulded of the stuff from which slaves are made.

I regret that I have but one life to offer in the service of my country!

Read and pass on!

IS COMMUNISM JEWISH

(Published from "The World Hoax")

The excerpt below is taken from a letter written by Baruch Levy to his fellow-Jew, Karl Marx, as carried in La Reveu de Paris, June 1st, 1928, P. 574:

"The Jewish people as a whole will be its own Messiah. It will attain world Dominion by the dissolution of other races, by the abolition of frontiers, . . . In this new world Order, the Children of Israel will furnish all the leaders without encountering opposition; and this will more particularly be the case if they succeed in getting the working masses under their control.

"The Governments of the different peoples forming the world Republic will, through the victory of the Proletariat, fall without difficulty into the hands of the Jews. It will then be possible for the Jewish rulers to abolish private property, and everywhere to make use of the resources of the state. Thus will the promise of the Talmud be fulfilled in which it is said, that when the Messianic time has come, the Jews will have the property of the whole world in their hands."

Boris Brasol, in his book "The World at the Crossroads," 1921, on page 109 quotes "The Jewish Daily Forward of New York" as saying:

"We feel that this the Revolution is a great triumph for the Jews' cause. The anti-Jewish element in Russia has always been identified with the anti-Revolutionary party. Jews having always sat high in the councils of the revolutionists, all of our race became linked with the opponents of the government in the official mind!"

On page 291, we find Lawton writing in his "The Russian Revolution":

"Only the Jews can live; only they are clever enough to dodge the inspectors, who are on the doorsteps day and night. They fill their shops with things smuggled over the frontiers. When it is too hot for a Jew he thinks nothing of liquidating his business and opening up somewhere else, or painting up another name over his shop and putting the business in the name of some relative."

"Individual revolutionary leaders of Jewish origin played a conspicuous part in the revolution of November 1917, which enabled the Bolsheviks to take possession of the state apparatus."

From the Universal Jewish Encyclopedia The Jewish Voice, New York City, for October 1941 carried the following statement by Dr. Weizmann, world Zionist leader:

"We wholeheartedly respond to the appeal of the Jewish rally in Moscow. . . . We are proud of the struggle put up by the Soviet armies whose successes evoke universal admiration and fortify confidence in ultimate victory."

The London Times for March 29th, 1919, reported as follows:

"Of the leaders who provide the central machinery for the Bolshevik movement, not less than 75 per cent are Jews. Among the minor officials the number is legion."

Clare Sheridan, traveler and lecturer, stated in an interview carried in the "New York World" of December 15th, 1923:

"The communists are Jews, and Russia is entirely administered by them."

The following comes from Victor Marsden Russian correspondent of the London Morning Post:

"At present (1918) all Bolshevik Commissars are Jews. All the agitation for the 'glorious Revolution' both in 1905 and 1917 was

AMERICAN WOMAN'S PARTY WRITES TO COMMON SENSE

Editor—Common Sense:

I hope it isn't too late to save our country from Communism, socialism, and our representativism in Washington and local government. They are selling us out to our present day evils.

It is time for the American women and mothers to come forth and demand a just government from our men. Also demand they put an end to the slaughter of our American youth. We are sick of these male wars. Do you agree?

If so, give us a helping hand to clean up this mess. The women are on the march.

Another vital issue is the poison chemicals going in our food and water. This is a conspiracy against the health of innocent children, a danger as great as Communism.

We are becoming our own worst enemy and will destroy ourselves from within, just what Joe Stalin is looking forward to. It is time for the women to act!

worked out by Jews. The Jews have stripped Russia bare of all portable property . . ."

The Russian newspaper in Paris, Vosroschenje, for February 2nd, 1931, carried this statement by the Jew Karl Radek, to his fellow Jew Walter Rathenau, then at the height of his power in the German Government:

"We Bolsheviks will know how to force the Russian workers into subjugation—and we will know how to crack any objections to our orders with machine guns . . ."

According to World Service, Erfurt, April 13th, 1937, 10 medical doctors are engaged to watch the health of all persons authorized to enter the Kremlin, and eight of these are Jews.

The periodical Asia carries the following in its February-March 1920 issue:

"In all the Bolshevik institutions the heads are Jews."

IS ZIONISM THE TWIN-BROTHER OF COMMUNISM? HAVE ZIONISTS PROMOTED COMMUNISM? LET THE FOLLOWING QUOTES SPEAK:

The Jew, Elie Eberlin, in his book "Jew of Today" (Paris 1928) states:

"Paoli-Zionism goes on with its task in Russia, Palestine and elsewhere. In this very hour it appears as the unique International Proletarian Party. One of its factions joins the Communist Internationale, the other joins the Socialist Internationale."

Of Paoli-Zionism, Rappaport, a Kiev lawyer wrote (see Parisian Daily L'Intransigeant May 27, 1920):

" . . . We have established our power over large industries by means of adroit agitation (labor union organizing, terrorist propaganda against management, etc.)."

" . . . As representative of the Paoli-Zion, I feel it my duty to state to my great satisfaction that OUR PARTY AND THAT OF THE BUND HAVE BECOME DIRECTING CENTERS, GUIDING THE MANEUVERS OF THE FLOCK OF RUSSIAN SHEEP."

LETTER TO SENATOR TAFT

Hon. Robert A. Taft,
U. S. Senate,
Washington, D. C.
Dear Senator Taft:

I am wondering if you will ever learn not to trust a ZIONIST JEW. You have been stabbed in the back and you will be beaten too if you should get the nomination, Baruch selected Ike and he and his ZIONIST gangsters have played the game very cleverly.

Of course they have you hog tied if and when you allow a Zionist to be an advisor to you or to, in any way, worm into important positions. Your first aide Isador Jack Martin is a Jew. Your Public Relations man Julius Klein is a Jew. The first speech you made after putting your hat in the ring, was before the National Conference of Christians and Jews. The Jews brag that they used you as the go between to get Senator McCarthy to part with Upton Close. In fact the Jews brag that Rabbi Silver will be the top man if you're elected. You should work night and day now to throw the nomination to that GREATEST of them all, General MacArthur. MacArthur is the ONLY man who can beat the ZIONIST gang. He is the only man with GUTS enough to clean out the entire pack of dirty rats in Washington.

In the name of God and of America, I beg of you to read the handwriting on the wall, and then begin at once to work for the nomination of MacArthur. I shall of course vote for you if you are nominated, but I do not believe you will stand a ghost of a chance against that gigantic machine. It is high time Senator Taft to rise above party policies and be AMERICANS. This great country stands at the crossroads, as General MacArthur has said. This election will decide whether we go straight down the road of destruction, or if we head back towards the CONSTITUTION. MacArthur is the only man who can win against a controlled press, controlled radio, controlled movies and a hundred and one other ZIONIST controls. The hour is late Senator and you have no time to lose.

Yours For CONSTITUTIONAL Government

GEN. DOUGLAS MacARTHUR'S WORDS

READ "REVITALIZING A NATION" BY JOHN M. PRATT, A STATEMENT OF THE BELIEFS, OPINIONS, AND POLICIES AS PRONOUNCED PUBLICLY BY GENERAL OF THE ARMY, DOUGLAS MacARTHUR, THE GREAT CHRISTIAN AMERICAN.

READ HIS EXACT WORDS AS OUTLINED IN THIS BOOK OF OVER 100 PAGES PACKED WITH DIRECT ORDERS, 24 PHOTOS. THIS BOOK SHOWS WHERE MacARTHUR STANDS ON EVERY SUBJECT VITAL TO AMERICA AND WHY HE IS THE ONLY MAN THAT CAN SAVE AMERICA.

Here are some sample quotes:

1. General MacArthur will not be silent—
Page 13—"I shall raise my voice as loud and as often as I believe it to be in the interest of the American people."
2. The one National leader who dared take a stand against war—
Page 15—"I am a one hundred percent disbeliever in war . . . I believe that the entire effort of modern society should be concentrated on an endeavor to outlaw it."
3. Here is a man who understands Communism. Show us another candidate who does.
Page 18—"It's (Communism's) plan is to abolish private property and free enterprise in order to secure that degree of power over material things necessary to render absolute it's power to suppress the spiritual things . . . I shall continue to fight against that greatest scourge of mankind, Communism, as long as God gives me the power to fight." (Compare this with the tongue-in-cheek statements of the Anti Defamation League candidates).
4. The one National leader unafraid to mention the word "Christian!"
Page 21—"We must unite in the high purpose that the liberties etched upon the design of our life be unimpaired . . . to preserve inviolate that mighty bulwark of all freedom our Christian faith."

5. No Nurnberg vengeance for MacArthur—

Page 23—"An enlightened Constitution has become the great charter of Japanese liberties" . . .

The way MacArthur ran Japan, that's the way he will administer the United States.

6. General MacArthur presents the most practical solution to the Pacific problem—

Page 34—"Our line of defense (the Pacific) is a natural one and can be maintained with a minimum of military effort and expense."

7. The Christian leader who dared to defend Nationalism—

Page 41—"This is an era characterized by a universal sentiment of nationalism. This we must respect if we would gain the respect of others."

Read the topics listed all the way down, and the forthright wisdom of his answers to these basic problems—Asia, the Philippines, Formosa, the New Japan, Korea, etc.

If you would save America YOU NEED TO READ THIS BOOK.

We challenge anyone to find any statements from the other candidates that can match THESE.

READ THIS IMPORTANT MESSAGE TO MILITANT PATRIOTIC ANTI-COMMUNIST CHRISTIANS

FRIENDS OF COMMON SENSE:

The three and a half year period my son was in the Pacific as a Marine in the last war was a time of anxiety and serious thinking for me. I had a business with more than a hundred employees and was busy. In spite of that, I could not help but observe that a minority group had cleverly pushed us into war and masterminded it for their own benefit. No one was allowed to take part in directing the policies at home or abroad except those who were willing puppets of the Jews. It was blood and suffering for the boys in combat, but a carnival for the Marxists who swarmed into Washington like locusts. Newspaper items described refugees from Germany decorated with jewelry and hilarious in New York night clubs, while our Christian boys were being loaded on ships destined for the battlefields of Europe. Our colleges and universities were emptied to provide soldiers who would break down Germany so Communism could spread out from the Soviet Union. Just as the Hungarian-born Jewess, Anna Rosenberg, now places hundreds of thousands here at home safe from combat in the war the Jews are now preparing, so it was then. (Anna Rosenberg has supervised the hiring of more than a million to date).

I saw all of this and realized while our people had their attention on the war, the Marxists were entrenching themselves so deep in our government, that we would lose our freedom to a more ruthless power than Hitler could ever be. I had studied Marxism for thirteen years, and then in 1946 became aware that if these Marxist traitors were not stopped, we would be in the same helpless slave condition as the 180 million Russians who allowed 30,000 Jewish directed Communists to take over. I decided at that time that some people would have to devote all their time to exposing these red termites, so I started with myself and quit my business, my profession, and ran off thousands of mimeographed sheets and hired 20 men to give them away in front of the churches on Sundays. This was the beginning of COMMON SENSE.

My son who had returned from the Marines and myself, were busy. The paper grew in size and number and it was now printed. Requests came in from many states. We sent out an average of fourteen large mail bags a week, all free. Heavy printing and postage bills had now exhausted my funds. Thousands had been spent, friends volunteered to help with money and work.

We now placed subscriptions at $1.00 a year, but with no advertising we show a loss each month. We can operate and reach more people with facts just to the extent of contributions we receive. All money received goes into the fight. The writer has received no salary for six and a half years, putting in fifteen hours a day, seven days a week—doesn't expect any. One young lady has given an average of 102 hours a month for five and a half years with no pay; others have sacrificed much. In addition we have twelve on a salary basis, either part or full time. We now have our own press and print COMMON SENSE ourselves.

We are now going to try the impossible. Our schedule for printing is twice a month, but for some time we could not do this as the communists intimidated our printers and later prevented us from securing paper. Now we would like to give you a paper weekly and still leave our subscription at $1.00 to encourage readers. We have been told it cannot be done, but due to the crisis this country faces, and since other papers will not publish important facts, attempting the impossible is justifiable. To do this we need equipment to speed up our work. We must depend on those sufficiently awake and informed to back us. I have been criticized for making so few appeals for funds and allowing our crusade to suffer. An article in a New York paper this week says I am broke—that's no news—my friends have known this for years! I am like the Irishman who put up a battle with a thug. At last the thug got him down and found only 20c in his pocket. "Why did you fight so hard over 20c" the thug asked. "I did not want you to know I was that near broke" came the reply.

I am a poor money raiser. A conservative estimate of our readers is 100,000—500,000 would be powerful enough to arouse a sufficient number of people to halt these traitors. If we are to succeed, many people will have to consider themselves part of our COMMON SENSE group and promise themselves to support this fighting paper. That is the way the enemy has made such progress. Surely by now people know this is no easy fight—it will take prayers, money, work, sacrifice, and likely blood to win. Those who cannot be in the front line of this fight must back those of us who are up at the front, or we will all go down. Our strength is based on the amount of ammunition we receive. Time is short. If you actually cannot help with regular contributions, do something else to get more people reading COMMON SENSE. Some wise people have voluntarily sent us monthly contributions for years; without such help we would have been forced to surrender long ago.

Do all you can now to back your leaders for freedom before it is too late and you have no leaders to back, and no freedom. If communism does take over completely, you will at least have the consolation that you did your best, and no doubt delayed that fatal day, perhaps for years. We are mailing out large volumes of different literature in addition to many mailbags of COMMON SENSE. We have large lists of names we wish to circularize. We need to buy tons of paper, postage, salaries, envelopes. Make checks or money orders payable to COMMON SENSE.

Surely Our Lord will reward you for helping in His Work.

For Christ and Country,

training and tradition with ideas from which we graduated in 1787?

God speed the day when America wakes up to the enormity of the treasons practiced on us. God grant that, armed with the tools necessary to complete the job—the ballots of a free citizenry—we may correct the ills which have been foisted upon us by this gang. Again, remember the chief factor in the retention of our freedoms is the faculty of discernment; the ability to separate the fantasies from the real; true Americanism from the spurious; loyalty to our Constitution and glorious banner from a base following after the false gods of internationalism and confusion. America was not fashioned upon glittering personalities. It was fashioned, under God, on immutable principles.

ASSASSINATION ATTEMPT ON EDITOR BY REDS

Common Sense Attacked For 3rd Time, Two Union Boys Beaten In Brutal Assault Windows Smashed; Editor Escapes With His Life, As Jew Terrorists Strike! Jews Say They'll Kill McGinley and O'Brien, If One More Issue of Common Sense Published!

UNION YOUTH TELLS STORY OF ASSAULT

William McGovern, age 17, had this to say about the attack made on his life by the six men who followed him and his friend, Edward Button, from the office of COMMON SENSE: "When we pulled up in front of Ed's house on Salem Road, a Buick car pulled up next to us and about six men jumped out. Someone threw a rock through the windshield and told us to get out of the car. Before we could get out they were pulling us out. They then started beating us with skid chains and fists until both Ed and I fell to the ground. They beat and kicked us for several minutes. The men then got in their car and left, but before they pulled away Ed got their license number which was turned over to the police. When it was all over I noticed Ed laying on the ground all covered with blood. I tried to take his shirt off because he had his good clothes on. His face was badly bleeding. There was a hole in my neck. I went to the hospital and later Ed was taken to the hospital. He had lacerations and abrasions."

Under cover of darkness at midnight, June 3rd, 1952, two carloads of Communist Jews stopped their cars at the office of COMMON SENSE in a third attempt on the life of the editor, Conde McGinley. This group which preaches so much "brotherly love" and "tolerance" bombarded the office with bricks and pieces of cement breaking the large plate glass window and causing considerable damage. This was a repetition of the midnight attack on March 4th when a car full of terrorists smashed the plate glass window on this bitter cold night when the editor was suffering from virus-pneumonia, so ill he could hardly walk. The first attempt on the editor's life took place when four bombs set to go off 5 minutes apart were placed adjacent to the building on October 31st last year, which, thanks to Divine Providence, was unsuccessful.

For various reasons the editor preferred to ignore the previous attacks but this latest attack proved more violent and he decided his readers should know of the vicious methods used by the enemies of Christ.

Along with this latest attack came a severe warning and threat via the telephone which was timed to coincide with the confusion resulting from the breaking in of the front part of the building. The conversation which lasted about twenty minutes ran something in this manner. "Is this McGinley? We are Jews who belong to an organization that has decided COMMON SENSE is not going to be printed. What has just happened is a sample of what is to come. We have decided to kill you and your assistant O'Brien if you print another issue." McGinley told them killing him would not settle the question as there were others ready to take his place. The Jews replied "we will get you one by one and will get you when you least expect it." The editor explained he was not against all Jews as he knew all Jews were not Communists. The reply came back that "all Jews should be Communists." The editor suggested they select three of their leaders, and that he would furnish three former Jews who are not Communists to represent him, and if their leaders could prove that COMMON SENSE was printing anything but the truth, he would apologize and discontinue publishing the paper. The Zionist answered "We are not interested in that; the paper has to be stopped. We keep up with every move you make and every time you go out of that door you can look for us." During the conversation special emphasis was placed on the fact that McGinley was opposing Eisenhower. They also mentioned they knew the paper was printed in Florida but now printed in New Jersey again. Two men took part in the conversation, threatening violence if the paper was printed, and several times the party talking stopped to say "Wait until I talk to my boss," and the boss came twice to the phone to talk to McGinley. The editor called attention to the fact that COMMON SENSE had offered space in the paper for the Communist Jews to refute its charges. McGinley stated it would be a mistake to kill him as everyone would know it was the Jews. Jews should keep in mind there are many localities in the United States where there are not millions of Jews like in New York and New Jersey, and if the Jews were wise they would hire a bodyguard to protect him so that they could not be blamed. McGinley told them their leaders were criminals and if unin-

UNESCO - THE GREATEST SUBVERSIVE PLOT IN HISTORY

Republished from the ONE METHODIST VOICE—Clayton, Georgia.

UNESCO (The United Nations Educational, Scientific, and Cultural Organization) is a subversive association. It is consciously furthering a campaign calculated to pervert the teaching profession in this country, and so destroy the worth and integrity of America's first bulwark of freedom—our tax supported public schools.

Strong words? Yes, but not strong enough to alert American citizens to a proper understanding of the UNESCO DANGER, which unless met squarely and promptly eradicated by the militant action of Church folk, and all good American citizens, parents, teachers, patriotic groups and the general public, may sooner than we imagine transform our schools into laboratories for the systematic and effective destruction of all sense of national allegiance and loyalty in the minds and hearts of America's school children.

THE UNHOLY SCHEME TO PREVENT FREE EDUCATION is revealed in a series of nine volumes titled "Toward World Understanding" which are as follows:

- I. "Some Suggestions on Teaching about the U.N. and Its Specialized Agencies."
- II. "The Education and Teaching of Teachers."
- III. "A selected Biography."
- IV. "The U. N. and World Citizenship."
- V. "In the Class with Children under 13 Years of Age"
- VI. "The Influence of Home and Community on Children under 13 Years of Age."
- VII. "Some Suggestions on the Teaching of Geography."
- VIII. "A Teachers' Guide to the Declaration of Human Rights."
- IX. "Some Suggestions on the Teaching of World History."

The purpose of this unholy scheme is to instruct kindergarten and elementary grade teachers in the fine art of preparing our youngsters for the day when their first loyalty will be to a WORLD GOVERNMENT, of which the United States will be only a weak administrative part.

READ THE QUOTATIONS FROM THESE BOOKS AS GIVEN BELOW AND MAKE UP YOUR OWN MIND, MR. AND MRS. AMERICAN CITIZEN AND BROTHER AND SISTER METHODISTS (INCLUDING THE WSCS).

TEACH DISLOYALTY TO CHILDREN

Book V, on page 9, advises the teacher that: "The kindergarten or infant school has a significant part to do in the child's education. Not only can it correct many of the errors of home training, but can prepare the child for membership, at about the age of seven, in a group of his own age and habits—the first of many such social identifications that he must achieve on his way to membership in a world society."

Then, on page No. 58, it goes on to further poison the minds of our teachers and to make an attack upon patriotism and its parental encouragement by adding: "As we pointed out it is frequently the family that infects the child with extreme nationalism. The school should therefore use the means described earlier to combat family attitudes of jingoism. Education for world-mindedness is not a problem that the school can solve within its own walls or with its own means. It is a political problem even more than an educational one, and the present position of teachers does not, in general, permit them to intervene in the field of politics with the requisite authority. We thought with cautious optimism that educators could also try to influence public opinion."

TEACHERS URGED TO SUPPRESS AMERICAN HISTORY

Teachers are urged to suppress American history and geography which strengthens pro-American sentiments which UNESCO wishes to eradicate. Here is what Booklet V, on page II, says, "In our view, history and geography should be taught at this stage as universal history and geography. Of the two only geography lends itself well to study during the years prescribed by the present survey. The study of history on the other hand, raises problems of value which are better postponed until the pupil is freed from the Nationalist prejudices which at present surround the teaching of history."

Oh, Lord God of Hosts, save America from this creeping paralysis of Sovietized internationalism which seeks to destroy every vestige of America's glorious history, cherished ideals, loyal patriotism and true religious faith which compose the foundation upon which our glorious Country rests.

Suppress the truth wherever and whenever it stands in the way of glorifying those things which are foreign above those which are American, is the objective of UNESCO. On page 14 booklet V, the following advice is given: "Certain delicate problems, however, will arise in these studies and explorations. Not everything in foreign ways of living can be presented to children in an attractive light. At this stage, though, the systematic examination of countries and manner can be POSTPONED and the teacher need seek ONLY to insure that his children appreciate thru abundant and JUDICIOUS examples — A child taught thus about the different countries of the world will gradually lose those habits of prejudice and contempt which are an impediment to world-mindedness."

LIKE A PASSAGE FROM MARX'S COMMUNIST MANIFESTO

UNESCO's teachers' guide recommends that our little ones also be taught socialism. In booklet V, page 16, it says: "the methods for putting the resources of the globe at the disposal of all people" which reads like a passage from Marx's Communist Manifesto. Then on page 51 of the same booklet it is proposed that an international anthem be adopted by all for use in the American class room. It would of course eventually supplant our beloved national anthem "AMERICA."

Objective: A ONE WORLD GOVERNMENT

Booklet IV, on pages 13-14, sympathetically deals with the various methods for converting the United Nations into an actual world State. It calls for a world federalism which destroys national sovereignties. The original concept of the U.N. as an assembly of delegates representing free and sovereign governments is being challenged, teachers are informed, in an effort to break up the concentration of political powers in the hands of national governments, especially the great power governments; which includes the United States of America.

CORRUPTING THE MORALS OF OUR CHILDREN

Booklet VI contains a series of research suggestions which indicate an intention to stimulate ultimate classroom expeditions into the field of detailed sex education. Here are a few samples of the type of questions put forth by UNESCO, (which is heavily subsidized by the tax dollars of many Americans who feel that sex training rests within the domain of the home or of the tenets of their own particular religion) for our public school teachers: "Are there devices—for limiting the family? What are supposed to be the typical feelings of pregnant women? Do parents undress before their child?" and many other quotations which propriety would prohibit us from printing.

Hate

By Nikolai Lenin

We must hate—hatred is the basis of Communism. Children must be taught to hate their parents if they are not Communists. If they are, then the children need not respect them; need not worry about them.—(Lenin, Congressional Record, vol. 77, pp. 1539-40; "MKR" p. 12).

"We hate Christianity and Christians. Even the best of them must be considered our worst enemies. They preach love of one's neighbor and mercy, which is contrary to our principles. What we want is hate . . . Only then will we conquer the Universe."

—Anatole Lunacharski, Soviet Commissar of Education. At speech made in Moscow in 1825, quoted in IZVESTIA (Congressional Record, Vol. 77, pg. 1539 - 1540).

Love

Christ called Himself the "Light of the World." His whole life's work was a mission of enlightening His contemporaries and enlightening all generations to come. His mission began by His becoming identified with family life. By choosing to be born into a family, to grow up there in an atmosphere of virtue and in the love of God and of the family. He established this family of Nazareth as the standard and the inspiration. No wonder it is called the "Holy Family"; no wonder so many have found peace and happiness by following it as the perfect model.

CONGRESS SHOULD NOT "ADJOURN"

A sinister and determined effort is being made by a minority of Congressmen to have Congress "Adjourn" early in July. If Congress goes through with this move, the consequences could be almost fatal to the welfare of the United States.

But first, citizens of America should understand the difference between "Adjourning" and "Recessing." If Congress "Adjourns," the only way they can meet again is by the President calling them into Special Session. But if Congress "Recesses," it can meet again and "Recess" again until whatever time it wishes. The latter situation is the better by far for the country, because Congress is then always available in case the country feels needed legislation must be enacted.

If Congress "Adjourns" then for all practical purposes, the country, YOU, would be without a Congress. From July to November, Truman can act without any fear that Congress will veto any of his legislation. If a Republican is elected in November, the country would live under the rule of a "Lame Duck" President until January, 1953.

Why is Congress so determined to "Adjourn" on July 6th rather than "Recess"? Because, believe it or not, if Congress "Adjourns" the Government has to pay the travelling expenses to and from the home of each Congressman. BUT IF CONGRESS "RECESSES", each individual member has to pay his own travelling expenses!

If the American people let Congress do this, the Marxist Invisible Government could easily get us into War within the next few months. There would then be no election. THIS IS THE MARXIST PLAN. Congress may "Recess" not "Adjourn". Write letters to your Congressman. DEMAND THAT CONGRESS "RECESS" NOT "ADJOURN". Tell him that he dare not risk your life for the saving of a few paltry dollars.

formed Jews did not back them up, they would stop being devils and there would be peace in this world.

Several attempts were made to get McGinley to leave the office at one o'clock in the morning and meet them on the corner of Stecher Street and Chancellor Avenue, Newark, to "settle their differences." McGinley informed them he would not be so foolish but would gladly meet them in a gentlemanly fashion and discuss the pros and cons of the issue. The Jew on the other end of the line refused to listen and said "stop your bluffing, McGinley, this is going to be settled tonight!"

TWO NEIGHBORHOOD YOUTHS BEATEN WITH SKID CHAINS

About this time two Union youths hearing the commotion, stopped in to see what the trouble was. McGinley was talking on the telephone to the "brains" behind the attack and asked the boys to rush to another phone and have the call traced. They returned later to report the call could not be traced and left for home in their car. The Jewish terrorists, who were obviously waiting along the block for the editor to leave the building, followed the car of the two young men believing them to be McGinley and O'Brien. About two miles from the office, in Union, a Buick with six Jews in it crowded the boys to the side of the road, hurled a rock through the windshield, then dragged the boys from the car—kicked them in vital spots and beat them with skid chains until the two were left helpless on the ground, dazed and bleeding, where they were later found and taken to the Elizabeth General Hospital for treatment. The Jews were no doubt very disappointed to discover two young men instead of McGinley and O'Brien and couldn't help but take some vengeance on them.

UNION YOUTH REMEMBERS LICENSE NUMBER

One of the boys, though on his back had presence of mind to note the license number of the car carrying the six Jews. The license was N.C. 369 registered in the name of Murry Schechtman, 790 Clinton Avenue, Newark. On June 4th, the Union police questioned Schechtman who admitted being in Union the previous night but stated he was with a girl friend to a movie and used another person's car. He denied having anything to do with the assault made against McGinley or the boys. When asked to explain how his car was at the scene of the crime, he stated he left his keys in the car, so that any of his friends could use it whenever they wanted to. The Union Police did not believe this story and told Schechtman to be at the headquarters for questioning the following night. Schechtman was at the Union Police Headquarters on two occasions but refused to return again. Now the police are trying to figure out what move to make next.

TERRORISTS RETURN TO SCENE OF CRIME

On the following night, a half hour past midnight, four of the Communist terrorists returned to the scene of their crime and proceeded to break into the premises. Unknown to them, McGinley was waiting inside accompanied by another member of the staff. While the four Jews were in process of breaking into the building, McGinley appeared and with the aid of his assistant, covered them with a shotgun, backed them against the building. There was no way of knowing if these men were the same that had assaulted him the night before. One of the men told McGinley that a friend had sent them and gave him the name of the "friend" which took McGinley off guard long enough to allow them to convince him they were friendly. The result was they were allowed to leave, although their license number was taken which is also under investigation. These same four men showed up at the Union Police Headquarters on Thursday morning, June 5th, with Murry Schechtman owner of the car that was at the scene of the assault and battery on the two Union youths. We were told by the police they did not know who these men were although they came to the police station as a result of the questioning of Murry Schechtman and were

MacARTHUR CAN SAVE US

By Henry H. Klein

The money gang is determined to wipe out a large part of the human race. They intend to extend the Korean war to other parts of the world. The money gang must have war in order to continue to profit. The fact that city, state and federal governments are deeply in debt, means nothing to them. The people must pay.

This condition will continue until some one arises to change it. Moses changed it in his day and Jesus tried to change it in His. Unless it is changed, civilization will decline and anarchy and revolution will follow.

There is one person who can apply the remedy. That person is Douglas MacArthur. He applied it in Japan and he can apply it in the United States.

suspected of being members of the same gang that raided COMMON SENSE on Tuesday.

For the information of the reader, Union is located about twelve miles from New York City and adjacent to Newark and Irvington, N. J. The editor has lived in Union for more than sixteen years. Up until five years ago there were practically no Jews in Union but during the past few years they have virtually taken over all downtown stores. The amount of Christian-owned business in Union is now negligible.

For six years organized Zionist Jews have been using every underhanded method in the books to stop freedom of the press and the exposure of the truth. They intimidated and boycotted eleven printers into submission and succeeded in having COMMON SENSE thrown out of every printing plant. These Communist Jews would find out where the paper was being printed, then threaten the owner of the plant, and if any resistance was offered, systematically withdrew all other business, approached advertisers, and finally cut off the paper supply if the printer still refused to yield to their demands.

The Jewish War Veterans bragged about this fact in the B'nai Brith Messenger, the most influential Jewish publication, (see COMMON SENSE issue No. 157), and we have been informed from a reliable source that it is the Jewish War Veterans who are behind these vicious attacks on the life of the editor. We have also been informed by a most reliable source, a member of the J.W.V., that the principal reason the Jewish War Veterans was organized in Union was to drive McGinley out of Union. This was substantiated by Schechtman who, we are informed, told the Union Police that this matter was frequently brought up at the J. W. V. meetings.

For the past six years the American Jewish Congress, the Anti-Defamation League and the Jewish War Veterans have been carrying on a full scale attack against COMMON SENSE, getting bolder and bolder with each attack. Now they come out at midnight, like rats from a cellar, and assault two boys instead of killing McGinley and O'Brien which they planned to do.

Will these so-called Americans who constantly preach tolerance, but who threaten to kill people who differ in opinion, be brought to justice? It is two weeks since this crime was committed and still no arrests—the police are no further advanced in bringing the criminals to justice than the day after the crime was committed in spite of all the evidence presented. It is frightening to think that an organized gang under the same leadership that has ordered the execution of millions of Christians in Europe and Asia is now operating so boldly in America. Little by little the people of America are losing their futures while they are content to be amused and distracted by the temporary materialistic pleasures about them. Some day in the near future the great show will be finished and they will forfeit all their worldly gains and will have plenty of time to repent their indifferences. Yes, McGinley will suffer and so will many other patriots who have sacrificed all to combat this evil, atheistic horde of gangsters, but woe to you who had the opportunity to save lives, homes and families and sat back because of the fear of being unpopular. Woe to you to whom God gave the grace to think and work for His cause against evil and sat by indifferently.

It will be interesting to see how Mr. and Mrs. America react to the news that terrorism is going on in the United States with nothing being done about it. Will the criminals be brought to justice? Will McGinley and O'Brien be killed by the Jewish War Veterans because of lack of protection? Is law enforcement breaking down?

This type of terrorism was used in the countries which are now under Communist rule. First the Communist Jews intimidated and suppressed the newspapers that were exposing them, windows were smashed in and printing presses broken up. Criticism must be stopped at all costs. Do these happenings in the United States indicate the beginning of the end of the free press and the start of Communist rule in our beloved country? To take over the U. S. it is only necessary to stop all criticism and exposure and to intimidate or liquidate the leaders. Without leaders the masses are helpless.

Communism is camouflaged Judaism. Judaism is a cult kept alive by hatred of Christianity. Some Jews on the uninformed levels do not know this but all leaders know it. There is not one Rabbi in the U. S. that doesn't know the plan. Why do not the Rabbis defend these charges on the Platform? COMMON SENSE will give any recognized Rabbi a full page to deny these charges. COMMON SENSE will prove these statements by the writings of Jews and will prove that this is the teaching of their Talmud.

ALL THAT IS NECESSARY FOR THE TRIUMPH OF EVIL IS THAT GOOD MEN DO NOTHING.—Edmund Burke.

IS IT SAFE TO LIVE IN NEW JERSEY

Every Nationalist, every anti-Communist, and every American should turn his attention to Union, New Jersey. It is bad enough that on the night of June 3rd, 1952, the whole front of the office of COMMON SENSE was broken in and the life of the editor and his assistant threatened, and that two fine young men were brutally assaulted, BUT NOT ONE OF THE SIX JEWS WHO COMMITTED THESE CRIMES WAS ARRESTED. WHY? Have the Communist Jews determined that they and they alone shall rule? That their rule shall be absolute, and anyone who dares criticize shall pay the price with his life? Did Washington's Continental Army fight in vain?

THANKS MR. ANONYMOUS

We publicly and most sincerely thank the anonymous contributors to COMMON SENSE, and those who through oversight failed to give us their address. All contributions are acknowledged, but if you do not hear from us within a reasonable time, we suggest you write us. During recent months, in addition to many anonymous contributions from all over the country, we have received donations in the form of money orders signed by the following, to whom we are very grateful:

Abraham Lincoln
Frank Greenbaum
John Doe
Dean Acheson
Isador Cohen
George Washington
John Davis

We thank you all for sticking with us in this fight to the finish against atheistic, Godless Communism.

EISENHOWER HITS PATRIOTIC CRITICS OF DEAN ACHESON

Reprinted from HEADLINES, New York, N. Y., Joe Kamp, Editor.

Americans who want to get rid of Acheson had better face the fact that they won't accomplish it by electing General Eisenhower President.

For Eisenhower is on Acheson's side. He took his stand on December 12, 1949.

Acheson was then under extreme fire for his stupidity or worse in complacently permitting Communism to engulf the whole of China, while he smeared America's anti-Communist ally, Chiang Kai-shek thru the malodorous "White Paper."

It was in this same month that Acheson went before the National Security Council and fast-talked President Truman and the Joint Chiefs of Staff into agreeing to abandon Formosa to the Chinese Communists—a policy which he later wasn't able to put over.

Eisenhower was then a newly chosen member of the Board of the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace, whose presidency had just been vacated by the exposed Soviet spy, Alger Hiss.

On December 12, 1949, the Board passed a resolution, deploring the 'political pressure' which was being exerted for the ouster of Acheson. Eisenhower approved.

In the same resolution, the Board also urged the United States to exercise extreme caution in using the atom bomb, which was the line then being plugged by the Communists.

In view of the national tumult which was raging over Alger Hiss at the time, it is impossible that General Eisenhower could have been unaware of which side he was taking, in championing Dean Acheson, Alger's fast friend.

(Editor's note: At this late hour Eisenhower says he would replace Acheson and other Democrats with Republicans if he were elected. If he did, he would probably appoint John Foster Dulles as he is supposed to be a Republican. Dulles is a one-worlder like Wendell Willkie and one of the most dangerous men in America. However, we believe Ike, grasping at a straw, will promise anything to get in power. It reminds us of F.D.R. in Boston when he said: "Now while talking to you mothers and fathers, I will tell you again, and again, and again, that your sons will not fight in a foreign war." At the same time F.D.R. said this, he knew the government had placed an order for more than a million coffins and more than five million uniforms. F.D.R. was a criminal and a liar, but the Invisible Government could use him so they told him to say what would disarm his opposition and they placed him in the White House where he could best serve their purpose. We believe, if Eisenhower is elected, he will do more damage to the world, if that is possible, than even F.D.R. who proved himself a traitor to his own country and an enemy to civilization. Eisenhower is a much over-rated, one-world New-Deal Republican. There is no difference between Truman's and Eisenhower's ideas, so why call one a Republican and the other a Democrat. They are both servants of the Invisible Government (B'nai B'rith) which has eaten the heart out of both parties.)

THE INDEPENDENT PRESS IS DEAD IN AMERICA

(The following quotes from Major Osman Bey's book "Jew Control Kills Freedom Of Press", clearly show the avowed aim of the Jews, and the extent to which that aim has been realized).

It was at that meeting (The Israelite Council at Cracow), that the CONTROL OF THE PRESS WAS CONCEIVED as the greatest means for WORLD DOMINION, IN THESE WORDS: "So long as we have not the Press in our hands, all that you say is idle! In vain do you organize societies, loans, bankruptcies, and the like; so long as we have not got the Press in our hands to DEAFEN AND DECEIVE the world, we accomplish nothing, and our rule remains a phantom of our brain."

From the "SECRET POWERS BEHIND REVOLUTION" we find further comment on the Jew control of the press: "PROFESSOR LESTER T. WARD, IN HIS BOOK 'PURE SOCIOLOGY' has quoted the words pronounced by the journalist John Swinton during a banquet of the Press in New York." "AN INDEPENDENT PRESS DOES NOT EXIST in America except perhaps in small country towns; journalists know it and I know it; not one of them dares to express a sincere opinion; if they do so, they know beforehand that it will never be printed. I am paid 150 dollars in order that I should not put my ideas in the newspaper for which I write and that I should keep them to myself. Others are paid similar salaries for a similar service. If I SUCCEEDED IN HAVING MY OPINIONS PUBLISHED IN A SINGLE ISSUE OF MY NEWSPAPER, I SHOULD LOSE MY POST IN TWENTY-FOUR HOURS."

"The man who would be insane enough to give frank expression to his thoughts would soon find himself in the streets on the look-out for another occupation. It is the duty of New York journalists to lie, to threaten, to bow down to the feet of Mammon, and to sell their country and their race for their salary, that is to say, for their daily bread. . . .

"WE ARE THE TOOLS AND THE VASSALS OF THE RICH WHO KEEP IN THE BACKGROUND; we are puppets; they pull the strings and we dance. OUR TIME, OUR TALENT, OUR LIFE, OUR ABILITIES, ALL THE THE PROPERTY OF THESE MEN. We are intellectual prostitutes."

WILL YOU BACK UP THE INDEPENDENT PRESS IN AMERICA.

DEMAND MacARTHUR FOR PRESIDENT

Each week MacArthur moves closer to the nomination. His Lansing, Michigan, speech was maliciously misquoted to make it appear he had ruled himself out by saying no military man should be President. HE DID NOT SAY THIS.

If Eisenhower is nominated, of course the New Deal, One Worlders, Communist-Jews and Republicans will support him and he will be elected.

If Taft is nominated, he will be opposed by the New Deal two and a half million federal employees who have been benefited by Truman's Santa Claus handouts, radical labor leaders, One-worlders, and Communists, and we will have another New Deal Socialist administration.

General MacArthur is the only man living who has the personality and ability to arouse heretofore non-voters, the only man who could defeat this Jew Deal crowd who have in twenty years built a powerful machine for Marxism in the United States. Pray that Taft and Eisenhower will be locked at the convention, then perhaps MacArthur will be our next President. Work and talk MacArthur. If you wish MacArthur material to pass out, write to COMMON SENSE.

MacARTHUR CLEARS UP STAND

Gen. Douglas MacArthur announced last night he will not campaign for the Republican presidential nomination, but made it clear that if the American people want him he would accept the nomination.

The general reiterated a statement he issued in 1948 when he was generally acknowledged to be a candidate. At that time he said it would be "recreant" of him to "shrink from the hazards and responsibilities involved from accepting any public duty to which I might be called by the American people."

He said his desire to stay out of any state primaries was not inconsistent with his 1948 statement.

It has been many years since we have heard the wisdom, courage and foresight as spoken by that Great American, General MacArthur. The public is so accustomed to reading or hearing speeches by our so-called leaders in which they tiptoe carefully so as to please both sides, offending no one and avoid going on record for saying or doing anything. Politicians.

When General MacArthur speaks you know where he stands and that he stands for America.—He does not try to please everyone. While he was in the Pacific for fourteen years, the Zionists were busy buying, framing or otherwise bringing under their control all promising politicians. That is how Zionists, who could not be elected dog catchers, rule our country. General MacArthur is the only man who can arouse America sufficiently to defeat the New Deal Politician Ike Eisenhower who is backed by Kuhn Loeb & Company—Lehman Bros.—Goldman Sacks, Jewish Bankers—and by all Jewish organizations—Communists—Socialists—One Worlders—German haters, and Russia Firsters. No Presidential Candidate will measure above the knees of General MacArthur.

EISENHOWER'S DEAL WITH JOE STALIN

E. B. GALLAHER, Editor.

Through the courtesy of Frank C. Hanighen, Editor, HUMAN EVENTS, 1136—18th Street, N.W., Washington, D. C., I am quoting an article of great importance to all Americans as it shows the close collaboration between Eisenhower and the Russians when he was Commander in Germany immediately after the war:

IKE AND THE GERMANS

"Ike and The Germans: Cautious Republican leaders, who are committed neither to Taft nor to Ike, have begun anxiously to scan the Eisenhower record, particularly his term as commander in Germany. These leaders familiar with the guile of the Democratic Administration, realize that if Ike were nominated GOP candidate for the Presidency, the Democrats would then have no inhibitions about revealing—in the heat of the fall campaign—some indisputable facts about Eisenhower.

"Therefore, these leaders are immensely disturbed by a certain well-documented episode which, if it were widely publicized, not only would shock the humanitarian sensibilities of the country as a whole, but might have effects on the voting next November. The story is as follows:

"Eisenhower was commander of the occupation in Germany in 1945, up until November 19, when he became Chief of Staff of the U. S. Army and returned to Washington. General Lucius Clay succeeded him. In 1946, Clay and other Western Allied officers discovered to their dismay that Soviet authorities in the Eastern Zone had been deporting very large numbers of Germans to Russia for slave labor. According to some reports, there were as many as 500,000 deportees, but as of today the Congressional Library estimates that the total was about 200,000. The exact figures, because of Soviet non-cooperation, cannot be accurately obtained. At any rate, the question became acute among Allied commanders, for—among other reasons—the fact that in the Nuremberg trials the mass deportation of workers for slave labor by the Germans was labelled as one of the most heinous of war crimes.

"Clay raised the question at a four-power meeting of Allied commanders in Berlin. Under Berlin date line, November 13, 1946, Marguerite Higgins (the now celebrated woman correspondent) reported to the New York Herald Tribune that General Clay had strongly protested these deportations.

"But the Soviet commander present had the last word. He read a decision of the Allied commanders in 1945 which provided authority for such deportations. The Western commanders had forgotten this, and as Miss Higgins reports it, the conference suddenly fizzled to an

"Behind Communism"

Nationalist writers have been lax in reporting it, but from the looks of things, we have just suffered a major set-back in the state of Illinois. That sovereign state has recently enacted legislation making it illegal to distribute literature tending to criticize or "defame" the Jewish race. This is nothing more nor less than a "Little Genocide" law, similar in detail to that which United Nations' strategists are attempting to foist on the United States government. This proposed U.N. Genocide Treaty would also make it a crime to criticize or "defame" any particular race.

The Illinois Supreme Court has already ruled the "Little Genocide" statute to be constitutional, and the U. S. Supreme Court has refused to set aside the ruling. This means that patriots in Illinois now operate under the constant threat of imprisonment. In short, their activities are illegal.

Already one outstanding Nationalist with a life-long record of patriotic activity has been arrested, and is scheduled to go to trial as this is being written. She is Mrs. Lyril Van Hynning, editor and publisher of Women's Voice. She was arrested for distributing anti-Jewish literature in Chicago.

The whole thing conforms to the pattern being followed behind the Iron Curtain. There too, it is a serious offense to criticize a Jew. This is graphically illustrated by the following news item which appeared last week in the California Jewish Voice (June 6, 1952):

"London (JTA) Hungarian state police are studying anti-Semitic leaflets being distributed among workers of the Cespel plant, near Budapest, one of the largest industrial centers in the country, according to reports reaching here from the Hungarian capital.

The leaflets allege that the Hungarian Government is controlled by Jews and describe the State Security Police as a 'playground for unemployed Jews' . . . Although 150 workers at the Cespel plant have been questioned, it is reported, police are still unable to track down those who distributed the leaflets."

It isn't too difficult to picture the fate of anyone caught circulating those anti-Jewish pamphlets in Hungary. The dictator of Hungary is the murderous Jew, Matyas Rakosi, one of Bela Kun's original lieutenants. . . .

As a matter of fact, anti-Semitism has always been a capital offense in the land of the Soviets. One of the first acts of the Bolsheviks after coming to power was to class anti-Semitism as counter-revolutionary activity. Here is the way Encyclopedia Britannica describes it:

"In very sharp contrast to the policies of the other states of eastern and central Eu-

ABOMINABLE YET TRUE HUNGARIAN RABBI SPEAKS FOR THE JEWS

Republished from the Women's Voice, Chicago

WOMEN'S VOICE is in receipt of a communication which, in our opinion is of the greatest importance. It is important because the contents vividly recall the boastful, impertinent and contemptible utterances of a certain Marcus Eli Ravage who, in Jan.-Feb. 1928, in the CENTURY MAGAZINE published two articles: 1) A REAL CASE AGAINST THE JEWS; 2) COMMISSARY TO THE GENTILES.

The contents of the speech herewith published so specifically fit the present day world situation that every thinking American should ponder over them; the spirit therein displayed is the very spirit which animates the concealed wire-pullers in the councils of the United Nations who are destroying America, its Constitution and institutions. The speech also exemplifies the MASTER PLAN outlined in the PROTOCOLS OF THE ELDERS OF ZION. Although made in Budapest, Hungary, a country behind the Iron Curtain, the Rabbi's speech, like many other documents of importance has lately reached the United States. It follows:

"Greetings my children! You have been called here to recapitulate the principal steps of our new program. As you know, we had hoped to have twenty years between wars to consolidate the great gains which we made from World War II, but our increasing numbers in certain vital areas is arousing opposition to us, and we must now work with every means at our disposal to precipitate World War III within five years. (Emphasis ours. Ed.)

The goal for which we have striven so concertedly for three thousand years is at last within our reach, and because its fulfillment is so apparent, it behooves us to increase our efforts and our caution tenfold. I can safely promise you that before ten years have passed our race will take its rightful place in the world with every Jew a king and every Gentile a slave! (applause from the gathering). You remember the success of our propaganda campaign during the 1930s, which aroused anti-American passions in Germany at the same time we were arousing anti-German passions in America, a campaign which culminated in the Second World War. A similar Propaganda campaign is now being waged intensively throughout the world. A war fever is being worked up in Russia by an incessant anti-American barrage, while a nationwide anti-Communist scare is sweeping America. This campaign is forcing all of the smaller nations to choose between the partnership of Russia or an alliance with the United States.

Our most pressing problem at the moment is to inflame the lagging militaristic spirit of the Americans. The failure of the Universal Military Training Act was a great setback to our plans, but we are assured that a suitable measure will be rushed through Congress immediately after the 1952 elections. The Rus-embarrassed silence'. As well it might.

"For we have before us now a photostat of the document of the Allied Control Authority in Germany, 'Control Council, Proclamation, No. 2. Certain Requirements Imposed on Germany'. Section VI of this interesting document runs as follows:

"The German authorities will carry out, for the benefit of the United Nations, such measures of restitution, reinstatement, restoration, reparation, reconstruction, relief and rehabilitation as the Allied Representatives may prescribe. For these purposes the German authorities will effect or procure the surrender or transfer of such property, assets, rights, titles and interests, effect such deliveries and carry out such repair, building and construction work, whether in Germany or elsewhere, and will provide such transport, plant equipment and materials of all kinds, labor, personnel and specialist and other services, for use in Germany or elsewhere, as the Allied Representatives may direct.' (Our emphasis.)

"The broad term 'elsewhere' clearly gave Russian commanders legal authorization for sending German slave labor into Soviet Russia.

"Was General Clay confounded by his own act? Not at all. It was not Clay's responsibility for okaying the above extraordinary document. For, at the end of the document (below the words 'done at Berlin, the 20th of September, 1945') is the signature of none other than General Dwight D. Eisenhower (together with the signatures of the other Allied commanders).

"Now the above-mentioned GOP politicians have been profoundly impressed—indeed depressed—by inspection of this document. They may privately excuse Eisenhower on the ground that he was careless, lacked foresight and showed foolish trust in the future good faith of Soviet Russia. Nevertheless, they agree that he must bear the responsibility for the deportation into slave labor in Russia of an estimated 200,000 Germans, an act classified by the International Military Tribunal as a 'war crime'.

"If Ike should receive the nomination at the GOP convention, that would be difficult to explain."

Anti Nazi League Non Sectarian

This is an organization which smears everyone who combats Marxism and Communism. They use their influence in Washington to have the Government persecute aggressive anti-Communists and Germans in Germany.

Isadore Lipschutz, diamond merchant from Belgium, is Treasurer and the strong financial man; Julius Goldstein, Counsel; Rabbi Leon Tram, Abraham Cahan, Anna Breenburg, Ezekiel Rabinowitz, Directors. At the top of their letterhead is stated: "Founded in 1933 by Samuel Untermyer." This was the year that Untermyer called for a boycott on Germany and really called for war.

It is interesting to note that The Zionist Review of London, September 13, 1939 stated: "For the first time we can reveal the role played by Winston Churchill in founding the Anti-Nazi League in 1933 with the aid of Samuel Untermyer of America and Sir Walter Citrine of England." (Jew).

The Philadelphia Record of Jan. 15, 1946 quotes Churchill as stating: "... as you probably know, I am a Zionist from the beginning." There is considerable other evidence supporting the fact that Churchill is a secret Jew and is similar to the cover up of F. D. Roosevelt. (Rosenfelt); Douglas Fairbanks (Uhlman) and Charlie Chaplin (Thonstein).

sian, as well as the Asiatic peoples, are well under control, and offer no objections to war, but we must wait to secure the Americans. This we hope to do with the issue of anti-Semitism, which worked so well in uniting the Americans against Germany. We are counting heavily on reports of anti-Semitic outrages in Russia to whip up indignation in the United States and produce a front of solidarity against the Soviet power.

Within five years, the program will achieve its objective, the Third World War, which will surpass in destruction all previous contests. Israel, of course, will remain neutral, and when both sides are devastated and exhausted, we will arbitrate, sending our Control Commissions into all of the wrecked countries. This war will end for all time our struggle against the Gentiles. We will openly reveal our identity with the races of Asia and Africa. I can state with assurance that the last generation of white children is now being born. Our Control Commissions will, in the interests of peace and wiping out inter-racial tensions, forbid the whites to mate with whites. The white woman must cohabit with members of the dark races, the white men with black women. Thus the white race will disappear, for mixing the dark with the white means the end of the white man, and our most dangerous enemy will become only a memory. We shall embark upon an era of ten thousand years of peace and plenty, the Pax Judaica, and our race will rule undisputed over the earth. Our superior intelligence will easily enable us to retain mastery over a world of dark peoples.

(Question from gathering) Rabbi — what about the various religions after the Third World War?

The Rabbi: "There will be no more religions. Not only would the existence of a priest class remain a constant danger to our rule, but belief in an after-life would give spiritual strength to irreconcilable elements in many countries, and enable them to resist us. We will, however, retain the rituals and customs of Judaism as the mark of our hereditary ruling caste, strengthening our racial laws so that no Jew will be allowed to marry outside our race, nor will any stranger be accepted by us.

We may have to repeat the grim days of World War II, when we were forced to let the Hitlerite bandits sacrifice some of our people, in order that we may have adequate documentation and witnesses to legally justify our trial and execution of the leaders of America and Russia as war criminals, after we have dictated the peace. I am sure you will need little preparation for such a duty, for sacrifice has always been the watchword of our people, and the death of a few thousand Jews in exchange for world leadership is indeed a small price to pay.

To convince you of the certainty of that leadership, let me point OUT TO you how we have turned all of the inventions of the white man into weapons against him. His printing presses and radios are the mouthpieces of our desires, and his heavy industry manufactures the instruments which he sends out to arm Asia and Africa against himself. Our interests in Washington are greatly extending the Point Four Program for developing industry in backward areas of the world, so that after the industrial plants and cities of Europe and America are destroyed by atomic warfare, the whites can offer no assistance against the larger masses of the dark races, who will maintain an unchallenged technological superiority.

And so, with the vision of world victory before you, go back to your countries and intensify your good work, until that approaching day when Israel will reveal herself in all her glorious destiny as the light of the world!"

The above speech was made in Budapest on January 12th, 1952.

rope was the firm stand against anti-Semitism taken by the Soviet Union. Both under Lenin and under Stalin anti-Semitism was identified with counter-revolutionary activity. The Soviet government is the only government which has made the propagation of anti-Semitism a criminal offense and which has carried on a relentless war of education, propaganda and stern governmental action against any manifestations of anti-Semitism". YOU'LL FIND THE ABOVE PASSAGE ON PAGE 78C, VOLUME 2, OF THE LATEST ENCYCLOPEDIA BRITANNICA).

Now we are to have the same thing in this country. As in Russia, an intensive campaign of propaganda and "education" is being waged against anti-Semitism. As in Russia, it is a criminal offense to criticize a Jew—at least in Illinois.

A prime objective of the communist party, both in Russia and elsewhere, is to destroy every vestige of anti-Semitism, since by doing so they destroy all really effective anti-communist resistance. That is why we maintain that the "Little Genocide" statute under which Mrs. Van Hyning was arrested was tailor-made in Moscow. It is aimed at the jugular vein of the anti-communist movement. Under the pretense of outlawing racial intolerance in Illinois, they have actually struck at the heart-movement of the anti-Communist crusade.

This statute is a serious threat to patriots everywhere, because there is nothing to keep other states from following the example of Illinois. In time we can look to the Anti-Defamation League to push similar legislation in other states, EITHER WE FIGHT THIS THING TO A STANDSTILL NOW, OR THE BATTLE IS LOST,

COMMON SENSE

2001 Pleasant Parkway,
Union, New Jersey.

Gentlemen: (I use the word loosely)

Probably the majority of people who inadvertently pick up a copy of COMMON SENSE, chuck it into the waste basket and say "what rubbish." Despite the fact that my feelings are the same, I feel I should write and tell you so. Do you honestly believe that any person—he would not even have to be an intelligent type of individual—just the next grade above a moron—would absorb any of that poison you are printing in the name of "America"?

There are those who might say that your editors have recently escaped from a mental institution. Who knows? Not I!

Most sincerely,

Helen Machnee.

P.S. If you believe so much in freedom and free speech, how's about printing this letter in your "Letters to the Editor."

OUR ANSWER:

Helen Machnee,
Toledo, Ohio.

Most letters we receive from uninformed people go unanswered as we feel there isn't sufficient time to educate those who have swallowed such a dose of Marxist ideas, but recognizing in you a really mental giant who knows nearly all the answers, we take delight in addressing a few remarks to you.

You state that no one pays any attention to what we publish and they just throw our paper in the waste basket. Then why not let your blood pressure go down? Why get so excited if no one is interested in COMMON SENSE. It may interest you to learn that this little paper, that people like yourself have done so much to suppress, now has more than 100,000 readers and is continually growing.

People are becoming Jew conscious and that is the only way that this country may be saved from Jewish rule such as exists in ALL so-called Communist countries.

You know you can fool some of the people some of the time, but you can't fool all of the people all of the time. During more than six years of publication no one has challenged one paragraph we have published. Would you like to do it? Look over our issue No. 154. It is a hot one. Point to one misstatement of facts. We print facts and we are sorry if they shock some people who have been asleep or some of the tribe who want to delay exposure of their plan until they have sprung the trap on America.

Dear Sir:

Enclosed find $1.00 for which please enter my subscription to COMMON SENSE for one year, beginning with the back number? Incidentally, would like to say that as an old man (87) having read current literature during most of my life, I have not found the equal (In my estimation) to COMMON SENSE, the TITLE must have been inspired, as has been the Editor.

RUSSIA AND THE JEWS

"Anti-Semitism," a crime punishable by death in the Soviet Union.

Republished from "Free Britain," London, England.

In all the recent reports of "anti-Semitism" in Soviet Russia, have you seen one mention of the fact that the Soviet Government itself has been almost entirely Jewish for the last 30 years?

It is still the hardest thing to get any national newspaper or public man to agree openly that the early Bolshevik leaders were nearly all Jews and that the Revolution of Lenin and Trotsky was the work of World Jewry, working inside and outside Russia for the overthrow of the Czar and the liquidation of the Aryan aristocracy of that country.

Members of the British Cabinet will air their knowledge of all this in private and yet ignore it or even deny it in Parliament and the Press.

Thus the Jews are never publicly blamed for the crimes they commit, but whenever the victims of their tyranny strike a blow in self defense, as the Ukrainian peasants do from time to time, you hear of it under the name of "anti-Semitism".

* * * * *

That is the first explanation of the recent reports of "anti-Semitism" behind the iron curtain. But what of the stories that the Soviet Government (which we know to be mainly composed of Jews) is itself taking action against the Jewish community in Russia?

We must remember that at this stage of the Jewish plan to subdue the world through Bolshevism a new factor has arisen in what may be termed all-Jewish politics. There is every reason for a first class row amongst the Jews themselves. The hasty action of the hot-heads who seized Palestine has created an awkward complication. The ordinary mass of the Jewish people have been fired with nationalist ambitions which must endanger the long-term policy of their leaders whose ultimate aim has been from earliest times the creation of a Jewish World State. Palestine was to be the capital but only after, not before, the establishment of their Universal Republic.

In the Soviet Dictatorship the supreme Jews are better able to enforce disciplinary measures on their lesser brethren than in the Western Democracies. Hence, the restrictive measures introduced there to prevent spread of Zionism at this stage.

* * * * *

That is the second explanation of the recent reports of "anti-Semitism" in Soviet Russia. But why are these reports being played up? Why should there have been a two-column article on the subject in THE TIMES recently?

We think that these disciplinary measures amongst the Jews are being exploited to give a semblance of truth to a sham anti-Jewish movement in Russia which will be designed to throw dust in the eyes of the whole Gentile world both inside and outside Russia.

Outside Russia it has become very necessary for the Jews to dissociate themselves publicly from Marshall Stalin and the acts of Soviet aggression and sabotage. If the world can be kept in ignorance of the fact that Bolshevism is Jewish and even made to believe that it is anti-Jewish, it would, in the event of a war with Russia, be a very much more comfortable place for the Jews in Britain and America. It would seem only natural that they should continue to hold all the key positions in the American War Machine. There would be no opposite numbers in the Soviet camp.

Inside Russia where the population is certainly beginning to kick after over 30 years of Jewish rule, a sham anti-Jewish movement on the Mosleyite lines would be an excellent rallying call. The Russian masses would have no means of discovering the fraud. It has to be remembered that in this much more enlightened land of Britain thousands of patriotic people honestly believed and still believe Mosley was genuinely Jew-wise. A parallel movement in Russia would serve the double purpose of

EISENHOWER and SLAVERY

'SLAVERY' LAID TO EISENHOWER 'HE APPROVED SENDING GERMANS TO RUSSIA'

Omaha World Herald—May 14, 1952.

Representative Buffett of Omaha believes an order signed by General Eisenhower during the war, permitting the Russians to draft German labor for Russia, could be used by Democrats to defeat the general if he captures the Republican Presidential nomination.

Mr. Buffett, a supporter of Senator Taft (O.) for the nomination, charged in his weekly news letter that the New Dealers, if General Eisenhower were the nominee, would "continue to control America". Mr. Buffett said they could do that in two ways. If they wanted the General elected they could put up a weak candidate against him, and if they wished to defeat him they could "cut him to pieces politically."

Cites Proclamation

"They could reveal," Mr. Buffett wrote, "how Eisenhower, months after the war ended, approved and signed an order that sent uncounted hundreds of thousands of German civilians into Russia for slave labor. This one ruthless action alone, duly exposed, would lose enough normal Republican votes to insure Republican defeat in November". Questioned about his assertion, Mr. Buffett said that on September 20, 1945, the Allied Control Council issued Proclamation No. 1 to the people of Germany. The Omaha Congressman said he obtained a copy of the proclamation from the State Department.

'In Germany or Elsewhere' It Said:

"German authorities will carry out for the benefit of the United Nations such measures of restitution, reinstatement, reparations, reconstruction, relief and rehabilitation as the Allied representatives may prescribe. For these purposes the German authorities will... provide such labor, personnel and specialists for use in Germany or elsewhere as the Allied representatives may direct." The order was signed by British Field Marshall B. L. Montgomery, French General L. Koeltz, Russian Marshal V. D. Sokolovsky and General Eisenhower.

Mr. Buffett also referred to a news story appearing November 14, 1946, in the New York Herald-Tribune, written from Berlin by Marguerite Higgins, its well known foreign correspondent.

'Allies Dismayed'

Miss Higgins wrote that after General Lucius D. Clay had protested Russian deportation of German workers to the Soviet Union, and quoted from the International Military Tribunal's charter that "deportation for Soviet labor" is a war crime, Russia's Col. Gen. P. A. Kurochkin read aloud from the proclamation which General Eisenhower had signed. "On hearing this," Miss Higgins wrote, "General Clay and the British representative looked at each other in dismay, then sent their aides scurrying for copies of the proclamation. The text...made it all too plain that the four powers had agreed to the principle that German labor should be provided for use in Germany 'or elsewhere'." The Western Allied protests, Miss Higgins said, "fizzled to an embarrassed silence."

RUSSIA AND THE JEWS

keeping the Russian people happy in the erroneous belief that they were throwing off the Jewish yoke, and in persuading the rest of the world that the Jews were the best allies against "an anti-Jewish Soviet Russia."

That is why these disciplinary measures among the Jews are being played up to look like anti-Jewish to the eyes of those who do not appreciate that Bolshevism is essentially Jewish.

As we have said it is our belief that this will be followed by a full-scale attempt to present the Soviet as being "anti-Semitic." The Jews have every reason for staging a sham blackshirt movement, this time in Russia of all places. Whether the Germans will fall for this latest Jewish confidence trick remains to be seen, but recent reports suggest that the Arab states would be readily taken in by it.

This seems to be the pattern for 1952.

At the same time as revealed in the following contribution by Colin Jordan, the Jews are now taking steps to ensure that any change of Government in Russia will still leave it in Jewish hands.

Keep an eye on Levine... A certain Isaac Don Levine is a very busy man these days. He has set up headquarters at the Vierjahreszeiten Hotel in the Maximilianstrasse, Munich. From there he is making flying visits to Frankfurt, Paris, New York. He is seeking consultations with Russian exiles. He is trying to negotiate with Cossacks, Ukrainians, Byelorussians, Georgians, and other non-Russian nationalities from the USSR. He has money to burn. What is his line of business? The well-informed "Ukrainian Information Service" (Nov. '51) supplies the answer. Isaac Don Levine is the master of ceremonies, the contact man, the key organizer in the scheme to stage a come-back for Kerensky (original name—Aron Kirbiz) as the West's replacement for Stalin; and he is doing all that money and high-pressure sales-talk can do to get non-

Russian exiles from the USSR to desert the Anti-Bolshevik Bloc of Nations, the organization which represents them and which has denounced Kerensky, and to throw in with a handful of ethnic Russian groups which he has managed to enroll in his "Council of the Liberation of the Peoples of Russia." It all looks very much like a Jewish window dressing stunt to give the USSR a "New Look" in case the Stalin regime falls, presenting a "new anti-Stalin, democratic communist, Soviet empire" to the world; which will preserve the same Jewish hold over these vast territories while thwarting the nationalism and will to independence of the subjugated nationalities of the USSR.

REDS THREATEN PATRIOT

VAN HYNING TRIAL IS SET FOR JULY-22nd TO BE HELD AT CHICAGO

By ELIZABETH DILLING

Moscow's "People's Courts" stage a fancy "purge trial" of all and any opponents to Red tyranny, give the victims the choice between "confessing" fantastic "crimes" in return for mere shooting, instead of sadistic Talmudic torture, then finish them off as a warning to others. American lawyers, however, who have been trained in American jurisprudence, appear helplessly bewildered when they encounter mounting use of Red "Jewishprudence", in this country, under the Jew Deal. This was exemplified by the infamous mass indictments in 1942, 1943, and 1944 of anti-Communists, anti-Jew Dealers, or America Firsters, and the eight-months "Moscow Purge Trial," which ran in Washington in 1944, in which I was one of the victims.

This so-called "Sedition Trial" was connived and run by pro-Red anti-Christian B'nai B'rith, a Jewish mass organization of some 350,000 members, with its OGPU-like Anti-Defamation League which spends millions annually to bribe, bully, deceive, or do character assassination work on any American who dares expose the truth about the criminal Talmudic religion, misnamed "Judaism", or about any of its conspiratorial activities in this country. By press, forum, radio, special literature by the millions of copies, this illegal, nefarious organization blankets America like "pea-soup fog."

B'nai B'rith calls up our public officials, from the President on down, like a row of bellboys who stand waiting to carry baggage for their bosses. Five years spent in fighting B'nai B'rith's indictments and "Sedition Trial", gave the law firm of Dilling and Dilling unique training in "Jewishprudence." It ended with complete victory for us, and denunciation of the "persecution" by two federal courts, when finally dismissed in 1947, but, of course, no recom-

The Marxists propagandists would have the public believe that those who expose the Jewish Marxist plot are people with warped minds and people who are full of hate.

It has been my privilege to know intimately all the most active, most efficient and best informed people on this subject. Statements have been made in my presence on many occasions that these leaders are marked by their Christianity, intelligence and kindness. Not one among them has profited and all have gladly sacrificed their own time and money. The reason for their willingness to face smear has been motivated by love of Christ and their country. They know they are doing Christ's work and are considered as patriots by all who know them. To know them is to love them.

pense for the colossal expense, loss of time, and smear publicity. I did collect, thru the legal efforts of the Dillings, the past year, for one of Winchell's libelous columns about me, and for three other Jewish smear jobs by the Chicago Jewish Sentinel; the theatrical magazine, Billboard, and the Communist Party's Chicago Star. But sheer libel has been poured out against me by motion picture, press and radio, for years, coast to coast, because I opposed the nullification of Christian Americanism.

Altho every illegal stunt was pulled in the "sedition" persecutions, in the eight-months Washington farcical "trial" not one piece of evidence against any one of the 30 defendants, in accordance with the charge, was produced. Proceedings were run from the Department of "Injustice" by a B'nai B'rith agent, a German Jew by the name of Oberwinder, alias "John Metcalf", who duly wired Henry Monsky, the late head of B'nai B'rith, just when and who was to be indicted. The wires were subpoenaed and read by Dies, Committee investigators. Within an hour, B'nai B'rith was threatening Dies for their return to Western Union.

The trumped up charge was that these 30 defendants, largely unknown to one another, had met and "conspired" in the city of Washington on a certain day. Therefore, they had to be tried there, not in their own home area. A number of the defendants, from all over the country, had never been to Washington before, and none of them had met in Washington as charged. This was admitted in court. Eugene Meyer, Jewish publisher of the Washington Post, had had one of his reporters, using several aliases, "entrap" the desired victims by writing to them and asking for literature or a reply. The charge of conspiracy was based upon the pretext that the arrival of literature or letters from the victims constituted their "constructive" (or mental) "presence" in Washington, and justified charging them with actual joint presence and conspiracy.

My "Army" and "Navy"

The three indictments varied a little, not much, and read like dime thrillers. These little people were part of a world Nazi conspiracy using armies and navies to set up Nazi governments all over the world, using such co-conspirators as the America First pre-war Committee, which had several million members opposed to American entry into World War II; the American Coalition of Patriotic Societies, composed of old line genealogical patriotic societies opposed to nullifying the American Constitution; the American Constitutional Educational League, etc. The indictments recited alleged quotations from unnamed defendants, against Communists or Jews, in support of the charge. Hitler criticized Communists, therefore Americans who did so were Hitlerites, which is the Communist Party line, and, under Communist governments, "anti-Semitism", that is opposition to the Jewish officials, is given the death penalty. Jewish periodicals gloated that the trial was being held against "anti-Semitism." I had written the OCTOPUS in 1940, revealing Jewish power and determination to drag America into another world slaughter. My trial for this crime took place when Christian civilization was being sold to the bloody Hammer and Sickle by connivance of those same Jew Deal powers. A number of the defendants had sons in the armed forces.

My son, who had enlisted as a private, was promoted to Lieutenant while I was on trial for "conspiring to undermine the morale of the armed forces," so my "armies and navies" could set up world Nazi governments, as the prosecution was actually setting up Communist governments, on American taxpayers' billions. He attended my trial at every opportunity, and vowed to use his legal education to fight such atrocious injustice when he left the army, as he is now doing.

I used to say, when he would come into Court, "Here comes my army!" However, I did come nearest to having a "navy," as I believe I was the only defendant who had a little row and sail boat, my children are still using.

As each indictment fell, the indicted victims would be swooped down upon, Moscow-style, and arrested before they knew of their indictment, and promptly thrown into jail without being given opportunity to make bond. Some of the bonds were fantastic, more than required of criminals. I was driving home, one day, when, fortunately, I turned on the car radio just in time to hear, "Mrs. Elizabeth Dilling has been indicted."

Hiding Out

I stopped and telephoned an attorney who told me not to go home, as the police would be there waiting to arrest and jail me, and it would be difficult to arrange bond in jail where one cannot reach funds, etc. So, like a felon, I hid out until the amount of the bond was ascertained and the $500 bond fee secured. Then, I walked into custody with the bondsman and thus avoided being jailed. I learned later that by the time my indictment was announced, crowds of reporters and police had swarmed over the lawn of our suburban home, and the doorbell was ringing constantly, as well as the phone. All that night, police cars circled the block, rang the bell, until my distressed elderly housekeeper finally called the local police who drove the mob of photographers and reporters from the place. These hoped to get pictures of me, handcuffed, for the delight of Winchell and his ilk.

After being arraigned, I was led into the Federal jail in the old Chicago Postoffice to be fingerprinted by a gloating Jew, as cages of pickpockets, thieves and other criminals, black and white, looked on thru the bars. Under the circumstances, it was a joy to see a friendly face. One of the highest type Christian gentlemen, Dr. D. J. McDaniel, a Marine veteran, and patriot, was hauled in, handcuffed, and locked in one of the cages facing me. He had been arrested at the end of the day, Moscow style, at his dental office, jailed over the week-end without opportunity to make bond, and was then being moved to this cell preliminary to being released on bond. I called to him: "Hello there, Doctor!", as my fingers were being rolled in the ink, "I always said we anti-New Dealers would meet in jail sometime!"

Dr. McDaniel's "Crime"

Dr. McDaniel's "Crime" was that before World War II he had an artist draw some excellent cartoons against America's involvement. One depicted Uncle Sam being crucified on the Lend-Lease cross, surrounded by schemers with Jewish noses. It was a telling truth, so both he and the artist were indicted. They were dropped from the 1944 indictment, yet the cartoons were used in the 1944 trial as "evidence" of the criminality of the actual defendants.

In the 1944 indictment, the America First Committee, and the rest of the patriotic American organizations were also dropped. In place of these the whole German Government was dumped in as "co-conspirators," a list of German bureaus being named with titles that were undecipherable and unpronounceable for one, like me, who does not know any German. The aim was to sink us under a load of sauerkraut in wartime, and terrorize all other Americans critical of Jew Deal Stalinism.

Colonel Sanctuary

Another "sedition" indictree was the elderly Bible teacher, scholar and World War II officer, Col. E. N. Sanctuary.

His most awful "crime" was publishing "The Talmud Unmasked," accurately translated excerpts from the criminal and obscene Babylonian Talmud, the supreme bible and authority of so-called "Judaism". He and his wife had never been apart without keeping the other informed as to where they were. He was arrested in their apartment while she was out. He begged in vain to be permitted to leave her a note telling her where he was being taken. He was kept incommunicado in jail; cockroaches crawled over his face at night, and a light was flashed in his eyes every little while so that he could not sleep. The worry and shock to his wife brought on the illness which killed her.

Sedition and Van Hyning Case Patterns -

The same pattern of precedent convictions was followed, as in the Van Hyning case. First, under conditions of wartime hysteria and "pull", a group of Californians who had been holding meetings with speakers who opposed U. S. entry into World War II, were convicted, not once but thrice, on the same flimsy "evidence", by the City, County and State, and then indicted three times by Washington, so that I heard the same asinine witnesses from California who had "convicted" them. The awful evidence, as one female witness testified, was they "opposed our President!"

Six Times For Same "Offense"

Despite State and Federal Constitutions, which forbid placing a person in jeopardy twice for the same offense, these Californians were placed in jeopardy for the same "offense" six times, and convicted three times. As each of the Washington indictments fell, in 1942, 1943, 1944, they would be hauled out of the California prison at any time of day or night, forbidden to take shaving equipment or an overcoat in coldest weather, then put in solitary confinement in the Washington "Bastille", fed rotten food, spoiled food, then ridden, handcuffed, back and forth to the Federal Court to sit in a row, pale and emaciated and unshaven, for the indictment hearings. Two of them spent about a year in solitary confinement, deprived of the outdoor exercise granted hardened criminals, and placed in cells without windows, and with insufficient light to see to read. That is a story in itself. Placing "convicted criminals" in the mass sedition case was calculated to throw guilt on the rest of the defendants, many of whom, like me, had never known or heard of these little California intellectuals who "opposed our President."

Mr. Garner

Other defendants, who were unable to raise the bond fees, were similarly handcuffed and leg-ironed for the trip to the Washington Jail. Dear little 83-year old Elmer Garner showed my daughter the picture of himself holding his great-grandchildren—babies—in his arms, and gave her a peppermint. His little paper, after supporting FDR for two terms, opposed him, and printed some articles critical of New Deal Jews. He and his son, James, were both indicted in 1942, and spent many weeks in the foul Washington jail, unable to raise bond. They lived, with the aged wife and mother, in a little Wichita bungalow and eked out a living with a goat, a few chickens and vegetables. He was a poor cousin of John Garner, ex-Vice-President. When bond money finally came, that long summer they spent in jail, from Texas, it was surmised that John Garner had been appealed to and had sent it.

The patriotic leader, who had my book,

THE ROOSEVELT RED RECORD AND ITS BACKGROUND, sent to a Senator to give to Vice-President Garner, reported that after reading it all night long, Garner had said: "I didn't know all THAT was going on", and soon had the Dies Committee going.

When Elmer Garner died in a cheap rooming house, during the 1944 Washington "trial", leaving 40 cents in his pocket, the great "humanitarians" kept his typewriter and wardrobe of two suits of clothes, and shipped his naked body home to his aged widow in a wooden box. She had to raise money for burial and burial clothing.

Court-Appointed Lawyers

The Court has to appoint a defense lawyer for defendants unable to pay an attorney. Only two of the defendants (charged with overthrowing the world, or conspiring to use their armies and navies to do so) could afford paid lawyers. The New Deal-appointed judge, who had proclaimed his joy in being "a rubber stamp for the New Deal", appointed Democrats to defend the victims, in the expectation that they would help convict them. Be it said to their honor and glory, altho they had to serve those eight months without pay, and almost wreck their own livelihood, they turned in and fought gallantly for their innocent victims, when they saw the rank injustice, illegality and Jewish tyranny of the whole proceedings threatened all American freedom.

As I was looking up prosecution witnesses, translating from the French evidence which made a perjurer out of a prize government witness, Hermann Raushing (protégé of B'nai B'rith), and Mr. Dilling was presenting the most damning evidence in court and to the other lawyers, these stood firm. There was no budging them until doomsday. Finally, it was the same Eugene Meyer who had arranged the "entrapment" of the victims, who ran editorials in his Washington Post urging that the "Courtroom Farce" be called off, as it was evident that the trial was injuring Jewry instead of convicting anyone. Every piece of "evidence" was knocked down flat. The pompous Opening Speech to the Jury, by Prosecutor O. John Rogge, necessarily had to include the individual crime charged against each defendant, mentioned by name. Rogge boasted that he could PROVE I had been to Germany.

The defendants then, thru their attorney, have the right to answer these charges to the jury. When we showed that I had traveled in more than 50 countries, the mystery vanished and some of the jurors remarked to Mr. Dilling: "You people HAVE traveled a lot, haven't you!" Rogge's inference that there was some criminal intent in touring Germany, failed.

The Van Hyning Case

With the above as background, this "alumna" of the sedition trial is deeply interested in the prosecution of Mrs. Lyril Van Hyning, editor of the WOMEN'S VOICE, Chicago. In the good old Moscow tradition, she was arrested at the close of the day in her office, on a warrant sworn out by that indefatigable Red, Ira Latimer. Fortunately, she was able to talk the police officer out of taking her to the police station, then and there. He agreed to let her surrender the next morning. She then phoned an attorney for advice, and he told her to make her appearance at court, next day, alone. Then, she called me. Relating some of the above incidents, I begged her NOT to go alone and perhaps be jailed in some filthy hole. When she called Mr. Dilling, Sr., for advice, he also told her not to go alone. My son, Kirkpatrick, went with her the next day. There, as attorney for the prosecution, was the same little

Jewish lawyer, A. Zemel, who had prosecuted and convicted Mr. Beauharnais under the same Illinois 1917 statute. This law makes it an offense to libel any group because of their race, or religion, unless the TRUTH of the charges can be shown.

Like the conviction of the California group, which provided "condemned criminals" to flavor the mass sedition trial, the conviction of Mr. Beauharnais, for libeling Negroes, provided a precedent case to convict others who allegedly libel Jews, and Mrs. Van Hyning's arrest followed.

Beauharnais Precedent

The Chicago conviction of Beauharnais was next upheld by the Supreme Court in a 5 to 4 decision, "Justice" Felix Frankfurter writing the majority opinion. Frankfurter is the Austrian-born Jew who helped organize and served the Communist-aiding legal and propaganda society, the American Civil Liberties Union, which uses the excuse of "free speech, free assembly" to defend Red revolutionaries guilty of rape, murder, property destruction, assaults, etc. Frankfurter was busy with this work until put on the Supreme Court bench—some 20 years. When Red rioters burned cars and smashed plate glass windows, he defended this as mere "animal exuberance" attendant on the exercise of free speech, etc.

It was none other than the old Red-aiding Jewish Frankfurter, however, who upheld the conviction of Beauharnais for agitating for all-white neighborhoods. Jewry always uses Negroes and Catholics as a smoke-screen for its own sadistic power, now being exercised over much of the Christian world.

The minority Supreme Court Justices, however, expressed doubt and fear concerning the Beauharnais conviction. To quote: "Jackson attacked the trial court for refusing the defendant's offer of proof as to the truth of the matter published... 'the point is that his evidence was excluded instead of being received and evaluated... no group interest should forget that the shoe may be on the other foot in some prosecution tomorrow'. Black condemned the Illinois law as establishing 'expansive state censorship'". And: "Justice Jackson objected that Beauharnais had been deprived of the right to offer proof of the truth of his assertions" (Chgo. Trib. 4-29-52, 5-3-52).

The "cast" in the Van Hyning prosecution is practically the same as in the cases following the Red riot at the West End Women's Club before and during an America First meeting, there, Feb. 7, 1946. The Jewish Sentinel boasted over the role of Jewish War Veterans, under Victor Hirsch (who was subsequently made "Americanism" chairman for the sixth area of the American Legion). The Trotskyite Communists, likewise, boasted of their part in the terrorism, as did the Stalinists. Mobs had collected outside the building before the meeting had started, chanting hate slogans, and carrying picket signs they had made for the occasion. It required a body of police to get into the building at all, but, despite these, the clothes of the would-be attendants were spit upon and ripped, many were struck, and three went to the hospital in ambulances. I was bruised with an iron pipe. Bricks and stink bombs came crashing thru the windows, all of which were broken, flares lit up the sky, and the howling outside all but drowned out the speakers. A stenographer, placed inside the meeting by the Jews, in her transcript indicated the pandemonium which prevailed.

Sometime before midnight, the Red Ira Latimer (complainant in the Van Hyning case) left the hall with Judge Oscar Caplan. Caplan and Judge Samuel Heller, both Jews, then held a midnight all-Jewish court, with a Jewish clerk and a Jewish bailiff. Ira Latimer swore out a complaint against the speakers under a statute making it an offense to "create a digression leading to a breach of the peace", and the speakers, who included Father Terminiello, were arrested. This "kikeroo", court also freed all of the mobsters who had been arrested up until that time—midnight.

Mr. Dilling, after winning the cases against two of the speakers, then carried Father Terminiello's case thru the higher state courts until he won it before the Supreme Court, paying all of the expenses out of his own pocket. The various cases arising from the riot consumed his time for months and spread over years.

Jewishprudence Again

The prosecution, in the Van Hyning case, evidently expected a sort of push-over defense. When the little Jew attorney, Zemel, saw, the first morning when Mrs. Van Hyning was arraigned, that it was the battling Dillings who were defending her, he grew very nervous and asked the Judge for an extension of time. When the Judge set a date, twice he said, "No", he wanted a later date, and took the latest one the Judge would grant him—June 18th. Lawyers say it is almost unheard of for the prosecution to ask for a postponement. The prosecution is supposed to have the case all set to go when the defendant is arrested. It is the defendant who asks for the delay to prepare a defense. The charges are usually read to the defendant on arraignment, called the Information, and a copy given the defendant. That is common sense. A person has to know what he is charged with before making a defense. The practice is, also to permit the defendant either to plead then, guilty or not guilty, or ask for time to study the Information before pleading.

In the Washington "Sedition Trial", the only Information or "Bill of Particulars" we ever got was the history of the Nazi Party of Germany. Yes, that is what I said. The birthplaces and residences of the various German officials and the first Nazi "putsch"—all that stuff—constituted the "Information". The indictment was as nebulous. All that Mrs. Van Hyning has had to date—and she was arrested MARCH 4TH is the warrant for her arrest stating the number of the statute under which she was being arrested! This statute makes it an offense to libel a race or religion unless the truth of the statements can be shown. At each court appearance, the Dilling attorneys have made a demand for the Information. In addition, a registered demand in writing was served on the District Attorney.

The day before the Van Hyning case was to come up, in checking the court call calendar, it was discovered that, instead of the Christian judge to whom this case had been assigned, Jewish Judge Caplan, who held "kikeroo court" in behalf of the Red rioters, was set to hear it! In the Father Terminiello case, Harry Eiseberg, Assistant Corporation Counsel of the City of Chicago, another Jew, had taken part in the prosecution of Father Terminiello.

As the Dillings entered Caplan's court, they saw the same Harry Eiseberg disappearing into Caplan's chambers for a private conference with him. The jury box was filled and the stage set for another "kikeroo" court.

When the Judge was seated on the bench, Mr. Dilling came forward and told him that he had come solely for the purpose of getting a change of venue (another judge). At this the judge purpled and blew up, as did the little prosecuting attorney, Zemel, who protested, "He's not entitled to it!", and the Judge declared: "I won't do it!" As Mrs. Van Hyning put it: "The Judge simply lost control of himself". Dilling, with his usual bow and calm courtroom manner, quietly said he thought the Judge should want to disqualify himself, as the case concerned, from what little they had been able to learn, the anti-Jewish writings of the defendant, and since "your Honor is a Jew," a fair and impartial trial could not be granted the defendant. With the inconsistency born of rage, the Judge contradicted himself in one sentence by saying: "I won't do that; there is no reason for it; I'll send the case to the Chief Justice for reassignment!"—which means another judge would be assigned the case.

The Procession Moves

Mrs. Van Hyning had about twenty ladies with her. More wanted to go but could not find the courtroom. They all departed, with Zemel trailing, for the office of the Chief Justice, then being filled by a deputy, another Jew, but not truculent. As Zemel protested, this Acting Chief Justice said: "Why not give him a judge he is satisfied with?" He noted that Dilling had disqualified 26 judges as prejudiced, and asked "Are there any more?". Dilling said there were ten left and any one of them would be accepted, from Judge Dailey, a Democrat, down the line. So, despite Zemel's wails, the party departed for Judge Dailey's court. There another Jewish attorney was examining a witness and he also purpled with rage at this interruption, as they all trooped in.

A Compliment

"There seems to be a disturbance", the Judge remarked, and asked what it was about. Mr. Dilling spent some 20 minutes telling him. The Jewish attorney was heard to say: "There's that G - D - S - O - B of a Dilling again!", really quite a compliment from such a source. "Are ALL these people defendants?" asked the Judge? "No, your Honor", replied Dilling, "They are friends of the defendant who came along to see the show". Dilling told the Judge they had made a demand for the Information some three times in court and had served a written demand on the District Attorney. To put a defendant on trial without information as to the charges, is illegal, as the Judge knew, Dilling said.

"You didn't serve the right person", said Zemel: "You didn't serve ME!" "But you are an Assistant District Attorney, are you not, Mr. Zemel?", Dilling inquired. "I won't answer YOU about anything — only the Judge", Zemel answered. "Your Honor", said Dilling, "will you please ask Mr. Zemel if he is an Asst. District Attorney or not?" The Judge replied: "No, because I happen to know that he IS". Again, when Dilling handed up to the Judge two motions, one, another demand for the Information, and, two, a motion to dismiss the prosecution, Zemel piped up and said, as Dilling gave him a copy as required, of the motion to dismiss: "You gave the Judge two motions; you have only given me a copy of ONE", still pretending he was not connected with the District Attorney's office. "You have been served", was the answer, "with copies of both motions."

Another "Compliment"

The greatest compliment to the "Jewishprudence" of Dilling and Dilling was Zemel's proposition, after being beaten in the plan for another "kikeroo" court, to Dilling, Sr. He offered to delay the trial of Mrs. Van Hyning for a year, place her writings under supervision (by Jewry), and, if she wrote nothing unfavorable to Jewry, to have the case against her dismissed. Dilling laughed at him. The trial is now set for July 22nd.

Javits-Klein-McKeogh-Powell Bill

Enthusiastically backed by Jewry, which has been emboldened by the Supreme Court decision on the Illinois statute under which Beauharnais was convicted and Mrs. Van Hyning prosecuted, the Jewish Congressmen, Javits and Klein, and the Red Negro Cong. Adam Clayton Powell, have introduced a similar bill making it a criminal offense to "libel" a group because of race or creed, unless the truth of the charges can be proven.

This would be an excellent bill under American jurisprudence. It is intended only to railroad truth-tellers about Jewry under the new Jewishprudence, Jew Deal appointed judges and "kikeroo" courts.

It is impossible to libel the Jewish religion, for its "rule of life", as stated by the Chief Rabbi of Great Britain, in his introduction to the English translation of the Babylonian Talmud (Soncino edition, London, 1935-6) is this collection of criminality, obscenity, and libel against all non-Talmudists.

Talmudism a Criminal Code

In every civilized country, not under Jewish Communist rule, there are laws against incest, sodomy, rape, murder, theft, perjury, etc. My compilation of photostats from the above edition of the Babylonian Talmud, the Jewish Encyclopedia, Jewish Kehilla, etc., is entitled THE PLOT AGAINST CHRISTIANITY. There are some 300 reproductions in it, practically all of them full-page, and successive full pages, with the title pages of each book used also reproduced. The originals can be subpoenaed from libraries, etc. NO ONE can refute the genuineness of these Jewish authoritative sources.

McGinley's Challenge

Copies of this compilation in book form are in ten foreign countries, from Egypt to England and France, India, Pakistan, etc., as well as in every state in the Union, here in America. COMMON SENSE, the finest and most accurate anti-Communist paper today, has finally made public the murder threats, the bombings of their Union, New Jersey, plant, the beating with tire chains of friends of the editor, Conde McGinley, leaving them bloody in the gutter, the shattering of their windows, the boycott of the Jewish War Veterans which made it impossible to get paper—all illegal terrorism. Send for the May 1st issue ($1 per year, if the editor is not assassinated by the Jews). He gives the auto license number of the car which bore the would-be assassins—yet the police have so far done nothing to punish the would-be assassins.

As McGinley told the Jews who phoned their murder threats to him, liquidating him will never stop the spread of the truth. Others will step up to take his place, and I would say the same. My compilation can be reproduced by anyone in any state and in many foreign countries. Whatever is done to me will be laid squarely where it belongs, on the doorstep of Talmudic Jewry.

Religiously, the so-called "Jews" are followers of the Tradition of the Pharisees, which Christ denounced as Satanic, as a nullification of the Old Testament. Read John 8:37-44; Matthew 23—all of which is a denunciation of the cult of Pharisaism. In written form it is the Babylonian Talmud and Cabala of sorcery, demon-invocation, all of which is excoriated by the Old Testament. Racially, as COMMON SENSE has to often asserted, they are a mixture of every race and nation, preponderantly descendants of the Asiatic, non-Semitic Chazars who entered Eastern Europe, first, in 198 A.D., acquired an empire, conquered in 1016, finally, by the Christian Russians. The Chazars and imported Rabbis from Babylonia where this conglomeration of bloody paganism and sex worship had been hatched for some 1,626 years, from 586 B.C. until 1040 A.D. Then, the last Babylonian "academy" moved out into Europe, infesting the Middle Ages with witchcraft and demonism, "black arts", and superstition. It is the descendants of the Eastern European Chazars who have swarmed to America bringing with them the Babylonian Talmudism their forebears adopted in 740 A.D.

The Israelites were a congregation, never a pure race. From the time the founding sons of "Israel" (Jacob) started the twelve tribes of Israel, they were a mixture. Three of these sons (Judah, Simeon and Joseph) married Hamites, not Semites. Because the majority were pagan abominators, God, as He had warned, had them slaughtered and deported by the Assyrians (721 B.C.) and by the Babylonians (586 B.C.). The same proportion prevailed on their return for the birth of Christ (536-458 B.C.). The little remnant who had preserved Scripture for us accepted Him as the foretold Christ, leaving the pagan Pharisees little competition within the Sanhedrins. How they defeated the Sadducees and revamped the Scriptures in line with pantheistic paganism, may be read in the reproductions from the Jewish Encyclopedia (Exhibits 264-271). That Judaism is Pharisaism is related by the current head of the Jewish Theological Seminary of New York, Chicago, Los Angeles, Rabbi Louis Finklestein, in his "THE PHARASEES" (Exhs. 1-3 in my PLOT AGAINST CHRISTIANITY).

The over-all doctrine of Pharisaic or Talmudic Judaism is that all non-Talmudists are non-human in rank, and are created as "the people like an ass" to act as burden bearers for Talmudists, or be milked or beheaded like cows, as in Communist Jewish-run countries, today. The formerly censored text of Kethuboth 111a (Exh. 148) is completed in footnote 12, "the people that are like an ass (12), slaves who are considered the property of the master." The Pharisees "held that only Israelites are men . . . Gentiles they classed not as men but as barbarians," and as, allegedly, God "withdrew His legal protection from them, and transferred their property rights to Israel . . . Gentiles were excepted from the general civil laws of Moses . . . Gentile property is considered public property, like unclaimed land in the desert" (Jewish Ency. "Gentiles", Exhibits 268, 269, 270). In Exh. 269 is an intimation of the Talmudic law or Mishna concerning law suits which sets the pattern for "Sedition Trial" and Van Hyning case "Kikeroo" technique: "if a Gentile sue an Israelite, the verdict is for the defendant; if the Israelite is the plaintiff, he obtains full damages". In the Talmud book of Baba Kamma (113a, p. 664 of Soncino edition,) this is amplified. Lying and circumvention may be used against the Gentile in court, unless this is apt to be discovered and Jewry as a whole be exposed for its criminal code. COMMUNISM IS JUDAISM IN ACTION.

Sodomy with little boys is allowed and with little baby girls under three, and with a neighbor's wife (Sanhedrin 54b-55a, 58b: Exhs. 54, 59). Standard Talmudic doctrine is that baby girls under three may be raped or married by grown men (Exhs. 81, 133-6, 159, etc.). Intercourse with animals and dead bodies, incest with dead bodies, is allowed (Exhs. 158, 163, 89), and sodomy with a very sick person, a "terefah".

NATIONALIST CONVENTION

By Staff Correspondent

The annual Nationalist convention was held in Chicago from July 4th to July 6th, inclusive. Nationalists gathered from 32 States. Chairman was George Foster. The convention was opened on Friday, July 4th at 2:30 P.M. with a prayer by Reverend MacArthur, a resident of Chicago and a cousin of General MacArthur. Prayer was followed by a well planned series of patriotic endeavors. There was the "Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag" followed by the singing of "The Star Spangled Banner," "My Country 'Tis of Thee" and the beautiful "America." Approximately 200 people attended the opening session. The Chairman pointed out in his welcome to the delegates that they represented America, coming as they did from all states from New York to California and from Florida to Maine motivated only by patriotism and a love of christianity. Also that this country was originally and definitely set up by the founding Fathers as a Christian Nation.

At this point Mrs. Lyril Van Hyning, Moderator of the Convention and editor of the patriotic publication "Women's Voice" read the Declaration of Independence in its entirety. Mrs. Van Hyning then spoke at length. Referring to the Constitution and the early history of America she stated that in 1776 the individual received the right to choose for the first time. The Declaration of Independence was cited as the greatest event in history since the Crucifixion.

Mrs. Van Hyning told her audience that Christ, for the first time, brought the importance of the individual to the fore. She condemned World Government and Statism and gave the definition of an American. She referred to the Constitution as the greatest work that came from the brain and mind of man.

I would like to mention here that the table at the convention was stacked with Nationalist literature from all over the country.

At this point in the program, the assembled delegates were treated to a dialogue regarding the next President of the U. S. Mrs. Van Hyning asked: "What will our next President be like? Will he be like Washington?" (And so on down the line of the more patriotic Presidents). As the name of each one was announced, Mr. Foster read off a famous statement attributed to each.

Mr. Foster then reviewed the order of business for the following day. It was agreed that the actual business of the Convention would commence the following day. The meeting adjourned at 5:00 P.M.

The Convention reconvened at 2:30 P. M. on Saturday, July 5th. The singing of the "Star Spangled Banner" was followed by "The Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag" and

To Hell With Business Until We Clean Out The Conspirators

By Conde McGinley, Editor Common Sense

The two party system was satisfactory, but during the last twenty years a third party, Invisible, not American but International, has eaten the heart out of the Democratic and Republican parties and is using them to abolish the United States and establish World Government.

General Douglas MacArthur

The Americans for Democratic Action which completely controlled the Democratic Convention is a Jewish front—a part of the Invisible Government.

By securing control of our Government, they have been using our Treasury (taxpayers money) to set up World Government and place the majority of the people under virtual slavery to the small minority. During 1917 the Talmudists, Yiddish, Khazars or Jews—call them what you wish, they are followers of the Talmud—decided that they were ready to put into action the plan to rule the world by World Government. These instructions are given in the Talmud.

In order for sixteen million Jews to rule two and one quarter billion Non-Jews, it would be necessary to create hundreds of fronts, each controlled by Jews. Communism, appealing to the masses, would be the parent front with now over eleven hundred Marxist fronts covering all nationalities and all levels from the working man to the parlor pinks. They used trained and trusted Gentiles who had been helped to profit while fronting in movements which would engage us in wars and gradually bankrupt us, render us helpless, increase our fear of attack so that we will surrender our liberties and submit to World Government.

The first country to be taken over was Russia, now known as the Soviet Union. Two hundred and seventy-six Jews were trained in New York as the spark plugs in Russia. Jacob Schiff, President of Kuhn Loeb Company of New York, Jewish Bankers, and grandfather of Dorothy Schiff, present owner of the New York Post, financed the Communist Revolution in Russia. Now the Jews ruled Russia and prepared to spread out over the world. They had their fifth column working in Spain just as they have in the United States today, hence in 1936 the revolution was set off and directed by Moses Rosenberg, Soviet Union's Ambassador to Spain. One and one-half million people died. General Franco whipped the Communists and was victorious in driving them out. Spain is the only country that freed itself of Communism. Germany and Italy gave Spain the assistance necessary as they knew that once Communism was established in Spain, France would fall next—then all of Europe.

Communist Soviet Union realizing they could not spread out in their aim to take over the world as long as Germany remained powerful, proceeded to syphon thousands of Yiddish (Jews) through Poland and Czechoslovakia into Germany to join the Communist German Jews as a fifth column to break down Germany from inside. The German Government, facing the same situation as the United States does today, put these Red Jews in concentration camps so that Germany could present a United Germany against the threatening war from the Soviet Union. In all countries the Jews cried persecution. In the meantime, Jews had been working hard in the United States. Samuel Rosenman, right hand man to F.D.R., then Governor of New York, had been watching and instructing him so he could report to the Jewish Kehilla (Jewish Secret Government) that F.D.R. could be trusted. Jewish Press Agents and Jewish controlled papers built

WORLD GOVERNMENT AND THE ELECTION

Republished from: "The Individualist", Chas. W. Phillips, Editor, P. O. Box 373, Lincoln 1, Nebraska

The major issue which is facing us is still world government. It is the final goal of most of the collectivists. The fact that it also happens to be endorsed by many idealists who honestly think that it is the only answer to the world's war problem, will not in any way ease its burden once it is fastened on us.

When we started to devote more bulletin space to the world government issue some ten years ago, it was quite difficult to make people believe it constituted anything but an imaginary threat. It is different today. The United Nations is a going concern—on our money—and its power and influence is being rapidly extended from day to day. Its ultimate goal, according to its promoters, is world government in every important sense of the word.

Even though it is not openly declared as such, the world government issue is the main issue in the coming national election. It will be a miracle if the conservative elements in the Republican Party are able to prevent the nomination of an international New Dealer on the Republican ticket. As we have pointed out before, the international campaign for world government has gathered its followers from both the Republican and Democratic Parties since its propaganda was directed at all professions, creeds and parties. Eleven years ago it was able to secure the nomination of Wendell L. Willkie on the Republican ticket even though he had previously been described as a "life-long Democrat without a record for vote getting" and "a former Socialist who has gone big business."

The world government proponents have been so successful in infiltrating both major political parties that we are apt to participate in another national election campaign in which the only difference between them will be the party labels.

MAINLY AN ECONOMIC ISSUE

The economic school of thought followed by the so-called liberals in the business world, the ones who were the most ardent spokesmen for Mr. Willkie in the past and General Eisenhower now, believed that political sovereignties, when they interfered with the proposed job of setting up an "integrated world economy" should give way. When you closely examine their arguments for world government, you find that the accent is on economic internationalism and not political internationalism. The fact that national political sovereignties all have to give way in varying degrees to an international political sovereignty, is only incidental and is acceptable because it is a necessary feature in what to them is the most important part of the program.

The dominant powers behind the world government promotion are mainly interested in its economic aspects. The political implications appeal to the reformers and the pacifists whose zeal furnishes the crusaders from among the ranks of the common people and whose sincerity and integrity cannot be questioned. This does not necessarily mean that the sincerity of those primarily interested in the economic phase can always be doubted. They just happen to live in a different world from the rest of us in that their interests and perspectives are international. This makes it easy for them to accept the claim that the world would be better off if the production, processing and distribution of all foods and raw materials could be planned on a world-wide scale through a closely integrated one-world economy.

the singing of "My Country 'Tis of Thee." The keynote of this entire Convention, above all else, was patriotism and love of and devotion to the American Flag.

A Mr. Mitchell submitted the Chicago High School series of resolutions. Bill No. HR 5080 submitted by Congressman Wood was plugged by the speaker. He strongly urged that we make sure to back the right Congressmen. Mr. Mitchell also presented resolutions condemning foreign loans and the forcing of employers to collect taxes. These were roundly approved as was his suggestion that we vote out the United Nations, U.N.O. and NATO, return to the policy of Jefferson and Monroe and withdraw the recognition of Russia.

A young man by the name of Krummer, from the University of California, who fights Communism and helps edit a publication, then addressed the Convention. In reviewing his experiences in this battle, Mr. Krummer told his audience that because his paper condemned Genocide, he was almost expelled from school. He reminded them how Warner Brothers, Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer and others help to finance Communism. He gave those present a glimpse into the present educational system in California and showed how the Reds had infiltrated it. Mr. Krummer ended his address with an encouraging note saying that the attempt to throw him out had actually boomeranged. Said Mr. Krummer "When you stand your ground they back down."

Another young man, Mr. White, an associate of Mr. Krummer from the University of California, also gave an interesting talk. He dwelt at some length on the Anti-Defamation League's attacks on Senator McCarthy. He pointed out that the Anti-Defamation League attacks anyone who attacks Communism. As an instance of how far academic circles had veered to the left, Mr. White cited the fact that the student body of one of California's largest Universities had appropriated taxpayers' money to have Harry Bridges speak to the students. Mr. White condemned the recognition of Russia, Dumbarton Oaks, Dean Acheson, Yalta, etc. and the fact that 5,000,000 Germans and 3,000,000 Italians had been sold into slavery after World War 2. He recalled that it was on Oct. 12th, 1945, that the United Nations came into being. He also pointed out that a Communist lawyer, Alger Hiss (a Stalin agent) had presided over the gathering; it was a Communist who read the opening speeches and it was a Communist who drew up the UN charter.

Indicating how far we had gone down the Marxist road, Mr. White cited the case of the California Alien Law and how the United States is gradually losing its sovereignty. The UN law actually supercedes that of the U.S. Congress. The final note of Mr. White's stirring address sounded this thought: "We must choose between Constitutional Americanism and General Eisenhower."

Mr. Higgins, an attorney from Los Angeles and a representative of the Liberal Party of Los Angeles, then spoke. He reviewed the Jewish setup and the Marxist Jewish domination of world affairs. He called for a return to the Constitutional money system outlined by the founding Fathers as expressly provided for in the Constitution of the U. S.

The next speaker to address the assembled delegates was Mr. Forrest Sammons, a retired engineer from Huntington, West Virginia, and an authority on Marxism and world affairs. It was brief address in which he referred to the Anti-Defamation League and the B'nai B'rith, which infamous organization he pointed out was founded in 1893. Mr. Sammons dwelt at some length on the book "Troublemakers" which smears the Nationalists and is backed by Anti-Defamation League. It was written by the ADL Jew spy who tried to trick Nationalists by assuming an Irish name "Mul-lally." In a word, Mr. Sammons said: "It all boils down to the ADL of B'nai B'rith."

The Chairman then introduced Mrs. Rudolph Vincenti of Baltimore who sounded a stirring appeal to the women and reminded them that Christians too had the power of boycott and should use it.

The assembled delegates were then treated to a stirring and dynamic address by Kenneth Goff of Englewood, Colorado, a former Communist and a fearless Christian fighter. He congratulated the delegates and encouraged them to take heart, reminding them that throughout the country there were literally hundreds of protest meetings such as these being held by aroused and patriotic Americans. The spirit of 1776 was rising again.

The first notice he received of an FEPC drive in Nebraska was through a letter he received from a prominent man reciting the glories of FEPC and telling Mr. Goff of the successful campaign that had been conducted, and that it was all set to be railroaded through the Legislature within a week. With one week in which to work, Mr. Goff got busy. HE MADE ONE BROADCAST ON HIS RADIO PROGRAM AGAINST IT. This was the signal for such an avalanche of letters and telegrams to the Legislature that the bill was defeated.

Mr. Goff reminded those present of recent victories such as the new law limiting Presidential tenure to two terms and the passage of the McCarran-Walters Bill. He referred to the Nationalists as a determined group definitely on the way to victory. He also condemned the United Nations.

William O'Brien, a representative of COMMON SENSE spoke briefly, complimenting Mrs. Van Hynning and Mr. Foster on the character of the Convention and lauding them for their unparalleled display of patriotism. He observed how comforting and strengthening it was to meet in one group so many representatives of the Nationalist movement, numbering as they did in the hundreds. He called for a spirit of fight and unswerving loyalty to the cause. Mr. O'Brien gave a brief history of COMMON SENSE and reported in detail the recent attempt on the life of the Editor of the paper (Mr. McGinley) and himself. He lauded Mrs. Van Hynning and said that we should stay with her in her trial to the end, as her fight is everyone's fight. Mr. O'Brien ended with this note: "The motto of every Nationalist should be that no matter who is attacked in Nationalist circles, every Nationalist will back him to the limit."

A few other brief speeches were made followed by the outlining of the program for the following day, and the closing remarks by Chairman Foster.

Sunday, July 5th was the last day of the Convention. The proceedings were marked with the usual patriotic keynote that flavored all the Convention meetings. A speech was made by Kenneth Goff, whom the delegates had the pleasure of hearing for the second time. Conde McGinley, editor of COMMON SENSE, gave an instructive talk describing just what Communism is.

Resolutions were adopted as follows:
RESOLUTION No. I

Anti-Defamation League

WHEREAS: The Anti-Defamation League is a department of the Jewish International Order of B'nai B'rith which exercises tremendous power and has frequently interfered with other races and organizations by causing to be published information detrimental to the members, thereof, and,

WHEREAS: The Anti-Defamation League has established itself as a Gestapo agency to pry into and interfere with the constitutional rights of Christian and Patriotic Organizations and in effect deny them Freedom of Speech and Freedom of Assembly.

Now, therefore be it resolved, that we demand an immediate and intensive investigation by Congress of the subversive activities of the said Anti-Defamation League, of the source of its tax-free financial support running yearly, into millions of dollars.

We further demand that the Rankin Bill dealing with this matter be brought out of Committee and acted upon by Congress.

RESOLUTION No. II

United Nations—Unesco

WHEREAS: The United Nations succeeding the League of Nations is the full realization of the scheme outlined in the program promoted by the International Clique of financiers and anti-Christian forces for the ultimate purpose of centralized world-wide control, domination and enslavement of the peoples of the world, and,

WHEREAS: Unesco, the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization is the thought control branch of the United Nations and is also the "greatest subversive plot in History," and because it has planned the corruption of the minds and morals of the present and future generations of American children, destroying their Christian Faith and Loyalty to their own Country, and making them Citizens of the world.

Now, therefore, Be it resolved that we demand that appropriate and immediate measures be taken for the passage of Congressman John T. Wood's (Idaho) Bill H.R. 5080 for taking the United States completely out of the United Nations.

RESOLUTION No. III

The Javits Bill

WHEREAS: The H.R. 7717 Bill, known as the Javits Bill, is an exemplification of the policy of oppression, formerly introduced by Congressman Sabath in 1940, and aims also at depriving patriotic American Citizens of their freedom of speech, press and communication by mail both national and international,

Now, therefore, Be it resolved that the utmost pressure be used by all nationalist and Christian forces to make absolutely certain the defeat of this diabolical instrument of oppression of H.R. 7717 as introduced by Congressman Javits of New York.

RESOLUTION No. IV

The Bolton Resolution

WHEREAS: A resolution, H.R. 547, was subtly brought before the Foreign Affairs Committee by Congresswoman Frances P. Bolton of Cleveland, Ohio, and referred to the Committee on Rules, whereby patriotic Germans already vanquished and cruelly mistreated under the infamous Morgenthau plan are to be subjected to thought control, harassment and deprivation of every kind of freedom, and, will once again cause them to become the victims of persecution by subpoena, confiscation and otherwise, and

WHEREAS: This proposed measure is contrary to our duly established constitutional legislative procedures, and

WHEREAS: The committee will report on this resolution not later than July 30th instant.

Now, therefore, Be it resolved that all measures be taken by Press, Radio and on the floor of Congress to repudiate and condemn this anti-Christian and un-American resolution H.R. 547 and further to take vigorous action to remove Frances Bolton from office as her views do not represent those of true Christian Americans.

RESOLUTION No. V

Constitutional Money

WHEREAS: The Constitution of the United States provides that "Congress shall have power to coin money, regulate the value thereof, and of foreign coin" and,

WHEREAS: Congress, with few minor exceptions like the so-called Lincoln Greenbacks, has utterly and consistently failed to exercise that power and in its stead has delegated to the twelve privately owned Federal Reserve Banks the right of issuance of all money, and,

WHEREAS: These private bankers and privately owned banking institutions have usurped this power and have through systematic expansion and contraction of money and credit created a series of prosperous periods interwoven with another series of money panics and periodic depressions, and,

WHEREAS: Under these so-called periods of prosperity people would borrow bank credit created by these privately owned banking institutions, pay high interest rates thereon and mortgage their property as security for these loans and accumulated interest thereon, and,

WHEREAS: During these money panics and depressions, systematically and deliberately planned by these same privately owned banking institutions, untold millions of people have lost their homes, their farms, and their lifetime savings, leaving them destitute in their declining years, and,

WHEREAS: The fiscal policy of issuing interest-bearing, tax-exempt bonds pursued by the Federal Government and its political subdivisions is inconsistent with economy and efficiency because the interest burden on the Federal debt and its political subdivisions frequently amounts to more than the principal itself, and,

WHEREAS: The interest amounts to more than six billion dollars annually the Nation is facing a financial crisis, and,

WHEREAS: The safety of this Republic and Our Constitutional form of Government is dependent upon what action the common people take in this matter,

Now, therefore, Be it resolved that this convention is opposed to the adoption of a so-called Gold Standard Monetary System: That this Convention is opposed to the issuance of interest bearing tax-exempt bonds with which to finance the Federal Government or any of its political subdivisions:

That this convention demands that the Government shall purchase the original stock at par of the Federal Reserve Banks and thus vest the ownership and absolute control in the United States Government.

up F.D.R. Through this influence he was made President of the United States. He had to carry out the Jewish orders to force Germany into war so as to crush them and leave Europe open to Communism. Germany refused to declare war on us although our Navy had been sinking their ships and submarines. Japan was then antagonized into attacking us at Pearl Harbor and as Germany had an alliance with Japan in that way Germany would be forced into war. As soon as Japan attacked us, Roosevelt ordered two-thirds of the Pacific fleet out of the Pacific to join the Atlantic fleet to attack Germany. The Jews demanded this. Rabbi Stephen Wise, Morgenthau, Baruch and Felix Frankfurter directed the war and the bombings in Germany. Germany was crushed and the British Empire ruined. Today the heads of all Communist countries are Jews. (See Common Sense issue No. 143 for names.) Our Military Authorities have stated that the Soviet Union could take the balance of Europe in two weeks.

Now comes the United States—the rich last stand of christianity. The B'nai B'rith, directing the Jewish Kehilla under F.D.R., secured control of the United States Treas-

RED! We see red before our eyes wherever we turn. The red blood of our sons, our brothers and our husbands is soaking the earth beneath them in Korea. The red flag is waving over half the population of the world. Reds have infiltrated into high positions in our government and the institutions vital to our national existence. And the people only "yak-yak" about it!

WHITE! We turn white at the thought of what is going to happen to millions of innocent Christian Americans on the day the i-n-v-i-s-i-b-l-e Marxist u-n-d-e-r-g-r-o-u-n-d in this country, waiting for the "whistle to blow," takes over the government in this country as they did in Russia in 1917 and thirteen other countries since! Our State Department, directed by Felix Frankfurter, through Dean Acheson, has brought on the war with Korea to draw our boys 5,000-miles away from home, and while the Soviet Union remains the strength for the Communists in Korea, Stalin gets ready to take over all Europe.

To carry on this fifth column work in the United States, it was necessary to take over the entire Democratic Party. This F.D.R., the traitor, and peanut-brain Truman gladly made possible. (Truman is now about as popular as a skunk at a dinner party.) Knowing this, the Jewish directed Invisible Government took over the main works of the Republicans and nominated Eisenhower who was about to be put forward in the last election by the New Deal. Eisenhower has proven he will carry out orders from the Jews. He proved himself when he did the dirty work for them in Germany.

Jews manipulate the union vote, the communist vote which includes many negroes and most of the two and one-half million federal employees, are hell bent to push World Government on the United States.

The Invisible Government leaves the two parties with only a shell of Americanism. They control both. The Invisible Government formerly with one political head—NEW DEAL—is now a monster with two heads.

Can we save the United States from going like Europe? If so, we will have to form a new party, an American party and quickly. COMMON SENSE has received hundreds of letters saying they would not vote. People are sick, disgusted and discouraged. This condition is just as the Jewish Protocols predicted. Millions of people refuse to have the F.E.P.C. and Communism pushed down their throats. They refuse to recognize either party. The Jews scare the politicians because they act as the balance of power. Let's have another balance of power for Americanism. A few million in this party is all that is necessary. Let us start now with General MacArthur, Colonel Lindbergh and Senator McCarthy as our leaders. Only a moron would say they would be beaten.

IS AMERICA WORTH IT? Patrick Henry said: "Give me liberty or give me death." We urge the big patriotic courageous men to call a meeting, ROLL UP THEIR SLEEVES AND GO TO WORK. LET US SAVE AMERICA. To hell with business until we clean out these traitors.

Write to anyone whom you think would be willing and influential in starting a new party.

Some one will tell you a third party cannot be elected. Even so, we need a third party to consolidate all real American forces to stand against the International Conspirators.

But we can elect General MacArthur.

VAN HYNING TRIAL

Every moral law laid down by Moses is reversed and blasphemed. Burning children to the demon Molech, as the Israelite pagan abominators did, is permitted in the 1936 edition of the Babylonian Talmud, in the chief book of Talmudic law, Sanhedrin 64a-64b (Exhs. 66-69, which contends that "the service of Molech is not . . . idolatry." The foul sex abominations of Baal worship are "nowhere stigmatized as moral depravity, by the Rabbis" (Exh. 61, Sanh. 60b). Numerous "guiltless" ways to kill are explained (Sanh. 76b-78a, Exhs. 85-88).

Killing a Gentile is considered so meritorious that if it appears that a Jew was trying to kill a Gentile but, instead, killed a Jew, he is exempt (Sanh. 78b-79a, Exhs. 90-92).

Christ and Christians Libeled

Christ is given 5 Talmudic deaths, today, and all Christians denoted as prostitutes. He is sunken in "dung to the armpits" and strangled; sunken in "dung to the armpits" and boiling lead poured down His throat to burn out the intestines; He is decapitated; He is stoned to death, and then crucified as a "blasphemer". He is accused of setting up whore-houses, with old women at the doors and young women inside to ensnare customers to disrobe, as in Baal worship, and worship the "idol", Jesus. All Christians are placed in hell where "boiling excrement" is poured on them, and Jesus is in hell, eternally, where "boiling semen" is His "punishment." When a woman's lightest sin is incest, her greatest sin must be Christianity ("minuth"). One who commits incest is allowed to die in peace, but not one who is a Christian. A rabbi who visited every harlot in the world is allowed to die in peace, since he did not commit Christianity (Abodah Zara 17a, Exhs. 179, 180). A Christian befouls anything he touches, is the teaching. Mary is represented as an adulteress and harlot, and Jesus as a seducer of women, who had intercourse with animals. Under the pseudonym of "Balaam," He is reviled as only a depraved Satanic mind could revile. See Sanh. 106a-b, Exh. 114.

If the Illinois Statute is Upheld

If the Illinois statute under which Mrs. Van Hyning is being prosecuted for "libeling" the Jewish religion—an impossibility—then, under American jurisprudence, warrants should be issued for every Talmud-Torah, every Rabbi, every officer of every synagogue, all of whom sponsor the teaching of the Babylonian Talmud, under the same Illinois law, because Talmudism libels every Christian, foully. Then, under our laws against obscenity, incest, rape, contributing to the delinquency of minors, murder, theft, and perjury, every one of these should be arrested. If American jurisprudence prevailed, not a Jew would remain out of jail.

The only reason this has not happened is because their criminal and obscene religion is draped with a "whited sepulchre" of deceit and "brotherhood" lies, made necessary as a covering for the Talmudic doctrine, a caste system, holding that only Talmudists are "men", the rest of humanity are the "people like an ass—slaves who are considered the property of the master"—the Talmudists.

The followers of the Prophets had accepted Christ, and the Pharisees had taken over Judaism for the promulgation of their Babylonian Tradition, when Christ, from the Spirit, in His Revelation to St. John, warned: "I know the blasphemy of them which say they are Jews, and are not, but do lie—and are the synagogue of Satan" (Rev. 2:9; 3:9). The fall of MYSTERY, BABYLON THE GREAT is identified with the killers of the Prophets and Christians, the Pharisees (Rev. 17:5; 18:24; Matt. 23:31). That fall will come.

SENATE HEARINGS REVEAL CONTRADICTION IN DEFENSE
SECRETARY'S SWORN TESTIMONY 19 MONTHS AGO

WHITE WASH CLEARLY SHOWN AS RED RECORD PLAIN IN STATEMENT
LISTED BELOW, FROM SEN. ARMED SERVICES COMMITTEE HEARINGS

By COL. E. N. SANCTUARY

Nineteen months have passed since our country was stirred by the hearings before the Senate Armed Service Committee as to her fitness for being appointed as Assistant Secretary of Defense.

To refresh the reader's mind we quote from the official record of the hearings enough of that testimony to show some of the most important matters. The principal witness against her was Ralph De Sola. Dr. J. B. Matthews, who for six and a half years served with the House Committee on un-American Activities, says of De Sola, page 131 of Part II, replying to a question by Senator Knowland:

"When Mr. De Sola's name first came to my attention this past week I recalled in a vague sort of way that his testimony had been invaluable, but to check my memory I got the volumes out and read his entire testimony word for word, and I do not hesitate to say that as of that period and as of that testimony, I have never read a more intelligent, articulate, careful, and balanced testimony before any congressional committee. Following this, on the same page, he adds that De Sola's testimony 'was largely about the Federal Writer's project. He was the first of the witnesses before the Dies' committee who exposed the fact, which was later completely substantiated, that the Federal Writer's Project in New York City was heavily infiltrated with Communists. He named those. Their names are in the record. Since the time of his testimony I

INTERNATIONAL MATERIALS CONFERENCE ILLEGAL, OPERATES AS INTERNATIONAL
"CARTEL"

By Congressman John T. Wood of Idaho

A Committee of 70 Republican Congressmen brought in a report on June 15, charging the International Materials Conference is an illegal organization which has never been authorized by Congress. This international organization, while sporting a new name, is the same agency of which I have written several times in former "Impressions". It is operating as an international "Cartel" and is composed of members from the United States and all of the other countries; friends and foes alike. The American members are appointed by the State Department, which is practically integrating the whole cabal. Our members are not confirmed by the Senate, and we have no control over them whatever.

John T. Wood

They are given carte blanche to divide all our goods with foreign countries, including the Iron-Curtain countries, including wheat; other agricultural products; scarce, strategic materials (though we receive a small amount of such goods from them in return); manufactured articles; steel; coal; etc.

The Defense Production Administration and the Department of Agriculture have been ordered to supply everything asked for to this cartel. All I.M.C. pronouncements have the force of law and must be obeyed. No one suffers more from this than the working people; as for instance the producers of lead, copper, zinc, gold, and silver, which metals are shipped into this country with all or most of the tariffs lifted under the Reciprocal Trade Agreement, which is another treasonable injury to the American worker in itself.

United Nations agencies have also been promoting the concept of Super-Cartels like I.M.C. They now view it as a ready-made agency for imposing all-embracing controls on the world's economy. The theory of I.M.C. is a share-and-share-alike basis for distributing commodities. But, as it is being operated, the U. S. has made most of the sacrifices because we have always been Uncle Sap to the United Nations and its brood of mongrel components.

would say that his statements have been confirmed a hundred per cent—not even 99.

Ralph De Sola Knew Her As Red

In the sworn testimony before the Senate Armed Services Committee, Ralph De Sola definitely placed Anna M. Rosenberg as a Communist, stating he had talked with her several times at Communist meetings (Common Sense will mail free copy of Mr. De Sola's affidavit on request).

Dr. Matthews and Kirkpatrick

On page 137, Dr. Matthews, speaking of Mr. Kirkpatrick, another witness against Anna M. Rosenberg, stated: "If it was not said in exactly those words (regarding Anna M. Rosenberg's belonging to a communist cell) there was absolutely no doubt about the implication, because we were discussing the woman who had been recently appointed and, as we often do, were exchanging whatever information we had about the particular person . . . I simply assumed that Mr. Kirkpatrick himself personally put it (the A.M.R. record) in the file since he was charged with supervising —(abrupt stop; a senator had to leave).

The John Reed Clubs

On page 41, Mr. De Sola, having testified of meeting Anna M. Rosenberg at the John Reed Club (a Communist organization) in New York City, testified that he met there, Isadore Schneider, "one of the editors of 'New Masses.'" He added that during "about '35 and '36, he attended 15 meetings of that club. Also, significantly, that Sam Fastman, the club's financial secretary told him that the membership records of the John Reed club had been officially destroyed because many members of the club were now holding important positions in the government administration in Washington and they were afraid that the disclosure of these names . . . might be of a very bad nature . . . and destroy the usefulness of these people to the party. De Sola then read this: "a previous statement, witnessed and notarized, makes it clear that Anna Rosenberg was a member of the Communist Party and of its John Reed Club during the period when I was recruited in 1934 and to the best of my knowledge and belief so remained until I left in 1937; and unless she can prove to the contrary, is still a secret member of this subversive and un-American pro-Soviet conspiracy." Then testifying, he said: "I have been told that Mrs. Anna M. Rosenberg, when questioned by your committee, claimed that there were at least 40 Anna Rosenbergs in the city of New York and that the Anna Rosenberg they were talking about was a writer who lived on Sixth Avenue. Obviously if there is such a writer and she did go to the clubs, Anna Rosenberg must know her and it would be interesting to find out who she is.

Actually there were only 5 Anna Rosenbergs in New York City.

I Have Never Written Anything

On page 121 Mrs. Rosenberg, replying to a question by Mr. De Sola, stated: "I re-read the Dies committee report and the Anna Rosenberg was a writer. I am not a writer. The Anna Rosenberg signed herself as Anna Rosenberg; I have always signed myself as Anna M. Rosenberg; I have never written anything, never been a member of a writer's club, and no one knows better than you.

Senator Russell: The committee will come to order. Gentlemen: I am this morning in receipt of a letter from Mr. J. B. Matthews which I wish to call to your attention. My office informed me Mr. Matthews tried to telephone me yesterday, but I was quite busy.

Senator Knowland: Is that the same Dr. Matthews who testified here?

Senator Russell: Yes, the same Dr. Matthews. This letter is addressed to me (reading):

"I have heard this morning from Mr. Kirkpatrick that I erred seriously in assuming he was still in the FBI at the time of his conversation with Mr. William Harris. Mr. Kirkpatrick informs me that the conversation took place after he had severed his connection with the Bureau. The exact or approximate date of their conversation is unknown to me . . . I was pleased to see that you informed the press that my testimony was deemed "not damaging" to Mrs. Rosenberg. I certainly had no intention that it should be I tried to state as emphatically as possible that the issue of Mrs. Rosenberg's being identified as the Anna Rosenberg of the John Reed Club was entirely beyond my competence or facilities to determine and that only an agency with such facilities as the FBI could settle that issue . . . I would never have volunteered before your committee, since I did not consider that I had anything to offer in the way of useful testimony" . . . (Here follows a discussion by the committee about putting this letter in the record. Senator Cain then adds:

Could he be brought in here and then asked under oath if that is correct? I have reason to believe that is not correct. I have been told by a pretty reliable character that this fellow has been processing written documents claiming that Mrs. Rosenberg is a Communist and all the rest, and here he is claiming no such thing. (End of quote, ENS).

It seems a fair conclusion that the one who made this report to Senator Cain was a person in whom he had confidence also that in the interim Dr. Matthews had been approached by some one who would pressure him to change his testimony. In other words what Gerald Smith printed as to what Dr. Matthews wrote to the man in the office of Fulton Lewis must have been taken from the FBI records.

This situation also warrants my repeating that Anna M. Rosenberg did not omit, from lack of memory, that she wrote for the New Masses. That omission was made because it disclosed her true colors and gives credence to the testimony of Mr. De Sola.

In the Cross and Flag for March, 1951, page 20, the editor, writing of the foregoing hearings, states: ". . . after the hearings were over, and Mr. De Sola, the chief witness, had been threatened with perjury indictments because his testimony confirmed the Matthews memo, a sensational letter came to the surface. It was a letter that Dr. Matthews had written to the Fulton Lewis office. In the meantime Fulton Lewis became scared and had deserted us and had repudiated some of us over the radio. This was due to the terrific pressure that was brought on Mr. Lewis by the Jews, and his conduct has now demonstrated that as much as Mr. Lewis hates communism he does not hate it as much as he fears the Jews.

In Mr. Lewis' office is a man by the name of C. Russell Turner, Jr., and to this Mr. Turner, Dr. Matthews wrote a letter some time prior to the committee hearings and before I had even arrived in Washington. The letter reads as follows:

November 27, 1950.

Dear Russ:

Here are the photostats, together with a memorandum on the Communist organizations with which A.R., has, according to public records, been affiliated.

On the question of whether or not the A.R. of these documents is the A.R. I can report that there is not the slightest doubt. I have made exhaustive inquiries and investigations as a result I have established beyond any possibility of dispute that there has been only one Anna Rosenberg sufficiently known in public life to be listed with the well-known names in these documents, and that there has not been any other Anna Rosenberg of comparable fame, stature, notoriety, or what have you during the past 25 years. One of my sources is a Jewish organization which knows about these things.

Ben Mandel (an employee of the House Committee on un-American Activities) tells me that he told you that Anna Rosenberg

Furthermore there is in the files of the FBI a report on Anna Rosenberg which is literally startling, but of course, I could not substantiate it.

The editor of Cross and Flag comments as follows:

"If this letter is correct then Dr. Matthews did not tell all before the committee. If this letter is not correct, then Dr. Matthews should do some explaining. This letter in itself should be sufficient cause for Anna Rosenberg to be indicted for perjury, and if Matthews did confirm this under oath and it isn't true, then he should be

New Masses

The New York Public Library has bound copies of the Communist publication NEW MASSES from Volume 1 to 66, with the exception of volume 35 which has been in the office of the District Attorney for many months and urgent requests for its return seem to be ignored. As a matter of possible interest, we noted articles as follows: March, 1931, Can you make out their voices, by Whittaker Chambers; April number, 1931, quote "Whittaker Chambers was former staff member of Daily Worker; December, 1932, article by Corliss Lamont; Oct. 29, 1935: Are Jews Communists? by James Warman Wise; Feb. 9, 1937 and Mar. 23, 1937, articles by Harold Rosenberg; Oct. 24, 1934: "Jews Who Financed Anti-Semitism," by John L. Spivak, p. 10; May 20, 1935; "Who will Lead The Revolution." Earl Browder; Aug. 24, 1937, article by Archibald MacLeish; July 27, 1943: "J. E. Davies' Second Mission to Moscow"; June 28, 1944, p.1: "Road to Berlin" and pp. 8-9: Meet General Ike; Volume 34 ends with March 19, 1940; Vol. 36 begins with June 25, 1940, hence Vol. 35, starts with March 26 and ends with June 18, 1940. Vol. 45, Dec. 8, 1942, pp 8 to 10, carries a "Symposium" naming as contributors, Wm L. Batt, Rep. Emanuel Celler, Henry Pratt Fairchild, Robt. W. Kenny, Mary Anderson, Angel Geraudy, Albert E. Kahn and Anna M. Rosenberg. Two of these eight were editors of New Masses. It should be noted that a symposium "is a collection of comments or opinions brought together; especially brief articles or essays on the same subject by different writers, as in a magazine"—(this time New Masses, author.) The Anna Rosenberg here mentioned is not the one fabricated for the Senate Committee from the hallucinations of this real Anna M. Rosenberg. Although she is recorded on page 121 of the Senate Committee's report as testifying under oath: "I have never written anything," the contribution by her in this symposium gives her official position as writer.

In the issue of Dec. 22, 1942, the Staff of New Masses is given as Editor, Joseph North, Associate editors, Frederick V. Fields, A. B. Magil, Ruth McKinney, John Stuart, Herbert Goldfink; Washington Editor, Bruce Minton:

Vol. 60, July 16, 1946: Is World Government the Answer? by Joshua Strauss. Vol. 61, Dec. 17, 1946, Budenz Is A Liar? Gerhart Eisler. Vol. 63, April 19, 1947; Marshall's Strategy. Anna Rosenberg Admits She Is A Writer

On page 21, of a "Reprint" of the hearing of November 29, 1950, Mrs. Rosenberg stated: "I have a full list of the organizations to which I have belonged, and of everything I have written . . . and would very much like to submit it for the record. It may be helpful. On page 22 we have that list: "Author of chapter, Social Security and the National Purpose, in family in a World at War 1942.

Author of A New Industrial Citizenship for America's Workers, in Factory Management and Maintenance, August, 1948.

Wrote jointly of the reports of the Commission on Industrial Relations in Great Britain and Sweden.

Wrote jointly reports and studies of the New York State Constitutional Convention Committee. Wrote numerous articles on NRA, Social Security, and Labor, for magazines and trade papers.

A NEW PARTY

The worst blow that the patriots of this country have had to endure since 1776 was the naming of Ike Eisenhower as Republican Standard bearer. The appointing of Lilienthal and Anna Rosenberg was bad enough, but this is just too much.

It may be the thing that will awaken the people and it may be well that it happened this way. We have stated on numerous occasions that there are no more political parties. Since the advent of the New Deal, the Jewish Invisible Government represented by Kuhn Loeb Company (financiers of the Russian Revolution and backers of every Red and pink movement that exists in the United States) has taken complete charge of our government.

The few leaders who have spent their time and money in fighting this satanic program, have watched the Invisible Government maneuver us into World War I and II and now the Korean war, as the world moves closer to complete slavery under Jew rule. The Invisible Government has moved step by step in its satanic program (NRA, WPA, LENDLEASE, PEARL HARBOR, BRETON WOODS, YALTA, UNITED NATIONS, ATLANTIC PACT LILIENTHAL and ANNA ROSENBERG)

ANNA M. ROSENBERG

Wrote For New School For Social Research

Gave courses on collective bargaining at New School for Social Research, 1940. Page 22 also gives a long list of the organizations to which Mrs. Rosenberg belonged and among them it is noted: "Member of Film Council of America. Mention is made of this because of the startling revelations which were made in a book titled: "Moscow over Hollywood." (Salem Bader.)

It seems a proper question to ask why a report prepared with such meticulous care should have omitted what appeared in the New Masses of September 8, 1942, under the name of "Anna M. Rosenberg, New York Regional Director, War Man Power Committee." It is noted that on page 22 of the above named Senate report, that the fourth one named in that list of 39 organizations, is the "Regional Director, War Man Power Commission, 1942 to 1945. The first date is the year that she made that contribution to New Masses. May we ask if she has a convenient or a faulty memory?

I ask the reader to compare the above with the sworn statement she made as shown on page No. 121 of the report: "I have never written anything." It is not difficult to believe that Anna Rosenberg, who has supervised the hiring of more than a million people in fifteen Governmental Departments since she was appointed Assistant Secretary of Defense, is the same Anna Rosenberg, that Ralph De Sola knew in the Communist organization. Where is the other Anna Rosenberg. The FBI can find other people. Why not the other Anna Rosenberg? Have they looked for her in the Pentagon Building?

until it has now reached its crowning achievement in the naming of Ike Eisenhower as the Republican nominee. The JEW Plan (now almost completed) is to rule through the Jew-nited Nations, which is the doorway to the World Government that will make every gentile a Jewish slave.

One must remember that almost everything that happens to Nations of international importance is a Marxist move. Marxism is Jewish and Communism, which is but one phase of Marxism, is Jewish. Two official Government documents bear witness to this: the Senate Overmann Report and the Sisson Report to Woodrow Wilson. According to these official documents, the Jewish Banking firm of Warburg (Kuhn Loeb Company) financed the Russian Revolution. But here is the rub.

According to the reliable observers of the 1930s, and more recently, according to the testimony (Nov. 1949), of the widow of the German, General Ludendorff, THE SAME WARBURG BANKING FIRM FINANCED HITLER!

Khazars Take Over America

With the advent of the New Deal, the floodgates, which our Founding Fathers so wisely kept closed to protect the young Republic from Asiatic hordes, were thrown wide open. Marxists Asiatic Khazars poured into this country by the millions. Many of them had their pockets lined with American dollars, which accounts for their taking over the Main Street property in many towns. These Zionist Marxists wormed their way into key positions in every branch of our Government AND HOLD THEM TODAY. With the New Deal pouring millions of dollars into corporations owned by members of the same tribe, it was easy for them to take over.

These Marxists then proceeded to do on a National scale what they had been doing of an International scale. Pitting Christian against Christians in war, they have succeeded in taking over both political parties.

The two most powerful men in this Invisible clique are Bernard M. Baruch and Felix Frankfurter. They are the top men in the Jewish Kehillah, which runs the whole political show. Baruch holds the whip over Congress while Frankfurter controls the White House. Remember, it was Baruch who said: (according to an Associate Press Dispatch from London April 5th, 1945), "And one reason I am over here is to hold the big stick over the big boys to make damn sure they're not going to foul up the peace." At a banquet not too long ago, Frankfurter admitted: "The real rulers of a nation are undiscoverable."

At the Democratic Convention Jake Arvey, the Jew Representative of the Invisible Government in Illinois, where he rules politics, had his man Adlai Stevenson nominated. This was highly satisfactory with Herbert Lehman from New York. Lehman, although parading as a Democrat, is Tom Dewey's Boss.

In the coming election America faces the worst crisis in its history. As America moves, so moves the world. Therefore it is a world crisis and must be viewed as such. We who would try to remedy it must realize the full import of our responsibility. What took place at the Republican National Convention is proof enough that the New Deal Marxists have taken over. Eisenhower, who is a 100 per cent New Dealer, WAS NOMINATED ON NEW DEAL MONEY. No hope for the solution of the weighty problems facing America is to be found in either major party. No thinking person will dispute this statement. Consequently, millions of Americans are stunned and without hope.

However, we believe there is a solution. FORM A THIRD PARTY. If men, with sufficient financial backing, would start such a movement, we believe it would grow like wildfire. It would give new hope to the American people and could easily be the balance of power that would swing the election, if we have one.

ORDER FROM COMMON SENSE

There is an abundance of evidence that it is intended to be a permanent organization which will outlive the present emergency and facilitate our entry into the planned Communist World State. I have been met with considerable scepticism in my former reports on this iniquity, but inasmuch as all our Congressional offices are getting daily reports on its programs, no one can now question its reality.

The United Nations has nothing else to do but confuse the American people as fast as they become acquainted with the treasonable machinations of one of its "Associated Agencies", by reaching down into its "bag of tricks" to extricate another agency with vastly increased powers, sporting another name. After all, there are 4,700 of these "neuter gender" folk in the group of its backers in Washington, and they are well paid to keep the stockpile of "tricks" well filled for emergency use. And all of these American-Destroying enterprises are extra-legal and Un-American.

GREAT DESIGN IS

ROTHCHILD DREAM

Any well informed person knows that the Fabian-Communist "Great Design" which aims to destroy our representative republican form of government and its liberties under the guise of "peace", is the ROTHCHILD dream in a new dress.

Is John Foster Dulles a true Republican? Or, is he of the cabal of the high-sounding Fabian-Communist front, the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace, and Alger Hiss?

Re: The World Council and Federal Council meeting held at Delaware, Ohio, we find in "The Individualist" of June 14, 1947, published by Charles W. Phillips, editor, attorney-at-law, news analyst and profound student of the "Great Design" that: among the 13 "requisite principles for peace" which were submitted by Chairman John Foster Dulles are to be found such objectives as world government, strong immediate limitations on national sovereignty, international control of all armies and navies, an international monetary system, world wide freedom of immigration, elimination of tariff and quota restrictions and an international bank. Remember that the goal set forth at the last important meeting of the World Council promoters held at Cambridge, England was "to extend to the world scene the procedures established in the United States by the Federal Council of Churches' Commission for a just and durable peace." According to John Foster Dulles who is its main American spokesman, was outlined as follows: "We are aiming at top organization, international in character, to coordinate the thinking and action of Protestant denominations through their national organization. We will attempt to make it do for religion what labor does through the World Federation of Trade Unions."

("New York Times," July 30, 1946.)

Reminding that it is high time to "Let the people know the truth and they will save the country." What did Patrick Henry, Paul Revere, Thomas Jefferson, John Hancock, and the richest man in America, humble enough to get down on his knees at Valley Forge do for this country? In this light, I beg you to heed the advice of far-sighted and wise George Washington when he was president of the Constitutional Convention: "Let us raise a standard to which the wise and honest can repair;" and in his Farewell Address: "friendly relations with all, entanglements with none." For the life of our republic is at stake.

VAN HYNING TRIAL

POSTPONED UNTIL SEPT.

The trial of the State of Illinois versus Mrs. Van Hyning of Chicago (i.e., the Jew versus Mrs. Van Hyning) has been set for September 30th. To make the case further without precedent, to this date, in spite of three successive demands, the defendant has not been furnished by the Prosecuting attorney with a copy of Information, a detailed statement of the charges listed! Only a moron could fail to see that this is a Jew developed case. The very charge on which Mrs. Van Hyning is held is that of "libeling the Jewish race." The prosecuting attorney is a Jew. The first Judge to handle the case was a Jew. So it is obvious that the Jews are extremely interested in this case.

PROTOCOLS SHOW PLAN FOR WORLD GOVERNMENT

Republished from: "The Individualist", Chas.
W. Phillips, Editor, P. O. Box 373,
Lincoln 1, Nebraska

The major issue which is facing us is still world government. It is the final goal of most of the collectivists. The fact that it also happens to be endorsed by many idealists who honestly think that it is the only answer to the world's war problem, will not in any way ease its burden once it is fastened on us.

When we started to devote more bulletin space to the world government issue some ten years ago, it was quite difficult to make people believe it constituted anything but an imaginary threat. It is different today. The United Nations is a going concern—on our money—and its power and influence is being rapidly extended from day to day. Its ultimate goal, according to its promoters, is world government in every important sense of the word.

Even though it is not openly declared as such, the world government issue is the main issue in the coming national election. It will be a miracle if the conservative elements in the Republican Party are able to prevent the nomination of an international New Dealer on the Republican ticket. As we have pointed out before, the international campaign for world government has gathered its followers from both the Republican and Democratic Parties since its propaganda was directed at all professions, creeds and parties. Eleven years ago it was able to secure the nomination of Wendell L. Willkie on the Republican ticket even though he had previously been described as a "life-long Democrat without a record for vote getting" and "a former Socialist who has gone big business."

The world government proponents have been so successful in infiltrating both major political parties that we are apt to participate in another national election campaign in which the only difference between them will be the party labels.

MAINLY AN ECONOMIC ISSUE

The economic school of thought followed by the so-called liberals in the business world, the ones who were the most ardent spokesmen for Mr. Willkie in the past and General Eisenhower now, believed that political sovereignties, when they interfered with the proposed job of setting up an "integrated world economy" should give way. When you closely examine their arguments for world government; you find that the accent is on economic internationalism and not political internationalism. The fact that national political sovereignties all have to give way in varying degrees to an

In April of 1945 there assembled at San Francisco, at the invitation of a group of self-appointed uplifters, among them Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt, a motley group of bankrupt financiers of empires, spavined dukes, asthmatic earls and pauperized princes, with the stated purpose of offering the world a grand new plan of salvation. Financed on a cost-plus basis by Uncle Sam, the affair was elaborately staged with the assembly hall decorated with tone of orchids from Central America, roses from Britain, lilies from France, tulips from the Netherlands and lotuses from India and China international political sovereignty, is only incidental and is acceptable because it is a necessary feature in what to them is the most important part of the program.

The dominant powers behind the world government promotion are mainly interested in its economic aspects. The political implications appeal to the reformers and the pacifists whose zeal furnishes the crusaders from among the ranks of the common people and whose sincerity and integrity cannot be questioned. This does not necessarily mean that the sincerity of those primarily interested in the economic phase can always be doubted. They just happen to live in a different world from the rest of us in that their interests and perspectives are international. This makes it easy for them to accept the claim that the world would be better off if the production, processing and distribution of all foods and raw materials could be planned on a world-wide scale through a closely integrated one-world economy.

They all assume that international collectivism—for different reasons which are not all held in common by them all, is the answer to the world's troubles.

ON COMMON GROUND

When we get to the economic goals of the realm of world planning in which they can all meet on common ground. The drawing-room socialists, the communists revolutionists and the international industrial tycoons can all agree on a common objective even though they might differ on the method of reaching it and its use after once becoming established.

For instance, without going into a detailed interpretation of Marxism note that one of the early editions of Webster's Unabridged Dictionary defines communism as:

"Communism, . . . The reorganizing of society, or the doctrine that it should be reorganized, by regulating property, industry, and the sources of livelihood," etc.

Of course there is more to it but one of the main factors is the "reorganizing of society" through regulation. This is in connection with communism. What about something a little milder, like socialism?

According to the 1920 "Lusk Report" which consists of four large volumes compiled by a Special Committee of the New York Legislature on "Revolutionary Radicalism":

"Socialism in its exact and scientific sense is based on certain definite principles, and not on various states of mind. It has a theory of both industrial, and political society that involves a radical reconstruction of the present world, making its political subordinate to its economic or industrial organization. . . ." (From p.44, Vol. 1, underlining added).

According to Funk & Wagnalls dictionary, "revolution" is defined as "extensive or radical change in governmental, social or other conditions, relations, methods or ideas, or the means by which it is accomplished." While the definition is not confined to a description of economic changes alone, it must be remembered that you cannot completely revise the economic system without affecting a corresponding change in government and social relations.

What about the international industrialist to whom we referred on the last page as also having so much in common with the drawing room socialist as well as with the communist? We discussed this once before some ten years ago in a two-bulletin series entitled "Revolution and the World State." Without bothering to use quotes, some of the material will be repeated. Even though you read it then, the chances are that you will not have remembered too much of it for the past ten years.

One does not usually think of practical minded business men as revolutionists but it just happens that there are certain types of international business men who are contemplating both the economic reorganization and a world state. With them, it is strictly a business proposition.

WORLD GONE BLIND AND LIGHTS GROWING DIM

Before these huge banks of flowers, in which were concealed tommy guns with live ammunition, the muzzles pointing at his vest buttons, Uncle Sam stood up and took vows that made him the lawful spouse of Miss United Nations. The ceremony was under a new dispensation called a charter—a treaty, in fact, that is over and above our own constitution.

Miss United Nations was old when she was Miss League of Nations two decades and more before. She certainly was no younger in 1945, but beauticians, dressmakers and corsetieres did their work well, and the bride was a thing of superlative beauty, according to the millions of words of press reports that crowded the wires.

Reeling from the economic losses of a second world war, with hearts bleeding at our losses of multiplied thousands of our bravest and best men, with our minds stunned and our spirits abashed at the huge task of recovery that confronted us, we were concerned with the main idea—peace—and gave little thought to the details of the San Francisco proceeding.

To oil the machinery for this mass attack upon the orderly procedure of the affairs of this nation, shiploads of wine, rum, brandy, cognac, vodka and bourbon were brought to the assembly hall, and perhaps had some effect upon the lurid stories that went out praising the beauty of the bride. But concerned as we were, torn with grief, we did not laugh at the press releases, even when they emphazied the virginity of the bride, and the promises of peace.

The charter itself was written by Alger Hiss, with Molotov, Stettinius and Harry White (Weiss) Under Secretary of Treasury who committed suicide three days after being exposed as a Communist spy. Couriers who filled the ink pots and carried the copy paper—and the cocktails—are too many to name. You can find most of the names on the documents of those organizations that have been cited for activities bordering upon the subversive.

Maybe Uncle Sam didn't have to say "I do." But remember those tommy guns in the flowers. Uncle Sam was never mad at anybody, and at the time his spirit was sparked with love of peace and hope for a better life. His heart, in fact was big enough to hold a love for everybody. Naturally he didn't want his vest sprayed with bullets at the inauguration of this great mass movement for peace.

When the press dispatches reached the hinterlands, fervent prayers were said for the success of this glorious movement. But not the assembly itself. Prayers were forbidden in the public assembly, and if any were said in the privacy of hotel rooms they have gone unheard to this day. God was shut out from the beginning, and has never been admitted.

No progeny has blessed this unholy union. But calm yourself. When Uncle Sam was wedded to this woman whose beauty aroused the writers of press reports to an ecstasy of alcoholic endeavor he took upon himself the task of paying the bills for herself and her relatives, and they have been showing up in every corner of the globe. He built her a mansion in New York and a country palace in Lake Placid, and now pays all the bills for taxis and trains as they commute from here to yonder, intent upon their tasks.

Miss United Nations was admittedly a beauty at her marriage, but come into her boudoir now. Her glass eye sets upon the mantle and glares at the visitor with disdain. Her head is bare and her raven tresses are draped over Uncle Sam's picture which hangs cockeyed upon the wall. Her falsies rest atop the floor lamp and her elastic stockings and rubber girdles desecrate the couches.

Her wooden leg stands in the corner by the coat rack. Her pearly teeth repose in a glass of detergent, while without them her cheeks, also now devoid of rouge, look like flapjacks cooked on a cold stove. The family bible is open atop the coffee table, and is stained with beer and wine. Empty bottles are underfoot with empty cosmetic jars, and the rug is a beautiful hash brown with stains of rum and brandy.

Uncle Sam's heart is big. Perhaps it can embrace the whole world. But it appears that he over-estimated the size of his purse. Already, mainly on the account of this ill-advised union, his debts are such that every citizen owes about $7,000, while the average yearly income of all citizens is but a percentage of that sum. And yet we have hundreds of citizens who should be at home at work, if they can do any useful work, out scouting for backward lands that we can add to the list.

This idea of one world, hailed as new and modern, was old when Marc Anthony added Egypt to the Roman empire. And the idea of one world was almost a reality then. At the time the rest of the world was cut off.

But so long as Rome had an army it was a Roman army. Never in Roman history did one of the Caesar's field marshalls have to submit to the indignity of asking assemblies of frustrated diplomats and pauperized princes for permission to move his troops. The Roman general fought for Rome and for Rome alone, and made the banners of Rome respected because he lowered it for no other.

The sole accomplishment of United Nations, maintained at so great a cost, has been to involve us in a police action that is costing us still more money. It is a sacrilege to speak of the lives of our boys in the same paragraph—but they are dead. They are crippled and maimed. And we have repaid them for their efforts with compromise after compromise. A compromise with avowed and determined enemies is not compromise. It is rather a surrender, abject and ignominious.

position. They are not revolutionary minded in the usual sense of the word. They simply represent the restrictions placed upon their international operations by national boundaries and the exporting and importing regulations of the different governments.

Their revolutionary viewpoint can be readily understood and appreciated by digging out the old May, 1941 issue of "Fortune" magazine. This particular magazine is published by Henry R. Luce's "Time, Inc." and Russell W. Davenport who was the campaign manager picked to ride herd on Wendell L. Willkie in the latter's 1940 presidential campaign, is chairman of its board of directors. In this particular issue was an editorial entitled "The Future of U. S. Foreign Policy" and underneath the title was a caption which read: "TO ESCAPE THE BASIC CONFLICT IN MODERN SOCIETY WE MUST ADOPT A REVOLUTIONARY PRINCIPLE." This was a socialist premises re-stated.

What is this "basic conflict" to which the editorial in the Time-Life-Fortune axis referred? Reading further in the editorial we learn that the "basic conduct" was interpreted for the readers of the editorial by quoting an excerpt from Prof. J. B. Condliffe's book "The Reconstruction of World Trade." Here is the excerpt from Condliffe which was quoted in the editorial, read it very carefully:

Industrialism and Nationalism are in sharp conflict. Economic activity more and more transcends national boundaries. State regulation penetrates more and more profoundly into every aspect of economic life. The conflict between these two opposing tendencies might well be dramatized as the resistance opposed by sovereign states to the creation of a world economic order. . . . (From pages 16-7 of the book found on page 54 of the May, 1941 issue of "Fortune.")

Could anything be plainer? The big trouble today, we are told is that the nations, by striving to hang on to their own national entities, are interfering with the "creation of a world economic order." That is what the communists are complaining about, also. It is also the great sorrow of the drawing room socialists who realize that world planning cannot succeed until the United States, the world's greatest producer, is deprived of its national sovereignty. Remember the definitions of socialism and communism on the preceding page. That explains the drive on isolationism and the isolationist.

It also explains what the real issue has been in the realm of foreign policy and what the Republican Party is up against in this coming election in trying to get out from under the control of the eastern internationalist who by now is almost in full control of both major political parties.

For which in blood we pay!"
Arise, American parents, arise!

JEWISH WORLD STRATEGY IS NOW MADE PLAIN

MARXISTS PLAN TO CONFISCATE GENTILE WEALTH BY NATIONALIZATION

The answer to this apparent anomaly is simply that Communism (and its preceding phase Socialism) are not anti-Capitalist at all. All that happens is that the Jews take away all the wealth from the Gentiles by Nationalization or by State Decrees (the economic conscription of Baruch in the U.S.A. for example) on the pretence of giving it out to the workers, but actually they keep it for themselves. Communism can be defined as a confidence trick whereby Jews acquire the nation's wealth by pretending to nationalize it for the workers.

Former Ambassador Admits New Bourgeoisie Are Jews

(Mr. Theodor Butenko, Soviet diplomat to Rumania who fled to Italy on being recalled to the "Workers' Paradise" admitted this openly in an article in the GIORNALE D'ITALIA in its issue of 17th February, 1938, as follows:

"The Bolsheviks had promised to give the workers the industries, mines, etc., and to make them 'masters of the country.' In reality, never has the working class suffered such privations as those brought about by the so-called epoch of 'socialization.' In place of the former capitalists a new 'bourgeoisie' has been formed, composed of 100 per cent Jews. Only an insignificant number of former Jewish capitalists left Russia after the storm of the Revolution. All the other Jews residing in Russia enjoy the special protection of Stalin's most intimate adviser—the Jew, Lazare Kaganovitch. All the big industries and factories, war products, railways, big and small trading, are virtually and effectively in the hands of Jews, while the working class figures only in the abstract as the 'Patroness of economy.' The wives and families of Jews possess luxurious cars and country houses, spend the summer in the best climatic or bathing resorts in the Crimea and Caucasus, are dressed in costly Astrakhan coats; they wear jewels . . . gold bracelets and rings, send to Paris for their clothes and articles of luxury. Meanwhile the laborer, deluded by the Revolution, drags on a famished existence."

Rakosi—Dictator of Hungary

Rakosi, Jew Communist Dictator of Hungary, in a violent attack on the Hungarian working-class for slackness of May 31st, 1949 confirmed in effect that Communism was a confidence trick whereby Jews acquired the nation's wealth by pretending to nationalize it for the workers in the following words (reported in the London TIMES of 3rd June, 1949):

"Some workers still believed that Socialism (the regime in all Communist countries including Russia—Nationalist Information Bureau) implied 'some sort of primitive equality,' and expected the shares in factories taken over and divided among themselves."

(Yet before the Red Army put him into power in Hungary, Rakosi had for years been telling the Hungarian workers that he would make everything equal under Communism and take away the shares from the wicked factory owners and give them to the workers).

London Daily Telegraph

The London DAILY TELEGRAPH of February 26th, 1951, reported:

"Slansky, Secretary-General of the Communist Party (in Czech-slovakia), in the course of a pep talk to factory foremen, told them they must tighten up discipline and increase production at all costs. 'Make them (the workers) work' he said, 'Make them produce'. Who for, the Workers may well ask? Jews like Slansky?"

Anti-Semitism Prosecuted in USSR

All that happens under Communism is that the State takes over everything—all wealth goes to the State, all profits go to the State, and everyone works for the State. But who is the State? The State in Marxist countries is only the Jewish minority and the Jewish minority is protected by special legislation making anti-Semitism a crime punishable by death, the London DAILY WORKER of May 20th 1947 boasted that even anti-Semitism was a criminal offense in the new 'Poland', and the great 'Mr. Israelson' Stalin, himself, was quoted in the AMERICAN DAILY WORKER of 12th December 1938 as saying:

"In the USSR Anti-Semitism is strictly prosecuted as a phenomenon profoundly hostile to the Soviet system."

JESUS OF NAZARETH

The following is a description of the person of Jesus Christ, as it was found in an ancient manuscript sent by Publius Lentulus, President of Judea, to the Senate of Rome:

Christ Knocking at The Door

"There lives at this time in Judea a man of singular character, whose name is Jesus Christ. The barbarians esteem him a prophet, but his followers adore him as the immediate offspring of the Immortal God. He is endowed with such unparalleled virtue as to call back the dead from their graves, and to heal every kind of disease with a word or touch. His person is tall and elegantly shaped—his aspect amiable, reverend. His hair flows in those beautiful shades which no united colors can match falling in graceful curls below his ears, agreeably crouching on his shoulders, and parting on the crown of his head like the head dress of the sect of Naines."

"His forehead is smooth and large, his cheeks without spot save that of a lovely red; his nose and mouth are formed with exquisite symmetry; his beard is thick and suitable to the hair of the head, reaching a little below his chin, and parting in the middle a little like a fork; his eyes are bright, clear and serene. He rebukes with majesty, counsels with mildness, and invites with the most tender and persuasive language. His whole address, whether in word or deed, being elegant, grave and strictly characteristic of so exalted a being. No man has seen him laugh, but the whole world beheld him weep frequently; and so persuasive are his tears that none can refrain from joining in sympathy with him. He is very moderate and wise. In short, whatever this phenomena may turn out in the end, he seems at present a man, for excellent beauty and divine perfection, every way surpassing the children of men."

EXCERPTS OF A LETTER RECEIVED FROM PHILA.

I just came back from Europe. The people there believe strange things about us. They believe that the negro is the true American. They also believe the negro is a slave and persecuted. They often think that the whites sit back and live solely on the work of the negro. They say they will always love and pity the poor American Negro over the way he is tortured. The only way they can believe this is from the Jewish and other mongrelization propaganda delivered by people like Mrs. Roosevelt.

The worst thing I encountered in Europe was the following: I was on a ship that delivered nearly 10,000 tons of coal to France. The cost was about $28.00 per ton, all paid for by us. When the ship was about discharged, many tons of coal had been spilled on the decks between the hatches and the gunwales. One would assume that every ounce would be carefully cleaned up and taken ashore. Having seen poor women picking up grains of coal that had blown over the fence and spending a full day to gather a pound or so, I could not imagine one pound being wasted. However, all the many tons of coal were pushed over the side of the ship into the Seine. While the coal handlers pushed this coal over the side, they sang out "There goes the tax money of Uncle Sam's fools." Then when the ship left, a pilot came aboard to guide it down the Seine, and he told us that after we leave, much of the coal is reloaded onto French and Polish ships and sent to Poland, an Iron Curtain country.

All I see is our money being wasted and given as bribe money. They tell us they want so much or else. The Jews run the country and all the professions and business is permeated with Jews. We are watching our white race being sold out by the Jews. The teachers preach this theory and one only has to look around to see the fruits of their crimes. Whites cheer the blacks in every sport under the guise of Americanism, but it is leading us to ruin. The other day I had to chase a negro boy away from a white girl. Both were about 13 and they were talking as a white couple might, sitting very closely. Here in Pennsylvania white and black are taught to mingle in every walk of life, from the first grade of school to the movies, lunch rooms, shows, night clubs, cafes and now even in the YMCA dances.

If God wanted white to mix with black, I am sure he would not have created them of different colors. It is almost too late to save us from the fate of Central and South America. I can not sit idly by and see the white race destroyed. The Jew wants this so he will have less trouble in taking over America.

CURRENT WORLD EVENTS DISPROVE PRESENT CRY OF "FORGERY"

Protocol Number 5

What form of administrative rule can be given to communities in which corruption has penetrated everywhere, communities where riches are attained only by the clever surprise tactics of semi-swindling tricks; where looseness reigns; where morality is maintained by penal measures and harsh laws but not by voluntarily accepted principles; where the feelings toward faith and country are obliterated by cosmopolitan convictions? What form of rule is to be given to these communities if not that despotism which I shall describe to you later? We shall create an intensified centralization of government in order to grip in our hands all the forces of the community. We shall regulate mechanically all the action of the political life of our subjects by new laws. These laws will withdraw one by one all the indulgences and liberties which have been permitted by the Goyim, and our kingdom will be distinguished by a despotism of such magnificent proportions as to be at any moment and in every place in a position to wipe out any Goyim who oppose us by deed or word.

We shall be told that such a despotism as I speak of is not consistent with the progress of these days, but I will prove to you that it is.

In the times when the peoples looked upon kings on their thrones as on a pure manifestation of the will of God, they submitted without a murmur to the despotic power of kings; but from the day when we insinuated into their minds the conception of their own rights they began to regard the occupants of thrones as mere ordinary mortals. The holy unction of the Lord's Anointed has fallen from the heads of kings in the eye of the people, and when we also robbed them of their faith in God the might of power was flung upon the streets into the place of public proprietorship and was seized by us.

We Will Direct Goyim by Clever Verbiage

Moreover, the art of directing masses and individuals by means of cleverly manipulated theory and verbiage, by regulations of life in common and all sorts of other quirks, in all which the Goyim understand nothing, belongs likewise to the specialists of our administrative brain. Reared on analysis, observation, on delicacies of fine calculation, in this species of skill we have no rivals, any more than we have either in the drawing up of plans of political actions and solidarity.

We Have Fostered Race Hatred

For A Time Perhaps We Might Be Successfully Dealt With By A Coalition Of The GOYIM Of All The World: but from this danger we are secured by the discord existing among them whose roots are so deeply seated that they can never now be plucked up. We have set one against another the personal and national reckonings of the Goyim, religious and race hatreds, which we have fostered into a huge growth in the course of the past twenty centuries. This is the reason why there is not one state which would anywhere receive support if it were to raise its arm, for every one of them must bear in mind that any agreement against us would be unprofitable to itself. We are too strong—there is no evading our power. The Nations Can Not Come To Even An Inconsiderable Private Agreement Without Our Secretly Having A Hand In It.

We Have Been Chosen To Rule The Earth

Per Me Reges Regnant. "It is through me that Kings reign." And it was said by the prophets that we were chosen by God Himself to rule over the whole earth. God has endowed us with genius that we may be equal to our task. Were genius in the opposite camp it would still struggle against us, but even so a newcomer is no match for the old-established settler; the struggle would be merciless between us, such a fight as the world has never yet seen. Aye, and the genius on their side would have arrived too late. All the wheels of the machinery of all States go by the force of the engine, which is in our hands, and that engine of the machinery of States is—Gold. The science of political economy invented by our learned elders has for long past been giving royal prestige to capital.

We Must Monopolize Industry and Trade

Capital, if it is to cooperate untrammelled, must be free to establish a monopoly of industry and trade; this is already being put in execution by an unseen hand in all quarters of the world. This freedom will give political force to those engaged in industry, and that will help to oppress the people. Nowadays it is more important to disarm the peoples than to lead them into war; more important to us for our advantage the passions which have burst into flames than to quench their fire; more important to catch up and interpret the ideas of others to suit ourselves than to eradicate them. The Principal Object Of Our Directorate Consists In This: To Debilitate The Public Mind By Criticism; To Lead It Away From Serious Reflections Calculated To Arouse Resistance; To Distract The Forces Of The Mind Towards A Sham Fight Of Empty Eloquence.

In all ages the peoples of the world, equally with individuals have accepted words for deeds, for They Are Content With A Show and rarely pause to note, in the public arena, whether promises are followed by performance. Therefore we shall establish show institutions which will give eloquent proof of their benefit to progress.

We shall assume to ourselves the liberal physiognomy of all parties, of all directions, and we shall give that physiognomy a voice In Orators Who Will Speak So Much That They Will Exhaust The Patience Of Their Hearers And Produce An Abhorrence Of Oratory.

We Must Bewilder Public Opinion

In Order To Put Public Opinion Into Our Hands We Must Bring It Into A State Of Bewilderment By Giving Expression From All Sides To So Many Contradictory Opinions And For Such Length Of Time As Will Suffice To Make The GOYIM Lose Their Heads In The Labyrinth And Come To See That The Best Thing Is To Have No Opinion Of Any Kind In Matters Political, which it is not given to the public to understand, because they are understood only by him who guides the public. This is the first secret.

We Must Destroy The Initiative Of Goyims

The second secret requisite for the success of our government is comprised in the following: To multiply to such an extent national failings, habits, passions, conditions of civil life, that it will be impossible for anyone to know where he is in the resulting chaos, so that the people in consequence will fail to understand one another. This measure will also serve us in another way, namely, to sow discord in all parties, to dislocate all collective forces which are still unwilling to submit to us, and to discourage any kind of personal initiative which might in any degree hinder our affair. There Is Nothing More Dangerous Than Personal Initiative: if it has genius behind it, such initiative can do more than can be done by millions of people among whom we have sown discord. We must so direct the education of the Goyim communities that whenever they come upon a matter requiring initiative they may drop their hands in despairing impotence. The strain which results from freedom of action saps the forces when it meets with the freedom of another. From this collision arises grave moral shocks, disenchantments, failures. By All These Means We Shall So Wear Down The Goyim That They Will Be Compelled To Offer Us International Power Of A Nature That By Its Position Will Enable Us Without Any Violence Gradually To Absorb All The State Forces Of The World And To Form A Super-Government. In place of the rulers of today we shall set up a bogey which will be called the Super-Government Administration. Its hands will reach out in all directions like nippers and its organization will be of such colossal dimensions that it cannot fail to subdue all the nations of the world.

A RABBI SPEAKS!

FORETELLS GENTILE DOOM

END OF WHITE RACE PLANNED WITH MONGRELIZATION, END OF CHRISTIANITY DECREED

By RABBI EMANUEL RABINOVICH — REPUBLISHED BY REQUEST

The following is a speech of Rabbi Emanuel Rabinovich before a special meeting of the Emergency Council of European Rabbis in Budapest, Hungary, January 12, 1952:

"Greetings, My children! You have been called here to recapitulate the principal steps of our new program. As you know, we had hoped to have twenty years between wars to consolidate the great gains which we made from World War II, but our increasing numbers in certain vital areas is arousing opposition to us, and we must now work with every means at our disposal to precipitate World War III within five years.

The goal for which we have striven so concertedly for three thousand years is at last within our reach, and because its fulfillment is so apparent, it behooves us to increase our efforts and our caution tenfold. I can safely promise you that before ten years have passed, our race will take its rightful place in the world, with every Jew a King and every Gentile a slave! (applause from the gathering). You remember the success of our propaganda campaign during the 1930's, which aroused anti-American passions in Germany at the same time we were arousing anti-German passions in America, a campaign which culminated in the Second World War. A similar propaganda campaign is now being waged intensively throughout the world. A war fever is being worked up in Russia by an incessant anti-American barrage, while a nation wide anti-Communist scare is sweeping America. This campaign is forcing all of the smaller nations to choose between the partnership of Russia or an alliance with the United States.

Our most pressing problem at the moment is to inflame the lagging militaristic spirit of the Americans. (The failure of the Universal Military Training Act was a great setback to our plans, but we are assured that a suitable measure will be rushed through Congress immediately after the 1952 elections). The Russian, as well as the Asiatic peoples, are well under control, and offer no objections to war, but we must wait to secure the Americans. This we hope to do with the issue of anti-Semitism, which worked so well in uniting the Americans against Germany.

(We are counting heavily on reports of anti-Semitic outrages in Russia to whip up indignation in the United States and produce a front of solidarity against the Soviet power. Simultaneously, to demonstrate to Americans the reality of anti-Semitism, we will advance through new sources large sums of money to outspokenly anti-Semitic elements in America to increase their effectiveness, and we shall stage anti-Semitic outbreaks in several of their largest cities. This will serve the double purpose of exposing reactionary sectors in America, which then can be silenced, and of welding the United States into a devoted anti-Russian unit.)

Within five years, this program will achieve its objective, the Third World War, which will surpass in destruction all previous contests. Israel, of course will remain neutral, and when both sides are devastated and exhausted, we will arbitrate, sending our Control Commission into all of the wrecked countries. This war will end for all time our struggle against the Gentiles. We will openly reveal our identity with the races of Asia and Africa. I can state with assurance that the last generation of white children is now being born. Our Control Commissions will, in the interests of peace and wiping out inter-racial tensions, forbid the whites to mate with whites. The white women must cohabit with members of the dark races, and the white men with black women. Thus the white race will disappear, for mixing the dark with the white means the end of the white man, and our most dangerous enemy will become only a memory. We shall embark upon an era of ten thousand years of peace and plenty, the Pax Judaica, and our race will rule undisputed over the earth. Our superior intelligence will easily enable us to retain mastery over a world of dark peoples.

(Question from gathering): 'Rabbi Rabinovich, what about the various religions after the Third World War?'

No More Religions

RABINOVICH: There will be no more religions. Not only would the existence of a priest class remain a constant danger to our rule, but belief in an after-life would give spiritual strength to irreconcilable elements in many countries, and enable them to resist us. We will, however retain the rituals and customs of Judaism as the mark of our hereditary ruling caste, strengthening our racial laws so that no Jew will be allowed to marry outside our race, nor will any stranger be accepted by us.

Will Sacrifice Their Own People

We may have to repeat the grim days of World War II when we were forced to let the Hitlerite bandits sacrifice some of our people, in order that we may have adequate documentation and witnesses to legally justify our trial and execution of the leaders of America and Russia as war criminals, after we have dictated the peace. I am sure you will need little preparation for such a duty, for sacrifice has always been the watchword of our people, and the death of a few thousand Jews in exchange for world leadership is indeed a small price to pay.

To convince you of the certainty of that leadership, let me point out to you how we have turned all of the inventions of the white man into weapons against him. His printing presses and radios are the mouth pieces of our desires, and his heavy industry manufactures the instruments which he sends out to arm Asia and Africa against him. Our interests in Washington are greatly extending the Point Four program for developing industry in backward areas of the world so that after the industrial plants and cities of Europe and America are destroyed by atomic warfare, the whites can offer no resistance against the larger masses of the dark races, who will maintain an unchallenged technological superiority.

And so, with the vision of world victory before you, go back to your countries and intensify your good work, until that approaching day when Israel will reveal herself in all her glorious destiny as the Light of the World!"

(This transcription of Rabinovich's speech was given me by a former Bulgarian diplomat who broke with the Communist regime and reached Budapest, Hungary, where he hid out with anti-Communist friends until March. While there, he obtained a copy of this speech, and was then smuggled to Hamburg, Germany, finally making his way to this country. A gentleman in Hamburg gave him my name, and he met me and urged me to distribute this speech at once. I sincerely hope that it will give the American people a better picture of the force arrayed against them.)

BROTHERHOOD WITH ANTI-CHRIST!

BROTHERHOOD ANTI-CHRIST

By ELIZABETH DILLING

Brotherhooding with the anti-Christ is a favorite occupation of "liberal", "tolerant" Christians of all denominations, these days. Modern followers of the "Ancient and Dishonorable Order of Judas Iscariot," however, have degenerated. The founder, Judas, had the decency to feel such remorse that he went out and hung himself. In the summer and fall of 1950, the

COMMENT BY EDITOR

Regular readers of COMMON SENSE realize to what extent organized Judaism would reach to neutralize those who would oppose the Jewish program to wipe out Christianity should the Jewish plan become generally known. In Spain the Jewish Maranos infiltrated the church for 500 years becoming Priests and Bishops in order to destroy her from within.

COMMON SENSE numbers among its many clergymen readers more than 600 Catholic Priests. Clergymen who read COMMON SENSE understand this atheistic world plan, many others do not. It would certainly seem that of all people, Catholic Priests should know the tremendous responsibility they have and make it their business to study and learn who is responsible for the worldwide conspiracy against Christianity. The Jewish question is by far the most important question before the world—more important by far than the Atom Bomb, Hydrogen Bomb, War or Taxes.

Here in the United States, the Anti-Defamation League (Jewish gestapo) of the B'nai B'rith directs the clever plan to use Christians to keep Christians quiet until the plan for Jewish World Government has been completed. They use many means to trick the clergy into pulling Jewish chestnuts out of the fire. The Rabbis do not dare defend their own program and the Jews know the public will accept the Priest's word assuming he knows what he is talking about.

When Rev. Robert E. Carson, Priest of Philadelphia, enters a field in which he is thoroughly unfamiliar and takes up a subject about which he knows nothing, he must realize he is open to criticism and attack. This Priest may be a graduate historian, but if after reading the following article, he still feels he understands Judaism, two former Jews associated with COMMON SENSE or a Priest will be happy to show him how little he knows. Any self-respecting Catholic should be ashamed of a Priest who would attempt to defend Judaism which is based on hatred of Christianity and be so arrogant in his attack on a Protestant Minister. Judaism is responsible for Communism and all traitorous revolutionary movements. This Priest has allowed himself to be used as a dupe. He says he is a better Christian than Rev. Winrod—this we shall leave to Our Lord to decide. We know Rev. Winrod hates no one, but loves Jesus Christ sufficiently enough to cause him to stand up against those who would erase Christ's teachings from the earth. We challenge Father Carson to compare his record for trying to save our country from Communism to the sacrifices and many years of tireless efforts exposing Communism by Rev. Winrod. (Rev. Carson may use the columns of this paper if he so desires.)

All true Christians should unite against the organized minority who have brought Marxism to our shores, along with planned confusion, war, bankruptcy and fear for our once happy and God-fearing country.

JEWISH EXAMINER of Brooklyn ran a series of seventeen vitriolic anti-Christian articles entitled: "THE SOUL SNATCHERS." The front page headline of the July 21 number, for example, was: "BORO PAR-ENTS, RABBIS AROUSED BY TACTICS OF EVANGELISTS AMONG YOUNGER GENERATION," with the sub-headings: "SPUR EFFORTS FOR LEGAL PROTECTION," and: "THE SOUL SNATCHERS—Part Nine—CORRUPTERS OF YOUTH." The July 28th issue was headlined: "CRIMINAL CODE MAY BE INVOKED AGAINST MISSIONARY RACKET." This article proposed to prosecute any Christian missionary who converts an under-age Jew, under the statute which makes it an offense to contribute to the delinquency of a minor. In other words, Christian faith is classified as criminal moral degradation. "CAMPAIGN TO COMBAT MISSIONARIES TO BEGIN NEXT MONTH" was the front page caption Dec. 22, 1950. Yet, on the other hand, the American Jewish Year Book boasts regularly of Judaizing propagate of the Lord's house which was toward the north; and behold, there sat women weeping for Tammuz" (Eze.8:13-14). Evidently the above priest sent a copy of his letter denouncing Rev. Winrod to the JEWISH EXAMINER which prints it. To quote:

"Philadelphia — Election hate propaganda now flooding the country encountered a sharp and unexpected obstacle this week when a Catholic priest sent back some bigoted material he had received in the mail. Rev. Robert E. Carson, principal of the Southeast Catholic High School of this city, received the biased writings from an organization called 'Defenders of the Christian Faith.' The batch of hate included the currently widely circulated item, 'The Philip Dru Case,' being spread by frontiers' — Father Carson wrote:

"In today's mail I received from your group some literature with reference to Communism and the Jewish people. After reading this trash, I decided to let you know just how I feel, as a Catholic priest, about Jew-baiters and rabble-rousers like yourself."

Priest Denies Talmud Plot

"In the first place, the so-called 'facts' in your pamphlet entitled 'The Philip Dru Case' are not facts at all, but distortions and misstatements. I feel that you are fully aware of this. As a graduate historian and a holder of a Master's Degree in United States history, I know that your nonsense about the 'Talmudic Plot' to overthrow the government of this country is just, to put it succinctly, so much tripe.

"The Jewish people have by their sweat and genius done a great deal to make our country the great nation that it is. From the beginning of our history they have worked alongside Catholics and Protestants for the advancement of Americanism. You, want to exploit differences in our religion, in order to make money by selling your grubby little pamphlets and disgraceful magazine. In this diabolical work, sir, I wish you all the failure in the world. May God strike with his chastisements, and bring your efforts to set American against American to a speedy and unglorious end.

"I suggest that you who profess to be a minister of God (you are, in fact, nothing of the sort), open your Bible and read John I beginning to end. Then kneel down and acknowledge your sin, and begin to live like the Christian you pretend to be. I cherish the Christian Faith a great deal more than you do, I am sure."

This ends the article, carried as a eulogy to Rev. Carson, in the JEWISH EXAMINER, for his lambasting Rev. Gerald Winrod, publisher of DEFENDER magazine and distributor of the pamphlet "The Philip Dru Case," in its issue of the "11th day of Tammuz."

Elizabeth Dilling Writes Rev. Carson
Dear Rev. Carson:

Permit me to join in the acclaim the JEWISH EXAMINER gives you in their front page reprint of your forthright letter to Rev. Gerald Winrod concerning his "grubby little" pamphlet, "The Philip Dru Case" and his "disgraceful magazine," the DEFENDER and its aspersions upon the "Jewish people." "As a graduate historian and a holder of a Master's Degree," as you say, you are of course familiar enough with the TALMUD to speak with authority about any such "TALMUDIC PLOT" being "tripe." Your admiration for "them which say they are Jews" (Rev. 2:9:3:9), who are

"Priest Rebukes Hate Fronters"

The above is the heading of a front page report in the JEWISH EXAMINER dated: "Friday, July 4, 1952, 11th day of Tammuz." Tammuz is the 10th month in the Babylonian calendar which is the Jewish calendar, today. Tammuz was the male sex procreative god for whom the women wailed and fasted when he supposedly ceased fertilization. This year the Fast of Tammuz falls July 17th in the Jewish "religious" calendar. God in a vision to Ezekiel denounced this pagan abomination, and: "said unto me, Turn ye yet again and thou shalt see greater abominations that they do. Then he brought me to the door of the Pharisees by religion, but by race are not Judaite for they are of all races and nations, is therefore based upon their TALMUDIC religion, or Tradition of the Pharisees, the one tie that binds. Your "John I" cites the Pharisees. Since you are fully educated on BABYLONIAN TALMUDISM, THE WRITTEN FORM OF THE TRADITION OF THE PHARISEES, you must also approve the five deaths they give Christ today: (1) sinking Him "in dung to the armpits" and pouring boiling lead down the throat to burn out His intestines; (2) sinking Him in "dung to the armpits" and strangling Him; (3) stoning Him to death; (4) decapitating Him; (5) crucifying Him as a "blasphemer." If you, yourself, are a secret Jew, a "Marrano," you approve, also, but will not suffer the TALMUDIC punishment decreed against all real Christians, who are consigned to everlasting Hell where "boiling excrement" is poured on them, and where Christ in everlasting Hell has "boiling semen" as His punishment.

BROTHERHOOD

Talmud Blasphemes Christ Fifth of Talmud Cited

In this supreme "religious" authority of "Judaism," as you know, all Christians rank as whores infinitely lower than Rabbi Dordia who visited every harlot in the world (Ab.Z.17a). All non-Talmudists, as you are aware, are rated as non-human animals without rights under any legal code. They are "people that are like an ass—slaves who are considered the property of the master"—the TALMUDIST (Keth. 111a). This, as you know, is being carried into action under Talmudic Red Anti-Christ rule.

You must likewise approve TALMUDIC doctrines permitting sodomy with baby girls under three, with a neighbor's wife, with little boys under nine, the raping of baby girls under three by grown men, incest with dead bodies, bestiality, burning children—all of them—to Molech as well as depraved Baal worship.

These doctrines, as you know, are specifically taught by TALMUDIC halachah in the Mishna, as may be seen in the English translation of the BABYLONIAN TALMUD, endorsed by the late Chief Rabbi of Great Britain, J. H. Hertz (Soncino, London, 1935-6).

Apparently, you find no fault with Judaism's TALMUDIC teaching that Mary was an adulteress and whore who "mated with carpenters"; that Jesus seduced women, committed bestiality with animals, did black magic, ran whore houses with old women at the doors and young women inside to get male customers drunk, then order them to disrobe and, as in Baal worship, thus worship the "idol", Jesus.

You have, no doubt, as "a historian and a holder of a Master's Degree," read the some 32 volumes of the supreme BABYLONIAN TALMUD and its fragmentary counterpart, the Yerushalmi, in Hebrew—but anyone can read it in English in the above edition, if the stomach is strong enough. With you, of course, I need not prove the above by sending you my book of some 300 photostats of authoritative Judacia, nearly a third being full page reproductions of the above Soncino edition pages, since you already know all about it and approve.

As you are not only a "historian and a holder of a Master's Degree," but have studied Catholic Church history, you know the struggle which has been waged by the Popes, with few exceptions, against the Jewish religion and its TALMUD and CABALA. "The Jewish religion as it is today traces its descent, without a break, through all the centuries, from the Pharisees . . . The TALMUD is the largest and most important single member of that literature," states the Universal Jewish Encyclopedia (1943), "Pharisees."

Popes Condemned Talmud

You know, therefore, that from the time of Gregory the Great (590-604 A.D.) the Popes struggled both to convert the Talmudists and at the same time prevent them from Talmudizing Christians. Gregory VII denounced favoritism to Jews and enforced laws prohibiting giving Jews power over Christians (1078). Innocent III ordered Jews to wear a distinctive arm badge so that Christians could avoid Talmudists as bearers of spiritual disease (1215). Pope Julius III ordered the burning of the TALMUD (1553), and great quantities of TALMUDS were burned in Rome. He enforced the wearing of a yellow hat by Jews and finally decreed that they should live in a ghetto. Pius V added some new restrictions including a prohibition against Christians kindling fires for Jews on their Sabbath, and in 1556 ordered them expelled from his territory. Gregory XIII added additional restrictions. Clement VIII again expelled them and prohibited the printing of the TALMUD (1593). Clement X ordered the ghetto gates closed during the night. Pius VI required Jews to wear a yellow badge on their hats and endeavored to isolate them while at the same time ordering them to listen to conversionist sermons from blasphemous, anti-Christian literature. Martin Luther, who, in his early period, criticized the Catholic hierarchy for its denunciations of Judaism, later uttered more vitriolic excommunications, if possible, against it, than the Popes. In "The Jews and Their Lies," and his "Shemhamforash," he revealed Talmudic lies and aims and declared that all TALMUDS should be burned, along with the synagogues, and the bearers of this foul code be exiled or put to hard labor.

Judaism Religion of Pharisees

Since every Jewish Encyclopedia and history declares that the Jewish religion is the religion of the Pharisees, you know this, and you also know that the Christ, whose Cross you should reverence, hurled more terrific excommunications at the Pharisee sect and all that it stands for, than you have addressed to anti-Pharisee Christians because they are following Him in denouncing this evil.

If, perchance, despite that "Master's Degree," you should be a bit dumb, instead of being a Marrano, or pro-TALMUD Judas Iscariot, I'd advise you to sit down and open your Bible and read Matthew 23—"beginning to end"—all of which is a running denunciation of Pharisaism by Jesus Christ. Then read John 8:37-44, a terrific damnation of Pharisees and their religion, and the rest of Christ's immortal warnings on those "which they say are Jews," at a time when the Pharisees had taken over and revamped their Babylonian paganism under the "whited sepulchre" pretense of adherence to the Bible (Rev. 2:9;3:9)—this was after His Ascension, of course, when the Godly Israelites had accepted Him foretold, and become Christians, and martyrs to Pharisee vengeance.

Then, you should apologize to Dr. Winrod and other loyal Christians who are wise and loyal enough to Christ to denounce the most criminal and Satanic code—BABYLONIAN TALMUDISM, so-called "Judaism"—that ever emerged from the pit of Hell. You will have a choice of positions: that you were ignorant of the truth, despite that "Master's Degree"; (2) that you are not ignorant of TALMUDISM, but defend it and fight its Christian enemies as a partisan of Pharisaism; (3) that you now repent and no longer wish to be an aide to the Pharisaical aim to eradicate Christianity from the earth.

Sincerely,
ELIZABETH DILLING.

Any curious non-Pharisee who is not "a historian and a holder of a Master's Degree," will find proofs of the above statements to Rev. Carson in my compilation of photostats entitled: "THE PLOT AGAINST CHRISTIANITY." (May be secured from COMMON SENSE at cost-$1.25). The TALMUDIC doctrine that only Talmudists are "MEN," that is human beings, will be found in Exhibit 268. Also: "One who smiteth MAN (i.e. "that is—"an Israelite) attacketh the Holy One" (Ex.59). Sodomy with a "neighbor's wife," is sanctioned on the same page. Logically, we "animals" have no property rights; these were all transferred to the Talmudists, "Israelites" (Ex.269). Gentile "property is considered public property, like unclaimed land in the desert" (Ex.270). Communism puts this into practice. Therefore, non-Talmudists may be murdered, cheated, deceived, providing this does not jeopardize other Jews. Jewry's "Torah" outlaws "the issue of a Gentile as that of a beast (Ex.270). Non-Jews, called Cutheans, minim, Epikoros, Epicureans, etc. may not only be murdered the effort to kill one is so laudable it excuses one for killing a Jew in the attempt (Ex.90,91,92, also 186). Non-Jews are "people that are like an ass—slaves who are considered the property of the master," (Ex. 148). Communist wholesale murders and slave labor camps are also authorized by such teachings as: "A Gentile observing the Sabbath deserves death... not even on Mondays is the Gentile allowed to rest" (Ex. 272).

his reward for the twenty-four thousand Israelites whose destruction he had encompassed. Mar Zutra b. Tobiah remarked in Rab's name: This is what men say: "When the camel went to demand horns, they cut off the ears he had." (4 deaths for Jesus)
Balaam also the son of Beer, the soothsayer. (Did the children of Israel slay with the sword?) A soothsayer? But he was a prophet!—R. Johanan said: At first he was a prophet, but subsequently a soothsayer. R. Papa observed: This is what men say: "She who was the descendant of princes and governors played the harlot with carpenters." [106b] Did the children of Israel slay with the sword among them that were slain by them. Rab said: They subjected him to four deaths, stoning, burning, decapitation and strangulation.
A certain min said to R. Hanina: Hast thou heard how old Balaam was?—He replied: It is not actually stated, but since it is written, Bloody and deceitful men shall not live out half their days, [it follows that] he was thirty-three or thirty-four years old. He rejoined: Thou hast said correctly: I personally have seen Balaam's Chronicle in which it is stated, "Balaam the lame was thirty years old when Phinehas the Robber killed him." Refers to Jesus
(1) V. ibid., XXV, 1-3: since Israel was thus seduced and punished through his advice, as stated above, he demanded payment. (2) So Balaam, demanding a reward, lost his life. (3) Joeha XIII, 22. (4) As a punishment for wishing to curse Israel he was degraded from a prophet to a soothsayer. (5) Ship-druggers, (v. Rashi), Harford, Christianity in the Talmud, p. 48, suggests that Balaam is frequently used in the Talmud as a type for Jesus (v. also pp. 64-70). Though no name is mentioned to show which woman is meant, the mother of Jesus may be alluded to, which theory is strengthened by the statement that she mated with a carpenter. (The Munich MS. has "22" in the margin instead of "23", i.e., singular instead of plural.) (6) Ibid. (7) This is suggested by the use of the phrase "many men that were slain by them," intimating that the various deaths inflicted upon others were all suffered by Balaam. Thus he was hung (strangulation), a fire was lit under him (burning), his head was struck off (decapitation), and then he was allowed to fall to earth (stoning): v. Supra 454. (8) Harford, v. Glos. (9) Ps. LV, 24. (10) cf. p. 471, n. 1. (11) According to the view that all the Balaam passages are anti-Christian in tendency, Balaam being used as an alias for Jesus, Phinehas the Robber is thus taken to represent Pontius Pilatus, and the Chronicle of Balaam probably to denote a Gospel (v. Harford op. cit. 706). This view is however disputed by Bachar and others (cf. Ginsberg, Journal of Biblical Literature, XLI, 121.) See Exh. 217 time to time (1775-1800). Pius IX, after his exile, during the Jewish Red revolutionary period, maintained the ghetto in Rome until it was abolished by the Jewish-led King Emmanuel occupation of Rome in 1870. His successor, Leo XIII, bestowed distinctions upon the "anti-Semitic" politician and writer, Lueger and Drumont, the latter being so honored for his book "La France Juive," which forcefully depicted the degeneration of France under Jewish influence. Leo VIII reigned until 1903.

The TALMUD, because of its criminal and anti-Christian doctrines, was burned: by Pope Innocent IV in Rome (1244), and at Paris, and again in Paris in 1248 and 1309; all over Italy in 1554; at Rome, 1558 and 1559; in Poland in 1557, and condemned by one Pope after another as forbidden,

"The best among the Gentiles deserves to be killed" (Ex. 273). The 7th and 12th "benedictions" of the Shemoneh Esreh, recited thrice daily by the Orthodox, curse the Christians ("minim") to hell (Ex. 266 continued, 284).

JESUS

The Balaam passages refer to Jesus, as cited by Ex. 275: "the pseudonym 'Balaam' given to Jesus in Sanhedrin 106b and Gittin 57a. "The Sanhedrin passage, from 105a-106b, appears in Ex. 106-15, and Gittin 57a, Ex. 178-80. Every foul charge is made, TO DAY. Christ is given four "legal" deaths (Ex. 274, 114) then crucified as a "blasphemer" (Exh. 51, 276). His trial by the Sanhedrin, Ex. 56, 75-6, 276. He is also charged with being a bastard, poisoner, seducer, guilty of bestiality with animals, a fool, a sorcerer and idolater, His mother a harlot and adulteress. In general, He is portrayed as a "Balaam" enticing people to commit the sex abominations of Baal worship. Ex. 274-80, of the Jewish Encyclopedia, summarize these charges. For His whore houses, see Ex. 112.

The method of strangling Him in "dung up to his armpits" (Ex. 53); of burning Him in "dung up to his armpits" (Ex. 52; footnote, Ex. 151); of stoning Him to death (Ex. 45, 48, 50). Under false names His Apostles are executed (Ex. 47), the real names given (Ex. 278). He is crucified (Ex. 51, 276). In the Gittin 57a passage, referred to above, and described in part by Ex. 279, Christians are all in Hell where "boiling excrement" is poured on them and "boiling semen" on Christ (Ex. 201-2). The obscene teaching attributed to Him is that the "hire of a harlot" may be used to build a privy for the High Priest, and that even talking to a Christian is like going to a harlot's house (Ex. 177-8). If a woman's smallest sin is incest, then her greatest sin must be Christianity ("minuth"). One guilty of incest or of visiting all the harlots in the world, like Rabbi Dordia, is allowed to die in peace, but never one guilty of "minuth" (Ex. 178-80). Christians are "idolaters". Actual idolatry such as Baal worship, however, is not "moral depravity" (Ex. 294, 61). Burning children to the demon Molech—all of them—is permitted despite the terrific exhortations of this ancient crime by the Bible: Lev. 18:21; 20:2-5; II Ki. 23:10; II Chron. 33:6; Isa. 57:5; Jer. 32:35; Eze. 16:20-2, 36.

"PURITY"

A mother's incestuous relations with her son do not blemish her purity, if his age is right (Ex. 82), nor does bestiality mar her virtue (Ex. 157-8); sex relations with small boys is sanctioned (Ex. 135). The general law is that a baby girl is "sexually mature" at 3 years and 1 day, a boy at 9 years and 1 day. With children under these ages anything is permitted and the adult held blameless. Sodomy with children: "no guilt is incurred...for the adult" (Ex. 54). Grown men may rape babies under 3 and marry them at 1 day over 3: Ex. 54-5, 81, 133-35-36, 156-59-60, 189. Killing, or committing sodomy with, and incurably sick person, "terefah", sodomy with a dead body or incest with a dead woman is authorized (Ex. 88-9, 163).

"BROTHERHOOD"

Rev. Carson is welcome to his cherished "bond of BROTHERHOOD" with those whose supreme religious authority is the BABYLONIAN TALMUD. St. Paul said: "come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing, and I will receive you" (II Cor. 6:17). Judaism's "reprobate mind" is like the dog "turned to his own vomit again; and the sow that was washed to its wallowing in the mire" (II Peter 2:22).

Rabbi Morris N. Kertzer in the article "WHAT IS A JEW" in Look Magazine issue dated June 17th, 1952, stated the following:

The Talmud consists of 63 books of legal, ethical and historical writings of the ancient rabbis. It is the legal code which forms the basis of Jewish religious law and it is the textbook used in the training of rabbis.

R-U-A REGISTERED VOTER?

Unless you are a registered voter and unless you cast your vote on election day, you must write yourself down as a bad citizen.

To be free to vote as you will and express your own opinion of candidates and measures is a privilege enjoyed by few people of the world.

The citizens of many nations are denied the right to vote, or, if they are permitted to vote, are compelled to vote as directed by a dictator.

Here in the United States we are not only free to vote but we are urged to vote.

The governments we have in city, county, state and nation are our own creations. They are what they are because of what we do with our votes.

This nation will be what you want it to be only if you vote.

The coming November election is one of the most important in the long history of our nation. Line up with the voters—the only true citizens of the country.

ADLAI AND IKE MARXIST STOOGES

BARUCH, FRANKFURTER, LEHMAN, ARVEY, SCHLESSENGER, SAM ROSENMAN GIVES ORDERS

Here we have Jake Arvey who cracked the whip for the Invisible Government at the Democratic Convention at Chicago. Working with him were Herbert Lehman, David Lawrence, Mayor of Pittsburgh and Jack Kroll, head of the C.I.O. Political Action Committee, all four Zionist-Jews. They were the brains and represented the Jewish pressure at the Democratic Convention. Bernard Baruch trusted them to take over for the Kehillah. It would never do for the Jews to be in the spot-light too much, hence, they must use Gentile stooges such as Averell Harriman, F. D. R. Jr., Walter Reuther (his wife is Jewish), Harry Truman, Estes Kefauver, etc.

Jake Arvey, Chicago Jewish mastermind who is expected to move into the White House to keep Stevenson in line should Adlai be elected. David Niles formerly covered this spot watching F. D. R. and Truman to be sure they carried out the Jewish plan.

On August 11th the Jews of Los Angeles gave a lavish party for Jake Arvey honoring him for his accomplishment. Press agents serving the Invisible Government are now giving his name as Colonel Jack Arvey. His name is Jacob. Where does the "Jack" come from, and how does he rate the "Colonel"?

This picture was taken in 1948 at a dinner in which Arvey proposed Eisenhower as candidate on the Democratic ticket. Since then the Invisible Government decided that Eisenhower should run as a Republican, and they put up Stevenson, another One Worlder and pal of Alger Hiss,

COMMUNIST REVOLUTION

DIRECTORS OF 1917 RED REVOLUTION NAMED IN FRENCH SECRET SERVICE REPORT

The following document was filed in the secret service archives of the French General Staff as follows: 7-618-6 np 912 S. R. II, Transmis Par l'Etat Major de l'Armee Deuxieme Bureau. This Bureau was the inner circle of the French Military Intelligence composed of expert operators, saboteurs, decoders and military observers. Its membership was limited to expert and trusted operators in the regular Secret Service. Moreover, the report is in the files of the Parliamentary Library of Canada in the Documentation Catholique, issue of March 6, 1920 and photostatic copy, in French, may be obtained by writing to the Library.

American Official Services Report

The following is a copy of an American Secret Service Document (2nd Army Bureau) addressed to all embassies of the Allied Powers.

"This document was quoted in 1920 in a supplement to the paper-La Vieille France, which added: 'All the governments of the Entente were aware of this memorandum, drawn up from the data of the American Secret Service, and sent at the time to the French High Commissioner and his colleagues.'

"The memorandum is also to be found in Mgr. Jouin's work, Le Peril Judeo-Maconnique, Part III, pp. 240-351, with the added remark that the Jews have placed obstacles in the way of its publication, so that the great majority of people are unaware of its existence."

"Through the Jewish origin of Kerensky, who brought about the first Russian Revolution in 1917, it seems pretty certain that he was the son of the Jew Aronne (Aaron) Karbis and the Jewess Adler."

"The document is divided into eight sections."

Marxism and it will probably take a year before it is generally known that Stevenson and Eisenhower are also tools in the hands of the international plotters. Ike has many close contacts who are known Communists, two of them having worked with him on his book "The Crusade in Europe." Joseph Barnes was the ghost writer. Five witnesses appeared before the Senate Internal Security Sub-Committee and swore that Barnes was a Communist agent having worked out of Moscow.

Breakfast With Baruch

Stevenson has been forced to accept as his personal campaign manager, Wilson Wyatt, one of the leaders in the Americans for Democratic Action, which is a Jewish Marxist front. Items recently appeared in the New York newspapers revealing that Arthur Schlesinger, a professor at Harvard University and David Dubinsky, head of the powerful Jewish Garment Workers Union are advisors to Adlai Stevenson and his speech writer is Sam Rosenman. All three of these are Red Jews. Rosenman was chief speech writer for F.D.R. and Truman. He is placed in this position by the Invisible Government, Baruch giving the orders. New York papers on August 27th show pictures of Stevenson shaking hands with Baruch after having breakfast and getting his instructions—which instructions he dare not ignore for he knows Baruch speaks for the Jewish Kehillah and B'nai B'rith. Two days later Ike has breakfast with Baruch and gets his orders not to dig up the serious mistakes of the New Deal which would involve the Jews who used F.D.R. and Truman to condition Europe for Jewish rule.

Ike, in his speech at Los Angeles before the V. F. W. Convention stated: "For years I sat at Baruch's feet and listened to his words of wisdom." Ike could have added that Woodrow Wilson, F. D. R. and Truman also listened to Baruch's "words of wisdom" and each put us in war and raised our national debt from one billion dollars to 260 billion visible debt plus at least 30 billion more hidden commitments, and cost more than a million casualties among our youth. All we need for complete destruction is for Ike or Stevenson to listen to more "words of wisdom" from Baruch who was never elected to any office, but succeeded in bankrupting the United States and making the Jews richer and richer.

The convention of the American Legion in New York City gave the Invisible Government the opportunity to shackle both Stevenson and Ike to pledges in support of the Marxist plan to destroy their enemies. Both candidates were forced to attack Senator Joseph McCarthy before the American Legion. If legitimate politics were still in force, one of the candidates, wanting to secure the support of millions of Senator McCarthy's followers, would have at least refrained from smearing him. But we now have an Invisible Government, ruled by an aggressive alien minority which picks candidates who could not otherwise be elected and pledges them to follow their orders. Of course these candidate stooges did not dare take up one of Senator McCarthy's charges, as all of his charges have been proven. They gave him a general smear using the same tactics which they have accused the patriotic Senator of using.

Marxist Rule Near

Those who believe this will be just another election are due for a rude awakening. The Marxist plan for the United States is drawing to a close. When the Marxists were set to put David Lilienthal in as Chairman of the Atomic Energy Committee, which was then composed of four Jews and one gentile, they brought into play all the pressure they were able to muster, and the public did not realize why they were so "hell-bent" to get control of this committee. Now that the Soviet Union has our atomic secrets and is ex-discovered that a revolution was being fomented in Russia. It was found out that the following persons, as well as the banking house mentioned, were engaged in this work of destruction: Jacob Schiff, Guggenheim, Max Breitung, Kuhn, Loeb & Co., Jewish banking-house, of which the following are the directors—Jacob Schiff, Felix Warburg, Otto Kahn, Mortimer Schiff, S. H. Hanauer."

"There can be no doubt that the Russian Revolution, which broke out a year after the information given above had been received, was launched and fomented by distinctively Jewish influences. As a matter of fact, in April, 1917, Jacob Schiff made a public declaration that it was thanks to his financial help, that the Russian Revolution had succeeded."

"Section II: In the spring of 1917 Jacob Schiff began to supply funds to Trotsky to bring about social revolution in Russia. The N. Y. Daily "Forward" which is a Judaeo-Bolshevik organ, gave a subscription for the same purpose."

"Through Stockholm the Jew Max Warburg was likewise furnishing funds to Trotsky & Co. They were in receipt of funds from the Westphalian-Rhineland Syndicate, which is an important Jewish enterprise; as well as from another Jew, Olaf Aschberg of the "Nya Banken" of Stockholm; and from Givotovsky, a Jew, whose daughter is married to Trotsky."

"Thus the communications were set up between the Jewish multi-millionaires and the Jewish Proletarians."

"Section III: In October, 1917, the social revolution took place in Russia, thanks to which certain Soviet organizations took over the direction of the Russian people. In The Soviet Union, the following individuals made themselves remarkable: Lenin (real name Ulianoff); Trotsky (Bronstein); Stekloff (Nakhames); Martoff (Zederbaum); Zinovieff (Apfelbaum); Kamenoff (Rosemfield); Dan (Gourevitch); Ganetzsky (Furstenberg); Parvus (Helphand); Utitsky (Padomilsky); Larin (Lurge); Bohrin (Nathansohn); Martinoff (Zibar); Bognoff (Gimel); Kamneff (Goldmann); Sagersky (Krochman); Riazanoff (Goldenbach); Solutzeff (Bleichmann); Piatnitsky (Ziwin); Axelrod (Orthodox); Glasunoff (Schultze); Zuriesain (Weinstein); Lapinsky (Loewensohn).

"Section IV: At the time the Jew Paul Warburg (who had been with the Federal Reserve Board) was remarked to be in active contact with certain Bolshevik notables in the U. S. This circumstance, together with other points about which information has been obtained, was the cause of his not being re-elected to the above mentioned committee (Federal Reserve).

"Section VI: On the other hand, Judas Magnes, subsidized by Jacob Schiff is in close contact with the world-wide Zionist Organization, Poale Zion, of which he is in fact the director. The final end of this organization is to establish the international supremacy of the Jewish Labor Movement."

"Here again we see the connection between the Jewish multi-millionaires and the Jewish Proletarians."

"Section VII: Scarcely had the social revolution broken out in Germany when the Jewess Rosa Luxembourg automatically assumed the political direction of it. One of the chief leaders of the International Bolshevik movement was the Jew Haase. At that time the social revolution in Germany developed along the same lines as the social revolution in Russia."

Section VIII: If we bear in mind the fact that the Jewish banking house of Kuhn, Loeb & Co. is in touch with the Westphalian-Rhineland Syndicate, German-Jewish House; and with Brothers Lazare, Jewish House in Paris; and also with the Jewish House of Gunsbourg of Petrograd, Tokio and Paris; if, in addition, we remark that all the above mentioned Jewish Houses are in close correspondence with the Jewish House of Speyer & Co., of London, New York and Frankfurt-on-the-Main, as well as with the "Nya Banken, Judaeo-Bolshevik establishment at Stockholm—it will be manifest that Bolshevik movement is in a certain measure the expression of a general Jewish movement, and that certain Jewish banking-houses are interested in the organization of this movement."

INVESTIGATE CANDIDATES

Shortly COMMON SENSE will make practical suggestions as to the best each of us can do politically since the Invisible Government has captured both parties. In the meantime, look into the record of every candidate for office in your locality. Pay little attention to their statements against Communism—Most of the prominent traitorous politicians will tell you they are against Communism. Here is the test.

Do they favor World Government?

United World Federalists?

Americans for Democratic Action?

F. E. P. C.

Genocide Convention?

UNESCO?

N. A. T. O.

Do they oppose Senator McCarthy?

Senator McCarran

McCarran-Walters Immigration Act?

If the answer to the above is "yes", work every hour possible in the most effective way to defeat that candidate, even though he may be your own brother. Do not consider good personality, speaking ability, promises, to what club, organization or church he belongs. Let's defeat them without mercy. Let's save our country. Jews in New York are sending unlimited funds into many states to defeat patriots such as Senators McCarthy and McCarran.

pected soon to announce the completion of the hydrogen bomb, the public is beginning to understand.

Anna Rosenberg

Another important step was to place Anna Rosenberg in charge of all manpower in the Defense Department, and again every Marxist organization and publication, along with every newspaper they could control by Jewish advertising, was brought into play and many Senators were afraid to oppose her because of the fear of being branded anti-Semitic, although they really believed she was a Communist as the testimony before the Armed Services Committee clearly showed. Anna Rosenberg is the power in the Defense Department, Lovett being just a front. A move is now on to put the civilian defense under the Defense Department where Anna Rosenberg would control it, as it is expected when the emergency is created by these Marxists, the Civilian Defense will supplant state, city and county police so that we will be under military dictatorship with Anna Rosenberg at the top.

In New York City there are 850,000 in civilian defense. Why? To protect civilians from bombing by the Soviet Union? New York is the safest place on earth. Bernard Baruch, the Warburgs and others at the top know this.

The next top important step was to place a Marxist stooge as candidate for both parties. What can we expect when one of these takes office and the Marxists know they have full control for another four years? Do they plan for war so as to break the United States down for Marxist control as they did in Europe during the last war? Since the start of the undeclared war in Korea, one million boys have been drafted and it is planned to draft six hundred thousand each year. What are they cooking up?

YOUTH INOCULATED WITH TREASON

RED RECORD OF LANGSTON HUGHES, BARED

Langston Hughes, colored poet, is surrounded by autograph hunters after speaking at the graduation exercises at the James Madison High School in New York City.

Hughes, cited many times by the Un-American Activities Committee, is speaking continually over the United States before every group the Marxists are able to maneuver him into. This will give you a sample of how the minds of our youth are put on the road to Marxism. Traitors to America must have a start somewhere. Speakers and books are wormed into our educational institutions in some way to sow the seeds of treason. If you want to help destroy your country and christianity, secure one of these speakers for your school.

The following is an excerpt from an article which appeared in the Pilgrim Torch, Editor Rev. Kenneth Goff:

In the "Home Quarterly" of July, August and September 1944, there appeared an article called "Langston Hughes' Career as a Writer," and on page five they carried a poem by this outstanding Red. In this religious magazine it advocated that the young people ought to become acquainted with the writings of Langston Hughes. What it failed to state was that Langston Hughes is one of the most vicious anti-Christ writers in America and we are quoting a few of his poems that you might see what he is like. This first poem which contains only two verses is one of the most insulting poems and blasphemous writings that I have ever read.

Christ is a nigger,
Beaten and black—
Oh, bear your back.
Most holy bastard
Of the bleeding mouth:
Nigger Christ on the Cross of the South.

GOODBYE CHRIST By Langston Hughes

Listen, Christ,
You did alright in your day, I reckon—
But that day's gone now.
They ghosted you up a swell story, too,
Called it the Bible—

But it's dead now.
The popes and the preachers've
Made too much money from it.
They've sold you to too many

Kings, generals, robbers, and killers—
Even to the Tzar and the Cossacks,
Even to Rockefeller's Church,
Even to THE SATURDAY EVENING POST.
You ain't no good no more.

They've pawned you
Till you've done wore out.

Goodbye,
Christ Jesus, Lord God Jehova,
Beat it on away from here now.
Make way for a new guy with no religion at all—
A real guy named
Marx, Communist, Lenin, Peasant, Stalin, Worker, Me—

I said, ME!

Go ahead on now,
You're getting in the way of things, Lord.
And please take Saint Ghandi with you when you go,
And Saint Pope Pius,
And Saint Aimee McPherson,
And big black Saint Becton
Of the Consecrated Dime.
And step on the gas Christ!
Move!

Dont' be so slow about movin'!
The world is mine from now on—
And nobody's gonna sell ME
To a king, or a general,
Or a millionaire.

On the occasion of the Eighth Convention of the Communist Party, U.S.A., Langston Hughes wrote the following song called "One More 'S' in the U.S.A."

Put one more S in the U.S.A.
To make it Soviet.
One more S in the U.S.A.
Oh, we'll live to see it yet.
When the land belongs to the farmers
And the factories to the working men—

The U.S.A. when we take control
Will be U.S.S.A. then.

Now across the water in Russia
They have a big U.S.S.R.
The Fatherland of the Soviets—
But that is mighty far
From New York, or Texas, or California, too.
So listen, fellow workers,
This is what we have to do:
Put one more S in the U.S.A.
(repeat chorus)

But we can't win out by just talking,
So let us take things in our hand.
Then down and 'way with the bosses' sway—
Hail Communistic Land.
So stand up in battle and wave our flag on high,
And shout out, fellow workers,
Our new slogan to the sky:
Put one more S in the U.S.A.
(repeat chorus)

But we can't join hands strong together
So long as whites are lynching black,
So black and white in one union fight
And get on the right track.
By Texas, or Georgia, or Alabama led
Come together, fellow workers,
Black and white can all be red:
Put one more S in the U.S.A.
(repeat chorus)

Oh, the bankers they all are planning
For another great big war.
To make them rich from the workers'
deed,
That's all that war is for
So if you don't want to see bullets holding sway
Then come on, all you workers,
And join our fight today.
Put one more S in the U.S.A.
(repeat chorus)

It is important that every parent study the Sunday School Quarterlies of their children and find out whether or not under the guise of Christianity the ground work is being laid to plant in the fertile mind of the child the seeds of ruthless Marxist Communism. The sad thing is that we are so prone to believe that when we send our child on Sunday to the church that the Sunday School lesson will be one that will elevate him and make him a good citizen and a good Christian. But, today we must be on our guard for the enemies of Christ have crept even into the Temple of God.

"A YOUNG AND RISING INTERNATIONAL PARTY"

Three months after the above mentioned editorial was published, Mr. Davenport wrote an article dealing with the political aspirations of the group that was so interested in removing the resistance offered by sovereign states "to the creation of a world economic order." It should be mentioned, before going any further, that inspiration for the editorial in the May, 1941 issue of "Fortune" appears to have come from Mr. Wendell L. Willkie who, according to the editorial, "has put forward the idea of an 'area of freedom'—a concept that is certainly veering toward a new international philosophy," and by Roosevelt's advocacy of the "four freedoms."

In the August, 1941 issue of "Fortune", in referring to Roosevelt's ideas on the post-war world, Mr. Davenport wrote:

"The backing that Mr. Roosevelt has won for this policy is, to say the least, heterogeneous. It does not include large elements of American labor, which otherwise give him their confidence. On the other hand, it does include the recent Republican candidate and millions of his followers. . . ."

Mr. Davenport was referring, of course, to Mr. Willkie. Mr. Davenport had been Mr. Willkie's major advisor during the 1940 presidential campaign and by serving in such a capacity he was able to speak with authority. But let us go on to another part of the "Fortune" article that gave notice of the existence of a new political alignment that would cut across party lines:

"... it is certainly a fair guess that there exists in America, as also in England, the raw material of a new party: a new party: a kind of amorphous and temporarily homeless hodgepodge, groping across traditional party lines—and groping blindly, because, if it turned out at all, it would turn out to be a revolutionary party."

"... The Lend-Lease Act opens up the possibility of an entirely different world, a different kind of international order, in which peoples will be bound together, not by alliances and treaties, which can be torn up, but by the principles in which they mutually believe."

"In short, as we look toward the future we can draw from the objects in the foreground this powerful intimation: that there may be forming, among peoples who are fighting Hitler, a new kind of political group, reaching beyond nationalities toward a set of principles without which free men cannot live; that there exists, potentially, a young and rising International party, preparing to do political battle for a future world."

THE ISSUE STILL REMAINS THE SAME
Our nation's future will be decided in the manner in which the so-called "basic conflict" between "Industrialism and Nationalism" is resolved. The "creation of world economic order" is the hub of our foreign policy and is responsible for the common denominator existing between such apparently diverse groups as socialist agitators and organizations like the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace.

HOW TO SAVE THE U. S. 'FARMER TO BE DESTROYED' SAYS IKE'S SUPPORTER

Dear Mr. McGinley:

Enclosed is an order for one dollar for which send me copies of your last issue No. 162, May 15, 1952. I have just a few left and I want to use quite a few in the next four weeks.

Am sending out today copies of this issue to 20 ministers here, with marks and notations and urgings that they read it.

Monday evening I had a meeting at my home during which they read it out very plainly. It was the biggest surprise I ever had. I had been preparing for it for several weeks and it seemed that I could get no interest aroused in it. I determined to have the meeting even though only four or five came.

I got seats ready for 18 in our two front rooms, then I went up stairs to get ready about 7:45, leaving my wife to take charge of those who came. About 8:00 she came up and said: "What are we going to do? The front room is full already and we have no more chairs?"

I think it was the most interested group that I ever addressed. They were ALL eyes and EARS. Listening to every word that I said. After an intermission and a cold drink, the group came together again and we all talked then for another hour. I felt that it was pretty successful.

I have decided to have another on Tuesday evening, August 12th, and am going to try to have twice as many as was there Monday evening.

What we do we will have to do quickly. The "Powers-that-be" surely have the patriots on the run, and if we ever hope to save our country we will have to put forth super-human effort and put it forth right NOW.

Yours Truly C.L.

TEN TO TWELVE MILLION JEWS NOW IN AMERICA

Republished from: Williams Intelligence Summary; Santa Ana, Calif.

"Now over two-thirds of the Jewish people of the world live in America," Dr. Cecil Roth, Oxford history teacher and world Jewish leader, told Kansas City Jews, in Temple B'nai B'rith, Jehudah, March 28, 1952, as reported in the Kansas City Star, March 29th.

The New York Times in 1949 published figures compiled by the American Jewish Committee concluding that there were at that time between 15,000,000 and 17,000,000 Jews in the world.

If two-thirds of them now are inside our borders, we find ourselves host to between 10,000,000 and 12,000,000 Jews—an indigestible horde the like of which no nation in history ever "enjoyed." History records no instance in which even three per cent of the population became Jewish that the victim nation did not suffer race and religious wars, revolution and bloodshed, and moral disintegration. God pity America, whose blindly tolerant fathers admitted this Marxist indoctrinated horde threatening the freedom and survival of the Christian children of the Republic!

They brought fear, confusion and hatred to America.

Republished from American Digest, Dewey Taft, Editor.

Sometime ago a report out of Washington stated that Governor Tom Dewey, spearheading the drive to "STOP TAFT" and ELECT EISENHOWER, was sending his personal representative, "JAY FRANKLIN," to Washington as "public relations" man in the EISENHOWER-FOR-PRESIDENT headquarters, to supervise and "control" for the publicity matter which goes out for Ike.

"Jay Franklin," or whatever his real name is, will be remembered as one of the early New Deal writers in the Henry Wallace Department of Agriculture. He was one of the Roosevelt "ghost writers" and later held the same job with Truman, writing many of his speeches.

The public writings of "Franklin" put him down as the American farmers' ENEMY NUMBER ONE, for he would utterly DESTROY — LIQUIDATE — the American farmer!!

Read below, in the article reprinted from the Lee O'Daniel News, in his own words, how this "Franklin," FRIEND OF COMMUNISM, PERSONAL REPRESENTATIVE OF TOM DEWEY, who is now WORKING FOR THE ELECTION OF EISENHOWER, would "LIQUIDATE" the American farmer!

WASHINGTON: — That it is the ultimate intention of the master-minds of the CIO- New-Deal party to eventually Sovietize agriculture, is evidenced in the writing of Jay Franklin, a CIO-New-Deal horn blower and mouthpiece. Franklin's attitude to the land owner and farmer is much the same as that held by the Communists of Russia following the overthrow of the Czar, if what he has to say in his book, "For What We Are About to Receive," is to be seriously considered. Read what the New Dealer has to say:—

"The farmer has arrogated to himself all virtue and all knowledge. He has voted against progress and civilization, against the city, against science, against art. He has made and unmade Presidents in the image of Main street. He has exhausted our soils, as he has exhausted our Treasury, if given half a chance. He is the great obstacle to human progress, the great threat to political stability. Sooner or later we shall discover, as the Roman Church discovered, as England discovered, as Soviet Russia discovered, that the pagan, the landed proprietor, the Kulak, is simply so much mud on the paths of progress and must be swept aside if society is to advance."

"These are harsh words, but they are justified. The American farmer as a political institution is a danger to our civilization."

"Some day, some leader of some party will be compelled to rouse the people against the farmer and crush him as an obstacle to the national welfare, as he has been crushed in every nation and age which has experienced his predominance. The fact that it is good politics now to help the farmer, it is going to make it better politics in the future to injure him."

"It is a shame that he cannot be changed by less drastic methods, but he has taken to politics, and the problem of farm relief will become, not 'how shall we relieve the farmer,' but who shall relieve us of the farmer?"—The Lee O'Daniel News.

(Editors note: We do not believe "Jay Franklin" was changed from Jay Franklin Carter. Nor do we believe this is the name this Jew was born with. COMMON SENSE will send $10 worth of books to the first person who can give us his real name.)

REDS OWN STEVENSON A.D.A.-ROCKEFELLER TOOL

"STALIN'S CHOICE FOR PRESIDENT"

AUTHORITY ON WORLD AFFAIRS REVEALS ADLAI'S CLOSE ASSOCIATION WITH REDS

By Emanuel M. Josephson

"ADA'S STEVENSON, STALIN'S CHOICE FOR PRESIDENT" was the cheer that greeted Adlai Stevenson at the Red "Liberal" Party Convention at the Statler Hotel, New York, on the evening of August 28, 1952. Mention of it was deleted by press censors.

REPUDIATES LEGION

At Madison Square Garden, one day earlier, Stevenson had upbraided the American Legion for its "McCarthyism" in demanding the ousting of Dean Acheson and other Communists and traitors from the government. Stevenson spurned the request, and told the patriotic Legionnaires that they were a rabble and a pressure group whom he planned to disregard. Stevenson posed as a Legionnaire, wearing the Legion cap, although, like many of his Red pals, of service age, he had escaped active service and therefore would not qualify as a member of the Legion.

and others of the same breed, when he accepted their nomination, to see how much defiance he would offer that pressure group.

ATTENDS LIBERAL PARTY MEETING

Stevenson arrived at the "Liberal" Party meeting almost half an hour before his scheduled speech of acceptance; and he later intimated that his early arrival was accounted for by his eagerness to be with them, the kind of people whom he likes as associates. His courtliness to the Reds contrasted strikingly with his brusque reprimand of the Legionnaires. Stevenson thus paid courtly tribute to his pals—to Alger Hiss and to Lee Pressman and other "patriots" of that breed—in the audience.

His attitude might portend his intention to release Alger Hiss, when elected, and openly make him his Secretary of State in fact. One of the delegates to the convention told the author that it was a great pity that Alger Hiss had not acknowledged the fact that he was a Communist spy, as had so many of the delegates present. Then Hiss also would have been free to attend the "Liberal" Party convention, as were his "distinguished" associates, instead of being confined in Lewisburg Penitentiary, there to serve the cause with propaganda.

Adlai was in fine fettle, among his pals in the "Liberal" Party. He regaled his audience with the full line of wisecracks on capitalists, the GOP, etc., that are so familiar to the readers of the Daily Worker and the New Masses. The speech that he read was done in the style of Stevenson's top campaign adviser and ghostwriter, Arthur Schlesinger Jr., Rockefeller-sponsored and subsidized Harvard professor.

DUBINSKY LAUDS STEVENSON

A SHREWD TEST OF THE ATTITUDE OF BOTH AUDIENCE AND OF CANDIDATE STEVENSON WAS OFFERED BY THE CHEER QUOTED ABOVE, WHICH GREETED THE NOMINEE, AS DAVID DUBINSKY ROSE TO INTRODUCE HIM:

"HURRAY FOR ADA'S STEVENSON, STALIN'S CHOICE FOR PRESIDENT!"

THE CHEERER, WHO STOOD IN THE PRESS SECTION, WAS NEITHER REBUKED NOR OUSTED. STEVENSON FLUSHED AND SMILED. DUBINSKY NODDED. SEVERAL PERSONS NEAR THE CHEERERS REMONSTRATED: "TRUE BUT INDISCREET." THERE WAS THE DEAD SILENCE THAT BESPEAKS ASSENT.

THE AUDIENCE DID NOT HAVE LONG TO WAIT FOR ADA'S STEVENSON'S REACTION.

ADLAI STEVENSON OFFERED NO DENIAL OR OBJECTION TO BEING CALLED "STALIN'S CHOICE FOR PRESIDENT."

Adlai Stevenson has a long and notable

IT SHOULD BE BORNE IN MIND, IN EVALUATING STEVENSON'S ATTITUDE, THAT "MCARTHYSM" IS THE CRY AGAINST PATRIOTS BY COMMUNISTS AND THEIR TRAITOROUS AGENTS, WHO FEAR EXPOSURE. THOSE WHO RAISE THE CRY OF "MCARTHYSM" EXPOSE THEMSELVES AS REDS.

PAL OF LEE PRESSMAN

It interested the author to determine what would be the attitude of Stevenson to such "patriots" as his "Liberal" sponsors, such as Communist Lee Pressman and his CIO pals, Moscow-commuting George S. Counts, greeted the Reds "as a kind of political conscience of New York State"! He stated that he is fully in accord with the Reds of the "Liberal" Party. He said:

"I have been much interested in the continued debate raging in the newspapers as to whether I am headed LEFT, center or right. I think it would be more relevant to ask: Is the man moving FORWARD, or backward, or is he grounded?"

In substance, Stevenson stated his conviction that the "leftists", or Reds, alone are progressives after his own heart. He

FELIX FRANKFURTER, JAKE ARVEY, DAVID NILES

By ROBERT H. WILLIAMS, FORMER COUNTER INTELLIGENCE OFFICER AND revealed that Niles was working in Stevenson's campaign.

"David Niles has been released from Beth Israel Hospital after major surgery—and the news on his ailment is much happier than he expected. He'll play a leading brain-truster role in the Stevenson campaign . . ."

Readers of the Intelligence Summary need no reminder of the character and role of David Niles. For new readers, it may be said briefly that he is one of the shrewdest and most dangerous agents in the Jewish nationalist, or Zionist, movement. Franklin Roosevelt picked him up as administrative assistant in the early 1930's on recommendation of Felix Frankfurter, (soon after Niles had been arrested in connection with a Communist-inspired labor riot in Boston). For years he jaunted almost every weekend from the White House to New York and Boston, where it was generally believed he got his instructions from the international banker cult.

Niles (born Neyhus) represented the Frankfurter element (the pro-Communist proletariat influence), the international banker element, and the Zionist organizations—in short, the three-headed invisible government responsible for the Marxist revolution in America.

For many years he was a principal link between the major strategists of world Marxism and the President of the United States.

"MYSTERY MAN"

An article in the Saturday Evening Post December 24, 1949, entitled "Mr. Truman's Mystery Man," stated that he was the spokesman for organized labor and the racial minorities. The same article said that if Niles cared to, he could claim authorship of the "civil rights" measures (measures invented by the Communist Party).

The article told how Niles and Felix Frankfurter had been friends for a third of a century and how Frankfurter had planted him in the White House.

When certain committees in May, 1951 were secretly considering calling Niles to testify as to corruption and Communist favoritism, Niles suddenly resigned and left for Israel.

Niles may be too big or cunning to belong to the Communist Party, but in any case he is a known and admitted Zionist and Zionism carries on the same Marxist revolution in America, with a hundred times more power than the Communist Party.

WHO'S WHO IN AMERICAN JEWRY

Niles is only one of scores of "Old Bolsheviks" from the Roosevelt-Wallace-Truman heyday who have moved into Stevenson's campaign and taken over. Let's look at the faces of those who occupy all the important positions around Stevenson:

First, Jake Arvey, gangster boss in Chicago's underworld. Arvey is listed in Who's Who in American Jewry (1939) as "hon chmn Asso. 'd Talmud Toras" and a director of the American Jewish Congress.

The AJC is the official Zionist working body of the Zionist Organization of America. Next to the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith, it is the mightiest secret black-hand gestapo of GPU ever organized outside the iron curtain. I make this conservative estimate after years of study of the secret revolution whose forces came from the old ghettos in Europe, where they imposed Communism on the Russians, into this tolerant, naive Republic and organized to destroy us in like manner.

It was Arvey, Democratic committeeman and chairman of the Cook County Democratic committee, who decided that Stevenson should have the Democratic nomination for Governor of Illinois in 1948. Time, Jan. 28, 1952 (p. 17) told the story.

John Anson Ford, Los Angeles County Commissioner, a Kefauver New Dealer, was quoted in the Los Angeles papers as expressing the bitter sentiment that "Jake Arvey will be the Number One man in the White House."

JAKE ARVEY

Richard Nixon in his Ohio speech August 12 said Stevenson owed his nomination to Truman, Arvey and Jack Kroll. Kroll, as you doubtless know, is the political brains of the CIO-PAC, successor and long time understudy of the late pro-Communist revolutionary Sidney Hillman. Kroll was born in the ghetto in Eastern Europe, inoculated with Marxist hatred of the Christian West.

The CIO itself, under Kroll and Phil Murray, officially endorsed Stevenson August 14. While the CIO now claims it is anti-Communist (having thrown out a handful of its many Reds), it is at best no more than anti-Stalin. It still follows the Communist line, except for nose-thumbing Moscow.

And this reminds us that we should more often use the inclusive term Marxist, because after all it may not matter which splinter of the world revolution a given thug belongs to. The decent people of this country will be no less securely locked in the doghouse if the CIO and the Americans for Democratic Action succeed in setting up a Marxist dictatorship, than if Stalin conquered America.

A still more comprehensive term for the bosses behind all these sucker groups is Jewish nationalism, or Zionism. The revolution coming toward us as fast as Stevenson can campaign, is a Zionist revolution, inspired and principally steered by Jewish nationalists for their own interests—just as were all the "Communist" revolutions in Europe and Asia.

BEN COHEN, TOO

An INS correspondent in Washington wrote August 14 that the reason the CIO went for the Stevenson-Sparkman ticket with such relish was the conviction that "it would carry on the policies of President Truman and the late President Roosevelt"—and who could disagree with that conviction?

A story in the Los Angeles Examiner August 16 revealed that the general counsel for the CIO, Arthur Goldberg, is an old friend of Stevenson and is helping Stevenson work out his campaign itinerary. Goldberg himself said so. And Mr. Goldberg is just about as far to the left as you can get.

Benjamin Cohen, known as "one of the principal architects of the New Deal", reportedly helped Stevenson write his acceptance speech at the Democratic convention.

Wilson Wyatt, Stevenson's personal campaign manager, is a past president of the Americans for Democratic Action, which, like Goldberg, shadow-boxes the Moscow apparatus but has become the most effective "Communist" or Marxist organization inside the Democratic Party.

Representative Reed of New York charged August 18 that he was "shocked to read an article claiming that a firm headed by Wilson Wyatt is serving as regional counsel for the Reconstruction Finance Corporation and as resident counsel for the Reynolds Metal Company which reportedly owes the RFC $23,000,000."

Mr. Stevenson, who is going to clean up corruption, makes RFC attorney and RFC customer Wyatt his campaign manager!

U. S. News & World Report Aug. 15 (p. 22) quoted Stevenson as saying of Wyatt: "He is an old personal friend, an excellent lawyer, a man of great confidence and ability, integrity and judgment, and I was delighted he was available to help me with my campaign."

If this is the measure of Stevenson's judgment of men, then God help America if Stevenson becomes President.

STEVENSON PICKED SCHLESINGER

The Democratic candidate says he personally picked his Assistant Campaign Manager, Arthur M. Schlesinger.

The above cited magazine quoted Stevenson in telling how this Harvard brain came to Stevenson's campaign staff: "I asked him. He came down to see me . . . He is an old friend of mine. I asked him if he could give me some time between now and the time college opened and he has volunteered to do that."

Schlesinger was one of the leaders of the Communist youth front so cherished by Mrs. Roosevelt—the American Student Union. One of his buddies in that front was the Negro Communist, Langston Hughes (author of "Goodbye Christ" etc.). Another was Comrade James Waterman Wise, son of the late Red Rabbi Stephen S. Wise.

The California Un-American Activities Committee Report for 1949 lists

EDITOR OF WILLIAMS INTELLIGENCE SUMMARY, SANTA ANA, CALIFORNIA.

Schlesinger (p. 449) as a member of the Communist Civil Rights Congress (organized April 27, 1946). That report notes that "The Communist Party set up the Civil Rights Congress . . ."

Walter Reuther, CIO-UAW gangster boss who got his training right in Moscow, and who is one of the wheels in the Americans for Democratic Action, has been assigned a very special place in the Stevenson "crusade."

But don't go away. The old left wing stooge, Stephen Mitchell, successor to Truman's Frank McKinney as chairman of the Democratic National Committee, was proposed for the job "by representative Emmanuel Celler . . . and on the suggestion of Supreme Court Justice William O. Douglas" (as reported by the Washington Daily News, Aug. 9).

Celler is one of the most faithful of the B'nai B'rith Jewish nationalists in the House; Justice Douglas is, if possible, even further to the left.

In view of the Marxists running his campaign, it seems obvious that Stevenson, himself a Marxist, is only serving campaign hogwash when he hits the centralization of power in the federal government. Even if he meant it, he could not shape policies to the contrary, while picking Marxists to execute and help shape his policies.

On August 17 the Americans for Democratic Action met and enthusiastically endorsed Stevenson, calling his platform "liberal" and "forward looking."

The ADA is the most powerful "Communist" or Marxist front in politics at this time, other than certain exclusively Jewish organizations. If it is not also an outright front for the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith, it at least is an obliging affiliate. The ADL and related Zionists are more successful than the Communists in guarding the identity of their official agents and fronts, but we see that the ADL's agent was on hand and working with the ADA during the Democratic convention. NY Supreme Court Justice Meier Steinbrink, national high dragon of this Jewish black hand society, in a letter dated July 22 published three days later in the New York Times, said the Anti-Defamation League, through one of its vice presidents, Phillip M. Klutznick, worked with James B. Carey of the CIO, Walter White of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People and Stanley Gewirtz of the Americans for Democratic Action in demanding a strong civil rights plank. (Gewirtz himself may be a member of the ADL for all we can know.)

As previously noted, candidate Stevenson has endorsed this Marxist civil rights plank, and with high praise.

As for Americans for Democratic Action, it gave its ardent support to Stanley M. Isaacs for the New York City Council in 1948 in spite of or because of Isaac's record of membership in some 69 Communist fronts, 17 of which are on the Attorney General's list of subversive organizations.

ADA HATES ANTI-COMMUNISTS

The ADA was a principal influence in electing young Franklin D. Roosevelt, Jr., to Congress (on David Dubinsky's Socialist Liberal ticket—and Dubinsky is himself a founder of the ADA).

Sen. Hubert Humphrey of Minnesota, one of the wheel horses of the ADA, stated April 3, 1950 that the ADA was "in full partnership" with the Democratic Party. If Stevenson is elected the ADA will virtually be the administrative department of the government.

ADA tried to block the McCarran-Walter immigration bill (shutting off mass minority immigration).

ADA has fought every item of legislation designed to help curb Communists, including the McCarran-Mundt-Ferguson bill.

If there is anybody ADA hates more than anti-Communist Senator McCarran it is anti-Communist Senator McCarthy.

ADA has consistently fought for the repeal of the Smith Act, a law itself flimsy enough, but the only one under which we have convicted a Communist for conspiring to overthrow the government. ADA could hardly make more clear its attitude toward the Communist conspiracy to overthrow the government. In view of this record, all its shadow-boxing Moscow could hardly fool anybody with a half a wit.

Pegler Nov. 28, 1951, quoted from a book by an English Socialist named David C. Williams, entitled Intelligent Socialist's Guide to America: "ADA is not a political party. It operates very much as the early Fabian Society did, seeking to permeate the existing parties with new ideas and personalities."

It was the Fabian Society, you may remember, which imposed full-scale Socialism on the British.

The founders of the ADA were William E. Bohn, one of the Socialist leaders of this country for many years and editor of the Socialist New Leader (which obliges the Communists and the ADL by maligning anti-Communists including this writer). Bohn admitted in his paper April 5, 1947, "I spent the weekend in Washington helping to set up the Americans for Democratic Action." With him and Dubinsky were also Hugo Ernst, Hubert Humphrey, Walter Reuther, Ethel P. Epstein, F. D. Roosevelt, Jr., Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt . . . Why go on?

Red record. He was trained at Harvard Law School, where ruled Felix Frankfurter, the Rockefeller-subsidized breeder of Reds for government service. Several of his pupils have been "honored" with jail sentences for subversive activities, perjury in connection with treason, and other similar "distinguished services." But most of them are high in the government service, and have not yet been so "honored." Instead, they constitute the backbone of our Government in Washington, which Stevenson now fitfully proposes to head.

ROCKEFELLER MOSCOW MISSION

Adlai Stevenson made a "mission" to Rockefeller-courted Moscow in 1926, the year when the Rockefeller interests consummated their deal with Stalin by which the world is now ruled. In Moscow, Stevenson became so intimate a bedfellow of the Bolshevik gangsters that he now boasts that he greets them by their first names. This was a qualification that stood him in good stead when he was recommended at a later date, by the Alger Hiss crew, for the post of Adviser to the U. S. Delegation to the UN San Francisco Conference, with the special assignment of courting the Communist delegation.

Adlai Stevenson joined Communist Lee Pressman (who recommended him for his job) and the Hal Ware "cell" traitors in Henry Wallace's AAA, in 1933.

ASSOCIATED WITH HISS

Adlai Stevenson was steadily associated with Alger Hiss between 1933 and 1949: In the Agricultural Adjustment Administration. In Rockefeller's Council on Foreign Relations, which is their top agency that guides the rest of their subversive fronts, but has not yet been exposed by a fearful Congress. In the Institute of Pacific Relations, the Rockefeller-Soviet Axis espionage and propaganda agency that was set up for the purpose of turning over Asia to the Soviets, and which, with its Rockefeller-funds supported the Communist, Richard Sorge spy ring in Japan, that induced the Japs to attack the U. S. at Pearl Harbor instead of attacking Soviet Russia as they originally planned. In the War Department, at which time he was recommended by Communists Alger Hiss and Coe as a delegate to the Mont Tremblant Conference of the Institute of Pacific Relations. In the State Department, to which he was recommended by Hiss and associated Reds, where he "helped Hiss set up the United Nations, accompanying him to San Francisco for the organizing sessions and later collaborating with him in London and New York (E. F. Tompkins, N. Y. Journal American 9-5-52). (He was assigned to fraternize with his pals among the Soviet gangsters). In the Woodrow Wilson Foundation, where in 1949, he was fellow trustee with Alger Hiss, Henry A. Wallace and other "patriots" of the same breed.

Adlai Stevenson is a leader of Rockefeller's International House at the University of Chicago, that expands the theme song of the Communists, "Internationale."

Vanderbilt Field, Owen Lattimore and the rest of the Amerasia gang, that turned over to Communist agents 1,700 top secret documents that made possible the breaking of our code and cost the lives of thousands of our men. Stevenson took over from Lattimore (who is now under fire of Congress as a Red agent) the task of defending, justifying and steering the Asiatic policy of the State Department in the channels required by the Rockefeller-Soviet Axis agreements. In this connection Stevenson wrote for the April 1952 issue of the Council's publication, Foreign Affairs, a defense of their treacheries and their sell-out in Korea. Directly after the appearance of this article, their agency named ironically Americans for Democratic Action (ADA) ordered the "drafting" of Stevenson for Presidential nomination. This organization is a thin camouflage for the Red rats who deserted the Communist ship, when it became unpopular after the outbreak of the Korean War. It was organized by Wilson Wyatt, who has been chosen by Stevenson as his campaign manager. Active in effecting this Stevenson "draft" for their Rockefeller-Soviet masters were Moscow-trained Walter Reuther, Phil Murray, and other saboteurs of America's defenses.

DARLING OF RED PRESS

ADA Stevenson has been, during this period of Red buildup, the darling of the Red press and the protege of its financiers. Though the "draft" had been arranged months previously, it was their plan to keep it secret until the Convention so as to dupe us, American "peasants," and not deprive us of the diversion that would be afforded dupes among us by the pretense of a fight on the convention floor in Chicago, that could be televised. During the Convention, when Stevenson was pretending to coyly "resist" the "draft", and remained "incommunicado", he was closeted with some of the top bracket conspirators of the ADA, including his intimates Marshall Field, of the Red Chicago Sun, Dorothy Schiff, of the New York Post, and David Dubinsky.

STEVENSON, MAFIA & JAKE ARVEY

Ada Stevenson has been wholly loyal to his Red pals (tovariches) and their Party Line. Marshall Field's Red Chicago Sun's managing editor, James W. Mulroy, and city editor, William I. Flanagan, with one of the more violently Red of the Illinois CIO leaders, became Governor Stevenson's "brain-trust", following his election with Marshall Field's sponsorship and support. As might be expected from his record, Stevenson vetoed the Broyly Bill for control of Communists. Corruption is more rampant than ever under Stevenson's "Labor government" of Illinois, as is evidenced by the widespread sale of horse meat as beef, wide-open gambling, explosions in unsafe mines permitted to operate, and the open tie-in of Mafia gangsterism, labor and top echelons of government under the leadership of Jake Arvey. But the self-same Red agents and press that attacked the previous regime of Gov. Green, now loudly sing the praise of Stevenson's even more corrupt "Labor government". This Red "brain trust", since Stevenson's nomination, has been joined by Dorothy Schiff's even Redder columnist, Professor Arthur Schlesinger Jr., chief adviser and ghost-writer in Stevenson's Presidential campaign, and her editor, J. Wechsler, a former official of The Young Communist League and comrade of convicted top Communist conspirators. It is reported that "if Stevenson wins, Wechsler will become one of his inner circle brain-trusters or . . . Secretary of Defense! Or even chief of a Free Press." Beardsley Ruml, Rockefeller's high priest of the "social(ist) sciences" and writer of confiscatory, socialist tax bills with oily loopholes, is slated to be Stevenson's top fund raiser. Both Schlesinger and

ROOSEVELT DELANO DYNASTY

Adlai Stevenson is related by marriage and blood to the Roosevelt-Delano Dynasty that has given this country nineteen of its thirty-four Presidents, and has ruled and looted US from the beginning. (Twelve of them are shown in the family tree of the Dynasty hung at the Hyde Park "shrine" by Eleanor Roosevelt, which is reproduced in the author's STRANGE DEATH OF FRANKLIN DELANO ROOSEVELT.) The Roosevelt Delano Dynasty's control of the nominating machinery of both major parties, that was gained at their inception, has robbed us of our supposed franchise and freedom, and has enabled them to perpetuate their rule. It has enabled them to create in the minds of what they call "American peasants," the figment of "divine right to rule" US. It has made the hereditary transmission of the office of President in their clan an accomplished fact. Thus in the Grover Cleveland regime, both President Cleveland and Vice President Adlai Stevenson (the candidate's grandfather) were of the clan. Repeatedly in the course of our history the candidates of both parties have been members of the clan. In the current campaign, four of the candidates—Stevenson, Taft, Russell and Barkley—are related to Franklin Delano Roosevelt. Stevenson's election will serve to confirm the faith of many of us "peasants" in the hereditary transmission of the "divine right" of the Roosevelt-Delano Dynasty to rule US.

At this point it might be noted that Adlai Stevenson's wife, patriotic American, Ellen Borden Stevenson, is reported to have divorced her husband because of his unsavory political associations. But the Dynasty is willing to defy the aversion of Catholic and Episcopalian voters (High Church) to divorce, in order to break down the resistance to divorce for the benefit of the multiply-divorced Roosevelt progeny, to prepare their way for hereditary succession to the Presidency.

ADLAI STEVENSON IS A GLIB, WISE-CRACKING, BIBLE - THUMPING RED WHO IS WELL CAST FOR THE ROLE OF AMERICA'S GOTTFELD. He is not only "Stalin's Choice" and agent of the Rockefeller-Soviet Axis, but also one of the hereditary rulers of the Roosevelt-Delano Dynasty. His election will place the motley crew in direct and open rule of our land—a conquest by infiltration and duping of us "peasants".

Soviet ambassador Zorin specializes in taking over republics by elections. He engineered the Gottwald take-over in Czechoslovakia. Is he here to supervise the take-over by our "own Gottwald".

SENATOR NIXON VICTIM OF INVISIBLE GOVERNMENT

THE CONGRESS IS YOUR WEAPON OVERWHELMING POWERS OF CONGRESS CITED

By Merwin K. Hart,
President, National Economic Council
From Council Letter No. 294

For six months the American people have heard of little in politics except the contest for the Presidency.

Both major parties have nominated candidates. From their various utterances to date, and from the two long-winded, generally vague party platforms, it is a fair inference that it does not make much difference to the American people which candidate is elected November 4th. In either event the trend is likely to be toward more intervention by the state and more Socialism. Eventually this will lead to some form of Communism. Socialism cannot be made to work without coercion. And Communism is only Socialism plus coercion.

Assuming all this to be true, are the American people without recourse? Have they no other agency by which their liberties may be restored?

Fortunately they have a very great agency in the Congress of the United States—as long as they keep it.

The provisions of Article I of the Constitution, which Article fills as much space as all the rest of the Articles of the Constitution proper put together, give the Congress VERY GREAT POWERS—powers greater than those either of the Executive or the Judiciary.

This is not surprising, for the American Revolution was a revolt against executive authority. So it was provided that the American people could look to their elected representatives in Congress, even more than to the Executive, for the safeguarding of their liberties.

An examination of the Constitution reveals that there is no single thing that the President can tell the Congress that it MUST do; whereas it is the DUTY of the President to "take care that the laws (passed by the Congress) be faithfully executed." In many ways he is the agent of the Congress.

The Separation Of Powers

Under the doctrine of separation of powers, one of the two principal bases of the American form of government, each branch. Legislative, Executive and Judicial, operates as a check on the other two. If the Congress passes a law which the President for any reason dislikes, he may veto

N. Y. POST (DOROTHY SCHIFF) AND J. WECHSLER, EX-OFFICIAL OF "YOUNG COMMUNIST LEAGUE" LAUNCH RED PURGE OF SENATOR NIXON

The Anti Defamation League, which is part of the B'nai B'rith (the Invisible Government) and boasts of more than two thousand paid investigators (snoopers) have unusual interest in matters of nominations and elections. Murray Chotiner, an A.D.L. agent and Manager for Richard Nixon arranged to have Nixon nominated as Vice President. Nixon, being a young ous ailment and the possibility that if elected, Nixon may later develop as President and open war on Communism, the Invisible Government became alarmed and launched an attack to have Nixon removed. The New York Post, owned by Dorothy Schiff, led this attack. The editorial was written by Dorothy Schiff who is the granddaughter-

Dorothy Schiff, publisher of the New York Post, New York's leading Marxist Hate Sheet, whose grandfather, Jacob Schiff, advanced $48,000,000 in 1917 to finance the Russian Revolution. Official Government documents (including the Senate Overman report, and the Sisson Report to Woodrow Wilson) definitely establish the Warburg Banking Firm, of which the Schiffs are members, as the financiers of the 1917 Red Russian Revolution.

man, they felt they would be able to direct him and hold him in line so that he would not vigorously expose the New Deal operations. But something went wrong and they found they could not control Nixon as they expected and he continued to blast Communism and the New Deal in his speeches. (Readers who would like evidence of the fact that Jacob Schiff, President of Kuhn, Loeb & Company, Jewish Bankers, was the power behind the Communist revolution may obtain this information by writing COMMON SENSE and asking for photostatic copy of article in the New York Times of 1917). The editor of the New York Post is James Wechsler. Walter Winchell devoted a column and a half to Wechsler's Communist record, to quote a few lines: "After the revelations here on Monday morning that the editor of the N. Y. Post (J. Wechsler) was an official of The Young Communist League (several comrades of which finally landed in our Federal prisons, after being convicted of Conspiracy to Overthrow the United States Government) various representatives of war vet groups tried to see him." Dorothy Schiff, owner, and James Wechsler, editor, (both Jews) of the New York Post, which is read almost exclusively by Jews, gave the signal and the Marxist Jews of the United States immediately took up this campaign to destroy Richard Nixon. Jewish writers and radio commentators took up this assault against Nixon and then kept in the background.

Was it an Accident?

Was it an accident this smear was started? Did some misguided patriot open this attack on Richard Nixon? The few days remaining before this important election represents valuable time and important subjects should be brought into the open and discussed, for instance, what group was really responsible for pushing us into World War II which was so disastrous to the whole world and mainly responsible for the present state of fear and uncertainty in our country today. If the public does not understand how we became embroiled in World War II, if they do not understand how or why we are now in a phoney war in Korea, unless we understand how these things have happened and who is responsible, how are we to prevent being pushed into an even worse catastrophe in the near future? What better time would there be to discuss this than when we are trying to decide which candidate would make the worst president?

Invisible Government

The Invisible Government is busy day and night maneuvering and conditioning us for the most terrible chaos ever witnessed for the express purpose of enslaving us to the ruthless minority group which operates the Invisible Government. This group which is steadily planning to enslave the world through wars, bankruptcy and regimentation, are very much concerned that the public does not learn of their past activities and prevent the completion of the plan. The Invisible Government has a working agreement with the Rockefeller International Group, using the Institute of Pacific Relations and the Council on Foreign Relations through such stooges as Owen Lattimore, John Carter Vincent, Gen. George Marshall and Dean Acheson to cause the Pacific countries to fall to Communism. Through the use of the State Department and Truman, the Invisible Government was able to remove all important obstacles to its plan except General MacArthur, hence they demanded he be fired.

As the time for the Chicago Convention approached, every effort was made by the Invisible Government and the Rockefeller Internationalists to prevent MacArthur from being nominated on the Republican ticket, as it was generally known he would not be dictated to and could be depended on to expose the operations of the Marxist New Deal. As the campaign for the nomination proceeded, it was evident that most of Senator Taft's followers expected he would throw his support to MacArthur at the proper time. Then started a most ruthless campaign against Taft with stooges such as "Me-Too" Dewey using every possible method to destroy the Taft and MacArthur forces. If Eisenhower could be placed as the nominee against the New Deal candidate, the Invisible Government would be safe either way, for Eisenhower would follow orders. They knew when he was ordered not to dig up the criminal program of the New Deal for twenty odd years, Eisenhower would obey as he obeyed their disgraceful orders during World War II. Taft's Marxist advisors prevented him from throwing his support to Gen. MacArthur the day before the balloting. By skullduggery and ruthless steam-roller methods, Eisenhower was placed as the nominee.

Post Smears All Patriots

For those who are not familiar with the tactics of the red New York Post, it will be interesting to know that among the many smears launched on patriotic anti-communists, the following are but a few: a series of eight articles on Sen. McCarthy, a full page on Ben Freedman who's patriotism cannot be excelled by any living man, a series of seven articles on Vivien Kellems, a series of nine articles on COMMON SENSE, smears against such patriots as Gen. MacArthur, Senator McCarran, Senator Jenner. This red New York Post also viciously opposes the Un-American Activities Committee, the McCarran-Walters Immigration Act and any movement to outlaw Communism. It defends such traitors as Alger Hiss and Dean Acheson, and devotes space to promoting snoopers for the A. D. L. such as Gordon Hall, a panty-waist lace-cuffed ladies man.

The New York Post supported Communist Marcantonio and red Henry Wallace.

The Post supported Eisenhower in the primary election to assure that the New Deal would be opposed only by a shadow boxer. Now that the nominations have been made, the Marxist New York Post supports Adlai Stevenson, Alger Hiss' pal, so that Communism can continue to thrive in our government. Ike is being used to elect Stevenson just as Dewey and Wilkie were used to help elect the arch-traitor of all times, F.D.R.

Nixon's Broadcast

Senator Nixon's broadcast on television and radio brought a tremendous response in the form of hundreds of thousands of letters and telegrams demanding that the Republican National Committee retain him as Vice Presidential candidate. However, there is much evidence to support the belief that Eisenhower, under pressure from the Marxist group, was on the verge of dumping Nixon when the effects of the Broadcast caused their plans to boomerang. There were such remarks by Ike as "Nixon will have to come clean." The invisible Government and the World Government crowd are happy to see the principals engaged in shadow boxing over small issues such as these funds and Stevenson's jokes instead of discussing foreign policies, causes for war, and the likelihood of a new war. Time goes on and November 4th people will vote not knowing how either candidate stands on the important issues before the country. Neither candidate has the courage to say he favors outlawing Communism, or will fire Anna Rosenberg and Dean Acheson. Advisers and speech writers for Stevenson who have been mentioned in the press are: Herbert Lehman, Jacob Arvey, Davis Niles (Nihlus), Sam Rosenman, David Dubinsky, Lee Pressman, Arthur Goldberg, (General Council C.I.O.) Arthur M. Schlesinger, Benjamin Cohen, James Wechsler, Ben Sonnenberg, Nathan Straus, Henry Morgenthau. These are all Jews, but anyone who says the Jews are masterminding Stevenson's campaign is a bigot, a hate-monger, a Nazi or an anti-semiter.

A NEGRO SPEAKS

Republished from Nashville Banner,
By J. T. Bellanfant, Columbia, Tenn.

"The more I travel, listen and observe, the more convinced I become that the Negro has been misled in this matter of integration and civil rights. It appears to me that the first thing should come first, and that our economic well-being is of a greater significance than the privilege or right to attend a white school or to associate with the white people on an equal social basis provided by Supreme Court decision and pressure legislation.

"As a Negro and an American, I naturally want to see my race enjoy every right, privilege and opportunity enjoyed by any other American, but I am opposed to any type of agitation designed to deprive the other fellow of a right to be associated with his own kind exclusively, if he so desires. I would like to reserve such a right for myself and definitely would not want it encroached upon by Supreme Court edict or any other kind of interference.

"The right granted to one or two Negroes in Virginia or some other Southern State to enter a state graduate school is of no benefit to the millions of our people who are in need of the bare necessities of life, and when the fortunately situated members of the race conduct such campaigns of agitation for selfish gain, the needy masses suffer . . .

"I was in Atlanta and was greatly impressed by the large number of outstanding and progressive Negro businesses. Atlanta is strictly a segregated city. I was in several New England cities where there is not supposed to be any segregation, and I found not one creditable Negro business. The only owned and operated Negro radio station is not in New York, but in Atlanta, Ga., and Memphis, Tenn. Segregation has not only given the Negro in the South an opportunity to carve out his industrial and economic destiny, but it has forced him to the fore as the most substantial and economically secure Negro in the world today.

"The Negro in New York, Newark and other supposedly liberal centers may enjoy the privilege to eat where he may please or go to any theater or public place of amusement, but a Negro can't get a license in Newark to operate a liquor store and there are any number of fields that he can't enter business in other Eastern and Northern cities. But this isn't true in the

it. The Supreme Court may declare a law invalid, if in its opinion it conflicts with the Constitution; but if the Judiciary renders a decision with which Congress does not agree, Congress can initiate an amendment to the Constitution. If the President vetoes a bill, the Congress may repass the bill over his veto. Thereafter the President, if he respects his oath of office, cannot elect, as Mr. Truman has done, which laws he will enforce and which laws he will ignore.

These checks and balances, as they are called, worked well during the first 143 years of our history, probably for the reason that the American people were their own rulers and each branch of the government had a genuine respect for the other two. Except for a few sporadic cases, such as those of Citizen Genet and the Emperor Maximilian, no alien influence was at work.

It was only when the United States yielded to the temptation to meddle in the affairs of other nations commencing in 1917, that the alien influence got its real start. And this more or less secret, furtive and sinister influence has been at work ever since. It dominated both national conventions of 1952.

The Overwhelming Powers of the Congress

Here is why we say the Congress is, in important respects, the most powerful of the three branches.

1. If the President vetoes a bill, the Congress by a two-thirds vote may repass it over his veto. In the past 20 years this has happened on a number of occasions, as in the Taft-Hartley Act of 1947 and the McCarran-Walters Immigration Act of 1952.

2. The Congress may refuse to pass legislation recommended by the President. This also has happened on many occasions and with respect to important measures recommended by the Executive, as with the Brannan Plan to socialize agriculture, the various schemes for Federal Aid to Education, and the Ewing Plan for socialized medicine.

3. The Congress has the power to modify or repeal legislation, a power often exercised. Down to twenty years ago, it was expected that legislation would be drafted by the Congress itself. But F. D. Roosevelt seized the initiative in 1933 and by the aid of his hand-picked advisers, drafted legislation and handed it to the Congress as though he were the master and the Congress the servant. Since many of the President's advisers were Leftists, many of the bills passed by the Congress were found later to contain language not understood and not explained at the time, but which conveyed far greater powers than the Congress ever intended. One bill sent to Congress by the President in the famous "hundred days" in the spring and summer of 1933 was passed by both Houses, though it had not even been read by more than a very few Members.

4. The Congress has the power to impeach the President or any of his important officials. The House may, by majority vote, pass an impeachment resolution. And the person impeached may be convicted by the Senate by vote of two-thirds of the MEMBERS PRESENT. Thus, if a bare quorum (namely, 49 Senators) is present, the affirmative vote of 33 can convict and remove the President from office.

5. The Congress has the sole power to appropriate money and to levy taxes.

6. The Congress has the sole power to declare war. This power was usurped by President Truman in his action in Korea in June of 1950. But the power remains in the hands of the Congress if it will only exercise it.

7. Lastly the Congress, alone among the three branches of government, can initiate amendments to the Constitution.

Powers of the Senate

The Senate itself has certain extraordinary powers, which, like the seven listed above, greatly restrict the power of the Chief Executive:

1. The Senate may confirm or reject an appointment to public office.

2. The Senate may ratify or reject, or may attach reservations to, any treaty which the President has negotiated with one or more foreign countries. And in order to ratify, the vote of TWO-THIRDS OF THE MEMBERS PRESENT is required.

Usurpation of Powers By the Executive

As long as the separation of powers was observed by the Executive and the Judiciary, the Government of the United States ran fairly well.

Trouble arose when the President in 1933 began usurping the powers of the Congress. Aided and abetted by left-wing propaganda through newspapers, magazines, and books, and through radio, education and the churches, the destruction of American liberties got under way. That destruction has already advanced very far. Yet it need not go on further. And the liberties lost can be regained. The Congress can accomplish this, IF ONLY THE PEOPLE WILL SELECT A CONGRESS TO DO THEIR BIDDING, AND THEN WILL STAND BEHIND THE CONGRESS.

The very essence of the Constitution is that the people are supreme. The Congress, without the participation of the people back home, is well-nigh helpless. Section 1 of Article I says that "All legislative powers HEREIN GRANTED shall be vested in a Congress. . . ." (Capitals ours.) Article 10 of the Bill of Rights says clearly that "The powers not delegated to the United States by the Constitution, nor prohibited by it to the States, are reserved to the States respectively, or TO THE PEOPLE." (Capitals ours.)

The people can exercise their power—at the polls. BUT THEY HAVE TO ACT IN TIME.

Leftists Seek to Belittle Congress

It has long been a prime policy of Socialists and Communists to distract attention from congressional elections. That is why all the Left-wing talk in recent months has been about the Presidency.

Clearly, the important thing now for those Americans who wish to recover their lost liberties, is TO FASTEN THEIR ATTENTION ON THE ELECTION OF THE CONGRESS. Several Left-wing organizations, amply supplied with money, are going all out to elect or defeat this or that Congressman or senator, or whole groups of them. Such organizations are today seeking to defeat stalwart Americans in several crucial States. They may succeed unless citizens come to their aid.

Most Members of Congress have the will to do what is right and to restore the liberties of the American people. But they have not had the organized support of their constituents to the extent they are entitled, and to the extent that the citizens' own vital interests require.

If an individual possessing property were to select some person to manage it for him, would he then forget about it—pay no attention to what the hired manager might do?

Yet that is precisely what most Americans have done with respect to their government. The vast majority of people, engrossed in their own lives, have left the management and direction of the structure of their government to hired hands, and are largely ignoring what their hired hands are doing.

Meanwhile these latter, the law-making body under the pressure of a power-hungry Executive, have been wasting the property—dissipating it in foolish ways, even spending it in such a way as to build up a Frankenstein that threatens to destroy both the property and the liberty of its owners.

Congressmen Elected by Small Margin

In 1950, about 100 Members of the Lower House were elected by majorities of ten per cent or less of the total vote. This means that the opponents of these 100 were defeated by only that margin. Clearly a little extra effort by citizens in opposition to those present Members who are essentially Left-wingers, would have resulted in their defeat; and a little more organized support for those conservative candidates who were defeated, would have resulted in their election.

Left-wingers understand all this. Most conservatives don't. Or, if they do, they have done little about it.

Party government has to a large extent fallen down. During the past two years in Congress many Southern Democrats and Northern Republicans through coalition have defeated or passed a pending piece of legislation. In certain of the larger cities are Members who pass as Republicans but whose voting record clearly shows they are Left-wingers.

Therefore the party label is not always a true one.

Both party platforms can well be thrown out the window. They are, and are intended to be, vague, general and so verbose as to conceal their real meaning, if there is any.

Some Vital Questions

There the six or eight questions that ARE of vital importance to the American people. These are set forth in the following statements:

1. Foreign Policy.

The Congress should see to it that in foreign policy America's vital interests shall always come first. Subject to this reservation, America should render what assistance she reasonably can to other anti-Communist nations that are willing to help themselves. All present foreign policy should be reviewed with the object of conforming it to the principle of AMERICA FIRST.

A constitutional amendment should be adopted that will provide in substance that neither the U.N. Charter, nor any other treaty to which the United States is or may hereafter become a party, shall be deemed to abrogate or reduce the rights of American citizens, as guaranteed by the Constitution, nor shall they impair the sovereignty of the United States.

The United Nations is clearly the spearhead of international Socialism. It should be trimmed down to the size of an international debating forum, where it could serve a useful purpose. The continued fanatical support of U.N. will destroy the American Republic. American independence should at all costs be maintained.

2. Defense.

America should put herself in position to defend herself under all circumstances; and this task should take precedence over all other Federal activities.

3. The Right to Work.

The Congress should take action to protect every American in his right to work or to quit working, whether a member of any organization or not. Where state or local government officials do not protect their citizens, they should be supplanted. Industry-wide bargaining should be made unlawful. Mass picketing should be forbidden, and the laws against violence and intimidation should be enforced by the police power of honest government.

4. Spending and Taxation.

All unnecessary government spending should be cut out. All projects that are not immediately necessary should be postponed or eliminated. The national debt and taxes should be reduced. Such a policy would assure continued national solvency, revive individual incentive in private enterprise, and thus maintain an abundance of risk capital.

5. "Civil Rights."

No man has greater opportunity anywhere for self improvement and advancement than in America. The current ballyhoo for so-called "civil rights" stirs up hatred and bigotry where none existed before,

SEN. INTERNAL SECURITY SUBCOMMITTEE RELEASE

By Senator Pat McCarran, Chairman

WASHINGTON, Sept. 24, 1952. — Senator Pat McCarran (D.Nev.) today declared that communism had fastened itself like a leech on the careers of prominent figures in the entertainment world.

He counseled the nation's entertainers and the entertainment industry to take careful inventory of their affiliations.

"These people," said McCarran, "plead that most of the suspect activities in which they were engaged seemed to have 'laudable' objectives, but they admit they did not investigate the true purposes. Such persons—and the industry they represent—must be everlastingly on guard if they are honest in their professed desire to be loyal and upright, for they are public figures who become the idols of great masses of people and their lives must be exemplary and trustworthy."

Senator McCarran, who is presently in Reno, issued the statement through his office here.

Releasing the second volume of testimony on subversive influences in radio and television before the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee of which he is the chairman, Senator McCarran drew attention to the striking number of Communist-controlled organizations and Communist-sponsored activities in which some of the witnesses have involved themselves.

The inquiry is being conducted under the direction of Senators McCarran; James O. Eastland, Chairman; and Arthur V. Watkins.

"We do not want to accuse anyone of 'guilt by association,'" McCarran said, "but it is a dangerous type of thinking that leads people into such involvements. It is not the sort of thinking that should be permitted to express itself freely in such important media as radio, television, and other types of entertainment directed at the minds of our people."

Senator McCarran said that it is obvious that the Communists provided an opportunity for beginners in the entertainment field to gain experience, perfect their specialties and sometimes make a little money to help them along.

"But," he declared, "Communism fastens itself like a leech on persons whom it touches. The evidence is that the opportunity to associate with Communist enterprises occurs time and again until the performer or writer or director is sufficiently involved to be used for subversive purposes as a participant with Communist leaders in attacks on the Government, on Congress, on the courts and even on industry."

Senator McCarran illustrated this point

by reference to the testimony of Judy Holiday that among her many activities in aid of Communist enterprises, she had allowed herself to be photographed in a picket line which is described as Communist sponsored; that she joined the Communists in condemning the police for the Communist-promoted riots following the appearance of Paul Robeson in Peekskill, New York; that she protested, in telegrams, the indictment of the so-called Hollywood Ten for refusal to answer questions of a Congressional committee, and that she aided the phony Communist peace movement.

He referred also to the fight of Philip Loeb against the Labor Management Relations Act requirement that union officers sign a non-Communist oath as a prerequisite to the designation of Actors Equity as bargaining agent; his published protest against the revocation of the charter of the Queens College (Long Island) chapter of American Youth for Democracy, a Communist front; his signature on a letter objecting to procedure of the House Un-American Activities Committee, and the use of his name on a telegram criticizing the Attorney General for prosecuting the eleven Communist leaders.

Senator McCarran also observed that the testimony of other witnesses showed at least a regrettable carelessness in contributing their talents and their names to Communist programs, if not an active and conscious participation in Communist-activated projects.

"One of the witnesses," Senator McCarran said, "referred to my publicly-expressed views of communism in 1939 with the statement that I then said, 'people are too much excited about Communist activities'."

"At best, that is a very broad paraphrase. I argued then, and I am of the same opinion still, that the theater must not be condemned, nor can the various classes of entertainers be condemned merely because some among them are Communists or Communist sympathizers."

"I also said in that same debate: 'I wish more of communism could be brought into the open, so that the boys of America might learn to despise the thing from the cradle up. If we could only bring it out or forget our fear of it and damn it and crush it, it would go out of existence...'"

"That is my objective now as it was then and I hope the loyal people in the entertainment field and the industry itself will give our committee their full support and crush the leech."

CORRECTION

In our issue No. 168 David Lawrence, Mayor of Pittsburgh, should not have been listed with the Zionist Jews. He might just as well be, however, for the company he keeps. He is not David Lawrence, the writer.

and serves only the cause of Communism. The Christian doctrine of good will toward men, voluntarily applied, will do more to avoid class and race and religious feeling than all the laws that could be passed.

6. Communism.

The policy of the government toward Communism should be radically stepped up. The Communist party should be outlawed. Every Communist sympathizer should be cleaned out of public office. Undoubtedly espionage and potential sabotage are well-nigh everywhere. If Congress has the will, Communist activities in the United States can be suppressed. If a fraction of the energy now exerted by the Administration to further Socialism were directed to eliminate Communism, Communism would be eliminated. IF WE CAN'T SUPPRESS COMMUNISM IN OUR OWN COUNTRY, HOW CAN WE EXPECT EVER TO "CONTAIN" IT ELSEWHERE?

What Can Be Done?

In any district where the sitting Member was elected in 1950 by, say, not over ten per cent of the total vote, that seat is a doubtful one. The great mass of the intelligent American people don't care so much what the attitude of the Congressman is on lesser matters. BUT THEY ARE INTERESTED IN KNOWING THE VIEWS OF CANDIDATES ON THE MATTERS LISTED ABOVE.

Consequently it is apparent that a number of citizens in any congressional district or any state could present to the candidates of both parties for Congress a brief program based on the above statements. If the nominee of one party agreed to endorse them, and that of the other declined, they could organize to support the one who endorsed—regardless of the party to which he belonged.

This is the practical way to counteract the capture of the national party machinery of both political parties by the same internationalist group. It is the only way out.

REDS BEHIND STEVENSON PLAN SOVIET AMERICA

INTELLIGENCE OFFICER WARNS OF CIVIL WAR IF ADLAI WINS

By Robert H. Williams, news analyst, lecturer and former Counter Intelligence officer.

Robert H. Williams

While the unprecedented victory by that fighting Marine Joseph McCarthy in Wisconsin gave America a shot in the arm, we face a dangerous situation in the presidential campaign.

As of today there is about a fifty-fifty chance that Adlai Stevenson will be elected President. If Stevenson wins we must expect a Communist-type dictatorship or a bloody civil war or both.

The September issue of the Intelligence Summary presented enough of Stevenson's record and his associates, backers and policies to make disturbing reading. But since that issue came out we have seen a constant unfolding of Stevenson's record, showing that he is even more deeply involved in the Marxist revolution than we had realized. We see also that he is increasingly outspoken in embracing the New Deal policies created by the Communist Party.

We all know what Eisenhower is: a weakling, an internationalist dogooder, a poor befuddled fellow who would like to be honest and great but who did not inherit the brain, the spine or the spirit.

Stevenson, A Harvard Red

Stevenson is a Red with a will and a wit. In the September issue of the Summary we quoted Time Magazine and other sources to show that the Jewish gangster-boss of Chicago's underworld, Jake Arvey, who is also the boss of the Democratic Party in Illinois, was the man who designated Stevenson for the Democratic nomination for Governor of that state. It is a widely accepted conclusion that if Stevenson becomes President Jake Arvey will be boss of the White House.

Arvey and Frankfurter are working in the same Zionist machine. You may recall that the September issue quoted Who's Who in American Jewry (1939) as listing Arvey as a director of the American Jewish Congress. The AJC is the huge, powerful and secretive revolutionary organization which officially represents the Zionist Organization of America, which in turn is under the World Zionist Organization. Frankfurter is one of the masterminds of Zionism.

Next to the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith, the American Jewish Congress is the most powerful wing of the Zionist secret apparatus which now is in a threatening position, virtually controlling the Departments of State and Defense. Let's take a brief look at some elements of Stevenson's record more recently revealed.

Stevenson studied for two years in Harvard Law School when Felix Frankfurter dominated that school. It was during the period when Acheson and fellow Reds were being indoctrinated there. Stevenson's trip to Russia in the early 1920's, hoping to interview some Soviet bigwigs, indicates early Marxist indoctrination. Otherwise why his pre-occupation with the Soviet Union?

In a recent column, Pegler stated: "... Stevenson reported in the 1945 edition of Who's Who that

THE POWER TO DECLARE WAR

Recently, legal experts of the White House, State, Defense and Justice Departments have drafted a document to support the view that the President has authority to commit troops abroad, which says that "repelling aggression in Korea or Europe cannot wait upon Congressional debate"—and further, that Congressional power to declare war "has fallen into abeyance."

This is, indeed, a far cry from the construction placed on the Constitution by James Madison.

"The Constitution, expressly and exclusively, vests in the Legislature, the power of declaring a state of war ... the power of raising armies ... the power of creating offices ..."

"A delegation of such powers (to the President) would have struck not only at the fabric of our Constitution, but at the foundation of all well organized and well checked governments."

"The separation of the power of declaring war from that of conducting it, is wisely contrived to exclude the danger of its being declared for the sake of its being conducted."

"The separation of the power of raising armies from the power of commanding them is intended to prevent the raising of armies for the sake of commanding them."

TRAGEDY OF SPAIN FACES U. S. UNLESS WE STOP STEVENSON

All good Americans who are informed are vitally concerned in stopping this Jewish Marxist (Communist or Socialist) drive to rob us of our freedom and enslave us to a ruthless world minority which has deceived thousands into helping them enslave the world. Already 800 million are under this cruel dictatorship and at least 50 million people have been slaughtered in the deceptive plan of maneuvering nations under their rule. Thirty million Christians in the Soviet Union, Ukrainians—White Russians and others—were slaughtered outright. Poland, Estonia, Latvia, Lithuania, Czechoslovakia, suffered losses and World War II added millions. No informed person dare deny that Marxist Jews were at the bottom of all this.

Spain—A Lesson For America

Spain is the only country which was able to fight its way out from under this Marxist fifth column which was directed by Soviet Ambassador to Spain, Moses Rosenberg. This struggle for survival by Spain cost one and a half million lives. A similar plan for infiltration and deception has been going on in the United States—the Loyalists in Spain and the New Deal in the U. S. both he was a member of the Institute of Pacific Relations but dropped that item later and never put it back. The evil reputation of the IPR is too voluminous to permit even a review here and if Stevenson told me he got out of it or quit listing his membership for insignificant reasons I wouldn't take him at his word there either.

"He was a trustee of the World Citizens Association in 1945 and dropped that entry too. He was a trustee of the Woodrow Wilson Foundation while Alger Hiss also was a trustee and knew him so well and favorably that he swore to Hiss's reputation at his trial.

"Altogether the facts justify a belief that his outcry against the smearing of 'innocent' persons by the likes of Joe McCarthy and Pat McCarran is a cry of apprehension not indignation."

Stevenson is also an old friend of Dean Acheson. He was associated with Hiss and Acheson at various times as far back as 1933. A columnist in the Hearst papers reports that Stevenson, if elected, may retain Acheson.

Fulton Lewis reported in his column September 3, 1952: "Just like Alger Hiss, Governor Adlai Stevenson of Illinois knows a lot about the United Nations. He was in San Francisco in 1945 when the UN was put together by Hiss and Edward Stettinius, then Secretary of State, who had a Communist ghost writer and high-dome thinker from Hollywood working for him."

Under Hiss, Stevenson held a responsible position among the committees and policy makers shaping the United Nations Charter in San Francisco. Some of us knew then that the United Nations was a Communist device, an attempt to take America and the other nations into a world government in the name of peace, then in the name of peace disarm all of us, pooling our arms in the world government machine—a world dictatorship.

During the months preceding the San Francisco United Nations convention I was counter-intelligence officer for the 314th Bombardment Wing on Guam and day by day read voluminous letters from Communist wives in New York to Communist husbands (Jewish without exception) in our organization, giving them the clock-like developments as the Communists laid the ground work for their "great new world" the United Nations. These Communist wives told in detail how they had organized extensive letter writing campaigns to editors all over the country, promoting the UN, and how they were attacking (smearing) opponents of the United Nations idea. They told about organizing Americans United for World Government and, in the High Schools of New York City, Students United for World Government. The whole UN thing is Communist and Jewish nationalist (or Zionist) from its origin and if the head of the FBI had been permitted to talk he could have warned America and saved us from the shameful and humiliating sell-out to United Nations.

Mr. Stevenson is one of the United Nations organizers and he still has the crust to glorify that costly fraud and to call for continued support of it. Alger Hiss, who next to Dean Acheson probably was the most gifted of the non-Jewish Communists in the American government, thought so much of Stevenson's usefulness to Communism that during the war he recommended Stevenson for a high appointment. Stevenson then was a special assistant in the Navy Department under Frank Knox.

Made Navy Take Commies

cence. At that time (1942) I was in charge of the intelligence activities for the Army Air Forces installations at Miami Beach and noted a sudden change in the policy of the Navy toward Communists. Up to that time Naval Intelligence had been excellent and the Navy had refused to accept persons with pronounced Communist leanings. A Naval Intelligence Officer told me that the Administration had forced the Navy to change its policies and thereafter it would have to take run-of-the-mill draftees including Communists.

I did not know then who was at the bottom of this Communist move. Not till a few weeks ago was it revealed that Adlai Stevenson was the man who made the recommendation. Franklin D. Roosevelt approved it. Whether Stevenson acted on his own initiative as an outright Communist or whether he was only so Communist in his thinking and associations that he could be duped by a Communist, I do not pretend to know. But Stevenson has never impressed me as being stupid. He is a smoothie, a gifted revolutionary. He knows what he is doing. I am becoming apprehensive that he is a disciplined Communist, like his friend Hiss.

He exposes his Red leanings every time he makes a speech. We have only to analyze it to see for ourselves.

Gov. Stevenson said for instance in a recent speech, "We have driven Communists out of any places of responsibility that they may have gained in our society. We will expose and identify them at every step along the way. We will not permit them to return."

Is it possible that he expects Americans to accept that statement? Look at the Korean situation where we are not permitted to win a victory. Look at the step-by-step selling out of China by the same men who are running the State Department today. Look at the growing and openly declared internal threats to seize and establish absolute power over the American people in case of war emergency through the Military Government Units, and Federal Civil Defense Units. Look at State Department's attitude toward the anti-Communist countries, Spain and West Germany.

Who but a Communist or staunch friend of the Communists would make such a statement?

Joseph McCarthy stated in Phoenix in mid-September that we had not yet scratched the surface in uncovering the Communists in the State Department.

Communists Want Adlai

Lt. Gen. Bedell Smith, head of the Central Intelligence Agency, has just told a Congressional committee as this goes to press, that there certainly are Communists in the State Department; probably in all departments—even in his CIA.

The Communist Peoples World, official Communist organ of the West Coast, and many of the old Red Jewish newspapers who so ardently supported Eisenhower for the Republican nomination, have turned against him and are smearing him, and some are openly supporting Stevenson.

Stevenson continues to attack noted anti-Communists—though since McCarthy polled so many DEMOCRATIC votes as well as so many Republican votes in Wisconsin, Stevenson seems cautious about attacking "McCarthyism." He now is attacking Senator Jenner and defending George C. Marshall whom Jenner rightly called "a front man for traitors."

A late report says Stevenson is a member of the Americans for Democratic Action and has been a member since its origin. He is openly associating with Walter Reuther, David Dubinsky and other founders of that thoroughly Marxist organization and you may recall that he selected Wilson Wyatt, first president of the ADA, as his campaign manager. He is obviously courting the ADA vote and the ADA will help Arvey run the Administration if Stevenson wins.

It has just been revealed (LA Examiner, Sept. 30) that immediately after Truman said he would not be a candidate for re-election last Spring, Loeb, secretary of ADA, met with Stevenson, Herbert Lehman and other leading Reds and asked Stevenson to become the Democratic nominee.

What does the ADA stand for? Here is a brief summary of salient points:

The ADA fought a bitter fight against the recently enacted McCarran-Walter immigration bill which is designed to close our gates against further invasion of Marxist indoctrinated Jews and other minorities from the Old World. The ADA now calls for repeal of this generally excellent law which Congress passed over Truman's veto last spring.

The ADA demands enactment of FEPC and all the other nine points of the Communists Civil Rights program (so ardently supported by the Anti-Defamation League and Arvey's American Jewish Congress).

The ADA recently demanded that the FBI be investigated. Like Stevenson, it defends the Red Secretary of State. It adopted resolutions supporting Acheson and its leaders probably invented the term "McCarthyism" (which effort however has boomeranged).

The ADA attacks the House Committee on Un-American Activities and calls for its abolition.

It supported Truman's action in recalling General MacArthur.

Soon after Marshall, Acheson, Truman and associates succeeded in pushing China into the Communist camp, the Americans for Democratic Action demands American recognition of the Red Chinese Government.

ADA opposes outlawing the Communist Party. It demands Socialized Medicine, complete price controls and rationing of goods; gives its full backing to the United Nations; attacks McCarthy, Jenner, Taft, MacArthur, Kem, Bricker and anyone else who effectively fights Communism.

In view of its record and policies it is hard to believe that any American able to read could swallow the ADA hokum that it is anti-Communist.

How plain must a Communist record be before we admit that it is Communist?

Red Guild Favors Adlai

Human Events for September quoted a newspaper man who had overheard a conversation showing the deliberate and calculated intent on the part of some of Stevenson's campaign managers to connive with the Communist inspired American Newspaper Guild to slant the news for Stevenson's benefit.

Human Events quotes this newsman as follows: "Well I took one other aromatic memory away with me from Springfield. It was while I was listening to the conversational remarks of a high member of Adlai's campaign family. Yes, he was saying, we've done a god job of needling Ike on McCarthy and I suppose the next thing on our agenda will be to remind him of isolationist Senator John Bricker and Ike's support for that friend of Taft's. Yet, he mused, maybe we won't have to bother about that, 'We can just let the Guild take care of it.'"

Guild members seemed to want Ike to get the Republican nomination, perhaps to keep a genuine Republican from getting it; but now they obviously want Stevenson for the presidency.

Jack Kroll, the European-Jew, life long supporter of Marxism, successor to the late Sidney Hillman as head of the CIO-Political Action Committee, working with Marxist Phil Murray gave Stevenson the endorsement of the mighty and destructive CIO. ADA already had endorsed Stevenson.

I think it not unreasonable to conclude that if Stevenson gets the presidency the most Communist elements in this country will have the run of the White House. I believe Stevenson will be worse than either Roosevelt or Truman. In any case it is too late for another four years of that crowd.

A war emergency may be created soon after the election, if Stevenson wins; the infiltrating agents will suppress or sidetrack the FBI and the Rosenberg-staffed Military Government units or the infiltrated Federal Civil Defense will try to seize absolute power. It seems to me only an outside chance that rising public alarm and opposition could block the power crazy Reds, now that they have got the stage just about set. It will then be all over but the shooting—if enough Americans still have enough fight left in them to heed the Second Amendment to the Constitution which authorizes the people to "keep and bear arms" as a means of guarding freedom.

But if Stevenson will usher in the final stage of the revolution, what about Eisenhower? Must we vote for the weak and befuddled Eisenhower and the Nixon who turned on his own fellow Republican, State Senator Jack B. Tenney, one of the nation's foremost anti-Communist leaders? Must we vote for a gullible internationalist for President; and for Vice President, the so-called anti-Communist who let his Jewish campaign manager, Murray Chotiner, and the Anti-Defamation League induce him to oppose Tenney for Congress in the recent California primary? Nixon's boss "Chotiner is a member of the Los Angeles Jewish Community Relations Committee," the local ADL affiliate (as quoted from the California Jewish Voice, August 1, 1952).

Has America been brought to such a low state that we must support evil because it is less evil than something else?

What Choice Have We?

Our only alternative lies in the new parties, and unfortunately the man these parties all have nominated for President has not even acknowledged the nomination.

Two of the new parties, the Christian Nationalist and the Constitution Party, have formed national organizations, the former naming Senator Tenney for Vice President, the latter naming Vivien Kellams. The Christian Nationalist party is on the ballot in a number of states and has got the name of MacArthur on the ballot in at least four states. I have just received letters from 43 of the 48 states, as this goes to press (with five states yet unreported) and find that MacArthur's name is on the ballot on the former party in Texas, Colorado, Missouri and Washington. It also will appear under the latter party label in Texas and Colorado.

A good many states do not show the names of presidential and vice presidential candidates, but show only the names of the parties or the parties and the electors. Both parties plan to conduct a write-in in several states, including California.

What can the new parties accomplish this year? I believe the answer must wait to see what General MacArthur will do. The parties have made a bold and much needed start; they embrace the Constitution and the principles and traditions dear to the hearts of all genuine Americans. They have managed to get on the radio—believe it or not—as funds permit; and Tenney is saying some of the things we long have wanted to hear over radio.

But so far almost all the leadership of the new parties is out of the Republican Party and so far it seems safe to say these leaders are drawing comparatively few Democratic votes. They are splitting the Republican vote. If the race is as tight as it now looks, the new parties may only succeed in electing the most dangerous man yet nominated for the presidency—Adlai Stevenson. A good many MacArthur Republicans have phoned or written or personally called to express apprehension that this will happen. If the election were today I am sure that many who would like to vote for MacArthur will vote Republican out of fear of Stevenson.

This is the hitch. It is this knot which the new parties must cut, to be of service in this campaign.

Only Douglas MacArthur can cut that knot. If he forces Eisenhower to make concessions, if he forces Eisenhower to ask him to become Secretary of Defense or to name the Secretary of Defense, in order to get enough MacArthur votes to win; then the Republican ticket would get the big MacArthur vote.

What we would like most to see would be a campaigning crusading MacArthur, in the fight with all his artillery. He could rally endless sums of money and we would see parades in the streets.

But this is October and he has said nothing since the disastrous Republican convention. Without MacArthur's active campaigning how can the new parties hope to carry a state? And what good is a protest vote which might only elect Stevenson—who would then boast that he had a mandate from the people?

JOHN T. WOOD

We have said there was little choice between Eisenhower and Stevenson. It is the choice between a befuddled weakling and a gifted revolutionary. More properly, it is the choice between Stevenson and the Communist-Zionist machine on the one hand, and Eisenhower and a tug-of-war between the same machine and a powerful group of right-wing Republicans on the other. If Eisenhower is subject to pressure from the left, he also is subject to pressure from Taft, McCarthy, Bricker, Jenner, Kem, Mundt. If he owes his nomination to the internationalist machine, he will owe his election, if any, to the right-wing Republicans; and he will not be able to keep them from helping shape policies. He must court them or lose.

When Taft or Knowland or Mundt or some other influential conservative is riding the presidential train with Ike, you see that Ike's speeches are more right-wing; as soon as the conservatives leave his elbow he listens to the internationalists and dogooders.

However, it is only fair to him that one revealing and highly significant incident be mentioned: In a private conversation a few weeks ago he let slip a remark which showed that he had confidence in and was friendly toward J. Edgar Hoover and the FBI and wants Hoover's advice. What a tremendous difference that one item would make. Roosevelt or Truman would have smeared Hoover out of the FBI and let the Zionist machine take over and convert that protective body into a Jewish terrorist police but for the reputation of Hoover. The public would not have stood for it.

We see now, in fact, a move by the Attorney General to set up a new agency to investigate "Communists and Fascists," by-passing the FBI; and this looks like the beginning of the end of Hoover and the FBI if we do not get a change in administration.

Rebellion Growing

I believe there is a choice this year, but the choice lies principally in the men who will surround the White House. If Stevenson wins the nation goes Red; if Eisenhower wins we get a compromise administration. If Stevenson wins we shall never have a chance to see the crime and corruption and Communism exposed. If Eisenhower wins, we shall at least have a Republican Attorney General who will have to oblige the Congress by supplying the skeletons which have to be dug out of the closets.

Above all, we must elect a Republican Congress. Don't forget the 80th Congress. Practically all the exposes and convictions of Communists have resulted from the curtain-lifting of that Republican Congress. One of the best known and best informed Democratic Congressmen from the Old South told me the election of that Republican Congress saved America (for the time being).

I believe with Upton Close, of the Constitution Party, that "there is rebellion the length and breadth of the land"—rebellion by Americans against the alien cultists who have all but captured our country. There is one common ground on which all such Americans of all parties can meet in this battle: We can all work to expose the subversive background and the danger of Stevenson. We can thus pull votes over from the Democratic Party. The new parties dare not continue to pull predominantly Republican votes. If they are going to render a great service they must show that they will not merely split the Republican vote.

If you want to be a big help in the fight to save your country and to preserve your own liberty and freedoms, your best bet at this critical moment is to get on the job and help to boost the circulation of Common Sense up to a million copies. When the Americans are correctly and completely informed on any subject they will always do the right thing at the right time. Circulation of a million copies now will win YOUR fight for YOU. So take off your coat and go to work. MORE distribution and MORE subscriptions in your community may be the "straw that breaks the camel's back". YOU owe this cooperation to YOURSELF and to YOUR CHILDREN. They did not ask to come into this world. You brought them into it. It is your DUTY TO THEM to do your best to keep the world a fit place to live in. But enough Americans are not yet aware of the conspiracy or the conspirators. Until and unless EVERY American knows the "score" this nation is in grave danger of defeat and destruction by the enemy.

directed by bloody international revolutionists. The U. S. has been conditioned. Now comes the time to take over. November 4th is one of the most important days in the history of the world. This may be our last chance to vote. We better think it over. The U. S. is the most important country in the world and you live here. Is your freedom important? If so, you had better start thinking how to stop Stevenson. COMMON SENSE is enthusiastic for a new party. We believe that immediately after the election the different new parties should meet and form one strong party for Americans.

Jews Switch To Stevenson

BUT WE MUST DO FIRST THINGS FIRST. The first thing is to stop Stevenson. We have no faith in Eisenhower, although on the surface he appears to be slipping somewhat from full control by the International War Crowd. The ruthless Dewey group that steam-rolled Eisenhower in at Chicago has been brushed aside in this campaign. The Jews who helped push him in as candidate are now satisfied that a weak man opposes the New Deal Candidate, Stevenson, and are backing their choice of the two—Alger Hiss' pal, Adlai Stevenson. Jewish papers and masterminds have switched to Stevenson. If Stevenson is elected, it is expected that anti-Communist publications and activity will be stopped immediately.

Hundreds of thousands have been alerted, but not enough to defeat this gang which has had

LET US HAVE HOPE AND STAND TOGETHER

Any one who is informed and alerted to the danger to our country from Marxist camouflaged forces inside the United States realizes this group will now be bolder in promoting war and abolishing our freedom. Those of us who have watched the conditioning of Europe for fifteen years recognize clearly that here in our country we have been conditioned for Marxist control—call it what you will—Socialism, Communism or world Government. The same ruthless minority will rule as they do in all Communist countries.

It is clear to those who have given time to learn the whole truth that the trap is about to be closed on us here. The organized minority has out-witted the unorganized majority. We can still save our country but it will take knowledge, courage, work, money and trust in those who have proven worthy. We pray God we can do our part and prove worthy of confidence in the supreme test ahead. We are convinced that no political movement with natural powers alone will save us now—it must be a large crusade of sincere people in whom Our Lord will feel justified in giving strength. Christ has done it before; He will do it now if enough of us are worthy, but we must not sit down and cry for help. We must stand up and resist those devils. If we are too busy, too weak, or too cowardly, then we will lose our freedom as have 800 million in other countries. Let us have hope and stand together.

Since the writer quit his profession seven years ago to establish this paper and oppose those who are sowing seeds of treason in our government, unions, and educational institutions, COMMON SENSE has been steadily reaching more people, until our readers number a conservative 120,000—a half million is needed.

Every conceivable obstacle has been placed in our way such as intimidating eleven printers, stopping our paper supply for months, and actual violence. But not one time has the enemy challenged us on the facts we publish. Through the Grace of God we have defeated the enemy in every encounter and the importance of our movement increases. In a quiet way we function with courageous leaders over the U. S. who are doing effective work to save our country. COMMON SENSE now draws world-wide interest and anxious Americans in every part of the U. S. look to us for information and direction.

The writer has been criticized for not giving time to securing funds so we could more efficiently keep up with the increasing work and important projects which we should develop and complete. Our activities have increased and the work has become so heavy we are faced with a serious decision. It is physically impossible to carry on much longer under this load. The writer has been hopelessly swamped for more than a year. Last Winter he was in bed eleven weeks with his first sickness and has been working 15 hours a day, 7 days a week, with no salary.

Others here have sacrificed much. With an ordinary business the larger it gets the more funds are available to departmentize and hire help. Our movement is of a different nature. We do not think of profit or making expenses. Our objective is to secure readers—an educational crusade. We hold our subscription price at $1.00 to encourage more readers. We have no advertising, the life-blood of any newspaper. In addition we distribute large quantities of literature. Patriots have helped to take care of this expense.

The ruthless Marxist leaders can only be held back by many thousands of good Americans led by those who understand the enemy and have prepared to fight on the front unafraid of smear or threat.

We are grateful to the fine patriots who have made sacrifices to help place COMMON SENSE as the most influential publication of its kind. We are prepared to present a nicer, more effective paper and enter a field of direction for which true Americans are crying. This must be done quickly. What is necessary immediately? Larger, faster addressing machine, needed equipment at printing plant, salary for another secretary. We have many lists to which patriotic literature should be sent—money is needed for this.

We urge some substantial men to arrange to give a contribution each month so we can plan our work and secure urgently needed equipment. Others are needed who can send each month what their conscience dictates; others to secure subscriptions. Those who are not in a position to give visible help, we ask them to pray and ask Our Lord to bless and guide our work. If you cannot get on the front line in this fight, help us to stay there.

God bless those who feel they are a part of COMMON SENSE and have backed us up. May we ask you to try to get some one else to come into the fight with their money and quickly. Won't you send us your check for what you can afford. Let's pray and get set to fight for our freedom.

Sincerely for Christ and Country, twenty years to set up a machine. We need more time to build our forces. With Stevenson we will not get it.

MacArthur Boom Futile

COMMON SENSE has deliberated and prayed for guidance. We have digested much information and talked with leading patriots who have no axes to grind but want to live. It is three weeks until election and General MacArthur has not consented to the use of his name for write-in. Many want MacArthur but no one believes he could be elected by a write-in vote. The record of COMMON SENSE in boosting and promoting the candidacy of General MacArthur is second to none. But now we must face the facts. For a while it appeared best to write in his name as a protest, but now, apparently a big write-in vote for MacArthur would insure the election of Stevenson. It is worthy of note that the Jews are silent on MacArthur. The Jewish Press, the original mastermind of the MacArthur smear from coast-to-coast, has met the present stampede for MacArthur with only silence. Why? No attempt has been made to smear or oppose the present write-in campaign. MacArthur meetings are not picketed. Speakers for him on the radio (which the Jews control 100 per cent) have met with no opposition. Jews are most vocal about that which they fear. It seems obvious they know that no amount of pulling for MacArthur at this time can save the day. Votes for MacArthur will not be a loss of votes for Stevenson; they will split his opposition.

Patriots On Guard

If Eisenhower is elected there will be some patriotic fighting Senators and Congressmen on guard to slow him down and give real Americans time to increase their forces. Some of these are Senators Bricker, Dirksen, Jenner, Kem, Malone, McCarran, McCarthy, and Congressmen Clare Hoffman, Karl Mundt and John S. Wood. If Stevenson is elected, who will be on guard?

Stevenson is far more dangerous than Truman. Truman is a stooge with small intellect. Stevenson with a strong intellect, has been actively and knowingly engaged in setting up Communism from the time the first Communist cell was set up in Washington.

Some of the foremost Jews guiding the Stevenson campaign and writing his speeches are Herbert Lehman, Jacob Arvey, Sam Rosenman, Philip Perlman, David Dubinsky, Lee Pressman, Arthur Goldberg, Arthur M. Schlesinger, Benjamin Cohen, James Wechsler, Ben Sonnenberg, Nathan Straus, Henry Morgenthau—all of whom have Marxist connections, some are outright Communists.

Give serious and prayerful thought before you vote on November 4th—BUT VOTE.

Testimony Before Senate Committee Brands UN As Hotbed For Traitors

CHARTER FOR UN DRAFTED BY ZIONIST

A very clear appreciation of the U. N. O. is to be found in Victors Beware!—a work by Professor deMadariaga. An exile from Spain, having held office in the Moscow-sponsored Spanish Republican government, de Madariaga should be a qualified judge of Soviet tactics. He writes:

"The (UNO) Charter is in the main a translation of the Russian system into an international idiom and its adoption to an international community The overwhelming mass of Russia's political influence has weighed down the evolution of world affairs and is now taking us back to an unholy alliance of big Powers, resting upon force and very little else."

"UNO," de Madariaga tells us, "bore upon its brow from the very beginning the mark of Moscow." (Page 270)

That this should be so must appear inexplicable to all who have been deceived by the false propaganda spread about UNO. But many who have heard so much have never been told Dr. Leo Pasvolsky. "Special U.S. Assistant Secretary of State," drew up the UN Charter with the assistance of Hiss the traitor who was then in the State Dept. surrounded by Communists and homosex-

The last few days the daily papers have been featuring information with reference to the United States being saturated with Communists. This is not news to readers of COMMON SENSE as they have been familiarized with this for the past two years obtaining their information from this fighting paper. We have republished in this issue an article which appeared in our pap-

Economic Council, Inc., - From Letter No. 297

There is danger, of course, that sooner or later Soviet Russia will attack the United States Militarily. This could be avoided its effects mitigated if the United States would give more attention to her own security and drastically reduce the scattering of her energies and savings and her irreplaceable natural resources, all over the earth.

Nevertheless, Soviet Russia means some day to have a try at us, for she believes that Capitalism and a belief in God cannot live in the same world with godless Communism.

Soviet Russia has the immense advantage of low cost Production. This is due not only to her great natural resources, but to what is practically slave labor. Her military strength today is due even more to the immense quantities of materiel we have shipped her, and to the military and industrial secrets that the Roosevelt and Truman Administrations permitted her to steal from us or gave her outright.

Recently the newsmen of foreign countries, includ-

Newspapers carrying reports of Communist infiltration wouldn't dare report this in a way the public would understand that ing Iron Curtain countries, were invited aboard U. S. permitted to make notes, take photographs, and other warships, to the consternation of naval authorities, and wise observe our most secret devices. Such incidents happen when the policy of the State Department is to fraternize with all other nations, even, to an extent, with Soviet Russia which is fighting us in Korea.

Greatest Danger is From Within

But the greatest danger to America is not from without, but from within. It's right here at home. The clever, far-seeing Communists would rather not destroy our cities. Wouldn't anybody prefer to come into possession of something valuable, intact and undamaged?

And the greatest factor in this danger here is the existence in our midst of the United Nations. Based as it is upon theories of collectivism, it is itself a funnel through which Communists come freely into the United States. On June 16, 1948, Robert C. Alexander of the State Department testified under oath to this effect.

We believe the infiltration and subsequent taking over of the United States was the real purpose of those who thought up the UN. It was not for nothing that Alger Hiss (long since in prison for lying about his Communist activities) and Harry D. White, Assistant Secretary of the Treasury (who died suddenly and mysteriously in 1949 while evidence of his Communist connections was coming out), were among the leaders in the drafting of the United Nations Charter and in piloting it through the San Francisco Conference in 1945.

The danger of locating the UN on the East Coast, and especially near New York, was officially condemned, according to the New York Sunday Mirror of March 24, 1946, by the Army and Navy Intelligence and the FBI as a definite threat to national security. This dispatch said in part that "if war should come, it was pointed out, enemy spies and saboteurs could find asylum within the internationalist borders of UN."

It is not surprising therefore that a UP dispatch from Salt Lake City October 8, quoted Senator Pat McCarran, Chairman of the Senate Internal Security Committee, as saying investigation would commence October 13 "of the American members of the United Nations for 'subversive activities.'"

"United Nations Day"

October 24 has become "United Nations Day," The Chairman of the "National Citizens Committee for United Nations Day" has said that "the UN Day Committee was set up by the U. S. government in 1948 in response to a General Assembly Resolution." Apparently it was set up by the State Department—not by the Congress. In the last few years a great ballyhoo has taken place every Fall in celebration of United Nations Day—a ballyhoo greater than in the celebration of even our own Independence Day! We will say something about this United Nations Day Committee later on in this Letter.

United Nations Day is a synthetic affair. There is nothing spontaneous about it. Among the names of its promoters we find a heavy sprinkling of those who were most active in 1940 and 1941 in trying to get the United States into World War II.

We have before us a 12-page pamphlet put out by the National Citizens Committee for United Nations Day. It is entitled "Leaders Guide for Individual and Community Action." On page 3 is "A Message from the National Chairman, Frank L. Weil," in which we read:

"The Committee's concept of its objective is that such observances (of United Nations Day) are a means to an end, and that the end is increasing knowledge about and understanding of the United Nations by the American public."

We have not detected anything in the United States, excepting in the State Department and here and there about the country among a scattering of "liberals," the slightest emotional feeling in favor of the UN. Efforts have been made to persuade people to fly the UN flag. Yet in all midtown Manhattan, (and we get about quite a good deal) we know of only two buildings that fly it. But on any patriotic occasion, and frequently when there is no patriotic occasion, there are countless places where one sees the American flag.

While we have traveled in eight or nine European countries a good many times since the UN was formed, we have yet to see a UN flag on display. We casually asked a younger member of the British Parliament two or three years ago what Britain would do if the UN told Britain to take a certain course which Britain did not think to be in her interest. He calmly replied, "We would tell the UN to go to hell." Of course they would. And so would any other self-respecting nation.

There is not only no confidence in the UN among the people of other countries, outside, of course, of a few enthusiasts in and out of official circles—there is not even any interest in it. Britain is going to decide—in fact seems already to have decided—not to take any part in collective security for the Continent of Europe. According to the New York Herald-Tribune of October 8 the French Government had "decided to fight with every weapon at its disposal any interference by the United Nations in the Tunisian and Moroccan questions."

The Real Purpose

Anyone who has ordered Christmas cards and has not received them please notify the office of Common Sense and the boxes requested.

Of the UN

Now, as said above, it will be through the United Nations and its ever more complicated subdivisions that the United States will be taken over, if it is to happen. And that, we repeat, is precisely what it was designed to do.

We told in Letter 295 of the "seizure" of cities in 1951 and 1952, and the feigned declaring of martial law, notably in eight small California cities. In every one of those cities the officer commanding the troops and issuing "proclamations," announced he was acting for the United Nations.

A casual visitor to the strange United Nations Building, constructed without regard to cost, on the East River shore of Manhattan, will probably observe nothing but sweetness and light. We sat in recently at a meeting of a sub-committee of the Economic and Social Council. It was late in starting, and as the perhaps 200 visitors gathered, a personable young woman representing, we found afterwards, the American Association for the United Nations, glibly answered all questions. She explained that the sub-committee merely made a report to the Economic and Social Council on the question before it; and the question it had been debating for the past two or three weeks had to do with racial discrimination in various countries. One man pressed his question as to what action the Economic and Social Council would take. The young woman explained that it would take none because the UN has no power. "Public opinion must handle it then."

But her reply was disingenuous. For the UN has power—power for unlimited mischief; and if she did not know that, she was deceiving herself. In addition to some useful work that the UN has done, such as in collecting and disseminating statistics, it has exercised very great power—just as it was meant to do.

UN's Wars

For instance, it fomented a bitter and savage war in Palestine. On November 29, 1947, the Assembly of the UN adopted a resolution recommending the partition of Palestine. Drew Pearson, in his column of December 3, 1947, said that President Truman had "cracked down harder on his State Department than ever before to swing UN votes for the partition of Palestine."

This "recommendation" was seized upon by the Zionists, who were able, through their influence with the press and with other means of communication, to represent to the American people that the recommendation was really a binding decision of the UN.

As a result, the Zionists invaded Palestine and drove out roughly a million Arabs, many of them Christians and the ancestors of most of whom had lived in Palestine for a thousand years or more. Most of these are still homeless and living in refugee camps. Few acts in history have been as heartless. Few are likely to be so costly to the United States. And it was a UN accomplishment.

By this war the Arabs, whose goodwill towards the United States had been established over a hundred years by missionaries, educators and businessmen, became, and have remained, exceedingly hostile to the United States who, they feel, was, through the UN, the prime factor in the partition of Palestine.

And not only are the Arabs alienated from us, but the entire Moslem world, numbering as high as 300 million people, has become predisposed against us.

Then the UN, under the prodding of President Truman, precipitated the war in Korea, which has become a graveyard of nearly 20,000 Americans. And the end is not yet. In fact, the State Department, as at present set up, seems to contemplate a ten-year war. Since we are losing from 8 to 10 thousand in killed each year (the casualty report in The New York Times of October 9 listed 137 dead for the week—about 20 per day)—in addition to other casualties, a little arithmetic will show us what the cost will be to American youth in the future. American mothers and fathers ought to take quite an interest in this particular UN achievement.

Recently it was announced that the UN will rebuild Korea. If the American share is comparable with her share of the killed and wounded, American taxpayers may well hold their hats.

The United Nations clearly will bring us, not collective security, but collective insecurity. That insecurity will continue, till American, exhausted, is taken over by a world government. Their own security will then become like security in Russia today—or in any American prison.

This "Peace" Organization

Dangerous as is this "peace" organization to the real peace of the world, its even greater danger lies in its attempt hopelessly to involve the United States in the affairs and liabilities of all other nations. The UN is the spearhead of Socialism and Communism.

A striking thing about the UN is that our own State Department is 100 per cent back of it. What shall we think of a government, the leading department of which is out to promote an organization whose aim is the overthrow of that government?

We have before us a pamphlet entitled "Teaching about The United Nations in the Schools and Colleges of the United States." It is published by the Department of the State, and if you will send 10 cents to the U. S. Government Printing Office, Washington, D. C., you will receive a copy. It is Department of State Publication 4649, International Organization and Conference Series III, 83!

This pamphlet discloses the tremendous effort, and indicates the amount of your money, spent by the State Department in propagandizing the United Nations in the schools, colleges and universities of the country.

DEMOCRACY! DEMOCRACY!
THE CLOAK FOR HYPOCRISY

We read, on page 28, under "CONCLUSION," in part as follows:

"Looking back over the past 2 years, we have seen a steady growing concern to expand and improve education for international understanding, and specifically teaching about the United Nations, at all levels from pre-kindergarten through college and university to the general adult population, throughout the United States," (italics ours)

The writer of this does not say where "we" have seen this "steady growing concern." In our opinion there has been no concern whatever about it on the part of the people. It is just eyewash—subtle propaganda by the State Department. But multitudes of people are deceived.

"Winning the Peace"

We live in an age of slogans. One of the commonest is the talk about "winning the peace." Paul G. Hoffman wrote a book a year and a half ago entitled "Peace Can Be Won."

Until these last 30 years we have never seen this phrase. We usually think of winning wars—not winning peace. Peace is merely a matter of a return to a Christian, friendly, charitable attitude toward other nations. That was the attitude adopted at the Congress of Vienna in 1815, and the general peace made there lasted in Europe nearly 100 years.

"Winning the peace" is sheer camouflage, a smoke-screen for other more subtle activities. All peoples want peace. Only scheming politicians, unwilling to do their task the simple, natural way, stir up wars.

High Pressure Promotion

A chief factor in promoting the UN is the American Association for the United Nations. That organization in each of the last few years has appointed a "Business and Industry Committee for United Nations Week and Day."

In preparation for their campaign for 1951, a communication was sent to a large list of businessmen throughout the United States asking each to contribute $100 toward the expenses of the Committee, and to lend his name as a member. About 900 fell for the appeal, or at least their names were published by the Association.

We wrote last year to all the men on this Committee, mentioning their listed membership and sending a copy of Council Letter 276 entitled "The Menace of the U.U.—The Road to Socialism and Communism." We asked each for his comment on this Letter.

Some replied they had contributed to the fund but had not authorized membership on the Committee.

A large manufacturer wrote, "Let me add that your Council Letter 276 dated December 1, 1951, seems to the writer to be quite an accurate picture of the United Nations and its effect on this country."

A prominent Californian said, "I feel they (the UN) are a complete failure, and I will probably withdraw my support and ask them to take my name off the Business and Industry Committee."

The President of a large Chicago concern said, "I have read Council Letter 276 with considerable interest and can find no fault with the conclusions arrived at. I feel that the sooner we can get rid of this 'super' government the better it will be for the administration."

A Minnesota manufacturer said, "I am not in favor of the United Nations, at least as it is drawn up, and I question the possibility of it ever working. We as usual will be the goats and the American people will be the losers."

One Pacific Coast manufacturer said, "Two years ago or so I permitted my name to be used as sponsor of United Nations Week, as I recall. But when approached this year I definitely declined."

Yet the names of all these men and many more who expressed similar views were used by the Association to propagandize the American people.

It is apparent from our correspondence that many of the persons listed by the American Association for the United Nations as members of the Committee to promote "United Nations Week and Day" are half-hearted in their interest; joined only because they saw some big names on the list; had become convinced to a greater or less extent that the UN boded no good for the United States, or had actually forbidden their names to be used. In other words, high pressure promotion was a great factor in ballyhooing the UN.

Trygve Lie, Secretary of the U.N., smiles amiably while talking to Zionist Ernest A. Gross, Jew. U.S. Representative. As Norway's Minister of Justice in 1936, Lie performed a great service for Stalin: he was instrumental in deporting Stalin's arch-enemy, Leon Trotsky, from Norway.

Trotsky, one of the founders of the Communist International, in 1937 referred to Lie as "the Minister of Justice who is a member of the Communist International."

As Secretary-General, Trygve Lie is authorized to select all U.N. employees.

MARXIST JEWS RUN UNITED NATIONS

(Editor's note:

The following article appeared in COMMON SENSE, issue No. 146, September 1, 1951. Note that more than a year ago COMMON SENSE published the name of David Zablodowsky, Director of Publications, as an enemy to America. This article is republished now so that thousands of new readers may be informed and learn that the United Nations, like the League of Nations is a Jewish creation just as is Communism to bring about slavery of Christians who do not cooperate in their Talmudic plan.)

The Jewish plan for world conquest and for ruling the entire world is now well underway. There is every likelihood that the future "World Government" will be the organization presently known as the United Nations. Already the world has been divided into two concentrations of power—one controlled by the Jews of Moscow under the Jewish Seal of Solomon (Five pointed Star) and the other by American Jewry of Wall Street under the U. N. O. banner of pale blue and white, the same blue and white used for the Israeli flag.

The arch hypocrite of all times, Bernard Baruch, Dictator of the U.N. Atomic Commission, has called for economic conscription in the United States which will mean further and even tighter concentrations of economic power into the hands of American Wall Street Jewry. The internationalization of raw materials, the European Army, the European Parliament at Strasbourg, the Schuman Plan (originated by the Jew, David LILIENTHAL, not of course by the French Foreign Minister Mr. Schuman) all tend to weld together the non-Communist world more firmly in the clutch of American Jewry.

All that is now required is for the two giant power mechanisms, one operated by American Jewry under the pale blue and white Israeli colors, and the other by the Moscow Jewry under the five pointed star, to merge into one giant "Super State."

It is reported that the target date is 1955—hence the "World Government by 1955" Movement. If the five pointed star of the Soviet block be added to the pale blue and white U.N.O. flag by, say, 1955 all that will then be required for the "World Flag" to be identical with that of the new State of Israel will be to add one point, i.e., change it to the six pointed Star of David.

Plans call for giving to the U.N.O. all atom, hydrogen bombs—armies—navies—air forces, for they are "too dangerous to be left in the control of any power or group of powers." Ultimately the U.N.O. Army and atom bomb force, operating from Jerusalem, will be used to stamp out any Gentile revolt. The Jewish U. N.O. will be supreme and anything which can be interpreted as "anti-Semitism" (U.N.O. Genocide Convention, drafted by the Polish Jew Professor Raphael Lemkin, now on the staff of Yale University will cover the "crime") will be punishable by prison or death.

Because the rule of the U. S. S. R., as outlined in COMMON SENSE'S issue No. 143 which listed Jews in key spots in Communist countries, so neatly interlocks with the United Nations Organization, a partial listing of Jews in the U.N.O. is now being published.

FROM MAJOR JORDAN'S DIARIES

Major Racey Jordan Ret. has done an excellent job in writing his diaries of the great Russian Lend Lease swindle. As an expeditor, Major Jordan forwarded almost 10 billion dollars worth of planes, guns, ammunition, machinery, supplies, Atom bomb ingredients, etc. from American bases to Russia. As these precious needed supplies were being sent to Russia our U.S. forces lacked the necessary means of fighting the war.

Major Jordan calls his book "The Greatest Catalogue in History". The list which he made of the items going to Russia includes everything from Atom bomb chemicals to dolls: from engineering material to lipstick: from manganese to antique furniture. There was even an order for one curved tobacco pipe. (Most likely for pal Joey).

Every American who wishes to know how the traitors in high places have given our resources and top secrets to Communist Soviet Union should read Major Jordan's Diaries. Price $3.50 Order from COMMON SENSE.

Paul Warburg of Kuhn, Loeb Co., wrote the Act, with Baron Alfred de Rothschild of London helping him.

This book compiled from hitherto suppressed Congressional reports and archives, tells how three Jews, Bernard Baruch, Eugene Meyer, and Paul Warburg, ruled the United States during the First World War, while Warburg's brother, Max Warburg, was head of the German Secret Service and personal banker to the Kaiser. CHARTER FOR U N DRAFTED BY ZIONIST uals. Concerning Pasvolsky, a Russian-born Jew who has become one of the leading advisors of the U. S. government, the Chicago Daily Tribune stated:

"Leo Pasvolsky, Russian-born ardent internationalist, knows more about the new League of Nations to preserve peace than any other person in the world. That's because he wrote the first draft of the charter of the world peace league and attended its revision and amplification all the way from the first day of the Dunbarton Oaks Conference to the last day of the San Francisco Conference. He bids for fame as the father of the Charter . . . President Truman has appointed Stettinius the United States Representative in the world peace league. And Pasvolsky is to go right with Stettinius to the capital of the league, when it is selected, to guide the American delegate through the maze of the Charter and provide him with the answers to the questions that will arise. For Pasvolsky knows all the answers, can give them before the questions are asked. . . . He was brought into the department as an economist . . . and successively advanced to the highest rank outside of those positions filled by Presidential appointment subject to Senate confirmation. Pasvolsky, now a naturalized American citizen, was born in Pavlograd, Russia, 1893, and came to this country with his parents in 1905. . . . He has published several works on Russia including the 'Economics of Communism.'"

THE ELECTION

At least the people have awakened. The New Deal received a blow in the solarplexus. Our Lord has seen fit to give America a little more time. This was not a 100 per cent victory against Marxism, but it is very encouraging to those of us who have been fighting like COMMON SENSE for seven years exposing the Un-American pro-Communist, anti-Christian plan of the masterminds of the New Deal which were calculated to confuse and bankrupt this country.

The big percentage of the vote for the Republican party was not a vote for Eisenhower, but a vote, against the corrupt Marxist New Deal. The same powerful Zionist International group which has been in complete control of the New Deal for twenty years also has used Eisenhower to do an important part in this plan to break down European countries for communism and used our State and Treasury Departments to pay thousands of communist government employees who have been spending most of their time in building up communism. We have very little confidence in Eisenhower personally as he stands for a number of dangerous movements the same as Stevenson does, but it can not be denied that this election will upset the Marxist in this country. They will now try to align themselves with this new administration and work in so as to carry on their plan for Jewish control. Millions of Americans will be watching Eisenhower who will be under terrific pressure from evil forces for which Thomas Dewey, John Foster Dulles, H. Cabot Lodge, Wayne Morse and Harold Stassen are fronting. Informed Americans will support Senators Joseph McCarthy, William E. Jenner, Everett M. Dirksen, Pat McCarran, John W. Bricker and George Malone as the pro-American forces in this new administration. Real Americans have had enough of the New Deal and will not tolerate the New Deal under a Republican administration.

COMMON SENSE is opposed to World Government; the U.N.; the United World Federalists; Americans for Democratic Action; FEPC and NATO and supports the McCarran-Walters Immigration Bill; advocates the outlawing of communism, and the firing of Dean Acheson and Anna Rosenberg.

Few people realize that officeholders in the U. S. are not free to do what they think is best for our country. The U. S. is run by pressure groups which have formed blocks of voters, and this is held over the heads of politicians. Pressure groups use publications, arrange lavish dinners, present plaques and feature speakers to popularize those who carry out their plan. To defeat these evil pressure groups, there must be an awakened patriotic citizenry organized under trustworthy leaders who understand the enemy and have the courage to back the enemy down. Is this country worth saving? The enemy is organized and financed. Millions of Americans have been awakened during the last few years. Let's double that number and organize to fight for freedom.

UN A MARXIST SETUP

the United Nations is a Jewish setup. Should any of these papers even mention the word Jew in this connection, the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith (Invisible Government) would have a committee at the Editor's office the same day and the Editor would get on his knees, if necessary, to prevent the withdrawal of all Jewish advertising. This would mean practically all his advertising as the Jews now control almost all of the merchandising establishments which advertise. We are presenting some facts to the reader so that he may see when this Communist jigsaw puzzle is put together, it spells Jewnited Nations.

The United Nations Charter was written by Leo Pasvolsky, a Russian born Jew with the assistance of Alger Hiss, the 1952 Benedict Arnold.

Trygve Lie, Stalin's personal choice as head of U.N. is a gentile (who they think can be trusted). The gentile is almost always used as a window dressing.

Benjamin Cohen, a Jew from Chile, is just under Lie, and his job is to see that Lie follows the Jew plan.

Ernest A. Gross, Jew, is U.S. Representative.

Pick up your papers of the last few days and read where David Zablodowsky, also a Jew and head of publications, is tagged as a Communist by Whittaker Chambers and he ties Zablodowsky up with Donald L. Robinson and his wife Ruth, who were important underground operators. Robin-

Isador Boorstein and Carol Weiss King Top Communist Lawyer, Both Jews

son's right name is Rubens

In the midst of all these communist exposures in the United Nations appears the name of J. Peters, alias Alexander Stevens who for twelve years was boss of the Communists who operated underground in the United States. The papers wouldn't dare publish his correct name, Isador Boorstein, as the Anti-Defamation League would promptly pay a visit to the editors.

Isador Boorstein, after directing Communist espionage for twelve years in the United States, was allowed to deport himself with all the information he had gathered same as Gehardt Eisler, Jew. Eisler was Moscow's director from the U. S. and was assisted in escaping on the Polish Communist ship Battery. He is now Director of Propaganda for East Germany.

Of the 2,000 U. S. employees in the U. N., we would estimate at least 85 per cent of all but janitors are Marxists. The U. S. Senators have no authority to investigate employees from other countries employed in the U. N. However, our estimate of Communists among them would be 100 per cent. If the United States was not hopelessly ruled by Jews, all of these foreign spies would be put on ships and sent home.

Many employed citizens of the United States have refused to state whether or not they are Communists. The Senators who are active in removing this nest of spies are Senator O'Connor of Maryland, Senator James Eastland of Mississippi, Senator Alexander Wiley of Wisconsin and Congressman John Wood of North Dakota. These patriotic lawmakers deserve our courageous support as they will be smeared.

Let's get the U. S. out of the U. N. and the U. N. out of the U. S.

IS ANNA M. ROSENBERG RED, PINK, OR YELLOW?

Committee Whitewash Of Red Anna Reveals Treason In High Places

10,000 COPIES OF SENATE COMMITTEE
HEARING BURNED. HER TESTIMONY
PROVED SHE WAS THE RED ANNA
ROSENBERG. PERMITTED TO CHANGE
TESTIMONY

Incontestable proof exists that the appointment and confirmation of Anna M. Rosenberg as Assistant Secretary of Defense in November 1950 was the final and most important link in the chain of the conspiracy of the international Red "invisible empire" to impose their Marxist (Communist) political, economic and social systems upon the American people. The available evidence destroys all doubt and defies any denial.

By a form of "remote control," an art which the Reds have developed into a highly specialized science, the international Red "invisible empire" exerted tremendous pressure upon the Senate Committee for Armed Services to confirm the appointment by General George Marshall of Anna M. Rosenberg as Assistant Secretary of Defense.

By "using the whip" on the Senate Committee on Armed Services the international "invisible empire" was able to procure a complete whitewash of Anna M. Rosenberg's fitness for the position after her fitness for this high post was challenged upon information which was deliberately concealed from the American people, and which indicated Anna M. Rosenberg as a poor security risk under existing international conditions.

The first whitewash of Anna M. Rosenberg was given to her by the Senate Committee on Armed Services under its Chairman, Senator Millard ("Whitewash") Tydings, on November 29, 1950. Chairman Millard ("Whitewash") Tydings also will go down in history for the whitewash administered by him to Alger Hiss when the Senate Committee on Armed Services dispelled all doubt of its ability to recognize a communist spy with all the proof there on the table under Senator Millard ("Whitewash") Tydings very own nose.

The second whitewash of Anna M. Rosenberg was given to her with super-suds. This infamous whitewash will rank in history as even more rank than its predecessor. After the Alger Hiss fiasco Senator Millard ("Whitewash") Tydings lacked the nerve to officiate at the gala whitewash of Anna M. Rosenberg when the Senate Committee on Armed Services reopened the hearings to take more testimony on the fitness of Anna M. Rosenberg to fill the position of Assistant Secretary of Defense. Senator Millard ("Whitewash") Tydings did not preside as chairman when the reopened hearings were held on December 5, 7, 8, 11, 12, 13 and 14, 1950. Senator Richard Russell of Georgia was substituted as the chairman. He became pinch-hitter for Senator Tydings for obvious reasons.

The Hon. Alfred E. Smith was in the habit of saying "lets take a look at the record" when any doubt existed on any question. A "look at the record" will convince even the most skeptical illiterate in political double-talk that the appointment and confirmation of Anna M. Rosenberg to the post of Assistant Secretary of Defense in 1950 was a blow struck against the security of the nation and the survival of civilization. The "day of reckoning" may dawn in the not too distant future when the American people will understand the implications of whitewashing persons who should not be allowed in our government at all.

What is the "skeleton" in the Anna M. Rosenberg appointment? How well has Anna M. Rosenberg concealed her "skeleton"? How much longer can Anna M. Rosenberg hide her "skeleton" from the American people? Did Anna M. Rosenberg actually conceal her "skeleton" from the members of the Senate Committee on Armed Services? Did the members of the Senate Committee on Armed Services conspire to conceal Anna M. Rosenberg's "skeleton" from the American people?

The American people have a right to know "the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth" about the "skeletons" in Anna M. Rosenberg's "closet." The security of the nation and the survival of civilization demand that every patriot "hew to the line and let the chips fall where they may."

Dulles-Front Man For Zionist Rockefeller Cabal

John Foster Dulles is regarded as the Rockefeller Empire's dispenser of patronage and guardian of the subversive, pro-Communist cell in the State Department. The New York Times quoted Dulles on July 25, 1950, as acknowledging to a group of Republican Senators that he was well aware of the existence of a group of Communists in the State Department who were working to betray China.

Alger Hiss informed the Senate Investigating Committee that his sponsor, adviser and mentor throughout his career had been John Foster Dulles. Dulles and David Rockefeller, as Trustees of the Carnegie Endowment For International Peace were acknowledged to have made Hiss president of the organization.

John Foster Dulles

On July 12, 1949 (Congressional Record, p. 9276). Dulles stated that he had attended the Paris Conference of Foreign Ministers, in company with Philip C. Jessup, as "advisor" to Dean Acheson; and that there he had discussed with Andrei Vishinsky, among others, the matter of a let-up of the "Cold War." It had been decided by them that such a let-up must not occur because it would not be wise on the ground that:

"Some fear that any relaxation of the East-West tension would bring a corresponding relaxation on the part of the American people, and therefore they needed to be artificially alarmed."

On July 15, 1949, Sen. William E. Jenner, of Indiana, was reported by the N.Y. Times 7/16/49, p. 4, col. 3) to have

"... strongly and personally challenged Sen. Foster Dulles and called upon Sen. Dulles ... to rise and give an explanation of his remarks at the Big 4 Foreign Ministers Conference in Paris that the U.S. public be kept artificially alarmed. The suggestion was rejected, and Sen Dulles sat silent and smiling. Dulles later told reporters that it was suggested at the conference, but would not tell who offered the suggestion. He just chuckled and made no reply."

Sen. Jenner summed up as follows:

"In other words ... they take the position: 'Tell the American people only what you want

VAN HYNING CASE DROPPED

On November 10, 1952, our case came up again for hearing before Judge William V. Daly, in the Municipal Court of Chicago. Once again Mr. Dilling was prepared to argue our motion to squash the information or charge, brought by Ira Latimer, because of its failure to cite in what manner I had supposedly libeled the Jewish race and religion. Mr. Dilling answered ready when Court convened. However, Assistant State's Attorney Zemel immediately moved that the case be stricken and dismissed from the Court call, reserving the right to "reinstate" it at some future date. Mr. Dilling objected to dismissal "with leave to reinstate" and strenuously urged that the case proceed, but evidently in view of the fact that one cannot force someone to prosecute, the Judge granted Zemel's motion. Presumably, the "leave to reinstate" provision is a device to protect Latimer and his associates from a well-deserved false arrest suit.

since the language of law has nuances of meaning which are difficult for a layman to report, I give the following interpretation by Mr. Albert Dilling:

"Such litigation, (suit for false arrest) of course entails considerable expense, and it does not seem fair that such expense should be borne by the victim of this unwarranted Jewish persecution. We are convinced that this charge against her was but a "trial balloon," so to speak; and that, had the Jewish cabal prevailed against her, the stage would have been set for a deluge of similar actions against persons some important, others unimportant, who "know the score" and print the truth about the Jewish conspiracy against Christian civilization.

"This, then, is not a personal fight, but one for the patriotic Christian cause as a whole. Will the readers of Women's Voice support its editor with prayers and financial help, in a false arrest action such as we propose to file? Expressions from readers in this connection will be welcomed.

"As is well known, Ira Latimer has a long pro-Communist record. It may be recalled that he was barred from teaching in Chicago's public schools because of it. It would be poetic justice, should his latest victim secure a substantial judgment against him for false arrest and malicious prosecution predicated upon a complaint containing a 'malice count.' The legal effects of this would be that, should Latimer fail to pay any judgment that might be won, he could be made to languish in the common jail of Cook County for an indefinite period."

As explained by Mr. Dilling the motion by the Assistant States Attorney that the case be stricken and dismissed from the court call means a decisive victory for us. In short after swearing out a warrant for my arrest March 3 and after 9 months of postponements and refusal to furnish particulars of crime, Mr. Ira Latimer confesses that he has no case against me.

I am convinced that my case was to be the first in a series of such cases against Nationalists, as well as a peg on which to hang the infamous Javits bill. My first and only consideration has been and is that my case may be a clear cut victory that can stand as a warning against any such future action. I object to the condition "right to reinstate it at some future time" which is a sword hanging over my head, and could be lowered at a moment which would harm some Nationalist. As there is no recourse except a suit for false arrest. I leave that decision to the informed Patriotic Americans.

LYRL VAN HYNING

It is better to be safe than sorry. The nation may live to find this out sooner than it expects. The nation can require Anna M. Rosenberg to divulge her fitness to hold the high post she now fills no less than it called upon Vice-President Elect Nixon to divulge his fitness to hold the high position to which he was nominated. The sanctity of the highest positions in our government is no respecter of persons.

The American must be reminded of the facts surrounding the appointment of Anna M. Rosenberg as Assistant Secretary of Defense before analyzing the facts surrounding her confirmation by Senator Millard ("Whitewash") Tydings' Senate Committee on Armed Services. General George C. Marshall was installed as Secretary of State by Dean Acheson's "friends." General Marshall "prepared the way" for Dean Acheson to step into the position of Secretary of State. General Marshall was a "pushover" for the Reds in the State Department. They had a genuine "Roman holiday" from that day on. The story is no longer news.

General George C. Marshall was then "transferred" by the "long arm" of the international Red "invisible empire" to the Department of Defense. General Marshall was appointed Secretary of Defense. While Congress was in recess General Marshall appointed Anna M. Rosenberg Assistant Secretary of Defense. General Marshall has gone on record that he "consulted" with no one about the appointment. General Marshall has never denied that Bernard Baruch, Senator Herbert Lehman, and the Warburg clan had "expressed" themselves on the matter. This group are the most important "friends" among those who seek to install Anna M. Rosenberg in strategic spots in government. General George C. Marshall knew that he would have great difficulty in getting Congress to confirm the appointment. General Marshall waited until Congress had recessed. General Marshall made the appointment at a time when it did not require the confirmation by Congress to install Anna M. Rosenberg in office. His Commander-in-Chief taught him that trick.

Not alone was Anna M. Rosenberg "sneaked" into the high office of Assistant Secretary of Defense while Congress was in recess, but the hearings to confirm her were "executive sessions" of Senator Millard ("Whitewash") Tydings' Senate Committee on Armed Services. In the lingo of the layman "executive sessions" means sessions held in secret. In other words the "deal" was made by the "friends" of Anna M. Rosenberg to have her appointed while Congress was not sitting in Washington, and then have the friend of her "friends," Senator Millard ("Whitewash") Tydings hold a secret session of his Senate Committee on Armed Services to put the stamp of their approval upon the appointment. Nice going, eh? But there is frequently a "slip t'wixt the cup and the lip." Divine Providence intervened at this point. The "friends" of Anna M. Rosenberg will battle unto the death to prevent exposure of the part they played in the appointment and confirmation of Anna M. Rosenberg as Assistant Secretary of Defense. Will they succeed? The answer to that question is in the hands of the American people.

The ramifications of the extensive conspiracy to install Anna M. Rosenberg into the important and strategic position of Assistant Secretary of Defense is convincingly illustrated by the contents of the printed record of the hearings held by the Senate Committee on Armed Services on November 29, 1950. It is essential to understanding "what goes on" in government, while John Q. Public concentrates exclusively on making more money and having more fun, to analyze and review what took place on November 29, 1950 before the Senate Committee on Armed Services, under the chairmanship of Senator Millard ("Whitewash") Tydings who presided.

The printed record of the hearings to confirm the nomination of Anna M. Rosenberg to be the Assistant Secretary of Defense has twenty-four pages. Those twenty-four pages are filled exclusively with testimony given by Anna M. Rosenberg. The only person called by the Senate Committee on Armed Services to appear before them and give testimony as to the fitness of Anna M. Rosenberg for that high post was Anna M. Rosenberg herself. Not another person was called to submit even one word on the question of Anna M. Rosenberg's fitness to step into that strategic position. It seems almost unbelievable. But that is the truth of the matter. No one but Anna M. Rosenberg was invited to appear before the Committee to testify regarding the fitness of Anna M. Rosenberg to occupy that office. Let John Q. Public try to swallow that fact, and then try to keep it down!

The printed record of that November 29, 1950 hearings, (United States Government Printing Office, Document No. 76029, Washington, 1950) is available to all who care to ask for a copy. It is better than a comic magazine. By all means write for one, they are free. There are twenty-four pages filled with "love and kisses from Anna to Anna" or "love and kisses from Anna to the committee," or visa versa. The printed record contains a telegram received by Chairman Millard ("Whitewash") Tydings from Secretary of Defense General George C. Marshall on November 29, 1950, the day the hearings were held.

In his telegram of November 29, 1950 to Chairman Tydings, General Marshall wired as follows, "... I want you to know... I selected her for the position... I advised no one other than Lovet and Mrs. Rosenberg of my selection until I talked to the President on election day." General George C. Marshall issued a "release" to the newspapers on November 9, 1950. Between the date of this release on November 9, 1950 and the date of the first hearing to confirm this appointment thousands of telegrams and letters poured into the Senate Committee on Armed Services and to the Senators on the committee, and to other Members of Congress, protesting the appointment. Yet at the secret hearing held on November 29, 1950 Senator Millard ("Whitewash") Tydings had the unadulterated nerve to state the following, "I have here, which I will be glad to place in the record, if the committee wants, three telegrams of opposition to Mrs. Rosenberg, and three letters, making six communications all told." In the official record of the hearings Senator Millard ("Whitewash") Tydings describes the "conspiracy" of certain "anti-Semites" to attempt to keep the Jewess out of the Pentagon." Senator Tydings further stated, "I have read them through, and all of the objections are on simply general grounds." Senator Tydings' crony in the White House selected the expression of "red herding" when the President of the United States was pressured into defending Alger Hiss.

After Chairman Millard ("Whitewash") Tydings and Anna M. Rosenberg had exchanged "love and kisses" for nine printed pages of testimony in the official printed record of the November 29, 1950 secret hearing the "cat got out of the bag." The Chairman referred to a letter from "Tom R. Jones, M.D. who specializes in diseases of the chest, Houston, Texas, and he says she is socialistic and a Communist sympathizer, as shown through her membership in the John Reed Club." The "lid was off" but it did not take the committee long to put the "lid" back, and as they believed, hermetically sealed-up. But the "lid" was to be blown off again with a "bang." And what an odor emitted!

In spite of the thousands of telegrams and letters pouring into the committee members suggesting that Anna M. Rosenberg might prove a serious security risk on account of her political background, the committee did not see fit in their judgment to call a single witness before the committee to testify on Anna M. Rosenberg's political background. It is interesting to quote here from the printed record of the November 29, 1950 secret hearings, where on page 10 it states as follows:

THE CHAIRMAN. What is the John Reed Club, Mrs. Rosenberg?

MRS. ROSENBERG. I would like to answer that because Senator Cain was also good enough to give me some other complaints he had, and Mr. Fulton Lewis, Jr. on the air, mentioned that I was a member of the John Reed Club.

I didn't know what the John Reed Clubs were, but I looked up the John Reed Clubs, and they were Communist clubs.

I understand at one time, when I was up here with the Social Security Board, Congressman Engel of Michigan asked me if I knew that I had been cited by the Dies committee to belong to some Communist club. I said I had never known, and I would appreciate if they would immediately show me the record.

They showed me the record, and it was these clubs. The person who was cited was an Anna Rosenberg, not Anna M. Rosenberg, and the Dies report said that anyone who belongs to these clubs must be a writer. It was another Anna

That was the testimony of Anna M. Rosenberg under oath before the Senate Committee on Armed Services on November 29, 1950. The Senate Committee on Armed Services received a letter from Anna M. Rosenberg dated December 1, 1950, addressed to Senator Millard ("whitewash") Tydings. In that letter Anna M. Rosenberg stated the following:

Assistant Secretary of Defense,
Washington, December 1, 1950

Senator Millard E. Tydings,
Chairman, Senate Armed Services Committee.
Dear Mr. Chairman:

Upon my return to my office yesterday after the executive session of your committee, I recalled that I had incorrectly calculated the percentage that I shall retain in my business.

I believe the incorrect figure of 51 percent appears on page 30 of the stenographic transcript of the hearing, and I would appreciate if you would have the necessary correction made.

I would also like to make a correction as to the date I obtained my citizenship and give you a full record.

Sincerely,

Anna M. Rosenberg

It therefore appears that on or before December 1, 1950 Anna M. Rosenberg had received and read a stenographic transcript of the testimony she gave before the executive (closed to the public) session on November 29, 1950. Anna M. Rosenberg evidently read the stenographic transcript very carefully and also very promptly communicated the corrections referred to in the above letter to the Committee. It is the customary practice to permit corrections before the stenographic transcript is sent to the Government Printing Office to be printed as the official record. Among these corrections to be made Anna M. Rosenberg made no mention of any correction in her testimony regarding the John Reed Clubs and her purported connection with them. Anna M. Rosenberg seemed silent and satisfied on that testimony.

The Senate Committee on Armed Services then ordered 10,000 copies printed by the Government Printing Office. They were made available to anyone who was interested. The 10,000 copies were delivered to the office of the Senate Committee on Armed Services in Room 222 of the Senate Office Building. They formed several large piles stacked near the entrance and anyone could obtain as many as they desired for the asking. A few were obtained by persons visiting the office and requesting them. Then something very strange happened. On the day following the delivery of the 10,000 copies of the printed record to the office of the Senate Committee on Armed Services, orders were issued not to permit the distribution of any more and the balance were withdrawn to be destroyed. Persons requesting copies were told that the printed record was withdrawn and that a new printed record for distribution would be ready in a few days. Efforts were also made to recall from circulation the few copies which had already been distributed. What was the reason for all this?

It appears that after "friends" of Anna M. Rosenberg had read and studied her testimony it was deemed necessary to "withdraw" her testimony and substitute another version. Anna M. Rosenberg had not discovered any error in her testimony on the subject of the John Reed Clubs when she read the stenographic transcript of her testimony on or before December 1, 1950. But on December 11, 1950 Anna M. Rosenberg's "friends" believed that her testimony about her connection with the John Reed Clubs should be "revised." As a result of this interest by her "friends" the original 10,000 copies of the printed record were ordered destroyed and another printing ordered with a "revised" version of Anna M. Rosenberg's testimony under oath on the subject of the John Reed Clubs inserted in place of her testimony under oath before the "executive session" of the Senate Committee on Armed Services on November 29, 1950. Now it is important to note the difference in the original testimony and the "revised" version of that testimony.

On December 13, 1950 there was made available in any quantity desired the "revised" printed record of the November 29, 1950 hearings. But strange as it seems it was not marked "Revised." The second edition of the printed record of the hearings was marked in large black type on its cover "Reprint." The use of the word "Reprint" disarmed any suspicion that the second edition differed in any material way from the first edition. That was evidently the intention. The word "Reprint" can only indicate one thing. But the second edition was not a "Reprint" at all. It was a "Revised" edition, and "revised" on the only important question raised at the hearings bearing upon the fitness of Anna M. Rosenberg to serve as Assistant Secretary of Defense from a security point of view. How was the "revised" version of Anna M. Rosenberg's connection with the John Reed Clubs different from the testimony given by her under oath, and not corrected by her after reading the stenographic transcript?

The contents of the "revised" edition differ only on page 10 where Anna M. Rosenberg testified regarding her purported connections with the John Reed Clubs. The "revised" edition reads as follows:

THE CHAIRMAN. I mean, did they actually locate and identify the other Anna Rosenberg?

MRS. ROSENBERG. YES THEY DID. She was a writer.

THE CHAIRMAN. Is that shown in the record of the Dies committee?

MRS. ROSENBERG. HER NAME AND ADDRESS ARE SHOWN BECAUSE THAT IS HOW I GOT IT.

From the "revised" testimony which appears in the "Reprint," (United States Government Printing Office, Document 76160, Washington, 1950), it appears that Anna M. Rosenberg had finally "pinpointed" the OTHER Anna Rosenberg. Anna M. Rosenberg remembered, according to the "revised" edition of her testimony before the executive session on November 29, 1950, that there was a record of the OTHER Anna Rosenberg's address in the records of the House Committee on Un-American Activities, known as the Dies Committee at the time the OTHER Anna Rosenberg was the subject of investigation. Anna M. Rosenberg's testimony in the first edition of the printed record of the hearings stated merely that she "believed" that the Dies committee "did actually locate and identify" the OTHER Anna Rosenberg. She used the word "believe" in answer to all questions on that point put to her by Chairman Millard ("Whitewash") Tydings.

In the "revised" second edition of the printed record, which is marked very prominently on its cover "Reprint" but which it is not, Anna M. Rosenberg is quoted as having said, "YES THEY DID" and not, "I believe they did," as appears in the first edition. In the "revised" edition Anna M. Rosenberg is quoted as replying to the question, "Is that shown in the record of the Dies committee?" that, "HER NAME AND ADDRESS ARE SHOWN BECAUSE THAT IS HOW I GOT IT." In the first edition of the printed record Anna M. Rosenberg replied to that same question, "I BELIEVE SO." Repeated requests by Members of Congress to determine the source of authority for this alteration of Anna M. Rosenberg's testimony under oath has been met with a wall of silence in the Senate Committee on Armed Services and the Secretary of the Printing Office for printed records of committee hearings.

Senator, who issues the orders to the Government If the Dies Committee on Un-American Activities has the address of the OTHER Anna Rosenberg why was she not produced at the reopened hearings on the question of Anna M. Rosenberg's fitness to serve as Assistant Secretary of Defense held on December 5, 7, 8, 11, 12, 13 and 14, 1950? That would have settled all doubt about ANOTHER Anna Rosenberg. Certainly the fact that this OTHER Anna Rosenberg was a writer, and the fact that her ADDRESS was in the Dies Committee records according to Anna M. Rosenberg, should have made it easy for the FBI to produce her to face Ralph DeSola, who identified Anna M. Rosenberg at those hearings as THE Anna Rosenberg he had met many times at meetings of the John Reed Clubs. A communist organization.

The veracity of Ralph DeSola can best be judged by the testimony under oath of Dr. J. B. Matthews who testified at the reopened hearings held between December 5, 1950 and December 14, 1950. Firstly it must be noted that Dr. J. B. Matthews was the Director of Research for the House Committee on Un-American Activities, the Dies Committee, for 6½ years according to his testimony. Dr. J. B. Matthews' opinion of Ralph DeSola's veracity was expressed by him under questioning by Senator Knowland of California, a member of the committee. The testimony was unqualified confirmation of Ralph DeSola's character and integrity, as well as his reputation for truthfulness. That testimony appears on page 131 of the printed record of the reopened hearings held on December 5, 7, 8, 11, 12, 13, and 14, 1950, (United States Government Printing Office, Document 76,029, Washington, 1950), which was printed BEFORE the "revised" second edition of Anna M. Rosenberg's November 29, 1950 hearing before the secret "executive session" of the committee, and reads as follows:

SENATOR KNOWLAND. Dr. Matthews, in the six years you were connected with the Dies committee did you have occasion to know or to have information concerning Ralph DeSola, who has been a witness before this committee?

MR. MATTHEWS. Yes, I had several contacts with Mr. DeSola. He was a witness on three or four different occasions before the House Un-American Activities Committee and subsequently was one of the IMPORTANT witnesses before the Rapp-Coudert committee of the New York State Legislature.

SENATOR KNOWLAND. Can you inform the committee, BASED ON YOUR OWN KNOWLEDGE OF HIS PRIOR TESTIMONY, as to whether the facts that he testified to had been confirmed by other sources?

In other words, was he a reliable witness or reasonably reliable witness in those other cases, or did you find he testified to a great deal of material which could not be substantiated?

MR. MATTHEWS. When Mr. DeSola's name first came to my attention this past week I recalled in a vague sort of way that HIS TESTIMONY HAD BEEN INVALUABLE, but to check my memory, I got the volumes out and read his entire testimony WORD FOR WORD, and I do not hesitate to say that as of that period and as of that testimony, I HAVE NEVER READ MORE INTELLIGENT, ARTICULATE, CAREFUL, AND BALANCED TESTIMONY BEFORE ANY CONGRESSIONAL COMMITTEE. I WOULD SAY THAT HIS STATEMENTS HAVE BEEN CONFIRMED 100%—NOT EVEN 99.

When Ralph DeSola was brought face to face with Anna M. Rosenberg he identified her as the same Anna Rosenberg he had met at several meetings of the John Reed Clubs. (Pages 120, 121, 122, and 123 in the printed record of the reopened hearings before the committee on December 8, 1950, United States Government, Document 76029, Washington, 1950). Anna M. Rosenberg was already acting as Assistant Secretary of Defense at the time she testified on December 8, 1950. In view of Dr. Matthews unqualified certification of Ralph DeSola's truthfulness it will prove helpful where any doubt exists

Every year we read in the newspapers where the Communist Party and Zionist organizations, such as the U. J. A. run fund drives for one purpose or another and set the goals well over the $100,000 mark. A few weeks after the fund drives have opened and the initial advertisements have entered the newspapers, we read that they have hit the $1,000,000 and are reaching the $2,000,000 mark. These organizations are the minority groups in the United States whose principles are the exact opposite to the beliefs and principles of 150,000,000 Americans, yet they manage to accumulate millions of dollars each year for their propaganda. The ironical twist to this train of thought is that a real American organization or publication, the real ideals of which are to promote Americanism and freedom for 150,000,000 people cannot raise a few paltry dollars to guarantee these basic rights. ONE WONDERS WHY COMMUNISM AND ATHEISM ARE SO SUCCESSFUL IN THE WORLD, THIS IS ONE CONCRETE EXAMPLE. on this question to obtain a copy of the printed record of Ralph DeSola's testimony for study. Copies can be obtained from the United States Printing Office, Washington, D.C.

The "OTHER" Anna Rosenberg was never produced. Rumors were circulated by Anna M. Rosenberg's "friends" that the "OTHER" Anna Rosenberg had been located. But this "OTHER" Anna Rosenberg was not produced to face Ralph DeSola. The "OTHER" Anna Rosenberg never appeared before the Senate Committee on Armed Services to testify under oath that she was the "OTHER" Anna Rosenberg. This "OTHER" Anna Rosenberg has never communicated with Ralph DeSola to straighten him out on his identification of Anna M. Rosenberg as the Anna Rosenberg he met at the John Reed Club meetings. There may be many reasons why the "OTHER" Anna Rosenberg has never been produced. It would appear quite important to remove the last trace of any doubt regarding the presence of the Assistant Secretary of Defense at meetings of clubs which Ralph DeSola describes as "a revolutionary club, not a writers club" as claimed by Anna M. Rosenberg in her testimony in the executive session of the Senate Committee on Armed Service on November 29, 1950.

On one occasion during the height of the uproar Ralph DeSola received a telephone call from the FBI requesting a meeting with him. On that occasion Ralph DeSola was shown a photograph. It was the photograph of a tall, buxom woman sitting on the railing of a porch. Ralph DeSola was asked if he had ever seen that woman. He was asked if he could recognize her as a woman whom he had ever seen or met before. Ralph DeSola stated that to the very best of his recollection he had never set eyes on that woman and he was equally certain that he had never met her in person. The FBI agent then explained their interest in the photograph. The FBI agent stated that the photograph had been submitted to them by "friends" of Anna M. Rosenberg with the claim that it was the photograph of the Anna Rosenberg who attended the John Reed Club meetings with Ralph DeSola. Ralph DeSola then was very positive that it could not have been the Anna Rosenberg he had met at the John Reed Club meetings.

Anna M. Rosenberg is a very petite person. The photograph was the picture of a very voluptuous woman of considerably greater height even though shown in a semi-sitting posture. After Ralph DeSola had convinced the FBI agent that the photograph could not possibly be the photograph of Assistant Secretary of Defense Anna M. Rosenberg at any time in her life, the FBI agent appeared to be more than satisfied. The FBI agent, informed Ralph DeSola that the FBI had investigated the person appearing in the photograph and that the woman in the photograph was only 13 years of age at the time of the John Reed meetings attended by Anna M. Rosenberg according to Ralph DeSola's testimony under oath. Both Ralph DeSola and the FBI agent were amazed that Anna M. Rosenberg's "friends" would attempt such a fraud upon the FBI acting as the investigating agency for the Department of Justice and the State Committee on Armed Services. The "OTHER" Anna Rosenberg has never been produced in the flesh to contradict and disprove Ralph DeSola's testimony. Anna M. Rosenberg's "friends" have since then seen to it that the mystery of the "OTHER" Anna Rosenberg got the "silent treatment."

Anna M. Rosenberg's "friends" were prepared to move heaven and earth to discredit Ralph DeSola's testimony. What they did is a disgraceful scandal. Anna M. Rosenberg's "friends" control the newspapers, radio, magazines and motion pictures. Anna M. Rosenberg's "friends" instantly "went to work" on everyone who had suggested that Anna M. Rosenberg's political "past" disqualified her for the position of Assistant Secretary of Defense. And what a job they did. What they did is a classic in the history of "smear" campaigns. Anna M. Rosenberg's "friends" resorted to typical communist tactics. They smothered and suffocated innocent people with charges of the very things of which they themselves were guilty. A few examples will serve to illustrate the methods employed to accomplish their fiendish purpose.

The mere calling of the attention of Members of Congress to the political "past" of Anna M. Rosenberg was publicized as a "conspiracy." Every newspaper in the country, every radio news-commentator, every motion picture news-reel, and all the leading magazines shouted that Anna M. Rosenberg was the victim of a "conspiracy." The alleged "conspiracy" consisted of a well organized nation-wide movement to "keep Anna M. Rosenberg out of the Pentagon" because she was a "Jewess." The "conspiracy" was an "anti-Semitic" plot to keep Anna M. Rosenberg "out of the Pentagon." It was as simple as all that according to the "friends" of Anna M. Rosenberg.

Anna Rosenberg Hungarian Jewess, real power in the Defense Department placed there by Bernard M. Baruch. According to sworn testimony before a Congressional Committee in Washington, she is the Anna Rosenberg, often seen and talked with in Communist organization, the John Reed Club in New York. This testimony has not been disproved. COMMON SENSE has the highest respect for Mr. Ralph De Sola who swore to these facts, and the utmost confidence in his integrity. Did someone commit perjury? Should not Red Anna go on trial, just as Alger Hiss did. Hiss denied and denied, and even sued Whittaker Chambers for accusing him, but two trials put Alger Hiss where he belongs. Should not Anna Rosenberg be where she belongs?

Reference is made to Mrs. Anna M. Rosenberg in the New Yorker Magazine of September 15, 1945. The writer of the article on page 20 in that issue states that he had an interview with Mrs. Rosenberg and that he, "learned that her office hired ten thousand people for the Manhattan District, or atom-bomb, project." The atom-bomb project was so top-secret that Mrs. Rosenberg is quoted by him as saying, "I never knew what it was all about myself."

Does it seem queer that spies were in the atomic energy factories such as Julius and Ethel Rosenberg, David Greenglass, Ruth Greenglass, Morton Sobell and Harry Gold. Red Anna now supervises the hiring of personnel in fifteen Government departments. Think this over.

The international press is making a frantic effort to convince the world that Communism suddenly has become anti-Semitic. Beginning with the rabbi's son and Talmudic Jew Karl Marx, Communism has been entirely Jewish in its aims and methods, and a majority of Communists have been Jews. The only obstacle to the success of the Jewish world power has been The Spiritual leadership of Christ. The famed Jewish scholar Laible, in "Jesus Christus in Talmud" says on page 86 that "Hatred of Christ is the most national trait of Judaism." On page 25, "The hatred and scorn of the Jews was always directed in the first place against the person of Jesus." On page 3, "The Jesus-hatred of the Jews is a firmly established fact, but they want to show it as little as possible." Jewish children are taught to hate Christ, and to refer to him as "the bastard" and "the hanged."

The Jews saw at once that Communism could be the means to wipe out the power of Christianity and reduce the Gentiles to helpless slaves. They adopted Communism as the political arm of the Jewish Anti-Christ. At the same time that they made a frontal attack upon Christianity, they began to infiltrate the priesthood, and they formed alliances of Jews and Christians, the most notorious being the National Conference of Christians and Jews.

The U.N. Is Treason

By Frank B. Ohlquist

WE CANNOT RETAIN OUR LIBERTIES BY SURRENDERING OUR SOVEREIGNTY.

The most diabolical scheme ever hatched by the INTERNATIONAL ROTHSCHILD BANKERS to obtain control of the entire world, the most crafty conspiracy ever created to destroy the sovereignty of the Republic of the United States, is that corrupt, dishonest, twin-headed monstrosity known as the United Nations Organization and the World Bank. They were conceived in iniquity, born in intrigue and treachery, nursed in hypocrisy, weaned on deceit, raised on mendacity and oppression, presented in deception and falsehood, and now full grown, have become traitors in our midst, destroying the Constitution, the Bill of Rights and the written law of this nation.

Behind The Prague Trials

In every country which has undergone the ravages of a Communist seizure of power, the first to be slain were priests and nuns. This continues to the present day, with Tito, the Communist terrorist who rules Yugoslavia with the help of the Hebrew Moishe Pijade, practicing oppression against the Church. Tito is the ally of the United States. The Newark Star-Ledger on October 5, 1952 recorded that "A Bulgarian Communist court has sentenced a Roman Catholic bishop and three priests to be shot." They are not always so legal. In Hungary in 1919, Bela Kun (Cohen) had six hundred nuns burned alive in ovens, in Spain in 1937 hundreds of Christians were sawed in two, after the precedent of the Jewish hero, King David, and in Russia when Trotsky (Bronstein) and his friends seized power in 1917, those professing Christianity were declared to be enemies of the state and treated mercilessly. Now we are asked to believe that Stalin and the Politburo are anti-Semitic.

Certainly a split has occurred in the Communist empire, for a number of reasons. In September of 1942, Jewish Voice, published by the National Association of Jewish Communists in New York, declared that "Anti-Semitism is anti-Communism", which was true. Now Semitism, or pro-Judaism, is supposed to be anti-Communism. What has happened? How anti-Semitic is the Kremlin?

History has repeated itself. In Germany the Jews helped the rise to power of Nazism, and found out that they couldn't control Hitler. Has Stalin gotten out of control, or have the little circle of Jews around him decided that it is time for a holy war against the growing power of Zionism? Communism and Zionism came to power together as a joint enterprise of world Jewry. Dr. Mandelstam, at the First Zionist World Congress in Basle, Switzerland declared in the main speech on August 29, 1898, "The Jews energetically reject the idea of fusion with the other nationalities and cling firmly to their historical hope of world empire." Quoted in Le Temps, Sept. 2, 1898.

The First World War resulted in Communist revolutions in Russia, Hungary, and Germany, and the establishment of a Zionist Home in Palestine. The Second World War resulted in the triumph of Communism in Europe, thanks to Roosevelt, and the setting up of the Zionist State of Israel. Russia introduced the resolution in the United Nations calling for the establishment of the State of Israel. Israel has reciprocated by voting in agreement with Russia on many issues, such as the desire to seat Red China in the United Nations.

On November 27, 1952, after a lengthy trial in Prague, Czechoslovakia, fourteen Communist leaders were convicted of Trotskyism and Zionism. Eleven of them were Jews. Eight of the Jews and the three Gentiles were hung on December 4, 1952. The other three Jews received a sentence of life imprisonment. One of the defendants, General Karel Svab, former Deputy Minister of National Defense in Czechoslovakia, N.Y. Daily News, Nov. 26, 1952, confessed that "He had used the powers of his office to cover up a Jewish plot to overthrow the state. Rudolf Slansky, onetime Kremlin pet who master-minded the Czech coup, is accused of leading the plot." Our own Assistant Secretary of National Defense, Anna Rosenberg who was positively identified in December, 1950 before a Senate Subcommittee as a Communist, is a Hungarian Jewish of doubtful loyalties.

The Prague trials prove one thing, that the majority of Communist leaders are Jews. Many of them are still in power. The New York Times carried a comment on these trials on November 30, 1952, by the Times' Vienna correspondent, John MacCormac, noting that the defendants had supplied arms to Israel, which is a Marxist state, and MacCormac astounds us with this paragraph.

"The fact is that there are still at least seven Jews in high positions of power in Czechoslovakia Communist hierarchy, and while anti-Semitism is at least as rife in Hungary, Matyas Rakosi, President Klement Gottenwald's counterpart, and his two chief lieutenants are Jews."

If this paragraph had appeared in Common Sense, it would be denounced as a hysterical appeal to racial prejudice. It is very unusual material to find in the New York Times.

The labor columnist Victor Reisel on November 23, 1952 reported that "Word has been flashed from Cominform headquarters in Central Europe to all Communist parties for an attack on Jewish organizations and their directors." How Mr. Reisel gets messages from Cominform headquarters is not explained, but he is a member of a group which can get information when no one else can. The N.Y. Daily News on November 29, 1952 reported that "Sources in Paris familiar with Communist policy believe that George M. Malenkov, Stalin's top lieutenant, ordered the destruction of the alleged 'Trotskyite-Zionist' group in Czechoslovakia."

Malenkov was conceded to be the logical successor to Stalin in a recent article in the Saturday Evening Post, which identified him as the personal protege of Lazar Kaganovich. The Jew Kaganovich is Soviet Commissar of Heavy Industry and admittedly the most powerful man in Russia after Stalin. Did he order the purge of the Trotsky-Zionist group?

It has been pointed out many times that "If there is any real anti-Semitism anywhere, it is in Russia." This is a comment on the fact that most anti-Semitism is drummed up by Jews themselves, in order to gain the sympathy and help of the Gentiles in winning world power for the Jews. The Russians for centuries have endured the oppression of the worst Afro-Asiatic hybrid tribe of degenerates known as Khazar Jews. They cheated the peasants of their meager savings and their crops for many years, and finally won absolute power in the Bolshevik Revolution of 1917. Does anyone suppose that the native Russian people are not anti-Semitic, after the Jewish executioners dragged them out of their homes and slaughtered them by the millions in 1917?

Are the Arabs Anti-Semitic after 900,000 were driven out of their homes to starve in the desert in tents - from their homeland the Arabs had occupied uninterrupted for 1,300 years?

The New York Times on November 27, 1952 carried a Special from Tel Aviv that "Reports of a wave of suicides among Jews in Communist-ruled Czechoslovakia created anxiety in Israel today. A Foreign Office spokesman told of several deaths as the treason trials of fourteen former leaders, eleven of them Jews, neared its end in Prague. Erich Cohn, secretary of the Prague Jewish community, M. Cohn's wife and several high Jewish officers serving in the Czech Army were among the victims, the spokesman said."

The interesting thing about this wave of suicides, which does not seem to be mentioned in other newspapers, is that it consisted only of a few deaths, and that it did not come from Czechoslovakia, but from Israel. It seems to be 100 per cent Yiddish propaganda designed to further confuse the Gentiles. The fact that it appeared only in the Zulzberger-Adler owned New York Times, which is known as the Daily Israeli to its disgusted former subscribers, makes it even more suspect.

This is the same hogwash which we received by the bucketful from Germany in the early 1930s, in preparation for the flood of Germany's unwanted Communist Jews who were welcomed here by Franklin D. Roosevelt, Bella Moscowitz, and the other members of his Jewish conspiracy against America. This same story in the New York Times quotes the prosecutor at the Prague trials as saying, "It is no accident that of the fourteen accused eleven are the product of Zionist organizations. The danger of Zionism has increased with the foundation of the State of Israel by the Americans. Zionism and Jewish nationalism are two sides of the same coin, which was minted in Wall Street."

It has been obvious for some time that the international Jewish bankers of Wall Street, the Warburgs, Strausses, Schiffs, Seligmans, Speyers, and their like, lost sympathy with Moscow when the State of Israel was set up. James Paul Warburg was the last American known to be in contact with President Benes of Czechoslovakia before Benes died, according to the columnist Dorothy Thompson. More than a year ago, Premier Gottwald denounced these "international Jewish bankers" for undermining the Communist regime in Czechoslovakia.

Significantly, the Daily Worker, official publication of the Communist Party of America, and, according to its former editor, Louis Budenz, the method of communicating the party line to all members, has not once mentioned the anti-Semitism of the Prague trials. On November 28, 1952, it carried a small item on an inside page that "11 to Die in Plot against Czechoslovakia", giving the names of the victims, but does not mention Jew. Ordinarily, such news would be headlined on the front page of the Daily Worker. The majority of Communists in America, as elsewhere are Jews. This same issue of the Daily Worker has a story next to the Czech item that "Government using McCarran Law to Bring Nazis to U.S." an address of Dr. David Petergorsky, executive director of the American Jewish Congress, before Junior Hadassah, a female Zionist group. The Daily Worker is full of other Jewish news, even more so than the New York Post, which it so closely resembles in make-up and its denunciations of fascism. Neither Dorothy Schiff, grand-daughter of the financier of the Bolshevik Revolution in Russia, and publisher of the Post, nor the editors of the Daily Worker wish to admit that fascism was wiped out in the Second World War.

In the October Revolution of 1917, Trotsky, Lenin, and Stalin seized power together. Lenin died mysteriously, and although he had appointed Trotsky (Bronstein) to succeed him, Stalin took over, and Trotsky finally was exiled. Trotsky, a typical Jewish fanatic, lived only for the mass-murder of white Christians. Stalin finally became disgusted at the continuation of the bloodbath in Russia long after the Communists were in complete power. Trotsky's pathological thirst for Gentile blood totally incapacitated him for the duties of government, and nobody was sorry to see Stalin kick him out. Accompanied by a sizeable group of Yiddish gangsters, Trotsky travelled in luxury around the world, organizing a Fourth Communist International to return to Russia and overthrow Stalin. He also set up a considerable fifth column of Jewish officials in the Kremlin, and Stalin wiped out these conspirators in the Moscow Purge Trials of 1937-1938.

When Trotsky was murdered in Mexico in 1940, the Trotskyite Jewish Communists, now a headless Hebrew group, joined with the Zionists in their world conspiracy. The Kremlin went along with the setting-up of the Zionist State of Israel, and soon afterwards realized that every Jew in the Communist hierarchy now faced a division of loyalties between Moscow and Tel Aviv. Jewish officials were placed under supervision, and sure enough, the Jews in Yugoslavia, led by Meishe Pijade, persuaded Tito that the international Jewish bankers would stand back of him if he seceded from the Communist satellite states. He did so, and America has poured billions of dollars into Yugoslavia in fulfillment of this bribe.

Then the Jews set about convincing the other satellites to follow Tito's example, and this Hebrew plot was even announced as the official American foreign policy! It is also Eisenhower's official policy. In a speech before the American Legion on August 25, 1952, quoted in the New York Times on November 27, 1952, Eisenhower said.

"The East European countries are suffocating under this Russian pall. The American conscience can never know peace until these people are restored again to being masters of their own fate."

These people, of course, are the Jews who are under supervision from Moscow. Eisenhower, at his headquarters in London in 1944, was surrounded by the following staff, who cleared everything which went in to him: Captain Edward M. M. Warburg, of the Kuhn, Loeb family, who had the title of Eisenhower's political adviser; James Paul Warburg, head of the London Office of War Information; John Schiff, partner of Kuhn, Loeb, naval attaché to Eisenhower, now President of the Boy Scouts of America; Judge Simon Rifkind, Ike's adviser on Jewish affairs. Rifkind's law partner, Gen. Telford Taylor, was prosecutor at the Nuremberg Trials.

A Rabbi Speaks

Eisenhower, with this guidance, will lead us into war against Russia to save the Jews behind the Iron Curtain. It is the same old story of 1933, when Samuel Untermyer organized the Anti-Fascist League to work us up into attacking Germany. The official Jewish plan was revealed by Rabbi Emanuel Rabinovich in a speech made on January 12, 1952, before the Emergency Council of European Rabbis in Budapest, Hungary. This speech reached the patriotic press in America, and has been reprinted all over the world. Despite its exposure, the Jews are confident that they have enough power over the people in America to go ahead with their plans. Rabinovich said, in part.

"Our most pressing problem at the moment is to inflame the lagging militaristic spirit of the Americans . . . This we hope to do with the issue of anti-Semitism, which worked so well in uniting the Americans against Germany. We are counting heavily on reports of anti-Semitic outrages in Russia to whip up indignation in the United States."

Congress Hears McFadden

Any day now, the front pages of our newspapers will headline the news that Russia has murdered six million Jews, and we will be asked to believe this on the same evidence, or lack of it, that we were persuaded that Hitler killed a number of Jews. We will also be asked to admit six million more Jewish refugees, that is, about the same number as we will be told have been killed in Russia. The true story of such shenanigans was exposed by one of the most respected members of Congress, Representative Louis McFadden, on June 15, 1933. Mr. McFadden had been Chairman of the House Banking and Currency Committee for eighteen years, and was a leader of the Republican Party. He said,

"There is no real persecution of the Jews in Germany, but there has been a pretended persecution of them because there are 200,000 unwanted Communistic Jews in Germany, largely Galician Jews who entered Germany after the World War, and Germany is very anxious to get rid of these particular Communistic Jews. The Germans wish to preserve the purity of their own racial stock. They are willing to keep rich Jews like Max Warburg and Franz Mendelssohn, whose families have lived in Germany so long that they have acquired some German national characteristics. But the Germans are not willing to keep the Galician Jews, the upstarts. So a great show is put on, largely by German Jews themselves, in the hope that Uncle Sam will prove himself to be as foolish as he was before and that we will allow those Galician and Communistic Jews to come in here. That is why Miss Perkins had been placed in charge of the Department of Labor. She was in there to lower the immigration bars. She is an old hand with the international Jewish bankers. If she were not, she would not be here in a Jewish-controlled administration. We would be very foolish to allow Germany to dump her unwanted Jewish population on the United States."

When world Jewry persuaded America to attack Germany on behalf of the Jews, Hitler put the Jewish fifth column in Germany in concentration camps. We did the same thing with Japanese and Germans in this country. Now we will be asked to attack Russia. Congressman McFadden, in this same speech in the Congressional Record, said,

"Mr. Speaker, I cannot believe that those people—the real Russians—ever lost the true friendship of the American people. They were done away with to suit the ambitions of those who intend to be the financial masters of the world. The chasm that suddenly opened between ourselves and our old friends and well-wishers in Russia was a chasm created by Schiff the vindictive in his inhuman greed, and he created it in the name of the Jewish religion."

If the Russian people wish to throw off their Jewish yoke, what right have we to criticize them? We should be doing the same. This is the final proof of the contempt which the Jews have for the intelligence of the American people, that for the third time in less than fifty years, American boys will be sent out to be slaughtered for the plans and the profits of world Jewry. The American people and the Russian people should be united in a common aim, to end once and for all the world conspiracy of the Jews against all peoples. If Eisenhower lets the Warburgs persuade him to declare war against Russia to keep the Jews from being punished for their crimes, it will be the worst disaster in the history of America.

If the Communists destroy the Jews in Communism, immediately there will be no Communism.

Is the United States to go to war to save Communism, just as we saved Communism by recognizing the Soviet Union in 1933, and just as we saved Communism again by going to war against Germany and defeating the worst enemy Communism ever had? If we had not interfered with Germany in her plan to wipe out Communism in Europe, we would not be engaged today in an endless war in Korea and fear would not be gripping the United States.

If the Trotskyites using Tito as a spark plug are determined to bring on a war to break down the Stalinists who are also ruled by Jews, is the United States again to be drawn into War No. 3 where gentiles will die in the front lines of both the U. S. and Red Russia just as they died in the front lines between the United States and Germany? In the last war, Jews, labeled as Political Commissars, followed the Russian gentiles with machine guns to shoot down the Russians who would refuse to go forward and fight. The Jews in the United States directed the war through their front FDR.

ITS MOST VICIOUS FORM.

No Bill Of Rights

In all the one hundred and eleven articles in the charter of the United Nations Organization there is not one single clear specific provision for the protection of the individual human being. The terrifying fact stands out that there is no bill of rights, no right to vote as individuals, and no protection against the tyranny of this one-world government.

It is as impossible to reform and correct the world's economic, financial and political troubles by going into partnership with the international bankers, who spawned the United Nations and the World Bank, as it would be to reform Hell by going into partnership with the Devil.

Violates Constitution

The Hon. John T. Wood, Congressman from Idaho, in a speech on December 15, 1951, and the author of HR5080, a bill to withdraw from the United Nations, listed the following losses of your sovereignty. This is only the beginning unless you act you will be a people without a nation.

"The powers delegated to the federal government by the sovereign people of the United States are either being usurped by the United Nations or granted to them by a governmental set-up in Washington, which is either ignorant of the fact it is granting powers to the United Nations which the citizenry of the United States granted to it alone; or that each and every department of the Federal government granting such powers is criminally recreant to the oath each took upon assumption of office to: 'support and defend the Constitution of the United States against all enemies from without or within the United States.'

"The Constitution certainly never contemplated that any of its terms should authorize the 'selling out' of our hard-won freedoms to a One World aggregation, which is aiming to completely supplant our sovereign system of Constitutional Republican government, under which we have lived and prospered for the past one hundred and sixty-four years.

"This One World Government, already partly set up within the United Nations, is even now exercising the following powers granted to the Federal government alone by the Constitution:

1. The sole right of Congress to declare war and prosecute it to a speedy and successful conclusion.
2. The sole right of Congress to establish Post Offices. The United Nations now has its own Post Office, free from the supervision of the Federal government.

3. The sole right of Congress to levy taxes upon all American citizens. All employees of the United Nations are free from Federal taxation.

4. The sole right of Congress to coin money and regulate the value thereof. This right was abrogated to the Chief Executive in 1933, by a Congress who apparently never knew they were granting to him that which had been delegated to them alone, as a sacred trust, by the American people. It was nullified a second time by the Bretton Woods Monetary Agreements, without which the concept of the United Nations could never have been brought to birth.

5. The sole right of Congress to supervise immigration. The United Nations may now admit and is admitting whomsoever it pleases; and there is nothing we can do about it.

6. The right of Congress to levy duty on imports. All goods and material imported by the U.N. or its employees come in duty free.

7. The right of the Chief Executive with his Cabinet, by and with the consent of Congress, to direct and regulate foreign affairs. This right has been more or less completely usurped by the State Department, which now acts conjointly with the United Nations, of which it has become an integral part, in the determination and direction of our foreign policies.

8. The right of our soldiers, to serve in wars solely declared by the Congress, and only under our own banner, the Stars and Stripes, to be buried beneath its sacred folds; and to be under the command of none but American officers.

9. The sole right of Congress to levy taxes upon the American people. The United Nations levied a tax of nineteen billions of dollars annually upon the peoples of Canada, the United States, Australia, New Zealand, and the nations of Western Europe this year, our share of which was the eight and one-half billions of dollars appropriated by Congress in October of this year.

10. The right of the United States to remain Master in its own House. The Defense Production Administration is given the first allotment of our products, which is as it should be. Foreign allocations of these goods receive the second preference, and these are determined by our State Department, again acting conjointly with the United Nations. Our national economy receives the third share, if any. This is the real causes of our tremendous shortages of steel, copper, tin, zinc, rubber, and other such materials, while at the same time, Belgium is shipping into this country an abundance of steel from the Ruhr Valley in Germany, and selling it at twice the domestic price, while she is receiving her steel from us as a gratuity.

BAR ASSOCIATION ALARMED

Mr. Frank E. Holman, Past President of the American Bar Association, with other members of his committee, have been warning the United States Senate, for the past three years, against granting any more treaty rights to the conventions of the United Nations; and so far, their advice has been followed; but I am at this moment in possession of nine volumes of such conventions already passed by the United Nations; and which, if granted treaty rights, will completely destroy the government of this United States, as we have known it.

REDS IN EDUCATION

Communist Party operations makes them as dangerous as a lighted match in a powder magazine."

The committee, McCarran said, does not purpose to dictate to state or college authorities how they shall run their schools or who they shall hire.

"My own legislative record," he pointed out, "will show that I have strongly and consistently opposed any attempt on the part of the federal government to interfere in state or local affairs. But the committee has a mandate from the congress to expose Communists and other subversives wherever they may appear and we shall continue to carry out those instructions.

"It is obvious from our hearings that nests of Communists exist not only in the secondary schools but in many colleges. We cannot, nor do we desire to dictate the thinking of any person but we can show what course that thinking takes and we must warn against the leadership of subversives."

Senator McCarran referred to the testimony of Dr. Bella V. Dodd of New York City, a former Communist officer who was, for several years, the legislative representative of the Teachers Union. She testified: "...if you have one Communist on a campus, or one Communist in an organization, that person is dedicated to building a unit and a unit consists of a minimum of three people.

"...A Communist tries to take the party line into his various organizations, whatever clubs he belongs to, whatever organizations he belongs to and tries to find others who are sympathetic with him. If he finds that some people are being abused, discriminated against, some people are unhappy, he fastens himself on them and pretty soon has them functioning with him."

The Nevada Senator pointed out also Dr. Dodd's testimony that no Communist is ever satisfied with a position of inferiority—that he always seeks a strategic position.

Mrs. Dodd and other witnesses testified, he said, that the Communists set great value on teacher members because of the many ways they can be useful to the party. Some of the activities to which they were assigned, the subcommittee was told, were in writing for college and outside publications, as speakers at party-sponsored meetings, as collectors of funds, as organizers, as workers in party headquarters, as distributors of handbills and Communist literature and for their influence on students, on parent-teacher organizations, professional cultural organizations and conventions.

The committee heard testimony from 35 present or former teachers, including 14 college faculty members. Out of this number, only three said they had never been members of the Communist party. Thirty refused to say if they are or have been members. Two others said they are not now Communists. Some were officials and most were members of the Teachers Union, which was ousted by the American Federation of Teachers and by the CIO for its Communist leanings. A published report of a Communist meeting quoted one of its members as declaring that there were so many party members in the union that it had been necessary to assign many of them to other organizations to carry on party work.

"I feel sure," Senator McCarran said, "that no public official and no college or university would countenance training in subversive activities as a legitimate educational activity or would use school funds to finance the work of the Communist party. Yet the evidence before our subcommittee indicates that this is being done indirectly.

"Certainly there are means available to wipe out this blot on our educational system."
